

LAST DAY IN HOUSE

Seventy Bills and Resolutions Were Passed.

ADJOURNED AMID ENTHUSIASM

Good Feeling Heightened by the Victory over the Senate on the Naval Appropriation Bill.

The House adjourned at 5:30 P. M. yesterday. The general good feeling was heightened by the victory won over the Senate on the item in the naval appropriation bill for the building of a battleship in a Government yard.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The House, which adjourned last night at 11 o'clock, met at 10 o'clock this morning, with all the indications pointing to a final adjournment at the end of today's session.

Immediately after the approval of the journal, a scramble for recognition began. Members with small bills of interest to their constituency were exceedingly anxious to secure action upon them, and a dozen of them were almost constantly on their feet clamoring for opportunity to call them up.

A bill was passed to reauthorize certain townships in San Diego, Cal. The Senate bill to promote the efficiency of the Marine Hospital service and change its name to the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, was passed under suspension of the rules.

The first obstacle was reached during the reading of a bill to reduce the number of appraisers at Philadelphia and Boston. Sulzer (Dem. N. Y.) attempted to speak upon a resolution he had introduced, relative to charges in connection with the transport service, and when objection was made by Hull (Rep. Ia.) he retaliated by making the point of no quorum. The appraiser bill was passed.

A joint resolution was adopted appropriating $500 each for monuments to the memory of General Francis Noah and General William Lee Davidson, of North Carolina, as authorized by resolutions of the Continental Congress.

At this point Foss presented an agreement on the naval appropriation bill. There was a simple reading, and the speaker announced the agreement, and Taylor (Rep. O.) who followed, received hearty applause when he declared that a fight had been made, and that the experiment of building a first-class battleship would now be tried.

At 3:30 P. M. Payne, chairman of the committee on the canal, presented the resolution for site of adjustment.

Sulzer (Dem. N. Y.) moved to recommit with instructions to substitute July 3 for July 1 in the resolution. He was defeated, and though Sulzer loudly demanded opportunity to be heard, the adjournment resolution, without debate, was carried, 137 to 76.

Several conference reports on related bills then were hurried through. A bill to make Confederate soldiers who enlisted in the Union Army previous to January 1, 1862, pensionable, aroused much debate, but was passed by a large vote.

Payne (Rep. N. Y.), Cannon (Rep. Ill.) and Richardson (Dem. Tenn.) were named as a committee to inform the President that Congress was ready to adjourn.

Daniel, chairman of the committee on the purchase of the Danish West Indies, then presented his report, which was ordered printed and referred to the House calendar.

Pending that motion, Underwood (Dem. Ala.) moved that the House take a recess for one hour. It was defeated, 22 to 301. Cousins then, in humorous fashion, described the pretentious claims of Christinas in the matter of the Danish West Indies case. He reviewed the testimony to show that the whole story of Christinas having attempted to bribe Congress was utterly ridiculous.

Richardson, the Democratic leader, replying briefly, said that when the secret report of Captain Christinas to the Danish Government containing the statements as to the alleged bribery of members was called to his attention on affidavit as to its authenticity, he (Richardson) considered it worthy of investigation. The testimony, however, had disposed of the charges, he said. Everybody was acquitted, and the report, which was unanimous, was stated.

Richardson was still speaking as the time approached for the final adjournment. Meantime the galleries had filled to overflowing, and every member in the city was in his seat.

The Final Adjournment. At 5:25 Payne, on behalf of the committee to notify the President, reported that the President had no further communication to make. The Speaker then arose, and with evidence of much feeling, addressed the House as follows:

"Gentlemen of the House of Representatives: Many of us met at the beginning of this session as friends; many of us at the commencement of this session met as strangers; I believe that we shall all part when the moment for adjournment comes, as friends."

REVIEW OF COLONIALS

PRINCE OF WALES REPRESENTED KING, AND QUEEN WAS PRESENT.

Sick Monarch Makes Steady Progress Toward Recovery—Allowed a Cigar a Day.

LONDON, July 1.—The reappearance today of Queen Alexandra as a participant in a public ceremony practically marks the end of the period of anxiety caused by King Edward's condition. Her presence at the review of the Colonial troops by the Prince of Wales greatly increased public enthusiasm over what in itself was a picturesque and interesting event.

