

NEW DEAL ALL ROUND

County Officers - Elect Take Their Places.

DRISCOLL DROPS CONTEST SUIT

Store and Fields Go Into Office Unchallenged - Dr. E. P. Geary Appointed County Physician Temporarily.

There was almost a complete change of administration at the Courthouse yesterday, the new officers taking their places without the opposition which was expected in some cases. Many of the old deputies were retained, but enough new faces appeared behind counters to give the office a strange appearance. William Showers, County Commissioner (holdover), and Charles E. McDowell, County Assessor (re-elected), are the only officers who will remain in their places of all those who controlled or administered county affairs up to yesterday morning.

Sheriff Storey assumed the duties of his office yesterday, and late in the afternoon John Driscoll, through his attorney, M. L. Pipes, withdrew the contest which he filed against Mr. Storey in the State Circuit Court 10 days ago.

County Clerk Fields took charge without opposition, and it has developed that Mr. Sweetland administered the oath of office to Mr. Fields several days ago, and delivered to him a certificate of election which he personally signed. They met yesterday in the most friendly manner possible, and spent considerable time arranging matters relative to the transfer of the office. Mr. Sweetland will retire to conduct his private business. He says the question of contesting Mr. Fields' right to office on constitutional grounds was largely a matter of discussion, and never was seriously considered by him. County Judge Webster and County

Commissioner Barnes were accorded a hearty reception by their predecessors, Judge Calk and Mr. Mack. The new board talked in a general way with the new officers in the afternoon, and appointed Dr. E. P. Geary as County Physician, in the place of Dr. Harry F. McKay, resigned. In this connection Judge Webster said: "There are a good many applicants for the position of County Physician, and the board has not had time to look them over and examine into the qualifications of applicants. Dr. McKay having resigned it became necessary to appoint some one at once. The board asked Dr. Geary to accept the place for the time being, and he has consented to do so. He made no application for it."

The new officers and deputies who went in yesterday are as follows: County Clerk, Frank S. Fields, deputy, Arthur C. Hancock, chief deputy; F. W. Prapp, W. G. Kerns, Miss E. N. Hess, J. J. Chamberlain, George R. Funk, Circuit Court deputy; J. L. Dunlap, George Wilson, A. Reid, Miss Minnie S. Phillips, Mrs. E. H. Alton, Recorder Department, James E. McCord, chief deputy; H. Raech, Harry Banford, R. Johnson, J. H. Bush, Mary A. Henson, Mrs. Elizabeth Layman, Theo. Walls. Sheriff, William A. Storey; chief deputy, James M. Stott, Deputies, Charles R. Frazier, Penumbra, Kelly, Herman Schneider, John Verberg, Charles Johnson, Tax department, D. F. Dryden, chief; M. Reinstein, George C. Durham, W. E. Daniel, D. Steel, F. D. Chamberlain, Clara Mathews. Jailer, D. D. Jackson. Commissioners, Frank C. Barnes and William Showers. County Auditor, Carl Brandes; deputy, P. Otto Burdhardt. County Surveyor, John A. Hurlburt; deputy, R. S. Greenleaf. Coroner, J. P. Finley. Assessor, C. E. McDowell; old force of deputies re-appointed. County Treasurer, John M. Lewis, Justice of the Peace, West Side, William Reids; clerk, J. Kites; constable, W. E. Jackson; deputy, A. G. Adams, holding a deputy sheriff's commission. East Portland Justice, Waldemar Seton; clerk, James Craib; constable, A. L. Keenan. County Physician, Dr. E. P. Geary. Road Supervisors, James Barry, S. A. Eyrbrock, R. H. Love, John Hoffman, S. W. Simmons, W. H. Dougherty, J. E. Blackburn, James Kepcha, D. W. Metzger, R. L. Robertson, James M. Hillyard, Carl Nelson, Alex. Barr, D. V. Hart. J. L. Dunlap will act as clerk of department No. 1, State Circuit Court, and George W. Wilson of the other departments. Chief Deputy H. C. Smith was engaged yesterday in receiving information from Lansing Stout, the retiring chief clerk.

