AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.
SHELDON PARK (12th and Washington)—The Voltaire, Dalton and Lewis; vaudeville and music.

BRONCHO ON THE WARPATH—Excitement ran high for a while yesterday afternoon at Third and Washington streets, when a young broncho, driven by Harry Mountain, deliveryman for the Barnes Market, attempted to demonstrate his acrobatic ability by juggling with the dashboard and performing several feats that are very unusual in a delivery horse. By the time that the performance was over the wagon was looking as if it needed a rest in the repair shop, the horse's legs were badly bruised, and a mailbox standing on the corner was knocked down and broken. The broncho stopped and surveyed the crowd proudly, and the spectators were not slow to pronounce him a performer of exceptional ability. Mountain was just starting out with a load, and as he went to cross Washington street he saw a bicyclist approaching. If it were going to run into him, he stopped in order to give the rider a chance to turn out, but instead the bicyclist ran into the horse, and thereupon the performance began. The rider of the bicycle was fortunate enough to save both himself and his wheel from injuries, but bystanders say that it is a mystery that the horse did not attempt a few feats with the wheel or the man, and that had such been the case, it is not likely that either would have been in first-class shape after the first few rounds. Some heroic bystanders ran in and grabbed the horse's bridle, and he was soon under control. He was unhitched and led to the stable, his legs bleeding, but otherwise looking little the worse for the adventure. The wagon did not fare so well, and one of Uncle Sam's mailboxes will also have to go to the repair shop as a result of the escapade.

HENRY WEINBERG PAYS A FINE.—The name of Henry Trebot, driver for Henry Weinberg, was called in the Municipal Court yesterday, charged with violating a city ordinance by dumping ashes into the gutter at Fifth and Commercial streets, but he was not present. Mr. Weinberg took up the driver's cause and insisted that Trebot had not done any harm. "But he is charged with dumping ashes in the gutter," remarked Municipal Judge Johnson. "What harm will that do? I told the man to go ahead," said Mr. Weinberg. "We cannot alter the city ordinance at will. If you wish to know of a place where ashes can be dumped, the Superintendent of Streets can inform you," said the judge. "Well, I will have to pay the fine, anyway, so you may as well impose it. My driver is not coming into court," remarked Mr. Weinberg, and he threw down $10 in gold.

WORK FOR ALL WHO WANT WORK.—R. J. Sanford, who arrived in Portland in April from Havana, O., as one of a party of 19, objects to a statement published in the Ravensna Republican that everything is overdone here, and that there are a thousand people here for every job. He said the report was circulated by a young man of the party who got homesick, and who is one of a class who look for work and hope not to find it. Mr. Sanford says he is doing all the others who came with him are doing well, and not one of them is earning less than $1 per day. He says he has made more money here in one month than he can make in six months at home, and he intends to bring out another party in September of 20 or more.

OREGON PACER HEARD FROM.—Pathmont, one of old Albion's first 2:10 performers, and formerly owned by E. E. Miller, now an American Consul in China, has apparently come to life again. But little has been heard of the pacer since he was sold to Ontario, Canada, and last week he distinguished himself at Detroit by taking the fastest heat in the 2:08 pace and finishing second in four other heats. The time for the five heats were 2:12 1/4, 2:12 1/4, 2:12 1/4, 2:12 1/4, and 2:12 1/4. Pathmont at one time had the reputation of being a quitter, but there is nothing in the time of this race that would indicate anything like that, especially when it is considered that it is the first of the season, and the horses are hardly warmed up yet.

CHARGED WITH VAGRANCY.—Charged with being a vagrant, Charles Deo was before Municipal Judge Hogue yesterday, and pleaded that he was a wood-cutter by trade, and that he had to support a wife and four children, one of the latter being sick. "How many hours per day do you get away with?" asked Deputy City Attorney Fitzgerald. "Two or three," replied Deo. "Why do you hang around many Chinese gin mills?" "Oh, I take a drink once in a while." "How many drinks have you ever taken in one day?" "I did not keep count." After a long cross-examination, Deo admitted that he had not worked for three weeks, and the case was continued until tomorrow.

