

SURE OF NEXT HOUSE

Hanna Says the Republicans Will Win Easily.

DEMOCRATS WITHOUT AN ISSUE

Their Fight Upon Philippine Bill Resolved Itself Into an Attack Upon the Army-Jones Is Rather Modest in His Claims.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—(Charman Hanna, of the Republican National Committee, speaking of the results of the session of Congress just closed, declares the Republican party has met all of the great legislative questions with ability and that the result will redound to the benefit of the country. He says the attempt of the Democrats to manufacture a campaign capital out of the Philippine question resolved itself into an attack upon the American Army, and since it failed, the party is left floundering around without an issue. Everything done by the Republicans assured confidence throughout the country, said Senator Hanna today, and "assures us of the safe and sure election of the next House of Representatives."

Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, declares that Congress failed to meet the expectations of the country. He said: "It failed to make a definite policy regarding the Philippines, and failed to reduce the tariff, as well as carry out the promises made to Cuba. We have opportunity to make gains in the West during the coming election, and we may have some surprises in other sections."

This statement looks rather weak, in view of the boast made by the Democrats that they intend to carry the next House.

BURWELL TO RETAIN COMMAND.

No Change to Be Made at Puget Sound Navy-Yard for Time Being.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Representative Jones, during a conference today with Secretary Moody, recommended the retention of Captain Burwell as commandant of the Puget Sound navy-yard, and was assured that no immediate change is contemplated, although as the yard develops it will probably be necessary to place it in charge of an Admiral. Representative Jones also asked the Secretary to recommend the appointment of Burwell's son as cadet-at-large to the Naval Academy. An alternate appointment was promised him.

To Be Eliminated From Reserve.

At the request of Representative Jones, the Secretary of the Interior today ordered the examination of 11 townships in the Stillaguamish River bottom, with a view to their elimination from the Washington forest reserves, as requested by the Everett Chamber of Commerce.

Additional Postal Clerks.

At Representative Jones' request an additional postal clerk is to be installed on the road from Spokane to Couer d'Alene. Hawaiian Committee to Meet Today.

WHY RAMSAY WAS LET OUT.

Accounts of Marshal of Idaho Contained Irregularities.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The summary dismissal of F. C. Ramsay, United States Marshal for Idaho, who was a protégé of Senator Shoup, on account of irregularities in rendering (Ramsay's) accounts. An examination of his books in the main showed that Ramsay, at least temporarily, had been using Government funds for his private purposes. It is due him to say all funds so appropriated were repaid. The Government suffers no loss, and there will be no criminal prosecution. The President has also called for the resignation of Assayer Cunningham, of the Boise mint, because of reported irregularities in connection with the Ferrault case, but no developments showed him innocent, and the request was recalled.

COALING STATIONS ON PACIFIC.

Navy Department Contemplates Establishing Five.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The Navy Department is contemplating the establishment of five coaling stations on the Pacific Coast—at San Diego, San Francisco, Puget Sound, Sitka and Dutch Harbor. Representative Jones today urged the Equipment Bureau to expend a portion of the lump appropriation for coaling stations in fitting out an adequate station at the Puget Sound navy-yard, and was assured that if Secretary Moody would so direct, the work would be undertaken at once.

WHY HE LULL IN APPOINTMENTS.

Oregon Delegation May Settle Attorneyship Late in the Summer.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Owing to the failure of the Oregon delegation to agree it is not probable that there will be any further important Oregon appointments made for some time. The delegation will be in different sections for a month or more. It is possible that some compromise on the United States Attorneyship and other offices may be reached late in the Summer.

TONGUE STARTS FOR HOME.

Other Members of Oregon Delegation Have Not Decided on Plans.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Members of the Oregon delegation have not yet decided on their plans for the Summer. Senator Mitchell is still in doubt as to whether he will go with the subcommittee to Hawaii, but will certainly spend a part of July in New England. He had originally intended to devote most of his time to Senatorial business in Oregon. Representative Tongue started for home today, and expects to remain there most of the Summer, while Representative Moody has not laid any plans. He hopes to devote a part of the time in traveling portions of Eastern Oregon with representatives of the geological survey, who are to conduct field operations there this Summer.

Senator Foster is planning an early return to Tacoma, stopping a while in St.

Paul. His Summer will be mostly spent on the Hawaiian trip with the subcommittee, but he hopes to return before the campaign has advanced far. Both Washington Representatives will remain at their homes the best part of the Summer and prepare for a vigorous campaign all over the state in the Fall.

