Clever Pielding and Timely Hitting Win a Great Game Before 6000 Spectators.

NORTHWEST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Games. Portland, 5; Tacoma, 0. Relena, 10; Butte, 7. Standing of the Cubs.

Pive to nothing was the score of the becommunity ball game. The Taco-na Tigers were shut out, and Portland riumphed before a crowd of 6000 cheertriumphed before a crowd of 6000 clearing spectators. It was a great game.
The visitors were outclassed, but one of their runners landing at second bag, and only a few at first. Engle's pitching was a revelation to the visitors, who tried in vain to locate the curving sphere.
Backed up by an almost perfect infield, and Jake Delse's herculean efforts at short the nervy pitcher beid his opponents down to two safe hits. Drinkdown to two safe hits. Drink-pitched for Tacoma and was ed for two doubles and four singles. Portiand's runs were all made from er-rors, but the home team outbatted their opponents and outpointed them in general pley. McCarthy, the Tiger shortstop, is one of the cleverest players in the league, and Pielder Murdock puts up a great game, Tacoma has other good ones, too, and unbiased experts predict great things from Andrews and his colleagues.

The largest crowd of the season say the game yesterday, and it was universally pronounced one of the best on record. The only incident that marred the pleasure of the sport was the bolsterous conduct of one Johnson, who played third base for the City of Destiny, John-son addressed some uncalled-for remarks to the bleachers yesterday, for which he was badly hooted. Portland is known all over the league as a good baseball town, one where the visiting team always gets square deal and an even share of ap-lause. In this respect, the game of yesterday was typical, the visitors being received with enthusiastic applause when their side deserved it. Johnson's conduct, however, did not receive the ap-proval of the spectators, who have no sympathy for such nonsense.

Neither side scored in the first inning, at when the second came, Weed landed but when the second came, Weed landed hard and reached first, but was caught out in going to second while Mahaffer was landing safe at first. Vigneux fol-owed Mahaffey with a single, but J. Anderson struck out, and Engle trotted up to try his bat. The spectators were yelfng like fiends, and their shouts must have given George an inspiration, for he sent a safe one to Johnson, who made a wild throw to first, allowing Vigneux and Mahaffey to run in. Van Buren went out at first and the side retired to wait for Portland's turn to shine came again in the fourth, when a two-bagger by J. Anderson brought in the same men who had scored before. Then came a long wait until the eighth, when a neat twobagger by Vigneux scored Fred Weed from second, leaving the score 5 to 0. as the Tigers did throughout the game, only a few of their runners reached first, Portland's infield being inrable. ATHLETIC MEET ON BERKELEY OVAL, NEW YORK.

Harvard and Yale Outrank All Others in Number of Contestants. -Fast Time in Sprints.

NEW YORK, May 30.—The showing made by the athletic collegians in the preliminary heats and trials in the track and fleid contests which took place at Berkeley Oval today gives promise that some unusually clever performances will be seen when the semi-finals and finals of the intercollegiate championships are decided tomorrow. As was expected, Harvard and Yale outranked all the other colleges in the number of men who qualileges in the number of men who quali-fied from each. Harvard has 19 and Yale 18 out of the list of eligibles for the finals tomorrow, and the next in point of num-bers is Princeton with & California with 7. Pennsylvania 5. Cornell 4. Amherst 3. Columbia, Georgetown and Syracuse 2 each, and Rutgers and Williams 1 each. Harvard is the favorite in what little bet-ting has been done so far, but if the protest made by Tale against Schick, the Harvard sprinter, who won his trials in the sprints today rather easily, should be suntained. Yale will gain a decided advan-tage, as Schick is looked upon as a win-

Arthur Duffy, of Georgetown, and Schick won their individual heats in the 100-yard dash in even time. If the track is in good probably break the existing record of 9:59 4-5. In the high and low hurdle events Willis of Harvard and Clapp of Yale seem to be on even terms, and none of those who contested in the 220-yard dash today can hope to defeat Schick in the final for hat event. Rust of Harvard should have no difficulty in winning the quarter-mile run, and Kane of Yale seems to have the half-mile honors at his disposal. Some disappointment was felt at the showing made by A. D. Plaw, of California, in the weight events. He failed to qualify in the shot-put, his best effort being 40 feet 3 inches. DeWitt of Princeton tied for fourth place in the list of those who qualified, with a put of 6 feet 9 inches. De-Witt distinguished himself in the 16-pound hammer-throw, breaking all previous intercollegiate records, as he threw the missile 184 feet 10 inches. Plaw was his nearest opponent, with 184 feet 7 inches. The defeat of the California, while not generally unexpected, surprised a good many, as no one thought that DeWitt would beat him by a margin of over 20

GOLF AT TUXEDO.

Travis Defeats Douglas, Last Year's

Champion. NEW YORK, May 30.-The semifinal tound of the Metropolitan golf tournament at Tuxedo today resulted in the defeat of last year's winner and developing very fast play. Incidentally a new record, 72 for the course, was established. The score follows:

Extra holes-Marcellus, 5; Thompson, 6. W. J. Travis, the National amateur champion, and Findlay Douglas, winner of last year's Metropolitan tournament; Wirt L. Thompson, of Baltsurol, and F. A. Marcellus, the champion of the Youn-takah Golf Club, were paired when play started today. Travis started at a pace that has seldom been equaled in this country, and playing with machine-like steadiness finished the first nine boles in one under the par figure. The match was finished at the 13th hole, with Traxis six up and five to play. The bye h finished, but in playing the 14th Travis got into a brook, taking seven for the hole and lost his chance of finishing under 70. As it was, his eard was 72, or one over

On the outplay Travis won the first hole, but lost the next one to Douglas, who scored a splendid three. Travis won the next, halved the fourth and won the fifth, sixth and seventh. He lost the eighth, but won the ninth, standing four up at the turn. He was at the 10th green in two, and holed out a 10-yard put. This performance he repeated at the 11th green, eliciting much applause from a much-interested gathering. The 12th hole was halved in five, making the score dormie six in Travis' favor. The next hole was also halved, and gave him the match. son match was coming on slowly, and without great advantage to either player, Marcellus was one up at the turn, but Thompson squared the score by taking the lith hole. He lost the 12th and 13th, and was two down. He regained himself, however, and was one up at the 18th hole. He lost the next, making all square again, and the 18th, which was haived in five, failed to finish the match. The players went on to the 19th hole, Marcellus win-

Pennsylvania was slow in getting into her swing, but when she finally settled down the red and blue shell moved swiftly, and at the quarter-mile mark forged to the front. From there to the finish the Quakers were never headed. Cornell was steadily falling behind. Half way down the course, in an effort to catch Columbia, she got into rough water and was out of the contest.

The unproce-dented rapid disposal of the crack Antipodean cricketers caused a great sensa-tion. Two wickets fell for 10 runs; four were down for 22 runs, six for 25 runs, and the Australians were all out in their first innings for a total of 36 runs. The Australians, in their second innings, had scored eight runs for no wickets down when play was stopped, owing to bad light.

CONTRACTED DISORDERS

CONTRACTED DISORDERS

To but partially cure contracted disease is almost as dangerous as to allow it to go untreated. Unless every particle of infection and inflammation is removed, the probehility exists that the disease will gradually work its way into the general system. Still greater is the danger of the Prostate Gland becoming chronically inflamed, which always brings partial or complete loss of power. Forhaps 25 per cent of the cases of so-called "weakness" are a direct result of some improperty treated contracted disease. During the past five years we have treated over 6500 cases of contracted disease. During the past five years we have treated over 6500 cases of contracted disease.