Mr. Stout and some others of the old force may remain in the office for a few days to be of assistance to the new force. The amount of bonds filed by the new officials and the securities were as follows: John A. Hurlburt, County Surveyor, $500, the American Bonding & Trust Company, by James McLeod, attorney in fact. John M. Lewis, County Treasurer, $50,000, same company. Carl A. Brandes, County Auditor, $50,000, same company. William A. Storey, Sheriff, $10,000, United States Fidelity & Guaranty Company, by J. L. Hartman, attorney in fact. J. P. Finley, Coroner, $500, same company. W. E. Jackson, Constable, Portland District, Justice Court, $500, same company. Waldemar Seton, Justice East Side Justice Court, $500, American Bonding & Trust Company. A. L. Keenan, Constable, East Side Justice Court, $500, same company. The various Road Supervisors each filed a bond in the sum of $100, and the County Judge and Commissioners are not required to file bonds. J. M. Lewis, the new County Treasurer, did not appoint a deputy when he entered upon his duties yesterday morning, and it is not likely that he will appoint one. Mr. Lewis said yesterday that he intends to give his personal attention to the office and that he will not need a clerk. Mr. Lewis has filed a security bond in the sum of $50,000, the amount required by law.

NEW JUSTICE COURT OFFICERS.

Waldemar Seton and A. D. Keenan Entered Upon Their New Duties. Justice Waldemar Seton and Constable A. D. Keenan, with their clerk, James Craib, took charge of the East Side Justice Court yesterday at 12 o'clock. T. W. Vreeland, retiring Justice, and Captain A. M. Cox, retiring Constable, with Clerk Thornton, took their departure. The latter officers go out with the good wishes of the public, whom they have served faithfully during their terms of office. Mr. Vreeland will resume the practice of law. Justice Seton and Constable Keenan are both well-known residents of the East Side. Mr. Seton is an attorney of experience, and Mr. Keenan is an old resident. The business of the court will proceed without interruption at the same room on East Morrison street, near Grand avenue. Some furniture was installed yesterday, and in a few days the new Justice Court officers will be fully settled for the next two years.

RETURNING TO PORTLAND

Edith Tozier Weathered Booming Oregon and the 1905 Exposition.

Mrs. Edith Tozier Weathered, one of the Oregon Commissioners at the Charleston Exposition, is now on her way home to Portland. Mrs. Weathered is making many stops on her trip across the continent, and is booming Oregon and the Lewis and Clark Centennial in grand style. Her picture was reproduced in both the Boston Transcript and the Louisville Courier-Journal, together with lengthy interviews. To a reporter on the Boston Transcript Mrs. Weathered had the following to say: "We just want people to come to till our soil. We are the biggest exporters of wheat and timber in the world. The same vessels that sail into Liverpool and New York carry our magnificent timber can enter right into the heart of Oregon. Four counties in Oregon have the largest timber area in the world. There are thousands of acres of trees from 8 to 12 feet in diameter and from 150 to 200 feet high. Often it is 100 feet to the first limb, and it is wonderful to see the boards that are cut from them without a knot. Millions of dollars are in store for the investor."

The following from the Louisville Courier-Journal: Mrs. Weathered is booming the Lewis and Clark Exposition, to be held in Portland in 1905. Speaking of Oregon exhibits at the different expositions, Mrs. Weathered said: "At Omaha, Oregon carried off more medals, diplomas and honorable mentions than any other state. We doubled the record at Buffalo, and did even better at Charleston. At St. Louis, well, any other state will have to prepare as never before, for Oregon is going to the World's Fair in the grand way. My state produces everything that makes health, wealth and happiness. We want capital and labor, and through our displays at expositions are receiving both. The capitalist sees our raw materials. We want labor for our soil. Thousands of acres of rich lands are idle. They would produce grain, fruit or our most fertile stock, nothing the farmer a little fortune in a short space of time. At an exposition these facts are presented to the visitor."