Senator Hatfield, of Idaho, goes home in about a week, and has no plans arranged. His colleagues, with a party of Democratic Senators, will camp for some time at Hunter Hot Springs, Mont., previous to taking the stump. Representative Glenn is now on his way home.

WHAT PRESENT MONEY WILL DO.

Start Work at the Dalles and Ease Navigation on the Sea.

Appointment of a board of engineers to examine Captain Hart's plan and estimates for the canal and locks at the Dalles of the Columbia, is for the purpose of ascertaining, with more definiteness than the Hart report showed, just what the details of the project are and what they will cost. This does not mean that the Hart report was incomplete or unreliable, so far as it went. But it was designed as a general statement rather than a statement of details, and the estimates were correspondingly general in their nature. With approval of the general plan recommended by Captain Hart, the work needed for figuring out the details with greater accuracy than was essential for the purpose of his report. And to this end it will be necessary to carry the work further in some respects, and to take observations of the river to determine, for example, at what height the miter sill should be placed, and other features, many of which depend to a large extent upon the habit of the stream.

It is no reflection upon the engineer in charge of the work of the district that he is not upon the board appointed to examine the Hart report, but it is a reflection upon the board appointed to present arrangement Captain Langitt, of this district, has, in addition to his own work, the duties that were formerly discharged by the Hart report, and which load keeps him very busy. And it is usually deemed best to get the judgment of engineers who are not in any way connected with the work under consideration, for it is purely a question of technical engineering that they have to consider and it is desirable that all other matters be kept out of it.

The plan available for the improvement at the Dalles is regarded as sufficient to get the project well started, perhaps all that could under any circumstances be done at this time. It is expected that Congress shall have another opportunity to deal with the matter.

Improvement in engineering methods available for bringing the cost of the Dalles improvement materially below the estimate of Captain Hart. It has been pointed out that the improvement at the Dalles could now be made for much less money than was actually necessary at the time the plan was submitted. It has been found that concrete will answer as well as cut stone for a great deal of such work, and this alone would effect a large saving in money. Other advances in engineering science constantly tend to reduce the cost of such works as are contemplated at the Dalles, and it is expected that the estimate for the Dalles will be lessened for this and other reasons.

The appropriations for improvement of navigation between Portland and the sea contemplated in the work of the district results without waiting for further action of Congress. When the present jetty was built it resulted in giving a depth of water of 20 feet on the bar at low tide. With the appropriation there has been made it is expected that at least as great a depth of water will be produced on the bar, and that it will be maintained in a permanent manner. Indeed that the bar will never be permitted to get shallower again. Between Portland and the mouth of the Columbia the work authorized by the act of 1901 is to produce a channel that will be the largest ships that come to Portland pass freely at any stage of tide. There will be sufficient capacity to insure easy navigation of the river for all the craft that come here. But not all the details of the improvements will be available for the public until the Dalles is completed by Captain Langitt shall have been passed upon by the chief of engineers.

English Spoken in New Mexico.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—Delegated Rodney, of New Mexico, stated today that the report of his testimony of June 21 before the Senate committee on the language, relating to the omnibus statehood bill, contained an error in that it made him say that interpreters were necessary in conducting the business of the public business, as a majority of the people in New Mexico were unable to speak the English language. Mr. Rodney says that three-fifths of the population of the territory are English-speaking people from the states and their families; that a good one-half of the remaining two-fifths speak English well, and that the few who do not in the territory use interpreters. He said that only because a portion of the population speak Spanish alone. He stated that the language of the territory is overwhelmingly English, and is growing more so every year.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 2.—The Kansas River at this point has overflowed its banks and is running over the city park and still rising two inches per hour. A telegram from Manhattan, Kan., says the river is rising a foot an hour, and great damage is feared when the additional volume of water reaches this vicinity. The Wolf Packing-House has been compelled to suspend operations, owing to the high water, and the city street railway people are fearful that their bridge over the river is going out and are anchoring it as best they can.

Chinese Rebels Get Their War Munitions in This Country.

VICTORIA, B. C., July 2.—The North China Daily News makes the assertion that half of the arms and ammunition in the hands of the rebels were obtained from America, not a few having been carried across the border by the Chinese agents in the Central and Southern American States and thence shipped to Southern China. The remainder of the modern arms of precision owned by the rebels were formerly the property of the government and are held by ex-regular troops, a portion of whom formerly retained their arms when they disbanded by orders of the two Kwang governments, while the rest were carried off by troops who sympathized with the rebellion. These last are in arms for political purposes and steadfastly follow a rebel purpose in conjunction with the efforts of the Chinese government to disband the soldiers, true to their marauding instincts, are great cowards and merely plunder and murder for the pleasure of the moment.

