AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

SHIELDS' PARK (12th and Washington)—O'Leary and Fay, Helen Lamar, vaudeville and music.

NO COMPULSION ABOUT IT.—Armed with circulars, containing extracts from the United States postal laws, by which it is attempted to show that laws have been enacted compelling the people to secure letter boxes for their houses for the convenience of the mail-carriers, an agent for a certain letter-box company has been endeavoring to convince the people of the city that he is representing the Mailcarriers' Association, and that he is selling, or renting, a box that they recommend. Complaints have been made by some of the people who are well enough informed to know that there is no law compelling them to secure these boxes, and the letter-carriers have been censured that they should take up such a scheme. Investigation shows, however, that the letter-carriers have had nothing to do with the matter and that this is merely a plan to sell the boxes. "It would be a great convenience," said one of the carriers yesterday, "if all of the people would secure boxes, and it would enable us to have the mail delivered much earlier, but as for recommending any certain box or attempting to force the people to buy boxes, none of us have taken such steps. There is no law that will compel the people to have boxes, and there is no ground upon which to force the issue except for their own convenience. The party who has sent out these circulars has had them printed for his own use and has no connection with the Letter-Carriers' Association other than all of us, if we were asked, would recommend the use of letter-boxes."

DELEGATES OFF FOR TACOMA.—Many delegates to the annual National Convention of the Young People's Christian Union of the United Presbyterian church have passed through the city the past few days, en route to Tacoma, where the convention is to be held. Among those who were in the city yesterday were Rev. W. W. Logan, of Los Angeles, formerly pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church, this city; Rev. H. H. Bell, D. D., of San Francisco; Rev. J. A. Speer and son, of Shedd, Or.; Rev. Joseph McKitrick, of San Jose, Cal.; Rev. Mr. Henderson, of Halsey, Or.; Dr. J. T. Fleming, M. D., and wife, of San Jose, Cal.; a party from Bloomington, Ind., and others from various parts of Oregon and California, and a party from Pittsburg, Pa. These went on to the convention city yesterday, accompanied by part of the delegation from the First United Presbyterian Church, of Portland, headed by the pastor, Rev. Huber Ferguson, and wife. After the convention closes, and the crowd starts homeward, the United Presbyterian young people of this city intend to entertain properly the delegates who pass through this city. Already a reception and rally have been planned for, and an excursion up the Columbia will be the order of the day for Tuesday or Wednesday next.

TICKET AGENT FOUND NOT GUILTY.—Accused of the larceny of two railroad tickets, each valued at $71 50, L. F. Beyreiss, joint agent in this city for the Transcontinental Passenger Association, was discharged yesterday by Justice of the Peace Reid, on the ground that no felonious intent had been shown, and that larceny had not been committed. The complainants were W. J. Lucas and C. G. Saxby, who presented the two tickets to Mr. Beyreiss, as agent, for validation, alleging that they had bought the tickets at Chicago. But Beyreiss was doubtful about this, and he held the tickets pending the result of inquiries he made at the Chicago office of the company he represents, and declined to return them, pending the investigation. It was supposed at the time that the tickets complained of had been bought from Portland "scalpers." In rendering his decision, Judge Reid stated: "According to the evidence submitted, there has been no larceny, only an unlawful holding of the tickets. The complainants deliver the tickets to Mr. Beyreiss of their own free will, and with reference to this part of the case they have a civil remedy to recover the tickets, if they so choose. There is no cause for a criminal action."

DELEGATE FOR LETTER-CARRIERS.—E. A. Moulton has been elected the delegate to the annual convention of the National Association of Letter-Carriers, which will be held this year at Denver, Colo. The convention will meet on Labor day, in September, and hold for one week. The topics taken up will be the methods and ways to give the people the best service, and reports of the meeting will be given out. Each city is entitled to one delegate for each 20 members or major fraction of that amount, or one delegate from each city, no matter what their number. Portland is entitled to three delegates, but will only send Mr. Moulton, and will give him the right to vote the proxies of the two others.

SPECIAL BEACH TICKETS.—$15 will purchase a five round-trip commutation season ticket to Gearhart and Seaside, on Clatsop Beach, and to all North Beach points, good in either direction on trains of Astoria & Columbia River Railroad or the Portland-Astoria boat lines. Ticket offices, 255 Morrison street and Union Depot. These tickets can be used going or returning, at pleasure of the passenger, until October 15. *

BAILEY GATZERT SUNDAY EXCURSION.—Cascade Locks and return, leaving Portland 9 A. M., return 7 P. M. Fare, round trip, $1 50. Mid-day meal, 25 cents. Palatial steamboat; music, and the grandest scenery on earth. Why stay at home when you can take the most delightful trip in the world at the most favorable season. "Dalles" electric sign. Both 'phones Main 251. *

POSTMASTER CROASMAN MAY GO.—The annual convention of the postmasters, in which every first-class office is entitled to representation, will be held this year at Milwaukee on August 26. This meeting is one in which the postmasters take a great interest, and it is probable that A. B. Croasman will make arrangements to attend.