Boer Leaders Coming to America. NEW YORK, July 7.—The Daily Mail's Petersburg correspondent writes, according to a World special from London: "Louis Botha, in the course of a conversation, said that after their visit to Europe, he, Dewet and De la Rey intended going to America, but their itinerary would have to be determined by circumstances. Their object was to collect funds for the relief of Boers ruined in the war. "Botha is arranging for an official history of the war from the Boer side, written by himself, Dewet and other leaders."

HONORED AT BANQUET

UNIVERSITY CLUB DINES MAYOR GEORGE H. WILLIAMS.

Toasts Are Given to the President, Governor-elect Chamberlain and the Guest of the Evening.

Last evening was a gala occasion at the University Club, the event being a banquet in honor of Governor-elect George H. Chamberlain and Mayor George H. Williams, honored members of the club, who were recently chosen to fill the two highest offices within the gift of the people of Oregon. Greatly to the disappointment of the club members, Mr. Chamberlain was unable to attend the banquet, but his health was drunk and the happy company which was formed until a late hour. Never before in the history of the University Club has there been so pleasant a gathering as was held last evening. The handsome quarters of the University Club, in the Failing building, were neatly decorated for the occasion, and the tables were loaded with the customary substantial and delicious of a sumptuous banquet. Covers were laid for 50, and at 7:30 o'clock the dinner began. After the menu had been served, President J. K. Kollock, who acted as toastmaster, called upon the members to drink to the health of President Theodore Roosevelt. When the glasses were empty, the Boyer Quartet started the popular chorus, "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," which was taken up by one and all. A. L. Mills was then called upon, and made a few pointed remarks about the duties of citizenship, telling of the career of Judge Williams and how he has always answered the call to every public duty and responsibility during his 50 years' residence in Oregon. He urged the members of the club to follow the example of Judge Williams in accepting their responsibilities, after which he proposed a toast to the venerable statesman whose life has been so closely identified with the history of

GLADSTONE PARK TODAY

ANNUAL CHAUTAUQUA ASSEMBLY WILL CONVEYE.

Many Campers Already on Grounds - Special Trains - Baseball - Lectures.

The Chautauquans are gathering from all quarters for the great assembly at Gladstone Park, which convenes this morning at 10:30 o'clock. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather, campers began to arrive last Saturday and pitched their tents in the rain. A large number came in Sunday, some from the State of Washington. Yesterday trains began to stop at the Park, bringing campers and their outfits from Valley points, and the park was all bustle and activity. The great auditorium is being beautifully decorated with evergreens and bunting. The Portland General Electric Company is installing 10 arc lights, which will give ample light to all parts of the grounds. Today the Southern Pacific Railroad puts on its special train service from East Washington street, all City & Suburban cars will transfer passengers to the special trains and sell coupon tickets to the park and return. The crack amateur baseball team from Mount Angel and Chemawa will cross bats on the Chautauqua grounds tomorrow. They will inaugurate the baseball tournament that will run through the entire season. The Mount Angel, Chemawa, Vancouver and Oregon City teams are already in the series, and a month's entry is expected today. These games will prove very attractive, and a relaxation from the heavier work of the Chautauqua. The eloquent Dr. Robert McIntyre will deliver his great lecture "Fun on the Farm" at 8 o'clock, and tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock his second patriotic lecture, "The Sunny Side of Soldier Life." The 7:15 train from East Washington will reach all evening entertainments. The following is the detailed programme for today: 10:30 A. M.—Music—Chemawa Indian Band. Invocation. Address of welcome—President W. C. Hawley. Response—Dr. C. E. Cline, of Portland. Organizations of classes and announcements by instructors. 11:30 A. M.—Music—Chemawa Indian Band. 12:30 P. M.—Band concert—Chemawa Indian Band. 1:30 P. M.—Reading—Miss Minnie Hamill, Lecturer, "The Lawyer in Public Life, a Lecture on the Law." 2:30 P. M.—Lecture—"Fun on the Farm," Dr. Robert McIntyre.

