

GOES TO CONFERENCE

House Non-Concurs in Senate Amendment to Canal Bill.

KAHN'S SPEECH ON PHILIPPINES

Narrative of His Trip to the Islands - Agulnaldo Admitted No Promise of Independence

There is one instance in our National history when the policy of scuttling, after being overwhelmingly repudiated at the polls, was nevertheless adopted by the Democratic Administration. I refer to the "fifty-four forty or fight" campaign of 1845. It is true that when the question of our Oregon boundary came up in the Senate in 1846, a large majority of the senators voted to ratify the treaty by which we relinquished all of that territory which is now known as British Columbia. If we had held our ground at that period, England today would not have a single port on the Pacific ocean side of the continent. The commerce of the Orient, coming by the sea route, would have had to pass through an American port. There probably would be no Alaska boundary dispute to plague us at this time, and I for one do not propose, with my vote at least, to stand by another mistake of a similar character.

WASHINGTON, June 20.—The House met at 11 o'clock today. A bill was passed to recognize the action of the Senate officers and enlisted men of the First Regiment of Ohio Light Artillery. This regiment served three months at the opening of the Civil War, but was never formally mustered into the United States service.

The consideration of the Philippine civil government bill was then resumed, and Jones (Dem., Ill.) moved to postpone indefinitely. He argued that under the provisions of the bill the friar lands, which the Government wished to purchase, would find their way into the hands of corporations. He declared that in his opinion the bill would be better for the Filipino people to live under the present hybrid rule than to have imposed upon them the civil government proposed by the pending measure, which would enable that civil government to dispose of all the valuable franchises in these islands, to strip the forests of their timber, and to sell the agricultural lands to corporations and individuals.

Malvar, the ex-insurgent General, continuing today his evidence before the board which is investigating the charge of cruelty, etc., brought by Major Corollia Gardner, Governor of Tayabas Province, implicated all the native civil officials of Tayabas in assisting and conducting the insurrection. The General said his commissioner visited the federal party in Manila, who did not advise Malvar to surrender. Malvar refused to give the names of the principals who assisted him, on account of the fact that they were liable to be cited before the sedition court. The board sustained the witness. During 1902 Malvar retained reports that the whole Province of Tayabas was well organized under revolutionary forces.

PATERSON, N. J., HAS HAD ENOUGH TO DO WITH ANARCHISTS.

FLOOD IN MARTINIQUE.

RIVER RISES FOUR TIMES IN THREE DAYS. FORT DE FRANCE, Martinique, June 20.—The river which flows by Basson Pointe has risen suddenly four times since Wednesday, and as a result 30 houses have been carried out to sea. The first flood was signaled by the appearance in the valley of the river of a torrent of muddy water 40 meters wide and five high, which advanced with frightful rapidity. During all of yesterday afternoon clouds of smoke issued from the crater at the head of the river Paillette, and the river itself has been rushing downward with such violence that its banks have been carried away. The river now has taken a new course. One of the chasms resulting from the volcanic eruption which rendered access to the head of the river impossible is now filled up with volcanic matter, and it is possible to cross the chasm on the newly thrown up material. Torrential rains are falling in the northern part of the island. Mount Pelee continues to vomit a thick column of cinders, which the wind blows to the north. Last Wednesday several French newspaper reporters who were exploring Le Freuchur were surprised while there by an eruption of Mount Pelee. The atmosphere was charged with electricity to a remarkable degree. Thick clouds of vapor are rising from the craters along the entire northern coast. It is said that the water of several rivers on the island is boiling hot.

NEW YORK, June 20.—The Italian Chamber of Commerce of this city has decided to try to arbitrate the differences between the striking silkworkers of Paterson and their employers. At a secret meeting of that organization, many of the members of which are silk importers, whose business is affected, a committee of four was appointed to visit Paterson and confer with the city officials, the strikers and the millowners, and to offer to act as arbitrators.

Union Hill Factories Closed

UNION HILL, N. J., June 20.—Every silk factory in Union Hill, with one exception, was closed today. The owners have decided to attempt to resume operations for the present owing to yesterday's riotous disturbances.

