NO SPLIT ON TARIFF

Iowa Plank Far From Step Toward Democracy.

NOT RADICAL, SAYS BABCOCK

Schurz Says Bryan Is the Evil Genius of His Party—Portland Youth Named for Cadet to Annapolis.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 1.—The action of the Iowa Republicans has caused widespread and various comment throughout the East, both in editorial columns and by politicians. Simmered down, the view of the Republicans is that the tariff reform and anti-trust planks are about the same as the platform of last year, and while they show a tendency in favor of tariff revision and a determination to control the trusts, it is not in any way a radical declaration, and will not menace the protective policy. The Democratic press, on the other hand, seems to regard it as a step of far-reaching importance, and that it means that the Republican party has split on the tariff issue. Representative Babcock, who introduced the bills for the radical reduction of the duty on steel, says the Iowa plank on the tariff is as far from Democracy as the sky from the earth, while some Democrats hold it is a step in the direction of Democracy.

The great importance of the action by Iowa Republicans is that it is by a conservative Republican state, one which has two men in the Cabinet, with an influential Senator a leading member of the finance committee, and with the Speaker of the House. No other state will have as much power in influencing legislation. It is true that neither Allison nor Henderson favored the Iowa tariff plank, but both are quick to obey the will of their people, and both will feel compelled to carry out the wishes of their Republican constituents.

CADETSHIP FOR PORTLAND YOUTH.

Hugh C. Bellinger Named for Annapolis by Senator Simon.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 1.—The naval appropriation bill which passed toward the close of the last session provided for an increase in the number of naval cadets so that each Senator would have the naming of a cadet. Soon after the bill became a law Senators were asked to submit nominations of a principal and five alternates, so that the young men could be examined by the regular boards of civil service examiners in the principal cities. In accordance with that request Senator Simon has nominated Hugh C. Bellinger, of Portland, as principal, to fill the place at his disposal, but names no alternates. Senator Mitchell has not yet filed his nominations, nor have the Senators from Washington.

Senators Dubois and Heitfeld have submitted a full list. Dubois has nominated Ray H. Fisher, of Oxford, principal, and William Harris, of Weiser; Reid Fryer, of Soda springs; Joseph C. Rich, of Montpelier, Vestal F. Coffin, of Boise, and Ray Edwards, of Salmon, as alternates. All will be examined at Boise. Senator Heitfeld has named Verne C. Huribut, of Lewiston, principal, and Leroy Burr, Earl David and Robert L. Gormley, of Moscow, as alternates. They are to be examined at Spokane.

Representative Tongue also has a vacancy to fill and has nominated Fred M. Perkins, of Salem, as principal. This is a regular vacancy, caused by the graduation of the cadet credited to his district.

SCHURZ SCORES BRYAN.

Terms the Boy Orator the Evil Genius of Democracy.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 1.—Carl Schurz, the anti-imperialist, has followed up the "league" address in an interview which gives cold comfort to the Democrats. He longs for "a strong man like Roosevelt" who will take up the anti-imperialist cause and push it to success. Asked if he believed the Democrats had a chance of carrying the next House, he said they would, "if they could get rid of the Bryan incubus." Continuing, he said: "Bryan is the evil genius of the Democratic party, and now, when Democracy should be united against imperialism, Bryan is going about the country "preaching discord and internal strife."

INDIAN AND BUFFALO.

How the Latter Turned Hunter and Chased the Red Man.

Outing.

A retired officer of the Northwest mounted police, who took part in a Missouri buffalo run forty years ago, describes the impression at the time as of an earthquake. The galloping horses, the rocking mass of fleeing buffalo, the rumbling and quaking of the ground under the thunderous pounding were all like a violent earthquake. The same gentleman tells how he once saw a wounded buffalo turn on an Indian hunter. The man's horse took fright.

Instead of darting sideways to give him a chance to send a last finishing shot home, the horse became wildly unmanageable and fled. The buffalo pursued. Off they rushed, rider and buffalo, the Indian craning over his horse's neck, the horse blown and fagged and unable to gain one pace ahead of the buffalo, the great angry beast covered with foam, with eyes like fire, pounding and pounding—closer and closer—to the horse, till rider and buffalo disappeared over the horizon. "To this day I have wondered what became of that Indian," said the officer, "for the horse was losing and the buffalo gaining when they went behind the bluff." The incident illustrates a trait seldom found in wild animals—a persistent vindictiveness.

