FLED FROM ANARCHIST COLONY

Woman Believed Letter Containing Money Sent Her Was Confiscated —Relatives Finally Reach Her by Wire.

TACOMA, June 19.—Mrs. L. E. Levison, formerly of Kansas City, arrived in Tacoma today, accompanied by her 10-year old son, after having spent the night drifting about Puget Sound in an open boat. She said she had just escaped from the free love anarchist colony at Joe's Bay, across Puget Sound, after a year's captivity. According to Mrs. Levison's story she was induced to join the colony by representations that she could make a fortune by investing her money there, and that she would be assured of a comfortable home all her life and an education for her son. She had $250, which was turned into the common fund, and was then forced to earn her own living. She rejected the principles of anarchy which were taught her son. After endeavoring to get her money back, she wrote to her brother, J. G. W. Stinson, of Kansas City, for aid to return home, but receiving no reply, wrote again. She received in reply a telegram that money had been sent more than a month before. She believes the letter was confiscated. Mrs. Levison left for Kansas City this afternoon, her brother having telegraphed transportation.

STATE CHURCH MEETING.

Christian Denomination Reports Excellent Progress in Washington.

WAITSBURG, June 19.—The Washington Christian convention began its annual session today, with an attendance of about 50 delegates from abroad, and 100 from near-by churches. The chief items of interest today were an address by E. C. Sanderson, dean of the divinity school at Eugene, Or., on "Science and the Bible," the annual address by the president of the convention, Rev. B. H. Lingenfelter of Seattle, and reports from the several missionary pastors in the state. David Husband reported for Pullman a membership of 161, having gained 61 in the past nine months. Minor departments of the church work increased by a still greater ratio. Moneys received for missions amounted to $200 10, for Christian literature $103 10, and for improvements $391; from all sources $1165 52. W. W. Pew, of Everett, reported nine additions to that church, and growing work. N. S. McCallum at Ellensburg, A. C. Vail at Seattle, E. Harold at Genessee, Idaho, and J. M. Allen, of Spokane, reported progress in their work. The total showed a gain of about 250 persons in these various missions. Work was also opened at Davenport, and Galen Word located at Ballard as missionary pastor. This report includes only the report of churches aided by the state society, and not the work of other churches in the state. Rev. B. E. Utz, of Spokane, and Rev. O. J. Gist, of Dayton, made addresses in the afternoon, and Rev. M. L. Rose, of Tacoma, preached the evening sermon.

BOYS NEARLY CAUSE FIRE.

Reckless Shooting of Firecrackers to Be Stopped at Aberdeen.

ABERDEEN, Wash., June 19.—The reckless shooting of firecrackers by small boys started four fires yesterday, in the business portion of the city. The incipient blazes were fortunately discovered in time to be extinguished without having to call out the fire department, but had they not been put out when they were the strong wind that was blowing at the time would soon have carried them almost beyond control. The city ordinance forbidding the promiscuous firing of crackers has never been enforced, but yesterday's violation and its almost serious results have caused an order to the police to see that the law is rigidly obeyed in future. There has not been any rain here for some time, and the smouldering ends of fireworks falling among the sawdust and other inflammable material everywhere scattered around town is a constant menace to public safety.

Call for Central Committee Meeting.

E. E. Shields, secretary of the county Republican central committee, of Chehalis County, has issued a call to the members to meet at Montesano, Thursday, July 10, for the purpose of making a call for holding the primaries in the various precincts to elect delegates to the county convention, and to fix a time and place for holding the county convention.

SUIT OF STATE CALLED.

Action to Recover From Bondsmen of State Fair Building Contractor.

SALEM, June 19.—The suit of the State Board of Agriculture vs. F. P. Talkington and J. C. Goodale, bondsmen for R. T. Denham, to recover $1135 21 costs and damages for nonfulfillment of contract by Denham in construction of new buildings at the State Fair grounds, a year ago, was tried before Circuit Judge Burnett this afternoon. The decision of Judge Burnett will not be final, since both sides are determined to carry the case to the Supreme Court.

About a year ago the State Board of Agriculture contracted with Denham for the erection of three buildings and the remodeling of the pavilion, at the State Fair grounds. Denham disappeared about July 9, having completed two of the smaller buildings, work on the pavilion and creamery building having been only partially finished. The State Board then took charge of the work and finished the buildings. The creamery building was completed at a cost of $90 more than the contract price, while the pavilion cost $645 21 in excess of the contract figure. In addition to these amounts in excess of the contract under which Denham had agreed to perform the work, the board asks to be awarded $400 special damages for the delay in the completion of the buildings after the time stipulated in the contract for finishing the work.

