BLOW TO CUBAN BILL Investigation Makes Reciprocity More Uncertain.

GENERAL WOOD IS CRITICISED

Exception Taken to His Using Cubau Funds for Campaign Purposes-Regard Havemeyer's Contributions as Move of Trust.

Beet-sugar men may join the Demo crais in a demand for further investigation into the affairs of Cubs, with a view to delaying the reciprocity measure, and, if possible, kill it by postponement. Friends of the measure knowledge the revelations of Thurber at the investigation are unfortunate, but are still confident the bill will pass.

WASHINGTON, June 11 .- The developments in the Cuban investigation today may result in defeating the reciprocity measure at this session. At all events, it will delay any agreement for some time to come. About the Capitol, on both eides of the Senate, the revelations of Thurber were considered decidedly sensational, especially by the beet-sugar Republicans and Democrats, who are making the most of them as reasons why no reciprocity agreement should be made with Cuba, especially if sentiment has although they know that powerful inbeen worked up in this country by the use of the insular funds of Cuba, under the direction of General Wood, and by contributions from Havemeyer. While the use of the funds of Cuba cannot be called filegitimate, at the same time, General Wood is severely criticised for using them. Of course, the claim is made that he was using the money for a legitimate purpose, that it was Cuban money, and if reciprocity was brought about, it would be to the benefit of Cuba. The beetsugar Republicans maintain that their claim that any reciprocity would be for the benefit of the sugar trust is abundantly justified by the fact that Havemeyer has contributed campaign funds. The friends of reciprocity consider that at best the developments were unfortunate, but they do not believe it means a defeat of the proposition. Apparently, there are 15 Republicans who intend to use all methods to defeat the reciprocity plan, and will vote to put on various amendments calculated to carry the reclprocity bill down to defeat, among them being the French reciprocity treaty. The beet-sugar men may possibly join the Democrats in a demand that further investigation be made into the affairs of Cubs, with a view to further delay of the reciprocity bill, and if possible, kill it by

No Hope for Direct Vote for Senators

The nearest that the Senate has ever come to a vote upon the proposition for electing Senators by direct vote of the people was loday, on the motion to discharge the Senate committee from the consideration of the joint resolution for that purpose. The vote was decisive enough to convince everybody that it is useless to undertake to pass the House

the Senate that duty. It could never have received any considerable support in the Senate. It is somewhat surprising that any effort was made to build a Gov ernment cable in the face of the fact that a private corporation is laying a cable. This will be a vast disappointment to many interests which hoped to be benefited by a Government cable. During the debate in the House this afternoon over the Pacific cable bill, the statement was made by Corliss that not a mile of cable has as yet been manufac tured for the Commercial Pacific Cable Company. The company at once sent a message to London, and the following answer was received: "Company has already manufactured

1055 nautical miles of aubmarine cable which we are to lay between San Francisco and Honolulu for the Commercial Pacific Cable Company, and the balance is being made at the rate of 25 miles per day. Our steamer Silverton will sall with said cable on or about the 1st of August."

PANAMA CANAL MEN CONFIDENT. Otherwise They Would Have Not

Agreed on Time for Vote. WASHINGTON, June IL-The agree ment to vote on the Nicaragua Canal bill was brought about today through the efforts of those who favor the Panama proposition. Senator Morgan has been inclined to delay matters, while Hanna was willing to vote Saturday of this week. It is evident that the friends of the Panama route feel that they have a majority in the Senate, or they never would have consented to fixing a day for a vote, but would have tried to kill the bill by dehay. It is doubtful whether any votes will be changed between now and the time of taking a vote, as most Senators have made up their minds what they will do. Probably the time will not be entirely occupied in making speeches, as the situation has been thoroughly covered in what has already been said. Those who still hope for success of the Nicaragua route do not concede that they can be defeated, fluences have been at work against them.

THE SCORE Bob Williams, the crack academic pitch-er, was on the slab for the scarlet and white, pitching a remarkable game throughout. His speedy curves puzzled the Californiass. Emerson, the Alumni pitcher, did clever work, and put no limit of speed into his throws, at times fanning his opponents in rapid succession. Willlams, however, is a better pitcher than Emerson, and for this reason Multnomah won the game yesterday. In the critical ninth, Emerson went up in the air, and was touched for five hits. Williams was backed up by a strong infield, although inexcusable errors ena-bled the visitors to pile up several runs.

Zan played brilliantly on first-base, and his work was the subject of much admira-tion. Doble found the California pitcher for five hits during the game, but marred his splendld record by numerous errors. Late in the game Doble was shifted to left field, and Wickersham brought to third. Stott did good work behind the bat, and the work of Shortstop Fenton mdable. W155

The local land attorneys appeared in opposition to the bill. which has the approval of the Interior Department, and there was some indication that the general centiment of the committee was adverse to the measure. The bill will be disposed of at the next meeting. The principal argument made against it is that it will largely stop the making of lieu selections, as holders of valuable lands in reserves should be given some inducement to relinguish their holdings which are so much desired by the Government.

IRRIGATION FOLK ALARMED.

Fear Cannon's Expenditure Argument May Defeat Their Bill.

WASHINGTON, June 11 .- The action of the House yesterday and today in killing two measures by striking out the enacting clause has given the advocates of irrigation some concern. Both these bills were killed with the assistance of Cannon, chairman of the appropriations committee. Yesterday Cannon used the question of revenue and expenditures as an argument why there should be a halt in expenditures that are authorized at this session of Congress. Of course, his argument regarding the irrigation bill will be met by the statement that the expenditures will come out of the sale of public lands, but it is the intention of the men who are opposed to the irrigation bill to point out that this is only the beginning of immense expenditures in the way of appropriations from the Treasury. There ho doubt that many members of the House have taken alarm at Cannon's position, and they may be deferred from voting for the irrigation bill on that accoupt.

A libera sum was subscribed last year, and guarantee given for the deficiency up i a certain figure, but when the seaso closed many bills remained unpaid an the guarantee was not sufficient to mak good the losses. This state of affairs s discouraged the business men and othe patrons of the game that they decline to come forward this season. The warn weather and one or two amateur gam have awakened the sporting spirit of large number of citizens to such an en tent that another team will be organized for this season. Arrangements an now well under way to secure the se and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the head and the bronchial tubes soon fill up again with mucus.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane or inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system, involving the Stomach, Kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh. S. S. S. expels from the