England and Japan Take Our Views on Chinese Indemnity Question.

WASHINGTON, July 2.—The State Department is somewhat encouraged, by advice just received from China, in its policy of not making any special concessions in the treatment of China. It has been informed that England has consented to accept its indemnity plan, and that the Japanese government is in line with the contention of the United States, and now it is understood Japan will do likewise. These three powers in agreement have been discussing the indemnity question in London, and the Chief Secretary for Ireland, would settle the whole trouble, and he thought the reduction of the rents collected on the estate for those big lands, which were now renting for more money than was obtained for decent arable lands in Ulster County.

Attack on American Monopoly.

LONDON, July 2.—Both the moderate and progressive sections of the London County Council have combined to attack the proposed London passenger transportation scheme advanced by J. P. Moran and Charles T. Yerkes, with the view of preventing or delaying parliamentary sanction of the proposals made by the American. Both these sections of the County Council contend that once Parliament sanctions the projects in question, there will be nothing to prevent the eventual formation of the Moran-Yerkes interests, thus placing London at the mercy of a monopoly, inasmuch as the new plans contain no public purchase clause. It is not expected that the Council's opposition will be very effective, because it will have no alternative plan to offer.

HEARD THE TROOPS CHEER

INDIAN CONTINGENT MARCHES PAST SICK KING'S PALACE.

Reviewed by Prince of Wales and Queen Alexandra—Physicians Issue Favorable Bulletin.

LONDON, July 2.—King Edward has passed another good day. The quiet and routine of the sickroom was varied today by the excitement of listening to the music and cheers of the Indian troops as they marched past the palace and greeted Queen Alexandra on the balcony. King Edward demanded a full account of the review, and the formal report made by the medical officers was supplemented by the personal narrative of the Queen. His Majesty dictated a letter to the Duke of Connaught, commanding him to complete the colonial troops upon their excellent appearance, and to thank them for their expressions of loyalty and sympathy, which he had heard with pleasure in his sickroom. King Edward was somewhat disappointed that he was not able to see the march past of the troops. He had hoped that this would be possible from an invalid couch in a window of the palace, but the doctors were unwilling that he should risk this exposure and excitement, and His Majesty had to content himself with hearing the troops without seeing them.

IRISH EVICTIONS.

Heated Debate in Commons Precipitated by a Liberal Member.

LONDON, July 2.—A long and heated debate on the Irish question was precipitated in the House of Commons today, Thomas W. Russell, Liberal, moved the adjournment of the House to discuss the pending evictions from the estate of Lord De Frayne, in Roscommon County, in connection with which that nobleman had written against several members of the Irish Parliamentary party, whom he charged with conspiracy. Mr. Russell declared that unless the government improved its policy in these evictions, an era of turmoil would be inaugurated in the west of Ireland, where there was trouble enough already. He said that he had visited the De Frayne estate three times, and that he was thoroughly convinced of the injustice under which the tenants suffered. The people there were the poorest of the poor. He believed one way to settle the matter was to carry out the land purchase scheme in Ireland when it was interrupted by agitators who desired to make government there impossible.

"MY CURE WAS MOST A MIRACLE"

Says Mr. G. M. Hoy in Speaking of the Efficacy of Pe-ru-na for Catarrh.

Granville M. Hoy, Sheridan, Ind., is Past Grand, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Lodge 61. In a recent letter he says:

"I suffered for years with liver complaint, causing me severe pains and a peculiar weakness across the small of my back, so that it was hard to stoop, and sometimes very painful to walk about. I had used so much medicine without deriving any help that I just let it go, until a neighbor was cured by Peruna. That led to my using it, and before I had used ten bottles I was cured. I consider it almost miraculous."

Catarrh is liable to attack any organ of the human body. Many cases of kidney, liver and bladder disease which baffle the doctor's skill are but catarrh of one or both of these organs. That Peruna is a cure for such cases, the accompanying letters show.

Mr. W. L. Butler, 125 Bellevue avenue, Kansas City, Mo., Secretary and Treasurer of the O. R. of America, writes: "There is nothing like Peruna for liver and bladder trouble. A number of railroad men have used it when they were broken down from the constant strain which they are obliged to undergo, and were greatly benefited by its use. I have used it frequently for myself and family, and would not be without it for the world."—W. L. Butler.