As a defense, the sureties on Denham's bond, which was in the sum of $3000, allege that the payment by the board of various sums to Denham before the contract had been fulfilled released them from all liability as bondsmen.

MOVE TO ADVERTISE OREGON.

Baker City Is Figuring on Sending a Special Car East.

BAKER CITY, June 19.—There is a movement on foot in this city to organize a society composed of the various commercial bodies in the state, for the purpose of raising money to send a special car back East, accompanied by a capable lecturer, who, by means of stereopticon views, will be able to illustrate his remarks with choice views of Oregon scenery and industrial pictures showing the workings of some of the principal mines. Colonel Frank Drake, at the request of some prominent people in Portland, discussed the matter informally with President Pallman and Directors Drowley and Parker, of the Chamber of Commerce, last evening. The gentlemen were all greatly interested and expressed a willingness to do all in their power to start the movement and keep it going until the car is secured and started on its way East. It is said the several railroad corporations interested in Oregon will see to it that free transportation is provided for the car and all attendants, provided the various communities interested will provide the means to pay the expenses of the lecturer and assistants.

INDIAN LANDS TO BE SOLD.

Bill Passed by House Applies to Foothill Tracts.

PENDLETON, Or., June 19.—Under Representative Moody's bill which passed the House yesterday, and is likely to be taken up and disposed of by the Senate before adjournment, the lands that will be offered for sale upon the Umatilla Indian reservation, the limits of which begin one mile from Pendleton, lie almost entirely in the foothills, near and beyond Cayuse and Bingham Springs, and in the hills that range along the eastern border of the reservation. The area to be disposed of is 30,000 to 40,000 acres. They are scattered in many localities, and are mostly grazing tracts, with occasional pieces fit for agriculture.

These lands were parts of the area offered for sale in 1891, when the Government sold lands left after the Indians of three tribes—the Umatillas, Walla Wallas and Cayuses—had selected lands in severalty, under the treaty between them and the Government. The Indians took lands in severalty in consideration for their severing tribal relations, and were at the same time, by the several acts passed by Congress, invested with the rights and privileges of citizenship. Their selections were in all instances of lands along the Umatilla River and its tributaries, where were the best opportunities for cultivation. The tribesmen exhibited excellent judgment, and in no case did one of them choose a tract that was not likely to increase in value as the years advanced. These are now worth from $5000 to $12,000 per quarter section, and bring annual rentals of $1 25 to $6 and $8 per acre per Summer fallow season of two years.

The lands that will be offered under the act just passed will not be so valuable. But they are worth something in each case, and are sought at this time for the reason that the demand for lands in Eastern Oregon, and particularly in the vicinity of Pendleton, is such as to have caused the taking up of every available acre of Government land for scores of miles in every direction.

Upon these unsold lands are squatters, who have built houses and barns and made various improvements. They have asked for years to be permitted to purchase them at the figures named as a minimum at the time of the general sale in 1891. When that sale took place, there were tracts that were offered that were not regarded as worth the minimum price set by the department, and were therefore not bid up to that figure.

Sale of these lands will not cause any additions to the population of Umatilla County, inasmuch as all of them are now occupied, or so nearly all as to leave comparatively small areas to be taken at this time. The value of the act will lie mostly in the fact that there will be a final settlement of the question as to whether those persons who have gone on the lands and made homes will be permitted to remain. Title will be definitely determined, and there will be certainty where there has been doubt.

HELENA, Mont., June 19.—In a fine exhibition of the National game, Helena defeated Portland this afternoon by a score of 5 to 3, making it three straight games. The game was characterized by some very fast infield work, Portland having one double play and Helena three, two of them at critical times. The feature of the game was Hannivan's home run. Both Van Buren and Hupp went after the hit, but it had been well placed, and neither of them were able to get up to it. Portland made a pretty relay, and got the ball back to the plate, but Hannivan beat it six feet. There was a large crowd present, despite the inclement weather. Engel held the Senators down to five hits, but they were well placed and productive. Thompson allowed nine hits. Portland, as usual, made a good finish, and it looked for a few moments in the ninth as if they might tie the score or perhaps win out, but Thompson steadied down, and after two runs had been scored Portland went out in one, two, three order. Portland scored in the seventh on Deisel's two-bagger, and Van Buren's single and Anderson's single. In the ninth, Deisel connected for his second double, and scored on Van Buren's single. Van Buren was advanced to third on Anderson's single, and scored on Weed's fly to Hannivan. Deisel attributes the loss of the game to hard luck. Score:

MULTNOMAH NINE AT WORK.