COAL SUPPLY IS SHORT

Would Be Exhausted in Three Months if a Strike Is Called. INDIANAPOLIS, June 20.—It is estimated by W. B. Wilson, secretary and treasurer of the United Mineworkers of America, that the present supply of bituminous and anthracite coal above ground will be exhausted in less than three months if there should be a general suspension of work in the mines, according to the estimate, if the National convention of mine workers in Indianapolis July 17 should vote for a general suspension of work in support of the anthracite strike, as is now proposed, the vast industrial machinery of the United States would be handicapped for want of fuel, and thousands of factories would have to suspend work. Mr. Wilson has statistics showing that there are 445,000 miners in the country scattered through the various states. The miners of 12 states will be actively involved if there is a suspension of work in Nevada, California, the Dakotas, North Carolina, and two or three other states produce coal known as lignite, but the organization did not take these states into consideration when it issued a call for a National convention. There are now over 200,000 members of the Mineworkers' organization. Mr. Wilson says that nearly every non-union man would go out if a general suspension were ordered. During the anthracite strike two years ago,

Looking Ahead for Relief

NEW YORK, June 20.—The coal strike in the anthracite region is compelling many of the large local dealers to look ahead for relief. Broken anthracite available for use in locomotives and furnaces in the anthracite region is sold for about 50 a ton. If imported from Wales it is said the price will be $3 a ton in New York.

AMERICAN LABOR UNION

Eastern Organizations Deserting Federation for Western Body

DENVER, June 20.—Eight charters have been issued to unions in Massachusetts by the American Labor Union since the recent convention in Denver, and as many more have been asked for by other unions throughout the country, according to a statement given out by President Daniel McDonald. Leaders in the Teamsters' Union and the Shoemakers' Union, of Chicago, have urged that organizers be sent to that city to secure their affiliation with the American Labor Union. Among other communications along this line have been asked for by the Trades Assembly at Dayton, O., stating that the entire town is ready to turn from the American Federation of Labor to the American Labor Union. "I think that the American Labor Union will more than double its membership during the present year."

WHY TACOMA GAINS.

As to that portion of the flour business which actually belongs to Puget Sound, there has been a substantial increase due to a number of big mills competing for the Oriental trade. The plant of the Portland Flouring Mills Company at Theoclytus, on the lower Puget Sound, and with a capacity of 100 barrels per day, it has been running continuously since last July, and will not catch up with orders before July 1 of this year. Next in importance is the 120-barrel mill of the Centennial Mill Company and a 1000-barrel mill at Everett. All three of these concerns have been grinding for the Oriental trade, and when run to their capacity, and aided by smaller mills of the same system, a cargo of flour is turned out in short order. The facilities in this direction will be increased during the coming season by two more big mills now being constructed for the export trade. One of these, a 1000-barrel concern, constructed so that it can easily be changed to 2000-barrel capacity, is now nearing completion at Tacoma, and the other, which is of the same size, is ready for the machinery at Seattle. These mills, new and old, will make a strong fight for business, and if they stir up enough of a demand to keep them running a little more than half time, they will keep Puget Sound well in the lead as a flour-shipping port. Tacoma is making a good, strong finish for the season, and has half a dozen ships in the harbor nearly ready for sea. Kerr, Gifford & Co. yesterday finished the Durbridge for South Africa, and are loading the General Roberts for the same port. Balfour, Guthrie & Co. are finishing the Bobcat, and will follow on with the Tweeddale. The Portland Flouring Mills Company yesterday finished the Holywood, and have the Deccan partly loaded. The departure of this fleet will leave the Tacoma docks almost bare, and the new season will open with less wheat at tide water than has been the case in many years.

Private Detectives Have Already Been Engaged to Shadow the Leading Anarchists.

The "reds" are to be induced to leave Paterson quietly if possible. If they do not go, the committee is said to have its own plan for action. One of the methods to be employed is said to be the keeping of a blacklist, and no matter where in Paterson a man on it obtains work, his employer will be notified to dismiss him. It is said that the committee has $250,000 pledged by the men composing it to carry out its purpose.

Private Detectives Have Already Been Engaged to Shadow the Leading Anarchists.

The Essex troop of cavalry, of Newark, arrived this morning and proceeded at once to the Armory. The streets were lined with people while the cavalry proceeded toward the Armory, but there was no demonstration or excitement of any kind. An order was issued today ordering the local companies of the National Guard to report for duty. It had been expected that only troops from other cities would be called upon to do strike duty here.

A Number of Silk Mills Opened at the usual hour this morning.

Holmesmen, firemen or deputy sheriffs were on guard at these mills, and the orders of the Mayor that no gathering of people shall be permitted in the streets were fully carried out. In addition to the silk mills, two dye houses were opened this morning. At these places the bosses went to work, assisted by nonunion dyers' helpers. At mills that have opened the employees were supplied with arms and ammunition to protect themselves and their employers' property in case of attack.

land this season. The wages paid stevedores are the same as in Portland, and the charge for loading wheat or flour is 2 1/2 cents per ton, compared with 25 cents at Portland.

If all the glowing reports of the growing crop are true, and conditions remain favorable until harvest, Tacoma and Seattle may handle as much wheat as they have handled during the season just close, but the alleged superiority of their teredo-infested harbor will not prevent Portland showing a larger volume of business than for the season now closing. There is a good crop of wheat in Portland territory this year, and the statistics a year hence will tell another story.