The following bulletin on the condition of King Edward was posted at Buckingham Palace at 10 o'clock this morning: "The King passed an excellent night of sleep. He has gained strength and made substantial improvements in all respects.—Trevor, Laking, Barlow."

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The House, which adjourned last night at 11 o'clock, met at 10 o'clock this morning, with all the indications pointing to a final adjournment at the end of today's session.

Immediately after the approval of the journal, a scramble for recognition began. Members with small bills of interest to their constituency were exceedingly anxious to secure action upon them, and a dozen of them were almost constantly on their feet clamoring for opportunity to call them up.

A bill was passed to reauthorize certain townships in San Diego, Cal. The Senate bill to promote the efficiency of the Marine Hospital service and change its name to the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, was passed under suspension of the rules.

The first obstacle was reached during the reading of a bill to reduce the number of appraisers at Philadelphia and Boston. Sulzer (Dem. N. Y.) attempted to speak upon a resolution he had introduced, relative to charges in connection with the transport service, and when objection was made by Hull (Rep. Ia.) he retaliated by making the point of no quorum. The appraiser bill was passed.

A joint resolution was adopted appropriating $500 each for monuments to the memory of General Francis Noah and General William Lee Davidson, of North Carolina, as authorized by resolutions of the Continental Congress.

At this point Foss presented an agreement on the naval appropriation bill. There was a simple reading, and the speaker announced the agreement, and Taylor (Rep. O.) who followed, received hearty applause when he declared that a fight had been made, and that the experiment of building a first-class battleship would now be tried.

At 3:30 P. M. Payne, chairman of the committee on the canal, presented the resolution for site of adjustment.

Sulzer (Dem. N. Y.) moved to recommit with instructions to substitute July 3 for July 1 in the resolution. He was defeated, and though Sulzer loudly demanded opportunity to be heard, the adjournment resolution, without debate, was carried, 137 to 76.

Several conference reports on related bills then were hurried through. A bill to make Confederate soldiers who enlisted in the Union Army previous to January 1, 1862, pensionable, aroused much debate, but was passed by a large vote.

Payne (Rep. N. Y.), Cannon (Rep. Ill.) and Richardson (Dem. Tenn.) were named as a committee to inform the President that Congress was ready to adjourn.

Daniel, chairman of the committee on the purchase of the Danish West Indies, then presented his report, which was ordered printed and referred to the House calendar.

Pending that motion, Underwood (Dem. Ala.) moved that the House take a recess for one hour. It was defeated, 22 to 301. Cousins then, in humorous fashion, described the pretentious claims of Christinas in the matter of the Danish West Indies case. He reviewed the testimony to show that the whole story of Christinas having attempted to bribe Congress was utterly ridiculous.

Richardson, the Democratic leader, replying briefly, said that when the secret report of Captain Christinas to the Danish Government containing the statements as to the alleged bribery of members was called to his attention on affidavit as to its authenticity, he (Richardson) considered it worthy of investigation. The testimony, however, had disposed of the charges, he said. Everybody was acquitted, and the report, which was unanimous, was stated.

Richardson was still speaking as the time approached for the final adjournment. Meantime the galleries had filled to overflowing, and every member in the city was in his seat.

The Final Adjournment. At 5:25 Payne, on behalf of the committee to notify the President, reported that the President had no further communication to make. The Speaker then arose, and with evidence of much feeling, addressed the House as follows:

"Gentlemen of the House of Representatives: Many of us met at the beginning of this session as friends; many of us at the commencement of this session met as strangers; I believe that we shall all part when the moment for adjournment comes, as friends."

REVIEW OF COLONIALS

PRINCE OF WALES REPRESENTED KING, AND QUEEN WAS PRESENT.

Sick Monarch Makes Steady Progress Toward Recovery—Allowed a Cigar a Day.

LONDON, July 1.—The reappearance today of Queen Alexandra as a participant in a public ceremony practically marks the end of the period of anxiety caused by King Edward's condition. Her presence at the review of the Colonial troops by the Prince of Wales greatly increased public enthusiasm over what in itself was a picturesque and interesting event.

