Mr. WHITNEY IS NOT WORRYING.—State Printer-elect J. R. Whitney was in the city yesterday from Albany, and went up the valley again in the evening. When asked in regard to the flat salary question as it may affect him, he said: "I am not giving the matter any particular attention. The Legislature is composed of reasonable men, and I have no fear of their passing a measure which will deprive me of a fair compensation, as every one knows, the State Printer's office is different from other offices, for the reason that the printer must provide himself with a printing plant, costing about $10,000. He must either buy the plant or rent it, and this must be done long before the Legislature meets, for the work of printing bills must be prepared for. It would, of course, be unreasonable to fix the printer's salary without taking this into consideration. It would be unfair to let a man procure a printing plant with the expectation of receiving a certain compensation and then after that change his compensation so as to ruin him. But the Legislature will not be unreasonable, and any law they may pass, in harmony with the constitution, will be satisfactory to me. Mr. Whitney's understanding is that P. J. Beckett will remain in his present position of foreman of the State printing office.

BRIDGE WORK BEGINS TODAY.—The work of repairing the Madison-street bridge will be commenced this morning, under the supervision of Robert Wakefield, an experienced bridgebuilder. The work will be done by the city, instead of by contract. The County Commissioners decided not to let a contract, as it is difficult to tell just what is necessary to be done. Mr. Wakefield has pledged and other applicants to do the work, and he will be in charge of the work. The work will be completed in about two weeks. The street-car companies have already put men to work on the elevated roadway on the East Side.

BOOK AGENTS WITH TEACHERS' LETTERS.—A citizen who was induced to buy what he regards as a very inferior pair of reference books because they were highly recommended by certain schoolteachers, wishes to put other parents in the city on their guard. The writers of the letters of indorsement to the books explain why they made recommendation of such books for school children, said they had in mind school libraries rather than individual pupils. But the citizen takes exception to this method of getting attention to homes for agents who would not otherwise obtain a hearing for their wares and wishes other parents to be prepared for dealing with the matter when it shall come to them.

GO SLOW, EVERYBODY.—An order was made by the County Court yesterday that all fast driving on the Morrison-street bridge must stop, and no team will be permitted to work on the bridge faster than a walk. Heretofore, exceptions have been made in cases of doctors responding to hurry-up calls, mail wagons, the police patrol, etc., but now the additional travel on Morrison-street bridge, since the burning of part of the Madison-street bridge, there will hereafter be no exceptions. Automobiles must also be run slow, and even bicyclists are required to take things easy. Too many vehicles moving rapidly over the bridge at one time shake the structure considerably, and this order was made for safety.

THEOREM ABOUT SHARES OF STOCK.—"Obtaining money and personal property by false pretense" was the charge which faced W. W. Cooper, alias McRae, yesterday, in the Municipal Court. He pleaded not guilty. Cooper is the young man who was recently brought from Wyoming by Detective Ford, charged with fraudulently converting to his own use and selling 80 shares of stock of the Willamette Oil Company. It is also charged that the shares referred to were torn from the stock certificate book of the company, and that the name of F. Nelson, manager and assistant treasurer, was forged on the same. The case will be heard Thursday.

TAMPERING WITH A CARBON ROASTER.—Michael Demartini was before Municipal Judge Cameron yesterday charged with attempt to rob a saloon at the northwest corner of Water and Columbia streets. The evidence was that while Policeman O. Smith was passing the saloon early Sunday morning he heard a noise in the place, and saw Demartini trying to open the cash register. He quickly placed him under arrest, and found that the rear door of the saloon had been broken into by a man who is an Italian, and a mill laborer by occupation, told the Judge that he knew nothing about the charge against him, and the case was continued until today.

A CORRECTION.—An article appeared on page 15 of the Sunday Oregonian, describing the many advantages of Sesside on Clatsop Beach. In describing the trip along the Columbia River, one sentence read: "The scenic grandeur of the Hudson River is completely eclipsed, and the 36 hours consumed in the trip are only too short for any person with any sense of the beautiful." All residents of Portland know that the train covers the distance in 3 1/2 hours, and this correction is made for the information of readers of The Oregonian who do not live in this city and might receive a wrong impression from the above mentioned error.

TO LOSENGER SOCIETY MEETS.—The seventh semi-annual banquet of the To Loseger Society was held last evening. This organization is the oldest society that represents the Portland High School. About 30 members were present at the spread. Nathan Blackburn, president of the society, acted as toastmaster, and a number of excellent toasts were responded to.

