AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

SHIELDS' PARK 11th and Washington—Musical comedies, Hoot, Samar, vaudeville and music.

TALKED TOO MUCH—John Greenway's tongue got him into trouble in the Municipal Court. He was charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct, on the complaint of Police Officer Carpenter and Special Officer Mott. The evidence of the latter was to the effect that Greenway, who is a logger, was arrested on Burnside street, near Second; that he offered to fight the whole neighborhood, and that he had placed a rock in his handkerchief and had tied the latter in a knot. The policeman testified that with their clubbings, Greenway had said: "I had been drinking a little, but I had no rock in my handkerchief. I usually wear a 7 1/2 hat, but my head is so swollen that I could not wear a No. 15. Send for my handkerchief; you will find my money in it. That's all." Municipal Judge Hogue did so, and, on opening the knotted handkerchief, found no money.
Greenway's face fell, but he impudently said: "Well, it's a small rock, anyway.
I won't swear that this is my handkerchief."
"You are sentenced to 30 days in jail," went on the judge, "and if at the expiration of that time you remain in this town, you will be punished more severely."

INCIDENT LEARNED FOR CITY MUSEUM.— The museum at the City Hall will have a very new and interesting inmate in a few days. An employee of the Portland General Electric Company discovered an extraordinary looking lizard near St.
Johns yesterday, after some difficulty, captured it and brought it alive to Colonel L. L. Hawkins, who now has it in his possession. The little animal is about five inches long, and its body is probably half an inch through in the thickest place. The skin of the back is black, with two bright yellow stripes running down the back and down each side. The head and eyes are precisely like those of a snake. The most peculiar part of all, however, is the tail, which is about two inches in length, and a deep sky blue. It moves on four feet as gracefully as a snake, and at first glance a person could easily mistake it for one. It will be placed on exhibition at the City Hall some time this week, and all who wish may have a look at the extraordinary little creature.

OPIMUM-SMOKER GETS TEN DAYS.—
"I haven't smoked opium for six months," declared Frank Reynolds in Municipal Court yesterday. "I have worked," and he drew himself up proudly. "At what trade have you worked?" insisted Deputy City Attorney Fitzgerald, who had charged Reynolds with vagrancy.
"I have been a gambler at Blazier's and Fritz's—that is, I have been a booster.
My business was to play and make people think that they were going to win. I got $1.50 per day. The police have said that I frequent Chinese houses, but I have only visited them for my lottery tickets. I don't smoke opium now." "No; you're a witness," said the judge. "I have been a witness stand," remarked Mr. Fitzgerald sarcastically. "Well, it's been two months since I took any of it." The police stated that they had seen Reynolds about 3 o'clock in the morning, coming out of Chinese opium dens. Reynolds was sentenced to 10 days in jail.

PROGRESS OF TROUBLE-LINE EXTENSION.— The extension of the double tracks of the City & Suburban Railway up Flanders street from Second to Third is practically completed, and the laying of the curved tracks between the Second and the Third-street railway will soon be begun. The work will take some time. Crossovers and turnouts must be made at several places, but all the material is on hand, and the work will be ready for installation when the seven-inch rails purchased to replace the Third-street track arrive from the East.
Superintendent Switzer said yesterday that the rails were due, and that the work of laying the track would be begun as soon as they were delivered. There would be no delay in the work, he said, and during its continuance there would be no transfers for the Third-street cars would be run up Second street, and there would be no delays.

TELEPHONE FIRE.—A telephone message sent from the Hotel Portland at 10 o'clock last night called out truck company No. 1, and chemical No. 2, to extinguish a small blaze on one of the Columbia Telephone Company's poles, on the corner of Sixth and Yamhill. The fire was started by the crossing of one of the Portland General Electric Company's power wires with the telephone wires. There was a cable box on the pole, through which the wires are fed into a cable which runs to the main office. All of these wires are protected by small fuses for just such an emergency, but the current was so strong it formed an arc across the space where the fuse burned, setting fire to the cable box.
The firemen ran a ladder up the pole and soon had a stream from chemical No.
2 on the blaze, which was out in 10 minutes.

MISSIONARY MEETING TODAY.—The third quarterly meeting of the Columbia River branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal church will be held at Grace Church this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. An attractive programme has been arranged. The devotions will be in charge of Miss Fleming. Letters from the field will be read by Miss Hinesline, Miss Finley and Miss Talbot; vocal selections will be given by Miss Stuart and Miss Royal; a drill on annual reports will be given by some young women of Centenary Church, Miss Cranston, and Miss Hinesline, "Missionary Life," and Bishop Thoburn, the missionary bishop of India, will deliver an address. All interested in missionary work are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

ROW IN NORTH END DRIVE.—Henry Smith and William Armstrong, two employes of the notorious Badger saloon, Fourth street, were before Municipal Judge Hogue yesterday, charged with assaulting J. Carroll, who had been in the saloon drinking. Armstrong argued that Carroll was noisy, and that he had only used all the force necessary in ejecting him. "Next time you want to eject anybody from your place you had better blow a police whistle. Don't take the law into your own hands," advised Deputy City Attorney Fitzgerald. Armstrong was fined $10, and Smith was sentenced to 30 days in the City Jail.

CONCRETE OFFICE RELOCATED.—The Coroner's office will be located at the northwest corner of Third and Jefferson streets until the new building now in process of erection at the corner of Third and Madison streets is completed.
OPEN FOR THE SEASON.—The "Breakers," that fine summer resort on North Beach, is now fully open. Rooms are being rapidly reserved. Those who wish to secure accommodations should apply soon. See advertisement in Coast resorts.
ITALIAN SCAVENGER ARRESTED.—Dominick Lagrange, an Italian, was arrested by Police Officer Silver last night on the complaint of H. R. Biersdorf, charged with a violation of the ordinance governing dump carts.
STREAKER H. H. ELMORE will leave Astoria for Tillamook Bay points, weather permitting, Wednesday, July 9, at 8 A. M.
UMBRELLA made in Oregon; latest style; lowest prices. Repairing and restoring. Meredith's, Washington & 5th.
WATER—Two experienced grocery clerks; good recommendations. F. Drees & Co., Seventh and Washington.