The following bulletin on the condition of King Edward was posted at Buckingham Palace at 10 o'clock this morning: "The King passed an excellent night of sleep. He has gained strength and made substantial improvements in all respects.—Trevor, Laking, Barlow."

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The House, which adjourned last night at 11 o'clock, met at 10 o'clock this morning, with all the indications pointing to a final adjournment at the end of today's session.

Immediately after the approval of the journal, a scramble for recognition began. Members with small bills of interest to their constituency were exceedingly anxious to secure action upon them, and a dozen of them were almost constantly on their feet clamoring for opportunity to call them up.

A bill was passed to reauthorize certain townships in San Diego, Cal. The Senate bill to promote the efficiency of the Marine Hospital service and change its name to the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, was passed under suspension of the rules.

The first obstacle was reached during the reading of a bill to reduce the number of appraisers at Philadelphia and Boston. Sulzer (Dem. N. Y.) attempted to speak upon a resolution he had introduced, relative to charges in connection with the transport service, and when objection was made by Hull (Rep. Ia.) he retaliated by making the point of no quorum. The appraiser bill was passed.

A joint resolution was adopted appropriating $500 each for monuments to the memory of General Francis Noah and General William Lee Davidson, of North Carolina, as authorized by resolutions of the Continental Congress.

At this point Foss presented an agreement on the naval appropriation bill. There was a simple reading, and the speaker announced the agreement, and Taylor (Rep. O.) who followed, received hearty applause when he declared that a fight had been made, and that the experiment of building a first-class battleship would now be tried.

At 3:30 P. M. Payne, chairman of the committee on the canal, presented the resolution for site of adjustment.

Sulzer (Dem. N. Y.) moved to recommit with instructions to substitute July 3 for July 1 in the resolution. He was defeated, and though Sulzer loudly demanded opportunity to be heard, the adjournment resolution, without debate, was carried, 137 to 76.

Several conference reports on related bills then were hurried through. A bill to make Confederate soldiers who enlisted in the Union Army previous to January 1, 1862, pensionable, aroused much debate, but was passed by a large vote.

Payne (Rep. N. Y.), Cannon (Rep. Ill.) and Richardson (Dem. Tenn.) were named as a committee to inform the President that Congress was ready to adjourn.

Daniel, chairman of the committee on the purchase of the Danish West Indies, then presented his report, which was ordered printed and referred to the House calendar.

Pending that motion, Underwood (Dem. Ala.) moved that the House take a recess for one hour. It was defeated, 22 to 301. Cousins then, in humorous fashion, described the pretentious claims of Christinas in the matter of the Danish West Indies case. He reviewed the testimony to show that the whole story of Christinas having attempted to bribe Congress was utterly ridiculous.

Richardson, the Democratic leader, replying briefly, said that when the secret report of Captain Christinas to the Danish Government containing the statements as to the alleged bribery of members was called to his attention on affidavit as to its authenticity, he (Richardson) considered it worthy of investigation. The testimony, however, had disposed of the charges, he said. Everybody was acquitted, and the report, which was unanimous, was stated.

Richardson was still speaking as the time approached for the final adjournment. Meantime the galleries had filled to overflowing, and every member in the city was in his seat.

The Final Adjournment. At 5:25 Payne, on behalf of the committee to notify the President, reported that the President had no further communication to make. The Speaker then arose, and with evidence of much feeling, addressed the House as follows:

"Gentlemen of the House of Representatives: Many of us met at the beginning of this session as friends; many of us at the commencement of this session met as strangers; I believe that we shall all part when the moment for adjournment comes, as friends."

REVIEW OF COLONIALS

PRINCE OF WALES REPRESENTED KING, AND QUEEN WAS PRESENT.

Sick Monarch Makes Steady Progress Toward Recovery—Allowed a Cigar a Day.

LONDON, July 1.—The reappearance today of Queen Alexandra as a participant in a public ceremony practically marks the end of the period of anxiety caused by King Edward's condition. Her presence at the review of the Colonial troops by the Prince of Wales greatly increased public enthusiasm over what in itself was a picturesque and interesting event.

