GETS CLOTHES AND PROVISIONS

Binds and Gags Four, Impresses a Boatman and Embarks on Puget Sound—Now Said to Be in Vicinity of Whatcom.

SEATTLE, July 6.—The Sheriff's office in the possession of information which clearly establishes that the outlaw Tracy on Friday night succeeded in eluding his pursuers in the northern end of the county and crossed Puget Sound in a rowboat from Meadow Point, his original point of landing, to Port Madison on Bainbridge Island.

Tracy appeared at the home of John Johnson, at Port Madison, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, took possession of the premises, and spent the afternoon.
He ate heartily, changed clothes, and at dusk impressed a hired man named Anderson into debarking with him in Johnson's rowboat, presumably for the Hood's Canal country. Sheriff Cuddehe has generally abandoned the search in this country, and at noon today chartered the tug Sea Lion and left in hot pursuit of the fleeing outlaw. He went first to Port Madison, and from there took up the chase, accompanied by a small body of determined men.

It has since been ascertained that the convict went toward Whatcom.

SEATTLE, July 6.—By the longest jump he has taken so far in his flight, Tracy, the Oregon murderer, has completely demoralized all the carefully laid plans to capture him. Friday he left the vicinity of Bothell, Saturday noon he reached Port Madison. Tonight at 6 o'clock he was reported seen on the outside of Deception Pass between Fidalgo and Whidby Islands. His zigzag course and unexpected movements have once more placed him beyond immediate danger. His latest coup is the most spectacular of all. The murderer's objective point is now supposed to be Whatcom, where it is stated he expects to meet a friend.

Tracy's arrival off Deception Pass was reported to Sheriff Brisbane, of What-com County, at 8 o'clock tonight. He received the message from Charles Brisbane. Scouts have been sent out to patrol the shore line of Cluckumut Bay, below Fairhaven, where it is believed that Tracy will attempt to land.

That Tracy is trying to reach friends in Whatcom County is stated to be almost certain in a dispatch from What-com tonight. "Cub" Merrill, said to be a brother of Merrill, the convict who escaped with Tracy, lives at Whatcom.
Saturday night, while intoxicated, he said that the murderer was on his way to that place. He also stated that arrangements had been made to meet him.

As a result of Tracy's spectacular jump the greatest hue and cry after a criminal in the history of the state is under way.
Amateurs as well as launches out guarding the passes through which the convict may reach the shores of Whatcom County.
Deputy Sheriffs are flocking from all sides to join in the man-hunt, and when Tracy lands he will be hard pressed. The last heard of Sheriff Cuddehe and an expedition he led on the tug Sea Lion to Port Madison in pursuit of Tracy was at Sidney. He went there to hold a consultation with Sheriff Sackman, of Kitsap County.

Tracy's flight from the vicinity of Bothell Friday was unexpected. According to his own story, he beat across country to Meadow point, where he held up a Japanese fisherman. At the point of his Winchester rifle he forced the man to take him across Puget Sound to Port Madison.
At Madison the murderer entered the home of a Scandinavian family named Johnson. There he ate a hearty meal and changed his clothing. He made no effort to conceal his identity. When he left the house Tracy left all the members of the family tied to beds and gagged. He took Johnson's hired man with him and left Madison in a large boat belonging to the family, accompanied by the hired man.
He set all down Puget Sound on Saturday afternoon at dusk. The news of Tracy's latest exploit spread like wildfire. Sheriff Cuddehe returned from Bothell on the morning train and organized a new posse.
The tug Sea Lion was chartered and the party left this afternoon for Port Madison. It consisted of a large number of heavily armed men.

Until Tracy's boat was seen off Deception Pass no definite news of his movements was received. It was reported that he was heading for the Straits, Sheriff Hammond, of Jefferson County, and a number of guards left Port Townsend on the revenue cutter Grant in search of the murderer. Wild rumors floated around Puget Sound of a desperate encounter between Tracy and the crew of the revenue cutter. The crew were said to be in boats and firing into the woods in the vicinity of Appleton Cove. The story was credited to the officers of the tug Dolphin.
They emphatically denied that it came from them.

From all indications it would appear that Tracy took the outside passage on his voyage to Deception Pass. In this case he must have gone past Port Ludlow, Fort Townsend, Fort Flagler, Casey and Warden. His boat must have been in sight of these places, as the mur-derer slowly put mile after mile between himself and his pursuers.

FOR BRITISH TERRITORY.