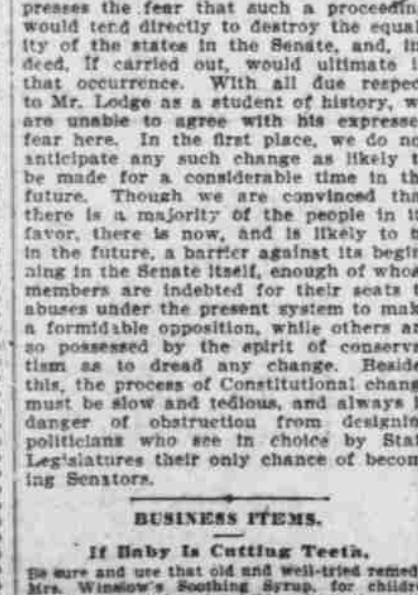

Oregon, in response, Judge Williams took the floor, and after thanking the University Club for its hospitality, proceeded to tell of a number of amusing experiences connected with his public life and his recent campaign for the Mayoralty. Judge Williams is a typical after-dinner speaker, and during the course of his remarks his hearers were kept in uproarious laughter. He closed by telling the company that the way to win a man's heart is by reaching him through his stomach—an admonition that he hoped his hearers would remember for the benefit of their careers. Judge H. W. Hogue then proposed a toast to A. L. Mills, and the glasses were drained to the last drop. Lauren Pease then sang "Only in Dreams, Mills' name to repeated calls for an encore. The next number was a selection by the Boyer Quartet, after which W. W. Cotton spoke earnestly upon the need of more concerted action on behalf of the people of Oregon, concluding by proposing a toast to Governor-elect George H. Chamberlain. The mention of this popular gentleman's name was the signal for loud applause, as he has been an active member of the club since its organization. Frank B. Riley was then called upon, and told a witty story of the first visit of a would-be depositor to a leading bank, the telling of which produced a happy effect. After a few remarks by Judge H. W. Hogue and a pointed speech by F. N. Holmes, the proposal of a toast to Congressman A. F. Piegel, the banquet was dismissed, and the remainder of the evening was spent in singing and socializing. Those present were: Hon. George H. Williams, J. K. Kollock, F. W. Mulkey, Wallace McCann, W. W. Cotton, W. D. Denton, F. P. May, D. A. Dumas, N. E. Ayer, C. E. Orelle, B. C. Ball, Dr. E. F. Tucker, H. A. Powers, Norman Pease, H. T. Platt, W. E. Thomas, H. G. Platt, Dr. A. Macdon, Dr. Edmond C. Laurens, Pease, John Keating, F. V. Holman, Mark Oill, F. M. Warren, Jr., G. L. Toneyhill, George A. Warren, James White, Fred Strone, Dr. J. W. Chance, C. N. McArthur, O. C. Laiter, R. A. Letzer, Harry S. Sladen, Richard W. Montague, E. C. Bronaugh, F. Powell, Lydell S. Baker, Frank B. Riley, Thomas G. Greene, C. Henry Lamb, Dr. Edmond C. Laurens, George H. Durham, H. A. Montgomery, Dom Zan, H. W. Hogue, Alex. Sweek, W. H. Boyer, Judge Arthur L. Fraser, Harry Kisterman, Dr. Herbert W. Johnson, J. W. Hill, A. F. Piegel, Dr. W. E. Carl, Hopkins Jenkins, James G. Wilson.

AMBITIOUS STUDENTS.

College Boys Pay Their Own Way Through a New York School. Pittsburgh Dispatch. In rebuttal of the assertion of Mr. Andrew Carnegie that academic training unfit a man for business, the statistics of the Columbia University on student employment, just published, afford interesting reading. It seems that this institution on Morningside Heights, of which the practical 8th Law, now Mayor of New York, was president so many years, numbers a great many students who are not afraid to tackle the job of earning a living, even while going through the curriculum. That the business world in New York, too, is alive to the energy and youth within the walls of the university is plainly shown from the fact that very recent applications were made by local insurance companies, publishing houses and brokers for the names of all those students in the graduating class of Columbia who had not decided to continue their studies in the professional schools.

