Noise-But Republicans Have the Votes.

Scores of Republicans have called at Espuencian beauquarters during the last new days to tell the state enairman that that though they have been taking for Chamberlain and incended to vote for him they have changed their minds and will vote the Republican ticket straight. The Feason most generally given is that Chamremained a Democrat, the Democrats pointed with pride to his record. As soon as he necame a Republican they accused him of all manner of dishonesty, without the slightest evidence to support their representations. Now that prominent residents of Pendleton have conclusively distinct the statements and a prairie. proved all the statements made against Mr. Furnish, the reaction has set in and the Democratic candidate is losing votes,

The people admire a clean campaign, at the outset, Mr. Furnish insisted that no aliusion must be made to Chamberlain's record in private life. He would permit no abuse of Mr. Chamberlain, but permit no access that the fight must be made upon principle. Thinking men admire him for the stand he has taken and are of the opinion that a man who makes so clean a political fight cannot be a bad man. They believe that a man who maintains his dignity in the excitement of a warm political fight will be a credit to the state in the Governor's office. They think that a campaign of abuse and mis-representation should not be encouraged by the election of the candidate in whose paign, with all the shouting on their side, while the quiet, conservative tax-payers are waiting for a chance to vote for the condidate whose qualification is business ability and not loquacity. Judged by the noise of his campaign, it would have been executed that Bryan would have been expected that Bryan would be elected by an overwhelming majority. But the Republican party has always had the backing of the men who go quietly about their everyday business, form their opinions without shouting over the achievement, and never fail to vote for the party of progress and prosperity.

Careful polis which have been made in Portland show that the county will give Furnish a safe majority. The poll was not of the people who are shouting on each side, but of the people who have registered in order to be entitled to vote.

one but themselves to biame. Moreover, it permits the people to initiate measures, a refusered in order to be entitled to you. The poll shows that Furnish will run behind his ticket, but that he will still have a good majority.

Returns from other counties leave no reason to doubt that Furnish will carry the state outside of Portland. He will run behind heavily in three or four counties, where local fights have affected him, but the losses in these cases will not nearly wipe out the Republican majority. In order to win, Chamberlain must carry nearly every county in the state, for in no case can he carry any county by a large majority. A number of counties are admitted to be asfely Republican by the usual majorities, and these majorities cannot be overcome in other counties are caused. Plea for Initiative and Referendum Amendment by League Workers.

The Direct Legislation League of Oregon has issued circulars calling attention to the voters of the importance of mark-ing their ballots for the initiative and referendem amendment. Many of the voters in elections leave unmarked the spaces devoted to the constitutional amendments, which consequently fall by not receiving a majority of the electors. The following direction to voters is issued by the league: "The proposed amendment to the constitution is at the bottom of the ballot. J. N. Tesl—I favor the adoption of the proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Oregon, popularly known as the initiative and referendum amendment, on many grounds and for many reasons. The fact that this power is reserved in the people will unquestionably have a decided tendency to discourage vicious legislation, for if an act is passed and the people are dissatisfied, by petition they can require its reference to them before it becomes effective, and if they then permit it to go into effect, they can have no one but themselves to biame. Moreover, it permits the people to initiate measures, a reform which is an absolute necessity, as all who are familiar with Legislative action are aware. It will prevent extravagance, encourage good government, promote home rule, and, above all, will bring home to the people a wars of personal responsibility, the very cornerstone of good government.

PORTLAND, Or., May 30.—Having just returned to the city my attention has been called to a statement in a pam-phlet issued by the "guardian of the one T. considered in municipal affairs, but now has put forth a campaign watchword the Democrats themselves tell you that support of the city ticket "will greatly contribute to the success of the Demo-cratic state ticket." If that be true, does it not also follow in logical consequence that support of the state ticket "will greatly contribute to the success of the National ticket"?

If the support of a city ticket will contribute to the success of a state ticket, will not the support of a state ticket contribute to the success of a National ticket? The Democratic con tee has given the lie to the whole fusion argument. The position has been that Republicans can vote the fusion city ticket without injuring the state and National Republican tickets. They have used this subterfuge to get Republicans to help their cause along. They have said that National issues are in no way involved, and now they put up an argument which expressly proves that a vote for the fusion ticket will help the Democracy in its fight for supremacy. Democrats have been eaying that party is not a consideration in the city election, and now, just on the eve of the election, they quietly issue a cir-cular which informs Democrats that "PARTY LOYALTY" DEMANDS support of the fusion ticket. Democrats do not believe party loyalty demands that Republicans stand by their party ticket. Is not food for the goose also food for the gander?

