

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

The Oregonian's Telephones. The Oregonian's telephones are as follows: Main office, 907; editorial, 146; composing, 114; engine room, 126.

AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT. THE BAKER THEATER (corner Third and Yamhill streets)—Mr. Ralph Stuart and Company, in Augustus Thomas' magnificent farce, "In Mizoura," only three days in the city open tonight.

THE OREGONIAN'S HANDBOOK.

The Oregonian's Handbook tells all about Portland, the entire Columbia River valley and the 1005 World's Fair commemoratives of the Lewis and Clark expedition to Oregon. The book contains over 150 handsome illustrations, and it is printed on 70-cent paper.

SOME LOGS TOO BIG.—Persons owning timberland on which the trees are five feet in diameter might as well harvest the crop at once, for they will make nothing by waiting 50 or 100 years until the trees have grown to measure 6 feet or 7 feet in diameter.

THE MAYOR'S VISIT.—The Mayor, who has been in the city for 24 years, was next applied to for information on the subject. He said on Saturday the water on his gauge was 8 feet 6 inches above zero, and yesterday it was 10 feet 4 inches, a rise of 10 inches in two days.

NO MOVE BY MAYOR MARSH.—It is now some nine months since the Union Market Company commenced negotiations for a ten years' lease of the Market block with the idea of removing the old exposition building and erecting a market building there.

STAY FIRE IN CUSTOM HOUSE.—Collector Curtis Patterson will have the fire started up in the furnace in the new Custom House today, in order to dry out the rooms.

NOT A FEW HOURS, A WHOLE DAY.—The time you save in time in a trip to Chicago and the East by traveling on the "Chicago Portland Special" leaves Portland every day at 9 A. M. Ticket office, Third and Washington.

Use Allen's Foot-Powder.—Your feet feel swollen, itchy and hot, and get itchy easily. It cures the feet, and makes walking easy. It cures itching, burning feet, ingrowing nails, blisters and callous spots.

IF BABY IS CUTTING TEETH.—Be sure, and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It cures the child, and keeps the gums always in pain, cures wind colic and diarrhoea.

NEW INSTRUMENTAL MUSIC.—25c each or 5 for $1.00. Queen of the Camp Waltes, Heintzman, Lallah Vale Brilliant, Scherzer, Sammy Simpkins, March, Billings, Fritz on Parade March, Battlemair, He-le He-le Medley Waltz, Rosey, Little Boy in Blue, March and Two-step, Morse.

NEGLIGENT TO GET PERMITS.—The City Engineer's Department finds that a number of persons are neglecting to take out permits for the erection of buildings which they are constructing or more properly, permits to use the street in front of such structures for depositing building material on.

THE NOTED TENOR SOLOIST.—Professor Theodore S. Reinstad, will appear at the Swedish Mission Church, corner Seventh and Gisan streets, tonight, in a Song Recital.

THE OREGONIAN'S HANDBOOK.—The Oregonian's Handbook tells all about Portland, the entire Columbia River valley and the 1005 World's Fair commemoratives of the Lewis and Clark expedition to Oregon.

BEAUTIFUL EARLY ROSES.—The finest display of roses seen so far in any garden about town is on an "Empress of China" climber on the north side of Wm. H. Barnhart's residence, Third and Sherman streets.

CLEARING AWAY DEBRIS.—The work of clearing away the ruins of the building on Taylor street between Second and Third streets, which has long been a ruin, and which was partially destroyed by fire some weeks ago, was commenced yesterday.

VISITING NURSES' ASSOCIATION.—The Visiting Nurses' Association held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the residence of Miss Felling.

ADMISSION WILL BE FREE.—There will be no charge for admission to the Marquam Grand tomorrow night. The Lewis and Clark Civic Improvement Association has provided a splendid programme, consisting of good singing and an exhibition of stereopticon views that have been procured at considerable expense for this occasion.

MUSIC AND MIRTH.

The Fredrickburg Music Hall presents an exceptionally fine programme to their patrons this week. The managers of this popular place of amusement engage new talent at enormous expense, and change the bill weekly. Chester, the great hand balancer and equilibrist, who performs seemingly impossible feats, makes his first appearance here this week.