Safe from Summer Complaints

All mammas, and papas too for that matter, dread the heat of summer with its danger for the little folks, especially the babies. It is simply heart-breaking to read year after year about the great death rate among children caused by the summer's heat. Yet it is easy to protect the infants against all summer complaints, because we know that all these fearful perils have their beginning in stomach and bowel troubles, and we have a perfect family medicine that will keep the delicate machinery in a child's body clean, regular and healthy working order in the hottest weather—CASCARETS Candy Cathartic. The plump, bouncing, crowing baby shown here is a CASCARET baby. He feels that way winter and summer. Nursing mammas take a CASCARET at bed-time, and it makes their mother's milk mildly purgative and keeps the baby just right. Older children like to take the fragrant, sweet little candy tablet, and are safe from colic, gripes, diarrhoea, summer rash, prickly heat and all the mean troubles that summer brings with it.

Oregon, in response, Judge Williams took the floor, and after thanking the University Club for its hospitality, proceeded to tell of a number of amusing experiences connected with his public life and his recent campaign for the Mayoralty. Judge Williams is a typical after-dinner speaker, and during the course of his remarks his hearers were kept in uproarious laughter. He closed by telling the company that the way to win a man's heart is by reaching him through his stomach—an admonition that he hoped his hearers would remember for the benefit of their careers. Judge H. W. Hogue then proposed a toast to A. L. Mills, and the glasses were drained to the last drop. Lauren Pease then sang "Only in Dreams, Mills' name to repeated calls for an encore. The next number was a selection by the Boyer Quartet, after which W. W. Cotton spoke earnestly upon the need of more concerted action on behalf of the people of Oregon, concluding by proposing a toast to Governor-elect George H. Chamberlain. The mention of this popular gentleman's name was the signal for loud applause, as he has been an active member of the club since its organization. Frank B. Riley was then called upon, and told a witty story of the first visit of a would-be depositor to a leading bank, the telling of which produced a happy effect. After a few remarks by Judge H. W. Hogue and a pointed speech by F. N. Holmes, the proposal of a toast to Congressman A. F. Piegel, the banquet was dismissed, and the remainder of the evening was spent in singing and socializing. Those present were: Hon. George H. Williams, J. K. Kollock, F. W. Mulkey, Wallace McCann, W. W. Cotton, W. D. Denton, F. P. May, D. A. Dumas, N. E. Ayer, C. E. Orelle, B. C. Ball, Dr. E. F. AMBITIOUS STUDENTS.

College Boys Pay Their Own Way Through a New York School. Pittsburgh Dispatch. In rebuttal of the assertion of Mr. Andrew Carnegie that academic training unfit a man for business, the statistics of the Columbia University on student employment, just published, afford interesting reading. It seems that this institution on Morningside Heights, of which the practical 8th Law, now Mayor of New York, was president so many years, numbers a great many students who are not afraid to tackle the job of earning a living, even while going through the curriculum. That the business world in New York, too, is alive to the energy and youth within the walls of the university is plainly shown from the fact that very recent applications were made by local insurance companies, publishing houses and brokers for the names of all those students in the graduating class of Columbia who had not decided to continue their studies in the professional schools.

Safe from Summer Complaints

All mammas, and papas too for that matter, dread the heat of summer with its danger for the little folks, especially the babies. It is simply heart-breaking to read year after year about the great death rate among children caused by the summer's heat. Yet it is easy to protect the infants against all summer complaints, because we know that all these fearful perils have their beginning in stomach and bowel troubles, and we have a perfect family medicine that will keep the delicate machinery in a child's body clean, regular and healthy working order in the hottest weather—CASCARETS Candy Cathartic. The plump, bouncing, crowing baby shown here is a CASCARET baby. He feels that way winter and summer. Nursing mammas take a CASCARET at bed-time, and it makes their mother's milk mildly purgative and keeps the baby just right. Older children like to take the fragrant, sweet little candy tablet, and are safe from colic, gripes, diarrhoea, summer rash, prickly heat and all the mean troubles that summer brings with it.