CHARGED WITH VAGRANCY.—C. H. Smith, who says he was born in Wales, but whom the police say is a colored man, was before Municipal Judge Hogue yesterday, charged with vagrancy and roaming the streets after hours. The case was warmly fought for two hours by Deputy City Attorney Fitzgerald, and ex-Municipal Judge Cameron, who defended Smith. Evidence was given by Policemen Bailey, Gibson, Isaacs, Jamison, and others, to show that Smith, while he professed to be a barber at First and Madison streets, was an idle, worthless person, that he is a maquereau, and that he frequents places where his wife, Lottie Smith, is a disorderly person. The policemen examined all agreed that Smith is a dangerous man. "He once threatened to kill me," said Policeman Griffith Roberts. Against this evidence, Smith produced witnesses who swore that he is a barber and that he works every day. Lawyer Cameron argued at length on the meaning of the term vagrancy, and produced legal authorities showing what the Legislature meant when it framed statutes against vagrants, meaning the punishment of persons who wandered from place to place, likely to become persons requiring public support. Smith took the witness stand in his own defense; denied that he is a vagrant, and asserted that when he was recently arrested, two policemen struck him and drew their revolvers. This was denied by the policemen, who stated that they did not assault him, and that Smith was very abusive in his language. The case was continued, to secure more evidence.

VAGRANTS GET 60 DAYS.—Wearing patent-leather boots and a neat suit of striped tweed, John Reed, colored, walked into the Municipal Court yesterday, in company with a white woman named Trixie Cohen, charged with vagrancy. It was also charged that Reed is the male consort of the Cohen woman and that she gave him a portion of her earnings. "I'm no vagrant," proclaimed Reed, insolently, crossing his feet. "I play music in saloons; sometimes I earn as high as $50 per month. Then I go out on the river and play for excursion parties. How much money do these people pay me? Well, I don't want to say—I might exaggerate. Trixie Cohen's home is in San Francisco, and she wants to go to home and mother tomorrow, if you will allow her. She never gave me any money, and she spends her money on herself. I first met her in a saloon. I'm working now in a downtown saloon, and the pay I get depends on the drinks sold." Trixie Cohen, on being asked if she had anything to say, smiled and uttered this sentence: "Mr. Reed has said it all." "You are both found guilty of being vagrants," stated Municipal Judge Hogue, in calm, even tones. "The sentence will be each 60 days in jail." Both Reed and the woman looked as if they were to faint from surprise. It had been rumored in Whitechapel that they would be allowed to go on paying a cheap fine, but this time the gossips guessed wrong.

ACCIDENT TO CITY TREASURER WERLEIN.—City Treasurer Werlein, who returned from North Beach Monday night, appeared at his office yesterday with a badly injured hand, and he had to answer many questions as to how he received the injury. In reply to all the inquirers Mr. Werlein said he had met with an accident that did not fall to the lot of every city official. While he and his wife were walking along the beach Sunday, a young lady friend, intending to frighten both, pedaled her bicycle to within two feet of them, and then told them to get out of the way. Both tried to dodge the machine, but at the same instant the cyclist lost control of the wheel, and to save her from a bad fall Mr. Werlein attempted to grab the handle-bars. He caught the lantern-hanger with his left hand, and a sharp piece of steel penetrated the flesh to the bone. He suffered somewhat from the loss of blood, but he managed to get back to his cottage, where a physician dressed the wound. He will not be able to use the hand for several weeks.

SPECIAL TRAIN SERVICE AND CHEAP EXCURSION RATES VIA A. & C. R. R. MAKE A HIT WITH THE PUBLIC.—The excellent train service and cheap round trip excursion rates via the A. & C. R. R. between Portland and the beaches have made a decided hit with the public. Portland-Seattle Express leaves Union Depot every Sunday at 2:30 P. M. for Astoria, Flavel, Gearhart and Seaside, making close connection at Astoria with steamer Potter and I. R. & N. steamers for North Beach points. Round trip excursion tickets between Portland and all Clatsop and North Beach points sold every Saturday at $2 50, interchangeable with all boat lines, and good to return Sunday evening. Warm salt water baths at Seaside now open to the public. Write to J. C. Mayo, general passenger agent, Astoria, for handsome illustrated pamphlet, "What the Wild Waves Say at Seaside." *

TO FACE HORSE-STEALING CHARGE.—Deputy Sheriffs Moore and Tindall, of Okanogan County, Washington, arrived in the city yesterday to take charge of John Thomas, who is wanted in their county for horse-stealing. Thomas was recently arrested in Umatilla County for selling liquor to Indians, and the case against him was dismissed in the United States Court, but he was immediately retaken into custody on the more serious charge. Thomas agreed to return to Washington without extradition papers, but to prevent possible trouble along the line, Sheriff Storey appointed the Washington officers deputy Sheriffs of Multnomah County.

