Ison and the second states and The Hop Market. The local hop market seems to be at a stand-still at high-water mark, and no new transac-tions have been reported for several days. While prices are nominally unohanged, there is less disposition on the part of buyers to crowd matters. The situation in New York is thus reported by the Journal of Commerce of July 24: thus reported by the Journal of Commerce of July 24: "Supplies in brewers' hands were generally understood to be very moderate; nevertheless brewers were inclined to go slow in making contracts for forward deliveries. The slight improvement reported latterly in the state crop outlook and the slightly better cable advices new coming to hand from London have a de-terring influence. Mail advices received from up the state complain of the beavy reinfall of the past few days in some sections; still forms of the local trade are inclined to the opinion that the crop as a whole is showing an improvement and are now talking a yield of from 50 to 60 per cent of last year's crop. The up-state growers continued decidedly in-

"Tenterden, July 9.-Fly and lice still stick in spite of the washing which is done, and which seems to have only a temporary effect. Neglected gardens are short of bine, and bld fair to turn black." "High Halden, July 10.-The showers have freshened up the bins, but vermin still cling." "Brenchley, July 10.-The bins is very backward in a good many places for the time of year, and, in spite of continued washing, the aphis blight still continues to persist in its destruction." "Etchincham, July 10.-Hops have grown in this district during the late forcing weather, but we still have a great deal too much ver-min, and many pieces are very black of bire. Present prospects do not houk like an aver-age crop by a good deal, and the acreage is very much reduced." "Ewhurat, July 10.-Where washing the hops has been done two and three times the vermin and it seems a hopsless job to get rid of the insects. Mold is running very fast at places. The hop crop must be very short, without reat iterations." "Benenden, July 10.-Some of the gardens in this parish are somewhat neglected, and SHOR"

 While not sustaining any severe break, wheat Tacoma, Seattle Night KANSAS CITY, July 28 .- Cattle-Receipts While not sustaining any severe break, wheat was unsettled and easy all day, under moder-ate selling pressure. Showery weather West and a disappointing visible supply increase were the steadying factors, and heavy interior receipts, bearish cables and foreign crop news, increased stocks and liquidation promoted weakness.
