

"WHERE ROLLS THE OREGON?"

HOW OREGON DAY WAS OBSERVED AT THE CHARLESTON EXPOSITION.

Oregon day at the South Carolina Exposition and Industrial Exposition... The audience that gathered in the Exposition Auditorium represented all parts of the United States...

The guest discusses public questions with the family and at the hearthstone of his host. They look into each other's thoughts, sympathize with each other's feelings, learn to examine great questions...

The programme for Oregon Day, April 26, at the Charleston Exposition, began with the playing of the "Oregon Volunteer March" by J. H. Boone...

Like the South the West is suffering much because of its misunderstanding of the people of the South and East... It is not the man who is satisfied with his lot and its surroundings...

REPRESENTATIVE TONGUE'S TALK.

Mutual Acquaintance is Needful and Full of Promise.

"The Hon. H. H. Tongue, a member of Congress from Oregon, was introduced and spoke as follows: 'The time is past when it is necessary to adduce arguments to prove the beneficial effects of an Exposition like this to the business of the country...'

Like the South the West is suffering much because of its misunderstanding of the people of the South and East... It is not the man who is satisfied with his lot and its surroundings...

Enough to supply all the necessities of life and many of its luxuries, could pass their days in ease and leisure, pursuing only their own pleasure, free from toil and great, if they were only contented...'

The United States of native parents nearly 6 per cent are illiterate, among the voting population born in the State of Oregon foreign parents a little less than 1 per cent only is illiterate...'

With school houses and churches, prosperous cities and towns and villages, and more precious than all, peaceful and happy homes...'

rumbling of the electric light plant; it bears the song of the birds that follow civilization into the wilderness; it hears the laughter of the children from thousands of happy homes skirting its banks...'

Lewis and Clark Exposition. Albert Tostler Serves Out Several Chunks of Information. The Hon. Albert Tostler made an address upon the subject of the Lewis and Clark Exposition in 1902...'

Eastern trade is increasing by leaps and bounds. The electrical display at the Buffalo fair was considered the grandest the world has ever seen...'

WILL BE OPENED TO SETTLEMENT JULY 17.

Colonel Douglas, special commissioner, next spoke, his subject being, 'South Carolina and Oregon.' Colonel Doucett said: 'When it was finally decided to hold an exposition in the quaint and historic City of Charleston, and I received my commission from its management as special commissioner for the State of Oregon...'

South Carolina and Oregon. Oregon's Commissioner Puts in Some Good Words. Colonel Douglas, special commissioner, next spoke, his subject being, 'South Carolina and Oregon.'...'

WALTER N. HALDEMAN. Death of President of Louisville Courier-Journal Company. Louisville, Ky., May 13.—Walter N. Halde man, president of the Louisville Courier-Journal Company, and one of the oldest active newspaper men in the country...'

LANDS EMBRACED WITHIN FORT HALL RESERVATION, IDAHO.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—The General Land Office has decided to open the bulk of the Fort Hall Indian reservation, Idaho, under the old 'rush' system on July 17...'

enough to supply all the necessities of life and many of its luxuries, could pass their days in ease and leisure, pursuing only their own pleasure, free from toil and great, if they were only contented...'

Steel Trust's Profits. NEW YORK, May 13.—Checks aggregating $100,000,000 were sent out by J. Pierpont Morgan & Co., in payment of the second distribution of profits resulting from the formation of the United States Steel Corporation...'

A NEW DEPARTURE. For the Mystic Shrine convention, San Francisco, June 19-24, the Oregon Railroad will round-trip tickets, going via steamer, returning via route, at a rate of 25c and 50c...'

enough to supply all the necessities of life and many of its luxuries, could pass their days in ease and leisure, pursuing only their own pleasure, free from toil and great, if they were only contented...'

enough to supply all the necessities of life and many of its luxuries, could pass their days in ease and leisure, pursuing only their own pleasure, free from toil and great, if they were only contented...'

enough to supply all the necessities of life and many of its luxuries, could pass their days in ease and leisure, pursuing only their own pleasure, free from toil and great, if they were only contented...'

enough to supply all the necessities of life and many of its luxuries, could pass their days in ease and leisure, pursuing only their own pleasure, free from toil and great, if they were only contented...'

enough to supply all the necessities of life and many of its luxuries, could pass their days in ease and leisure, pursuing only their own pleasure, free from toil and great, if they were only contented...'

MOTHER'S FRIEND advertisement. And many other painful and serious ailments from which most mothers suffer, can be avoided by the use of 'Mother's Friend'... USE THE MEANS AND HEAVEN WILL GIVE YOU THE BLESSING.