TWENTY DAYS ON THE ROCKS.—William Stewart, who is charged with vagrancy, when City Attorney Fitzgerald asked Deputy City Attorney Fitzgerald, in the Municipal Court yesterday, "Not guilty," replied Stewart firmly. His hair was matted, and he had not apparently had a shave for a long time. "Call Special Officer Byers, who arrested this man," announced Mr. Fitzgerald. Before Byers could step forward, Stewart said: "I head guilty." Byers' evidence was to the effect that Stewart frequented Chinese gin mills along Second street, and would not work so long as there was a prospect of obtaining a drink. The prisoner was sentenced to 20 days on the rocks.

HULLS!—The Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph Company has opened offices at the following places in Oregon: Selma, Josephine County; Campbell's ranch, Lane County; Lane County; Multnomah County; Kilsinger, Multnomah County; Grave, Clatsop County; Flavel, Clatsop County; Wilcox Springs, Clatsop County; Gellatly Station, Benton County; Prater, Benton County. Also at the following places in Washington: Ringo, Klickitat County; Ellsworth, Clark County; Ocean Park, Pacific County, and Seaview, Pacific County.

WHITE COLLAR LINE BOAT.—Astoria daily excursions, leaving foot Alder street, 7 A. M., except Sunday, returning from Astoria 7 P. M., except Sunday. This is a lovely ride down the broad and magnificent Columbia River, passing by numerous salmon canneries, sealing grounds, fish traps, all now in operation. Hundreds of fishboats, with white sail ever set, chasing the royal chinook and salmon. Pleasantly attentive officers. The ideal trip for pleasure. See "Dallies" electric sign. Both phones Main 32.

WORK ON WHITE HOUSE ROAD.—County Judge Webster's County Commissioners' Showers and Barnes yesterday counseled the White House road, which is being widened from 60 to 80 feet, and found the work progressing favorably. Smyth & Howard, the contractors, have a large force of men engaged. They began work at the entrance to Riverview cemetery, and are proceeding south in the direction of Fulton at a rapid rate.

YOUNG KING PINED.—H. S. Kuge, 17 years old, was before Municipal Judge Hogue yesterday, charged with assaulting another, but younger, boy named Seyder, who lives near the Custom-House. The Snyder boy stated that he and a third boy had words about a piece of wood, which Kuge interfered and hit him. "He called me a Swede," insisted the Kuge boy. "He made me mad, and I swung slipped him with my open hand. He was not hurt much," "No-o-o," admitted the boy who was the complainant. "Kuge, you had no right to hit that boy," spoke up the Judge, in a stern, judicial tone. "If he had called you names, as you say he did, you ought to have complained to his parents, and if that did not have the desired effect you ought to have had the boy arrested for using bad language. You had no right to strike him. You are fined $5." Kuge listened inaudibly to this code of ethics—from a boy's point of view—and paid the fine without another word.

HOW TO ADVERTISE OREGON.—The trustees of the Chamber of Commerce held a short session yesterday, but transacted little business of public interest. A bill before Congress to the interest of Alaska regarding homesteads and appointment of a delegate to Washington came up, and the president was authorized to appoint a committee to consider it. The old question of a booklet to Oregon resources and industries is still unsolved. Chairman Adolph Wolfe, of the advertising committee, proposes that the Chamber unite in an effort with the committee of publicity of the Lewis and Clark Fair. This committee may be appointed this week by President Corbett. Mr. Wolfe regards it as the best plan that could be devised for a booklet compiled by such joint action will accomplish two objects at once more thoroughly and cheaply than each object separately. FLOYD R. WIRTH, A. H. HANCOCK, Miss Jennie Violet's French blood boiled yesterday, in Whitechapel, when Miss Maggie Whacker suggested that the French were not as good as they should be. Shades of Henry of Navarre and Joan of Arc! In less time than it takes to tell it, the two women got into an altercation, and Miss Violet's hair was pulled by the other woman, and she was slightly cut on the forehead and shoulder. When the case was called in the Municipal Court, Judge Johnson said: "I had defied myself. That woman once nearly scolded another woman, and I thought my turn had come." "I never did," replied Mrs. Whacker. The case was adjourned until tomorrow, and bail fixed at $50.