The following bulletin on the condition of King Edward was posted at Buckingham Palace at 10 o'clock this morning: "The King passed an excellent night of sleep. He has gained strength and made substantial improvements in all respects.—Trevor, Laking, Barlow."

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The House, which adjourned last night at 11 o'clock, met at 10 o'clock this morning, with all the indications pointing to a final adjournment at the end of today's session.

Immediately after the approval of the journal, a scramble for recognition began. Members with small bills of interest to their constituency were exceedingly anxious to secure action upon them, and a dozen of them were almost constantly on their feet clamoring for opportunity to call them up.

A bill was passed to reauthorize certain townships in San Diego, Cal. The Senate bill to promote the efficiency of the Marine Hospital service and change its name to the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, was passed under suspension of the rules.

The first obstacle was reached during the reading of a bill to reduce the number of appraisers at Philadelphia and Boston. Sulzer (Dem. N. Y.) attempted to speak upon a resolution he had introduced, relative to charges in connection with the transport service, and when objection was made by Hull (Rep. Ia.) he retaliated by making the point of no quorum. The appraiser bill was passed.

A joint resolution was adopted appropriating $500 each for monuments to the memory of General Francis Noah and General William Lee Davidson, of North Carolina, as authorized by resolutions of the Continental Congress.

At this point Foss presented an agreement on the naval appropriation bill. There was a simple reading, and the speaker announced the agreement, and Taylor (Rep. O.) who followed, received hearty applause when he declared that a fight had been made, and that the experiment of building a first-class battleship would now be tried.

At 3:30 P. M. Payne, chairman of the committee on the canal, presented the resolution for site of adjustment.

Sulzer (Dem. N. Y.) moved to recommit with instructions to substitute July 3 for July 1 in the resolution. He was defeated, and though Sulzer loudly demanded opportunity to be heard, the adjournment resolution, without debate, was carried, 137 to 76.

Several conference reports on related bills then were hurried through. A bill to make Confederate soldiers who enlisted in the Union Army previous to January 1, 1862, pensionable, aroused much debate, but was passed by a large vote.

Payne (Rep. N. Y.), Cannon (Rep. Ill.) and Richardson (Dem. Tenn.) were named as a committee to inform the President that Congress was ready to adjourn.

Daniel, chairman of the committee on the purchase of the Danish West Indies, then presented his report, which was ordered printed and referred to the House calendar.

Pending that motion, Underwood (Dem. Ala.) moved that the House take a recess for one hour. It was defeated, 22 to 301. Cousins then, in humorous fashion, described the pretentious claims of Christinas in the matter of the Danish West Indies case. He reviewed the testimony to show that the whole story of Christinas having attempted to bribe Congress was utterly ridiculous.

Richardson, the Democratic leader, replying briefly, said that when the secret report of Captain Christinas to the Danish Government containing the statements as to the alleged bribery of members was called to his attention on affidavit as to its authenticity, he (Richardson) considered it worthy of investigation. The testimony, however, had disposed of the charges, he said. Everybody was acquitted, and the report, which was unanimous, was stated.

Richardson was still speaking as the time approached for the final adjournment. Meantime the galleries had filled to overflowing, and every member in the city was in his seat.

The Final Adjournment. At 5:25 Payne, on behalf of the committee to notify the President, reported that the President had no further communication to make. The Speaker then arose, and with evidence of much feeling, addressed the House as follows:

"Gentlemen of the House of Representatives: Many of us met at the beginning of this session as friends; many of us at the commencement of this session met as strangers; I believe that we shall all part when the moment for adjournment comes, as friends."

Munyon Remedies

Given Away

I want every sick person to send me their name and address and full particulars of their complaint, and I will send by return mail, free of all charge, the remedy that I believe will cure them. Remember, there is no catch about this offer. If you have Rheumatism, don't fail to send for a free trial of my Rheumatism Cure; I think it will cure you. If you suffer with indigestion, or any stomach trouble, be sure and get a free trial of my Dyspepsia Cure; it will enable you to eat what you like and all you like. If you have a cough, send for my Cough Cure. If your kidneys are out of order, no matter how serious, my Kidney Cure will prove a blessing. My Headache Cure stops any headache in 7 to 10 minutes. My Diarrhoea Cure corrects all bowel complaints in a few hours. No matter what your disease is, write and tell me all about your complaint and I will send you my Remedy. My Remedy will also send you a copy of Munyon's Magazine and Munyon's Guide to Health.