Since the Democrats have thus inadvertently revealed the sly game that is back of all this fusion movement, may we not be pardoned if we repeat again. what the Democrats have now admitted, that party loyalty demands that every Republican vote his party ticket? A vote for the Republican city ticket will greatly contribute to the success of the state ticket, and the success of the state ticket will aid the success of the National ticket," and all those principles and policies of the Republican The Democrats are pretty much enthe success of our state ticket." Correction That Doesn't Correct. PORTLAND, May 30 - (To the Editor.) A few days ago it was stated in your pa-per that all of the property owned by Mr Frank Hacheney was acquired after he became an office-holder. Mr. Hacheney is a friend and client of mine, and I do not like to see published such a misstate-ment of the facts. He was better off and owned more valuable real estate when he was first elected than he does at the present time, and had an income equal, if not greater, than his official salary. As he is not a candidate for any office, I think it is due him that you make a correction and publish this note. An examination of Mr. Hacheney's affairs and the records of the county will show that you were in error about Mr. Hacheney's financial af-

GEORGE W. HAZEN.

Mr. Hazen misstates what The Oregonian said, and then answers his own mis statement. It is an ordinary case of "mental looseness." The Oregonian did not say that all the property owned by Mr. Hacheney, or any of it, was acquired after he became an office-holder. It said that he had made no money for many years, except what he got out of office. Whether he has as much property now as he had before he held office The Oregonian doesn't pretend to know. It knows, however, that he was an officeholder during many years, and had the ealary, and that, through the way the city funds were placed by him, a large sum was lost to the city that never was recovered. The whole amount of the loss Was $18,476 40.

Oregon has so grown that even a portion of it is so large that it is now impossible for individual voters to know personally every candidate for state and district offices. The writer is unacquainted with Mr. Furnish, but, having seen the man and read what reputable citizens like Judge Fee say of him, besides his praiseworthy act of crossing partisan lines to support the best money standard, when I was myself somewhat bewildered (having been a Democrat when that party was the metallic money party). Were I in Portland, having a voter's right, I should have been husy asking some trusted friend as to the fitness of such candidates for the numerous offices whom I do not personally know. I am well acquainted with some of them, and if I could influence a thousand voters to support George H. Williams for Mayor I would be most happy to do so. I have known him since his arrival in Oregon and would fully trust him in any question of public interests. Also I have known J. N. Williamson from his early boyhood till now, and of very many friends all over Oregon 1 know of no one I would sooner trust with this state's interests as a Representative in Congress at the pres-

SHALL WE HAVE FAIR PLAY?

At a meeting of the Non-Partisan Advisory Association, held on Thursday evening, it was decided to indorse James G. Godfrey for State Printer. The vote stood 9 to 12. The chairman arbitrarily decided that three of the members present were not entitled to vote; otherwise the result would have been 12 to 12. On Sunday, May 25, it was the unanimous sentiment of the board that, inasmuch as both candidates for this office were affiliated with organized labor, it would be unwise to indorse either candidate. The friends of Mr. Godfrey, who, by the way, are identified with the Citizens movement, were not satisfied with this fair decision, and took steps to undo the action taken at the meeting held on May 35, They have nothing to be proud of, and their actions will be undoubterly condemned on Monday, June 2, for the workingman is a lover of fair play and Mr. Whitney did not get a "square deal," consequently be ought to receive a much larger vote than he otherwise would, if this action had not been taken. Mr. Beckett, president of the Salem Typographical Union, sent a dispatch urging the board to take no action on this matter, as Mr. Whitney was looked upon as a friend of labor by the union men of Salem, Mr. George H. Howell, president of Multnomah Typographical Union, was strongly opposed to the indorsement of Mr. Godfrey. It seems that Mr. Godfrey, who claims to be a Democrat, opposed the election of Captain John O'Brien, the regular nominee of the Democratic party, and at that time president of Multnomah Typographical Union, No. 58, eight years ago. Furthermore, when Frank Baker ran for the office of State Printer, Mr. Godfrey pincarded the County of Marion, advising the voters of that county not to vote for Mr. Baker. Mr. Baker was the unanimous choice of Multnomah Typographical Union, No. 58, Notwithstanding the efforts put forth by Mr. Godfrey, Mr. Baker was elected. Will union men support Mr. Godfrey? He has at all times opposed the election of union men to the office of State Printer. The following letter explains Mr. Whitney's attitude: ALBANT, Or., May 25, 1902.-Mr. George Howell, Portland, President Multnomah Typographical Union.-My Dear Sir: I have heard that a story is being circulated to the effect that at one time I opposed the organization of a type graphical union in Albany, and have been unfriendly to union printers. I wish to assure you that this is not true. I have been engaged in the printing bustness in Albany since 1884. At the first opportunity, recently, I joined the Al-

than any other in the city and has never been anything but friendly to union It is needless to assure you further that if elected State Printer that office will be conducted as a union office from top to bottom. I write this to you to correct any wrong impression that might be made by