Such Said to Be the Aim of the Oregon Convict.

TACOMA, July 6.—A staff correspondent of the Evening News telegraphs from Seattle that he has absolutely verified the information that Tracy, the Oregon outlaw, spent last night rowing for dear life toward Vancouver Island or some

Storm Swept Over New York State.

MANY ACRES ARE UNDER MUD

Cattle and Other Farm Property Swept Away, Buildings Undermined, Railroads Greatly Damaged—Rough in Wisconsin.

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 6.—A terrific wind and rain storm swept over Western New York on an early hour today. Rivers and creeks rose rapidly, overflowing their banks and sweeping away houses and barns and livestock. The loss will reach into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.
Telegraph and telephone wires are all down and communication with small towns is difficult. This city was not in the path of the storm. At Arcade the flood caused the loss of one life and did $100,000 damage to property. Minnie Loper, who kept a bakery on the bank of the creek, was drowned.

There were many narrow escapes. At Yorkshire, near Arcade, the approaches of the bridge were washed away and miles of roadway were so gullied or buried in debris that they will have to be rebuilt. At Sandusky two houses were washed away, and from every direction come reports of livestock killed. The loss to individuals will be very high, and the loss to the towns from the destruction of bridges and roads will also be very heavy.

Such Flood Never Known Before.

BATAVIA, N. Y., July 6.—The heavy rains of the last six days have swollen Tonawanda Creek to a degree never before known, even in the worst Spring freshets. A torrential downpour fell at midnight, making the situation perilous for persons living near the river. At 3:30 P. M. the flood came over the banks of the creek, which are 50 feet high. Hundreds of acres of farm lands are under water, and the damage will be great.

Scores of houses on South and West Main streets were under water, and thoroughfares at 9 o'clock tonight. Both the Erie Railroad and the Attica branch of the Central are under water most of the distance between Batavia and Attica.

Genesee Valley Swept.

PORTAGE, N. Y., July 6.—The worst storm ever known in this section is now sweeping down the Genesee Valley. Rain fell heavily for 24 hours, and at an early hour this morning a cloud-burst sent the streams over their banks. The river here is now a torrent a mile wide. At 8 o'clock tonight the water was 10 feet above the normal level. The lower part of the town had to abandon their homes. The farms are laid waste, and no field crops can be saved. Houses and barns were swept down the river. The railroad is washed out in many places.

Seven Iron Bridges Carried Away.

ATTICA, N. Y., July 6.—The storm swelled Tonawanda Creek over its banks, and the seven iron bridges of the Water Company, two miles south of here, gave way. The dam at the Attica mills was washed away. Dead cattle, wagons and wrecks of all kinds were washed downstream. Several bridges in this town were carried away. Railway roads are badly washed away.

City Water Supply Cut Off.

WARSAW, N. Y., July 6.—The loss from the flood in this town reached $100,000.
Oatka Creek burst its bounds, and in making a channel through the principal streets carried devastation in its path, wrecking houses and barns, many of which were swept bodily down stream, together with an immense amount of debris brought down from the surrounding hills. The city water supply is cut off.

Damage of $250,000.

PIKE, N. Y., July 6.—At daybreak Pike was under four feet of water. Almost every bridge over creeks in Niagara and Allegheny counties and in the southern part of Wyoming County was washed away. It is estimated that the damage in this town and in the immediate vicinity will amount to a quarter of a million dollars. Much stock was killed.

Hundreds of Acres Under Mud.

CENTER, N. Y., July 6.—South of here Buffalo Creek is higher than it has risen since the week of the Johnstown flood.
The big iron bridge at Java has been washed away. McBeth's mill, in Wales, has shifted off its foundations, and is in danger of collapse. Hundreds of acres of farm land are covered with mud and standing crops are ruined.

Rain, Hail and Wind.

ELMIRA, N. Y., July 6.—The greatest rain storm in years visited this valley yesterday and today, and 3.86 inches of rain fell from Saturday morning to 7 o'clock this evening. This evening a terrific hail storm destroyed many tobacco crops south of the city, uprooted trees, overturned outhouses and destroyed much property.

Houses Were Undermined.

HORNELLVILLE, N. Y., July 6.—A tremendous downpour of rain early today caused one of the worst floods of the year in this vicinity. All of the lower part of the city was soon flooded. Three houses were undermined and carried away.

and the towns of Arkwright, Fomret and Hanover are under water.