Prof. Munyon, 1505 Arch St., Phila., Pa.

envoy to the coronation, however, were clad in gorgeous costumes blazoning with jewels, while the ladies present were most richly attired in the latest fashions, beautiful laces and jewels. Among the guests were Prince and Princess Christian, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, Princess Henry of Battenberg, the Crown Prince of Sweden, and the envoys to the coronation from India, Japan, China and Persia. The Duke of Devonshire and Mrs. Reid, attended by Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Fleetwood Edwards, Joseph H. Choate, the United States Ambassador, and Mrs. Choate; Henry White, Secretary of the Embassy, and Mrs. White; Joseph Chamberlain, the Colonial Secretary, and Mrs. Chamberlain, and their daughter also attended the reception.

Disastrous Fire in Norway. CHRISTIANA, Norway, July 1.—A disastrous fire broke out today and is still raging at the port of Laurvik, in the Froyda, County of Jarlsberg. One quarter of the business section of the port has been destroyed.

Fears Subside at Martinique. PORT DE FRANCE, Island of Martinique, July 1.—The volcanic disturbances, with regard to the volcanic disturbances, has become more reassuring. There are still slight intermittent eruptions from Mount Pelée.

STORMS IN CORN BELT.

Crops Seriously Damaged by Heavy June Rains. CHICAGO, July 1.—Reports received here today from the grain states most affected by the heavy June rains indicate that the crop situation is not so discouraging as it has been painted in many quarters. This was reflected in the grain pits today, for while markets were firm at the opening and for some time following, the excitement of yesterday seemed to have subsided and there was disposition to place much faith in the restorative effects of warmer weather, which was reported in some sections, and was believed to be on the way. The market for wheat, however, was generally favorable. Damage generally, it was said, would be largely repaired by warm weather in July.

Great Damage in Nebraska. OMAHA, July 1.—The excessive rains of June did damage to the crops of Nebraska. In the portion of Nebraska, where 700 acres of harvested wheat are under water. The water reaches almost to the tops of the shocks of wheat, and much of the crop will be lost before the water recedes. The rain throughout the eastern portion of the state early this morning amounted to almost a cloudburst. Corn and other crops are making a good growth, but the fields are so wet that they cannot be cultivated, and the crop will, therefore, not make nearly so much as was indicated by the prospects two weeks ago. The loss of the crop is estimated at $10,000,000.

New York Crops Injured. NEW YORK, July 1.—Reports from Central and Northern New York indicate that the continuous rain has done many thousands of dollars' worth of damage to the crops. Farmers say that alfalfa, timothy and clover are making a good growth, but the fields are so wet that they cannot be cultivated, and the crop will, therefore, not make nearly so much as was indicated by the prospects two weeks ago. The loss of the crop is estimated at $10,000,000.

Effect of Insistence of the Powers. WASHINGTON, July 1.—The State Department has not yet been notified of the Chinese refusal to pay the July indemnity, which is the first payment of money to become due from China to the powers since the signing of the Peking agreement. The Department regrets being placed in a position of taking issue with the powers on this question, which is so important that grave doubt is entertained as to the probable effect of an insistence upon the European contention as affecting China's integrity. It is nevertheless the case that a careful reading of the proceedings of the meeting of Ministers at Peking, which led to the agreement taken in connection with the text of that document, has convinced the Department that the Chinese had a great loss owing to the Ministers, and that purpose was clearly set out in their proceedings, to permit China to pay the indemnity at the rate of interest as it existed on the date of signing, and it is clear that what appears to be a contradictory clause in the agreement was nothing more or less than an inadvertence. However, the United States has not gone to the length of refusing to accept its payment on the same basis as the other powers, namely, at the current rate of exchange. All it has done in that direction was to notify China that it regarded her contention as a reasonable and a proper one.