BISHOP THOBURN'S LECTURE TONIGHT.— Bishop J. M. Thoburn, of India, will lecture at Grace M. E. Church, Twelfth and Taylor streets, this evening at 8 o'clock.
Hon. George H. Williams, Mayor of the City of Portland, will preside. Bishop Thoburn's subject, "The Philippines, Islands and Their Relation to the Pacific Coast," is a theme of great and vital interest to Portland, and will doubtless attract a large audience, as the speaker is a man of world-wide reputation, and an author of numerous books, and one of the great living authorities upon questions relating to the far East. Both Presidents McKinley and Roosevelt have counseled with Bishop Thoburn in relation to the Philippines, and only a few weeks since the bishop was, by the request of the President, before the Congressional committee now investigating this subject, where his testimony occupied their time for two whole days, evidencing their value of his opinions upon the subject. Bishop Thoburn has spent more than 40 years in the far East, and his lecture will doubtless be a most interesting and instructive presentation of his subject. Admission is free, and all are invited.

GOOSE HOLLOW YOUTH IN TROUBLE.— Charged with vagrancy and hanging around a Second-street saloon, in the Municipal Court yesterday, George Dowling, 19 years old, pleaded that the reason he went so often to the saloon in question was that he had injured his right hand in a fight, and had no other place to go. "What about your father?" asked Municipal Judge Hogue. "Oh, I can't remain at home; my father and I don't agree. He's a grocer in Goose Hollow," replied Dowling. "Besides, I do some work. I go out for a man's meals and bring them to him in the saloon." The police evidence was that Dowling has not worked for months; that he persists in frequenting Whitechapel resorts, and that he generally defied them when spoken to about his mode of living. "Let me go this time, and I'll be good," pleaded the accused. "If at any time during that period you can convince the court that you have a position waiting you, you will be discharged," replied the Judge.

TO RESUME WORK ON BRIDGE BUILDING.— Work will begin today on the fine five-story brick building for Henry Wein-hard, which will occupy the half block of the north side of Oak street, between Fourth and Fifth. Although he was ready to begin on the building some time ago, Mr. Weinhard hesitated about doing so, as it looked for a time as if there might be a general strike, and he was not desirous of becoming involved with the labor unions, or any one else who might be affected by the strike. Now that the industrial atmosphere has cleared, however, work on the building with the labor unions, or any one else
who might be affected by the strike. Now

VIOLATED SIDEWALK ORDINANCE.— Peter O. Baker and Andrew DeLain, walk contractors, were arrested yesterday by Sidewalk Inspector Lillis, of the City Engineer's department, for trying to evade the sidewalk ordinance which prohibits the construction or repairing of wooden sidewalks in the fire limits.
DeLain was arrested in the act of repairing a wooden sidewalk around the old livery stable located on the southeast corner of Fifth and Taylor streets, and Baker was caught repairing a wooden sidewalk on Eleventh and Washington streets. Their cases will come up before Municipal Judge Hogue this afternoon.

RECEPTION TO KITCHENER.— NEW YORK, July 7.—Both the Queen and the Prince of Wales will take active parts in the reception to be given to Lord Kitchener, but even the prospect of the coming of the conquering hero, has not cables the London correspondent of the Tribune, give an impetus to business, which is at a very low ebb. The announcement of the coronation apparently had a distinctly bad effect on trade, and no relief is anticipated for some time.
It has been decided to bring into London to keep the streets clear on the occasion of Lord Kitchener's home coming, next Friday or Saturday, 500 cavalry and 10,000 infantry, exclusive of the garrison in London and the troops from Windsor, at Hounslow, the whole making a total of more than 15,000 men. The Colonial troops who came home from South Africa in the Barratians are to be retained until after Lord Kitchener's arrival, and will, it is understood, have a place in the General's reception, in which Indian and other Colonial troops may participate.

SUICIDE OF A MURDERER.— CHICAGO, July 7.—Theodore Oeltner, who yesterday murdered his wife and wounded his baby and a 17-year-old stepdaughter, committed suicide in his cell at the police station last night with a rope made from his undergarments. Early last night the prisoner expressed sorrow over his crime, and about midnight he was apparently dozing, when he was found with his still alive today, but probably will not recover.

PLANS FOR FIREBOAT DISCUSS.— Details concerning the proposed new fireboat were discussed yesterday at a meeting of the special committee of the Chamber of Commerce in charge of the project, and a general discussion ensued. F. M.
Brasnick, J. C. Flanders, Carl H. Jackson, Fire Commissioner David, Chief Campbell and others were present. Committees were appointed to find out the probable reduction in insurance rates provided a fireboat is secured, and to write letters to the Representatives to the Legislature from Multnomah County and members of the City Council as to what steps can be taken.

REAR-QUARTERS AT THE IMPERIAL.—
The headquarters for the ladies accompanying the delegates to the Pure Food and Daily Commissioners' convention will be in the Imperial Hotel parlors. Ladies who are on the committee for each day of the convention will be expected to report at the hotel parlors at 9 A. M. All parties will start from this point during the convention.
CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.—Frank Cody and William Shay were arrested yesterday by Detective Snow at Sixth and Morrison streets, charged with assaulting Bert Basset, a milkman. Cody and Shay were released on their depositing $50 bail for their appearance at the Municipal Court.
