MR. HARRIMAN HERE

President of Southern Pacific Comes to Portland.

INSPECTED YAQUINA BAY ROAD

Trip to Astoria Is Planned, Perhaps for Today-President Melien, of Northern Pacific. Also Here.

Edward H. Harriman, president of the Southern Pacific Company, arrived in Portland at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Portland at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, in a special train of six cars drawn by two locomotives. Fifteen minutes earlier, President Charles S. Mellen, of the Northern Pacific, had pulled into the Union Depot in a special train of three cars, and he and President Mohler, of the O. R. & N., who walked down into the trainshed a few minutes before the cartest of Mr. Harriman's train, were arrival of Mr. Harriman's train, were the first to hoard the car of Mr. Har-riman and give him greeting. They re-mained for some time with Mr. Harri-man, who kopt closely within his car until the crowds collected by the arrival of the 4:30 O. R. & N. train from the East and the departure of the two Southern Pacific local trains had dispersed. And then it was time to pre-pare for the dinner given him at the Arlington Club at 7:30.

lington Club at 7:20.

With Mr. Harriman were Julius Kruttschnitt, fourth vice-president and geheral manager of the Southern Pacific; Walter Trimble, of New York; H. E. Huntington, who was formerly assistant to this uncle, Collis P. Huntington, when he was president of the Southern Pacific, and J. Stanley Brown, Mr. Harrirange acceptancy, who is remembered man's secretary, who is remembered as the husband of President Garfield's daughter Mollie. Mrs. Harriman and two friends were the only ladles in the party, save the three Harriman daughters, the eldest of whom is a young woman of about 18. There were also the two boys of the Harriman family. Manager Koehler and Superintendent Fields, of the Southern Pacific's Oregon lines, escorted the special train up from a point near the California boundary. sident A. B. Hammond, of the Corresident A. B. Hammond, of the Corvallis & Eastern and the Astoria & Columbia River, joined the party at Albany yesterday morning and came to Portland on the special train.

The Harriman train come through from Albany, a distance of 80 miles, in two hours and 35 minutes, including stops for water at Salem, for orders at Oregon City, and to meet the Albany local in East Portland. It was drawn by engines 1237 and 1280, and included an Overland. gines 123; and 1399, and included an Overland Limited baggage car, official, car Guadalupe, Overland Limited dining-car, Pullman parior car Texas, Chicago & Alton official car 500, and the Union Pacific car Arden, which is named after Mr. Harriman's home viliage near New York City. These are all heavy cars and they made a train that required a good deal of power to handle. The train was left in the depot yard over night. President Mellen's train was pulled in from the opposite direction, so that the private cars of the two railroad presidents were side by side and only a few feet apart.

With Mr. Mellen were C. C. Clark, of New York, General' Manager Thomas Cooper and Superintendent Kline, of the Pacific division of the Northern Pacific. Mr. Harriman's trip through Oregon was devoid of significant incidents. The train arrived at Albany about 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and half an hour later it started for Yaquina Bay over the Cor-vallis & Eastern. At Corvallis it was concluded to drop four of the heavy coaches and only the men of the party completed the trip to Yaquina. The terminus of the road was reached in time and Mexican ports.

La Patria, a Liberal paper, praises the lateral paper, praise between Yaquina and Newport. Then the return journey was taken up im-mediately and the entire train reached Albany again at 1:30 yesterday morning. About 8 o'clock the same two cars that had made the trip to Yaquina were taken out to the eastern terminus of the Cor-vallis & Eastern in the Cascade Mountains. President Hammond arrived from California in time to join in this part of the excursion over his road. Upon the return to Albany the train was started on its way to Portland a little before 2.30 P. M.

Mr. Harriman's Plans. It is understood that Mr. Harriman will remain several days in Portland, though no definite statement of his intentions has been authorized. He is expected to take a steamer excursion to Astoria, per-haps today, having his train run down over the Astoria & Columbia River tracks so that the party may return

Mr. Harriman is not only president of the Southern Pacific, but also of the Oregon Short Line, and he is chairman of the board of the O. R. & N. Co. and chairman of the executive commit-tee of the Union Pacific. He is also director of the Northern Pacific, the Burlington, the Chicago & Alton, the Northern Securities Company and several other companies that figure prominently in transportation affairs. But he shrinks from publicity and seldom, of his own volition, gets into the newspapers.

He passed over the western part yesterday afternoon, and to the big timber belt at the east end this forenoon. Members of the party were driven over Albany and were much pleased with the appearance and pros-pects of the city. The people of this city take pride in the fact that Albany was the only city in Western Oregwas the only city in Western Oregon visited between California and Portland. At this city the party was joined by President Hammond, of the Astoria & Columbia River road.

Would Disrupt Federation.

CHICAGO, May 19.—A movement to dis-rupt the American Federation of Labor begun, by the Chicago Federation has not been countenanced by the local body, and compromise has been advised. The attack on the National body came up in a recommendation by the executive committee providing for charters direct from the Chicago body. IN DEMING'S FAVOR.

Military Court That Tried Him Declared to Be Illegal.

WASHINGTON, May 19,-In an opinion elivered by Justice Peckham today, the United States Supreme Court decided the case of Captain Peter C. Deming in that officer's favor. The case involved the right of a courtmartial composed en-tirely of officers of the regular Army to pass upon a case involving the rights of a volunteer officer. The effect of the opinion is that such a trial is lilegal. Justice Peckham reviewed briefly the circumstances of the case, saying that Deming had pleaded guilty to the charge of embezziement and to conduct unbe-coming an officer during his trial, and that the court-martial had been ordered by the Major General in command; that he had been found guilty and sentenced to dismissal from the Army and to im-prisonment. He then told how Deming had been imprisoned at Fort Leavenworth and had sued out a writ of ha-beas compus to the United States District Court of Kansas on the ground that the members of the court were the repre-senuatives of "other forces," contrary to heard a crackling noise in the basement as if fire was burning. Mr. Roberts went down to ascertain the cause, divined that it was from the electric current and turned the switch-knob. In a flash as he touched the knob he was knocked down by the current. He rose in a dazed condition, and his head came in contact with the wire. As he did not come back, Mrs. Roberts went into the basement and found him senseless. However, he soon revived. It was ascertained that the outside wires were crossed somewhere, and that the outside wires from which the house is illuminated. His fingers were severely burned, but otherwise he experienced no bad effects. Had he not gone into the basement at the time, the house would have been set on fire by the current in a short time.
