GIANTS IN TRAINING.

Jeffries and Fitzsimmons Getting in Condition for Their Big Buttle.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.-That Chamon James Jeffries will strike camp at Harbins this week and establish himself at the Reliance Club, in Oakland, until the day of his bettle with "Lanky Bob" Fitzsimmons, seems be an assured fact, and Al Greggains, president of the athletic club managing the struggle here. is exerting every effort to bring about the change. Greggains says Jeffries will be more content in Oakland, the scene of his ante-champion days, and will be more easily reached by those anxious to watch his condition. Jeffries has expressed dissatisfaction over the delay in erecting the temporary structure in which the fight will occur July 25, and the club management is not pleased with his nervousness. Greggains declares there is no possibility of the fight being delayed or postponed.

In the heat of the day, at Skaggs Springs, Fitzsimmons has been doing his quota of road work today. He took an early morning jaunt into the fills, despite the unpleasant dust and the mercless rays of the sun, and returned with sufficient courage to engage in a tussle with "Soldier" Wilson before his rub-down in the afternoon. Fitzsimmons is said to be holding some thrilling sessions with the punching-bag just now, and is striving to perfect himself in his old-time art of ral-lying. This whirlwind style that has distinguished the veteran's fighting in the past is programmed as the crowning ma-neuver and is calculated to result in the champion's undoing.

Jeffries was in a complete perspiration for hours today, and his trainers claim that he is in such excellent fettle that they are relieved of their usual worry and

Lou Houseman will reach here Thurs day. Blily Pierce will follow soon after-ward, and during the week there will be a notable gathering of the fistic class in this city. Most of the enthusiasts will visit the camps of both Jeffries and Fitzsimmons before the battle.

Al Hereford is on the scene, fighting his protege, Joe Gans, with all-comers, and protesting that the latter's recent battle with "Elbows" McFadden was not a pre-arranged affair, as has been urged. George Gardner today accepted a challenge from Jack Root to meet the latter at Salt Lake City during the Elks' Carnival. Houseman, who was in Cheyenne today, made the match by telegraphing predicted that by tomorrow afternoon the number will reach 20,000. The meetings yesterday and today were confined to the National Council, the Indian department and general sessions. Tomorrow the general work in detail will commence. The rank and file of the visitors were later in arriving than was expected, due in large measure to the fact that many stopped on the way to visit points of interest.

The first general session was held this afternoon at the Exposition building, the features being the addresses of welcome and responses. Wallace G. SOCIALISTS SNOWED UNDER. Turnerbund Turns Down a Radical Resolution.

DAVENPORT, Is., July &-The heated ussions in the North American Turnerbund yesterday on the woman ques-tion and taxation were cool compared with the contest precipitated today by an amendment of Delegate Vahlteich, of Chicago, containing a declaration in favor of the freedom of the press. The report of the committee on bund affairs depre-cated the curtailment in the Philippines and the United States of free discussion and publication of matters of public in-terest; declared against interference by the courts and the executive departments with the freedom of the press, and the executive committee was ordered to submit resolutions in accordance therewith to President Roosevelt and to Congress. imprisonment to be a threat against every newspaper. The amendment had the support of the "red" Turners and was hotly opposed by the entire conservative element. The vote on the Vahlteich amendment was decisively against the radicals, 108 to 228. The resolutions, as adopted, follow:

"Whereas, The freedom of the press has been repeatedly handicapped, not only in the Philippine Islands, but in the United States; and, "Whereas, The North American Turnerbund has always advocated freedom and rights of the people;

"Resolved, That the Tagastzung of the North American Turnerbund, in ression at Davenport, declares against continued restriction of the freedom of the press by executive officials and directs the executive committee to submit these reso-lutions to President Roosevelt and to Congress,

Debate on the Vahlteich amendment was very bitter, disruption of the bund seeming to threaten at times, the ques-tion of the domination of the Socialists being the issue. On the adoption of the amendment, the seven Rocky Mountain delegates, the eight Pacific delegates and the four Southern California delegates voted yes and the 14 Kansas delegates no.

Indianapolls not accepting the Turnfest of 1995, the fest was offered to Newark, N. J. If refused by the latter, the se-lection will be made by the executive committee. FLOATING BOTTOM UP. Sinking Scow Found at Morrison-

Street Bridge. A capsized scow, bottom-side up, was scovered floating down the Willamette River at Morrison-street bridge, about 2 o'clock this morning. An Oregonian reporter, in company with one of the watchmen employed on the bridge, rowed over to the scow, which was made fast to the pier. The scow is apparently about 70 feet by 35 feet, and the bottom looked as if it had recently been on fire. It seemed to be in a sinking condition, and it was not possible to find her name, as the gunwale was fully six feet below water. Some of men who afterward examined her though she resembled a Government scow once used to haul rock to the jetty at the month of the Columbia River.

A message was received from one of the watchmen on Madison-street bridge at 3 o'clock this morning, stating that a sand scow capsized there shortly after mid-night, and that one man was then known to be on board. His name is not known,