Trip to Puget Sound and Several Games Are in Prospect.

The Multnomah nine is turning out regularly for practice and is getting into fine shape for the coming season. A trip to Puget Sound is scheduled for the near future, and the team on returning will probably enter the Chautauqua League at Gladstone Park. The Berkeley team will soon come through Portland, and a return game will be played, giving the supporters of the scarlet and white an opportunity to wipe out the defeat imposed upon them at the first game. Williams and Stott are hard at work with battery practice, and if the proposed trip materializes, they will show the Washingtonians a few things.

The academic teams in the city have all disbanded with the close of school for the Summer.

ACTIVITY AT ROWING CLUB.

Oarsmen Are Training for Aquatic Events of the Summer.

With the warm weather comes increased activity at the Rowing Club. Several men are being employed mending and painting the shells and pleasure boats, and the owners of many of the canoes are working on their craft, painting, oiling and varnishing, so that the Summer wear may be the better withstood.

Every afternoon a number of members can be seen swimming off the float, and as the hot sun makes the water more comfortable, the number of bathers increases.

Four crews are turning out regularly, and any number of single oarsmen can be seen every day. The regular members of the senior crew are the old club standbys—the Stiles brothers, Ball and Lamberson.

VIGNEUX IS DISGUSTED.

Threatens to Quit the Team and League.

HELENA, Mont., June 19.—As a result of eight straight defeats, Sam Vigneux, manager, captain and catcher of the Portland baseball team, tonight announced himself as disgusted with the entire league. He confirmed to friends that he was about ready to quit, and would perhaps do so within a few days.

Thought Vigneux is one of the fastest catchers in the country, and is generally conceded to be a rather clean ball-player, he has been fined and put out of the game with great regularity recently. He attributes his misfortunes to enmity he believes President Lucas bears to him and the Portland team. Therefore, he is disgusted, and, it is said, has declared he would quit the team and league.

Vigneux was put out of the game for the five days just preceding the Butte series. Wrangling with the umpire in Helena drew a fine for him and for one of his men. Then he protested the game, and the president of the league not only turned down the protest, but doubled the fines as well.

BOXERS ALMOST AT WEIGHT.

Hegarty and De Coursey Train Faithfully in Warm Weather.

Tom Hegarty, of Australia, and Billy De Coursey, of California, who are to box 20 rounds in the ring of the Pastime Club on next Thursday evening, are both training faithfully for the event and are getting in the pink of condition.

Hegarty jumped on the scales yesterday after his work in the gymnasium and weighed just the limit, 128. It will be necessary for him to reduce a little more so as to allow for a gain between his afternoon work and the time for weighing in at the ringside. He is very confident of winning and has already laid several bets on his chances.

De Coursey is doing a great deal of road work, and he says it is better for wind and speed. He boxes several fast rounds with Vaught and Swanson every afternoon and goes through a course of bag-punching, shadow sparring and dumb-bell exercise, which will bring him below weight before the contest. He says he will win in about 10 or 12 rounds, and will then go after young Corbett for the championship of the world. Considerable interest is being taken in the bout throughout the Northwest, and particularly in Seattle, where they have seen De Coursey fight. A large order for seats has been received from the Puget Sound metropolis, and it is said the Seattle men who attend will bring large commissions to bet on the Californian.

IN BEWILDERING PROFUSION

Great Variety of Pianos and Organs.

An opportunity for everybody at Eilers Piano House. Pianos at virtually wholesale prices. Organs for a song. The very best instruments included.

We are doing today the biggest business in our history, and that means the biggest business of any piano house in the United States, simply because we are in a position to sell you a high-grade piano for less money than you must pay elsewhere for an instrument not nearly so good. If we could not do this we would have no call, as we see it, to be in business.

We do not base our claim for your patronage upon any other fact than this—economy and common sense. We claim absolutely that we can sell you a piano for less money than you must pay for it elsewhere, and we are substantiating this claim many, many times every day. If we could not do it we could not afford to publish this statement. If we do do it, and we can prove to your satisfaction that we do, your common sense will tell you that you ought not to purchase a piano, whatever kind you may desire, without seeing