Losses in Kansas City. KANSAS CITY, July 1.—Today's storm caused several thousand dollars' loss in the outlying districts of Kansas City. Flooding cellars and doing other minor damage. Across the river at Roedale, Turkey Creek rose rapidly, and entering several stores and houses, drove the people out.

Iowa Crops Stand It Well. DES MOINES, July 1.—Director Sage, of the Iowa Weather Bureau and crop service, declared this morning that the Iowa crops are standing the cold weather and heavy rains remarkably well, and that the predictions of damage and loss are purely visionary.

Brilliant Affairs Given at the House of the Foreign Secretary. LONDON, July 1.—The reception given by Lord Lansdowne, Foreign Secretary, and Lady Lansdowne, at Lansdowne House tonight, was a very brilliant affair. The majority of the gentlemen present were in evening dress, but wore their decorations. The Indian Princes and other

WOODARD, CLARKE & COMPANY RUSSIAN ART BRASSWARE THE SELECTION INCLUDES CANDELABRA, JARDINIERES, LOVING CUPS, COAL BOXES, WINE FITCHERS, ETC., ETC.

PHOTO GOODS RUBBER SPECIALS POCKET POOL, $1.00; ADAMANT FIXING BATHS, 34¢; GLASS FIXING BATHS, 45¢; TRIPODS, regular $1.00, special $1.10; MARVEL WHIRLING SPRAY, $2.99; UNRATED FOUNTAIN STRAW, 82¢; BATHING CAPS, up from 10¢; SPONGE BAGS, up from 15¢; GARDEN ROSE, 50 feet, $2.45; RUBBER SPONGES, up from 75¢; GOOD HOT WATER BOTTLE, 2-qt., 75¢; FINGER TOPS, dozen, 20¢.

FOR INDEPENDENCE DAYS BOMBAKS, 25¢; DRINKING CUPS, 50¢; PAPER LUNCH SETS, 25¢; Red Fire, lb., 24¢; Green Fire, lb., 24¢; Red Fire Torches, 3 for 25¢; JAPANESE LANTERNS, 50¢ UP.

Specials Wines, Liquors and Malts Japanese Fans PING PONG, up from 99¢; SPARKLETS, quarts, 2.69; TOOTHPICKS, three packages, 10¢; TOILET PAPER, fine tissues, 12,000 sheets, 83¢; ENVELOPES, 100 box, 27¢; GOOD STEEL PENS, dozen, 5¢; RUBBER TIP LEAD PENCILS, dozen, 9¢; BEST SHUT-OFF ALARM CLOCK, 1.19; GOOD HEARING, 2.09; NORTH POLE PUZZLE, 10¢; WALKER'S CAN, Special, 1.05; DEWAR'S SCOTCH WHISKY, 1.15; McBRAYER'S CEDAR BROOK, QUARTS, 1.15; McBRAYER'S CEDAR BROOK, QUARTS, 1.40; HUNTER'S RYE, 1.15; CREAM RYE, 1.10; GUINNESS STOUT, 2.20; GUINNESS' ALE, 2.20; HILTON'S EXT. MALT, 2.25; CALA. SHERRY, 25¢; CALA. CLARET, 25¢; CALA. WINE, quart, 25¢.

Woodard, Clarke & Co. BABIES WEIGHED FREE ON OUR BABY SCALES Scales sent to your home

THE CHARGES ARE FALSE CHAFFEE'S VIEW OF MAJOR GARDNER'S ALLEGATIONS. Natural Inference From the Abandonment by the Tarabasa Governor of His Claim.

MANILA, July 1.—General Chaffee has sent a letter to the board which is inquiring into the charges of cruelty brought by Major Cornelius Gardner, Governor of the Province of Tarabasa, Luzon, against American officers and soldiers, saying that the abandonment by Major Gardner of the charge that higher officers in the Army in the Philippines were hostile to the civil government was not the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was taken in order that the Major should produce his witnesses. The abandonment of the charge by the Major led to the inference that it was false. But, true or false, continued General Chaffee, it affected injuriously the character of higher officers. The board has demanded of Major Gardner that he produce testimony covering the alleged hostility. Major Gardner promised to answer this communication later. Chaffee said that he also that Major Gardner was not a judge of the effect of proving this charge, and that the action of Secretary Root in convening the present board was