MONUMENT COMMITTEE TODAY.—The members of the general committee having in charge the erection of the monument to the Second Oregon Volunteers are requested by Chairman Scott and Secretary Gantenbein to meet in the business rooms of the Chamber of Commerce, 28 Washington street, today at 3 o'clock P. M., for the consideration of reports of special committees on sites and designs for the monument. The members of the committee are: H. S. Rowe, H. W. Scott, James Jackson, H. W. Corbett, O. W. Gantenbein, C. J. Gantenbein, J. McDonald, A. L. Harbur, D. Solis Cohen, C. F. Bebe, E. E. Joseph, W. S. George, Charles E. Ladd, Ben Selling, W. C. Campbell, Mrs. Henry Jones and Mrs. William Alvord. It is hoped that all the members of the committee will be present.

CEMENT WALKS BEING LAID.—Numerous cement sidewalks have been laid during the past few months in the residential districts on both sides of the river. In front of new residences, it has been almost the invariable rule to put down cement sidewalks. People have discovered that, while such a sidewalk costs a little more than a wooden one, if properly laid it will last for a lifetime. A number of cement sidewalks are to be seen with the name of the street printed on the corner, and also the name of the contractor. The one is a convenience, and the other a good advertisement.

HITCHHIKER'S NARROW ESCAPE.—As William Morton, riding down Fourth street, near Morrison, yesterday afternoon, on his bicycle, he was run down by two horses attached to wagon No. 69, and narrowly escaped being killed or seriously injured. Fortunately, he was dashed from his bicycle by a man who grasped the tongue of the wagon and hung to it until the horses stopped dragging him along. He was considerably shaken up. The driver of the wagon drove away without giving his name.

SURPLUS FROM FOURTH OF JULY.—C. H. McLaure, secretary of the Fourth of July committee, has finished his financial report, and will next submit it to the auditing committee. It shows receipts to have been $304.52, and disbursements $267.88. Two or three bills are still unpaid, but their amount is included in the above total of expenditures. The surplus on hand is $136.64. The sum left over from last year's fund was $72.21. The money left over probably be held for next year's celebration.

DALLIES DAILY BOATS.—White Collar Line, leaving foot Alder street, 7 A. M., except Sunday; leave the Dalles daily 7 A. M., except Sunday; land at all way landing places between Portland and the Dalles. The scenic route of the world. Tickets sold going by boat to Cascade Locks or the Dalles, returning by O. R. & N. Co. train, leaving at 9 A. M. for Locks or the Dalles, return by White Collar Line boat. See Dalles electric sign. Both phones Main 32.

RACE BETWEEN LAUNCHES.—A spirited race occurred last night, between two launches Up-to-Date, owned by G. R. Green, and the Lillian, owned by James Fillman. The course was from the Madison-street bridge to the Burnside-street bridge and return. The launches had fair start, and they kept even the greater part of the trip down. Towards the end Up-to-Date pulled away, and on the return the Lillian was in the lead. The time was taken, and no record was established.

SMALL ACCIDENT AT BATH.—A tumor was current yesterday that a portion of the Fortunate union bath and toilet apart from the main structure and had drifted away during the previous night, but on investigation it turned out that the high winds prevailing had broken the structure, thus allowing a portion of the bath structure to drift. The damage was soon repaired, and the bath made secure.

COLUMBIA RIVER BASIN JOURNAL ISSUED.—The Columbia River Basin Journal, the first number of the Columbia River Basin Journal. The edition numbers 1000 copies. New issues will be made from time to time. The object is to set forth information about Portland and the Northwest. Copies have been sent all over the state. Articles are solicited for publication from communities throughout the state.