NO ACTION YET ON FIREBOAT.—The fireboat committee of the Chamber of Commerce has not got into action yet toward raising the fund of $50,000, but it hopes to do so shortly. Four of its five members have been out of the city, but two of them have returned, and the fund will begin to grow as soon as possible.

CENTRAL W. C. T. U. TO MEET.—There will be a meeting this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock of the Central Branch of the W. C. T. U. at the Young Men's Christian Association building, Fourth and Yamhill streets.

SPORTS GO TO 'FRISCO.—The local authorities on the noble art of self-defense estimate that no less than 35 Portland sports have gone to San Francisco to witness the great fight between Fitz and Jeffries next Saturday night, among them being Councilmen Merrill and Sherrett, Nace Grant, Jack Grant, C. D. Johnson, Clarence Blazier, G. Blazier, Frank Cody and Leon Justin. The betting here has been very limited, not more than $3000 having been put up, mostly on the odds of 10 to 4 on Jeffries, though one bet of $200 to $80 has been reported, but not verified. Most of those who went on the trip will place their money at the ringside, though the odds are not so good there, being but 10 to 4½. Merrill took the championship belt, the property of the late Jack Dempsey, with him, and will auction it at the fight, the proceeds to go to the Dempsey children.

BELDING'S QUIET LIFE.—Since his incarceration in the County Jail, A. L. Belding, the triple murderer, has received visits from a number of the morbidly curious, who appeared to be very anxious to see him. Admittance to all was refused, for Belding does not want to see any one except Jailer Jackson and the other deputy Sheriffs, and he has requested that no visitors be allowed to come near his cell. In deference to his wishes, Sheriff Storey has made the necessary order, but nevertheless people who want to see him call daily. Jailer Jackson says that Belding takes his jail life very coolly, and the only complaint he has to make is that he is receiving too much attention from people who should take no interest in his affairs.

ONE MORE BRICK BUILDING.—A three-story building will be erected at the southeast corner of West Park and Morrison streets. T. H. Bennett is the owner of the property. The frame buildings which have occupied the site for many years are being removed. The new structure will have a face of 50 feet on Morrison and of 60 feet on West Park. Excavation will begin as soon as the old buildings are cleared away. The cost of the structure will be about $30,000. The ground floor will be given to store quarters and the upper floors to a rooming-house. It was the intention of Mr. Bennett to begin construction earlier in the season, but strike difficulties held him back. The building will be finished in about four months.

THUMB NEARLY CUT OFF.—His hand badly cut with an ax, due to a careless stroke while cutting wood yesterday, George Falkner was brought to the Good Samaritan Hospital, and the doctors say that there is danger that they will not be able to save his thumb. While cutting wood his ax slipped and struck his hand in such a way as to cut his thumb nearly off. Faulkner is a newsboy, about 13 years old, and lives on Pettygrove street. His only anxiety upon being taken to the hospital was that some one should be secured to carry his papers.

CHURCH SOCIETY MEETS.

Evangelical Young People's Alliance in Session.

The 12th annual convention of the Young People's Alliance of the Evangelical Association of Oregon opened yesterday morning on the beautiful campground of Milwaukie Heights, near Milwaukie. Frank Culver, president of the alliance, presided. The principal matters of business were the report of the committee on credentials and the president's address, with his recommendations. The convention is being held in a large tent on a picturesque elevation, commanding a magnificent view in every direction. Living tents are in the surrounding grove.

The main business of importance coming before the convention is that of securing grounds at some central point in the Oregon conference for the erection of a tabernacle in which future conventions will be held. By some members of the alliance it is felt that this step is important in order to promote the future growth of the organization, and these hold that it would be better to have a permanent place for conventions. The matter of holding district conventions will also be considered.

After devotional exercises conducted by Morris Heverling, J. W. Gressly welcomed the delegates to the homes of the Milwaukie people, and a fitting response was made by T. R. Hornschuch, accepting the hospitality extended. President Culver took charge and the regular business of the convention was taken up. A paper entitled, "The Mission of the Young People's Alliance," by Miss Ethel, was read by E. L. Jones, she not being present. The gist of the essay was that the alliance was a young people's organization for the essential purpose of reaching young people, and that its mission was religious, intellectual and social.

J. W. Gressly started the discussion by asking if there was any restriction to membership, and whether only young people should be members. It was a consensus of the opinion that there was not and should not be any restriction in membership, and that the alliance needed the advice of the adults as well as the young. Along this line B. J. Green, G. W. Plummer and others spoke for wide open doors of admission.