The Columbia is now at its highest water of the season; the salmon canneries are at work; the river at Astoria is covered with hundreds of fish-boats. Visitors and tourists should take this trip. For all information, both phone, Main 321.

M., except Sunday, Moffett's Hot Springs, Cascade Locks, Stevenson, St. Martin's Hot Springs, White Salmon, Hood River, Lytle, where dinner is wanted, and The Dalles. Grand scenic route for tourists. Dalles electric sign. OREGON CITY EXPRESS.—The P. C. & O. will call for and deliver package freight using the same as if the city had maintained a freestreet and the Madison-street bridge had been saved.

ASTORIA BOAT LEAVES DAILY 7 A. M., except Sunday, foot Alder street for Astoria and all Lower Columbia River points.

CHEMISTS ASSOCIATION ROOMS OPENED.—The rooms of the Chinese Young People's Christian Association, on Second street, near Salmon, were dedicated last night, when an entertainment of song and story was enjoyed. There was a large attendance of both American and Chinese, the temporary chairman being James Kan. The altar wore red badges, and Rev. Dr. Edgar P. Hill, of the First Presbyterian Church, gave an interesting address. One of the musical features was the singing of the Back male quartet, the members being: Solo, Each Jr., first tenor; W. E. Moy, second tenor; George Chan, first base; and Henry Ding, second base. Others who contributed to the evening's pleasure were: Rev. Chin Sing Kai, Rev. Louis Hugh, Miss Ida Chan, Miss Lillian Chan and Miss Grudell. The room was prettily decorated with American and Chinese flags and fans. Refreshments were served to the close.

FREE BATHS ALL O. K.—The Portland Public Bathing baths, which were saved from the big fire Saturday night by the Hoo Hoo, have been moved on the West Side, just above the Madison-street bridge, next to the steamer Telephone. The fire itself did no damage to the baths, but in the work of rescuing a few of the beams that hold the swimming case were cut. These, however, can be repaired with a few hours' work, and William Murray, who has charge of the youngsters that frequent the baths, says that things will be working order by Wednesday at the latest. As the wharf on the East Side was destroyed, a new location will be secured, and though no particular place has been decided upon, it is thought the suitable quarters can be found at the center of the Morrison bridge.

SCHOOLS CLOSE TODAY.—The public schools will close today, and the children will have a vacation of two weeks of the Fall term. In some of the grammar schools the pupils of the ninth grade who have been promoted to the High School will be working on their projects for the evening of the commencement exercises of the graduating class of the High School will be held. As the school year closes today, the election of teachers for the next term will soon be made public. The same number of teachers as last year will be elected, but if occasion requires the list may be increased in the Fall. Contracts for supplies will be made, and the reports ordered printed, and when the usual closing business is completed, the office of the City Superintendent of Schools will be closed until August 9.

MULTNOMAH COUNTY INSTITUTE.—Superintendent R. F. Robinson has set the date for the annual county institute for September 10, 11 and 12. This is the week before the opening of the city schools. The institute will be held at the Multnomah County general assembly building, and will be held from 8 o'clock in the morning until 5 P. M. It is thought that the repairs will be completed in about two weeks. The street-car companies have already put men to work on the elevated roadway on the East Side.

WORK ON FOURTH STREET.—The improvement of the east side of Fourth street, between Madison and Jefferson, has been practically completed and in a few days it will be in condition for the passage of wagons. This portion of the street had been in need of improvement ever since the wood-block pavement was laid, about six years ago. The crowning was very high, and teams had to take the west side of the street, or the railway company's roadway, which was more satisfactory. By the repavement the crowning is considerably reduced, for the space near the curb has been filled in, and the blocks are only an inch or so below the sidewalk.

BEAUTIFUL BASKET OF ROSES.—The employees of The Oregonian office were presented yesterday with a large basket of very choice roses by Mr. George S. Forrester, the collector of the collection. The collection contained the following well-known varieties: Anna de Diesbach, Jean Labaud, Abel Carriere, Earl of Pembroke, Mrs. John Laing, Fisher Holmes and the Earl of Derby. The basket of roses measured 6 1/2 inches in diameter, and the petals 3/4. Mr. Forrester is to be complimented on his success in rose culture, and the fine collection he now possesses.

THIRTY-ONE CASES OF SMALLPOX.—The number of smallpox patients in the hospital for contagious diseases has been increased in the Municipal Court. At present there are 31 in the hospital, but as many are convalescing, the number will be reduced to some extent within the next few days. Of the four recent cases one was a boy named Fred, who was taken from Dallas, and another was a boy who had been exposed to the disease.