TALKER TOO MUCH RELIGIOUS.—G. C. Rowley, 53 years old, created an uproar last night in the neighborhood of Nineteenth and Saver streets, by his noisy explanation of various religious beliefs, faith healing among them. His conduct was so violent that he was taken by Policeman Halsey to the police station, where he will be detained until his relatives decide what they want done with him.

SUNDAY EXCURSION, CASCADEN LOCKS.—White Collar Line, steamer Balley Gatzert leaves foot Alder street, A. M., for Cascade Locks and returns 6 P. M.; 1:30 round trip; dinner served at noon. This is the grand scenic route of the world. This trip can be made on Sunday for comfort and rest. See "Dallies" electric sign. Both phones Main 32.

OREGON CITY BOATS.—Leave Portland daily at 8:30, 11:30 A. M., 3, 6:15 P. M. Leave Oregon City 11 A. M., 1:30, 4:30 P. M. A most delightful river ride for 25 cents round trip. See "Dallies" electric sign. Both phones Main 32.

IMPROVEMENTS AT PERMANENT EXHIBIT. The permanent exhibit at 245 Washington street is being improved. H. E. Doach, who personally owns most of the exhibits, has the work in charge. Additions will be made to the display from a large supply of products returned from Buffalo and Charleston. The products that came back amount to two carloads, and many of them are very choice. The grains that clung to the walls of the room have been taken down to make way for cow samples. When everything is in order again the display will be a credit to the city and to Mr. Doach. Merchants of the city have subscribed money for the exhibit. This money will go for rent and janitor service. Mr. Doach makes no charge for the use of the exhibits. Most of the products he has collected at his own expense. The only compensation he has received for his trouble is praise for the excellence of the display.

LAISON TRICE.—James Duncan, Thomas L. Kidd and J. H. Lenon, officials of the American Federation of Labor, will speak at Cordey's Theater Saturday night. Good music. Don't miss these orators. Admission free.

LADIES, turn out and hear the speakers at Cordey's Saturday night. Good music. Bring your husbands.

BIG RED MAN'S VISIT

DR. WILEY, GREAT INCOGNITO, MAKES TOUR OF COAST.

Instructs Lodges in Secret Work—Given Banquet by the Local Fraternity.

The Great Incognito of the Order of Red Men, Dr. Edwin D. Wiley, of Des Moines, Ia., who is making a tour of the West, conducting schools of instruction in the secret work of the order, held a meeting in Portland last night, and will hold another tonight. On his present trip he will make official visitations to the lodges of Oregon, Washington and California. The meetings are held as early as possible at central points, and an effort is made to have members from the various lodges of the community in attendance at the courses of instruction. The first meeting in Oregon was held at Astoria Monday night, and the attendance was very large. After the two meetings here Dr. Wiley will go to Sacramento, from where he will conduct a series of meetings in California. He says that the work done by the Oregon lodges is of a high order, and that the membership in this state is large, considering the short time that the order has existed here. The first lodge was organized in Oregon about seven years ago, and now there are about 30 lodges in the state, with a membership of over 2000.

"The lodge is making very rapid advancement," said Dr. Wiley yesterday. "The lodge is now over 15,000 or 20,000 very good, but in the last year the advance has been over 50,000. The Order of Red Men now ranks fourth among the strictly fraternal orders. The history of the Order of Red Men is closely entwined with the history of the Nation, and when I address an audience of people who are not acquainted with the history of the order, they often manifest much surprise at the close similarity. Back as far as 1812 there is a record of a formation of an order known as the Red Men, formed among a few patriotic young men who had taken up arms against the British. In 1832 the Improved Order of Red Men was formed, and the history of the organization is complete from that time. The lodge is organized strictly upon American principles, and I believe that there are more soldiers members of it than of any other order except the G. A. R. It was the first order to get a foothold in the Philippines, and there are now three lodges there, with a membership of over 500."