"The Constraining Motive of Our Work" was the subject of an excellent paper of Miss Minnie Ferrier. She held that there should be earnest, sincere work that should be educational and uplifting. E. L. Jones highly commended the essay. T. R. Hornschuch indorsed its sentiment.

"The Bible and Its Mission" was the subject of a paper by C. T. Doty, which in his absence was read by Mr. Hornschuch. The subject was widely and thoroughly discussed. All agreed that too little atention was given to Bible reading.

In the afternoon the committee on credentials presented a partial report as follows. Delegates:

First English Church (Portland)—Miss Una Kiplings, Elma Fisher, Maude Smith, Odovilla Yates, Frank Mulleen, Fred Zinser.

Seattle—B. Heinrich, Mrs. E. H. Hornschuch, H. E. Hornschuch.

Chemetka (Salem)—T. R. Hornschuch.

Kings Valley—Sewert Ramsdall, Allie Launer, F. W. Launer, Lizzie Bush, Effie Cady.

Memorial (Portland)—Miss Myrtle Parley, P. J. Green, Mrs. Meiers.

Tigardville—Lydia Brant, Olive Wilson, Annie Pollard, A. Weinert.

Oregon City—Bertha Sheer, Mrs. Harrisberger, Mr. Grosenbacher, Mrs. Sheer, Carl Harrisberger.

East Chehalem—Harris Emil, Rhoda Heaten, Mrs. T. C. Emil.

West Chehalem—Grace Guenthes, Frank Meiers.

Fruitland—Ed Hornschuch, S. M. Benninghoff.

Liberty (Salem)—Miss Meda Steward, Bertha Glenz.

The committee was instructed to place on the membership roll all the preachers present. More delegates are expected today.

President Culver delivered the annual address, in which he reviewed the work of the year just closed. He said that he looked for a gain in membership for the alliance of over 100, which would be satisfactory. The speaker commented on the mission of the alliance throughout the state in repairing and furnishing churches, and in raising money for many good purposes. Along these lines the work of the alliance had been highly effective. In departmental and educational functions of the organization, Mr. Culver made a strong appeal for more exertion. These branches, he declared, were of the highest importance, and the more young people taking the normal course the more effective would be the work accomplished. In order to cause more interest in alliance functions, President Culver recommended that district conventions be held during the year. Such conventions, he said, would afford better opportunity to pursue the normal course. He also declared that every preacher should attend the conventions, and that in case they did not, that they should be reported to the conference, where they must give a reason for not doing so.

At the conclusion of the annual address Rev. N. Shupp and Rev. J. E. Smith were appointed a committee to consider the recommendations of the president. N. Shupp then gave a normal drill, using the blackboard. The other papers for the afternoon were interesting and helpful. Last night Rev. N. Shupp preached in the large tent.

Election of officers will be held today. The question considered: "Shall the alliance select permanent grounds at some central location and erect a tabernacle for future conventions?"

To Remodel Church Basement.

Plans will at once be prepared for remodeling the basement of the Centenary Methodist church, East Ninth and East Pine streets. It is proposed to utilize the whole of the basement. At present there is only a small room with low ceiling used by the Sunday school. This will be enlarged. It is thought that the floor may be lowered about three feet. Nearly $1000 of the $1150 required to make these changes and put in a furnace has already been raised. It is considered assured that the whole amount will be raised in time. This second large subscription following so closely on the $2400 raised less than three months ago is a remarkable achievement for Centenary Church.

Holiness Camp Meeting.

Holiness camp meeting, at East Twelfth and Division streets, will commence Friday, July 25, and continue as long as the interest lasts. It will be held under the St. John Holiness Mission. J. S. Jellison, a well-known evangelist of Chicago, will assist in the meetings. John F. Glasco will be the leader. A large pavilion tent and many small ones for families have already been set up on the ground. A restaurant will provide meals on the ground.

East Side Notes.

Mrs. Leo. F. Ball and her brother, Bradford Hall, of the East Side water office, left last evening for Ocean Park.

Councilman Sherrett and family, of the Eighth Ward, have gone to San Francisco, where they will remain about two weeks.

C. C. Vickery, yesterday commenced suit in the East Side Justice Court to recover $69 alleged to be due him from the Chicago Cash Register Company for wages.

Ernest G. Beers and Miss Ethel Hamlin, of Pleasant Home, were united in marriage in the office of the Mount Tabor Justice Court, Justice of the Peace Graham officiating.

The Milwaukie Postmaster is still waiting the appearance of the inspector of rural mail delivery districts. A route has been laid out south of Milwaukie including about 100 people, which awaits inspection.

It is announced that Rev. Ray Palmer formerly pastor of the Second Baptist Church, will arrive in Portland the first of August, and will make a lecturing tour through the Pacific States. October 1 he expects to enter on a new field in Chicago. He has been pastor of the First Baptist church of Chillicothe, Mo.