A DAY ON THE COLUMBIA.—For a quiet day's outing, bring your family to the Columbia Club excursion, Sunday, June 23, to Castle Rock, on the Columbia River. The steamer Harvest Queen has been chartered and a limited number of tickets will be sold to prevent crowding. The excursion will be conducted in the same orderly manner as those given by the club heretofore. Boat leaves Astor street dock at 8 A. M.

BODY OF MAN IN THE RIVER.—The body of an unknown man was discovered floating in the river near the steel bridge about 5 o'clock last night, and was recovered and sent to the morgue. The body was badly decomposed, and had evidently been in the water about nine days. It was that of a man about six feet in height and weighing about 200 pounds, and clothed in blue overalls and a dark coat.

OREGON CITY FARENGER AND EXPRESS.—During repairs to Madison-street bridge the P. C. & O. has arranged transfers to and from the City & Suburban Railway, at Grand avenue. Freight will be received and dispatched from Hawthorne avenue and First street.

RICKETTS FIXED.—Three youths, Sanford Wolf, R. M. Hunter, and Adolph Brown, were before Municipal Judge Cameron yesterday, charged with riding their bicycles on sidewalks on the East Side, and were each fined $1.

FOR THE DALLES AND ALL UPPER COLUMBIA RIVER POINTS, take steamer from foot of Alder street, daily, except Sunday, at 7 A. M. Dalles electric sign. Both phones Main 321.

SITE FOR NEW SCHOOL

WOODLAWN BUILDING TO STAND WHERE THE OLD ONE IS.

Board of Directors' Committees for Ensuing Year Appointed—Schools Will Open September 15.

The Board of Education at its meeting last night selected a site for the erection of the new school building to be erected in the Woodlawn district. The site decided upon was the one upon which the present building stands, and which W. T. Vaughn, representing a number of school taxpayers, had been the best place for the school. Some of the people wished to have the school located on Woodlawn Heights, and as there was a difference of opinion in the board as to the two sites, an aye and no vote was taken. Chairman Williams and Directors Beach and Sitton voted in favor of the Woodlawn site and Directors Warren and Wittenberg voted against it.

The plans for the Woodlawn and the Sellwood schools, as prepared by Mr. Jones, were accepted. The building first named will cost from $12,000 to $15,000, and the latter about $200 or $300. The building committee will have charge of the matter and will have power to act. Chairman Williams, who succeeded Mr. Beach as the presiding officer, announced the committees for the year as follows: Examination of teachers—Mrs. L. W. Sitton, Frank Rigler.

Judiciary—V. Beach, R. K. Warren, Finance—R. K. Warren, Mrs. L. W. Sitton. Insurance—H. Wittenberg, J. V. Beach, Construction of new buildings—R. K. Warren, H. Wittenberg, J. V. Beach, Repairs—J. V. Beach, R. K. Warren, Supplies—Mrs. L. W. Sitton, H. Wittenberg. School Clerk Allen, on motion of Director Warren, was re-elected, but he declined to make a speech, although the board thought that his efficient service entitled him to a few remarks.

COMING ATTRACTION. Shields Park Tonight. Manager Shields waited until 7 o'clock last night before he hung out the "postponed" sign. His amusement park. The drizzly rain made the grounds too wet. Yet a large crowd sought admission during the evening. The excellent programme, and the dispatch with which it is given, together with the attractive and finished appearance of the surroundings, has given the place success. Shields has provided another strong bill for next week, including Matsuda's troupe, Royal Japanese acrobats, direct from Japan, and a poly-scopic picture of the Portland Hunt Club's drill and hurdle race. The performance will be resumed again tonight.

Interment of Haviland Remains. DENVER, June 23.—Lindsay Haviland, son of the late Frederick Haviland, who died last Friday night at the Oakes home, says that the remains of his father will be taken to New Rochelle, N. Y., for interment. Mr. Haviland says his father was not born in France, as generally supposed, but was born in Brooklyn, August 15, 1837.

Will Increase New York's Income. NEW YORK, June 23.—Controller Groot has a plan whereby he expects to increase by at least $1,000,000 a year the income of the city from privileges under the sidewalk. The city now derives about $250,000 annually from those privileges, but persons desiring to open restaurants, offices or other establishments under the sidewalk have only to take out a "walk permit," which costs $25. The controller will be glad to have an ordinance enacted providing for adequate returns to the city for valuable privileges.