Senator Burrows' Explanation.

Philadelphia North American.

Senator Burrows' hurried denial that the Cuban question had anything to do with the defeat for renomination of four Republican Congressmen from Michigan is not a wholly disinterested act. If it should appear that the Republicans of Michigan condemned Representatives H. C. Smith, Weeks, Sheldon and Alpin for fighting the administration's policy, it must follow that Senator Burrows was losing his hold at home. Therefore it affords him the greatest satisfaction to assure the country from Washington that "the sugar question was not discussed in these four Michigan districts."

It may be fairly assumed, then, that if these four unfortunate Congressmen from Michigan were not hurt by their fight against reciprocity with Cuba they were not helped by it. While Congress was in session the Michigan delegation declared vociferously that the great beet-sugar industry of their state would be ruined if a 20 per cent concession was made in favor of imports from Cuba. Later they had an emphatic resolution of indorsement adopted at the Detroit convention for their particular benefit, and their appeals for renomination were based on their fidelity to the beet. After all this to-do, Senator Burrows will have it that not a whisper was heard about reciprocity while these four discredited candidates were campaigning for votes. If that is true, the people of Michigan are far less infatuated with the beet than their Congressmen have represented. Indeed, it might be inferred from what Senator Burrows says that they are entirely apathetic in the matter.

IMPERIALIST IDEA.

Chamberlain Dilates on New Conception of Britain's Destiny.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Colonial Secretary Chamberlain made a stirring speech tonight, when he and Lord Kitchener were guests at a banquet given by the Grocers' Company. After paying tributes to Lord Milner, British High Commissioner in South Africa, and to Lord Kitchener, Secretary Chamberlain dilated upon the new conception of imperial destiny, in which, thanks to the South African War, he said, ideas of kinship and mutual obligation had been substituted for pride of possession or huckstering calculation about profit and loss. The speaker said he foresaw in the recognition of the newly acquired empire more than a geographical expression. "We hope," said he, "to make it a living entity in which each party shall contribute to the success and security of the whole."

Referring to the conference of Colonial Premiers, the Colonial Secretary said the end actuating all parties to this conference could effectively be reached through imperial defense or imperial trade. He did not suppose this ideal would be attained all at once, but he said he believed the conference would lead to a considerable advance, and if this were so, he would be content for the present. Mr. Chamberlain then paid a glowing tribute to the colonies, although he said he thought that opinion on imperialism was now broader at home than in the colonies themselves.

The King on a Cruise.

COWES, Aug. 1.—The King had an excellent night, and today the royal yacht Victoria and Albert left for a cruise to the eastward. His Majesty sat late on the deck last evening, enjoying a minstrel performance given by the yacht's crew.

The Prince and Princess of Wales started for London this morning.

King Edward daily increases his walking exercise, upon which his physicians no longer place any restraint. There is now no doubt that his Majesty will be strong enough to undergo the coronation ceremonies August 9, but in order to guard against contingencies a special movable chair is being prepared for his Majesty's use should it be found necessary. The King is expected to remain on the royal yacht at Cowes until the latest possible moment Friday, the 8th, if this is possible, but he may come to London Thursday. His Majesty is in excellent spirits and greatly enjoyed his seven-hour cruise to Brighton and back today.

Cotton Situation at Manchester.

MANCHESTER, England, Aug. 1.—A general committee of the Federation of Master Cotton Spinners decided today to wait to see what effect the forthcoming holidays will have in reducing the output of cotton before adopting artificial steps to that end. The latter course had been recommended in order to meet the American action in raising the price of the raw material. The committee believed, however, that the August holidays would considerably decrease the output.

King Will Receive Boer Generals.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—The Daily Mail this morning says it understands that Lord Kitchener will come to London to meet the Boer Generals, Botha, Dewet and Delarey, who sailed from Cape Town for England July 30, and that immediately after their arrival here King Edward will grant them an audience. Lord Kitchener will be present at this audience, and probably Lord Roberts, Commander-in-Chief of the forces.

Rebel Leader Executed.

PEKIN, Aug. 1.—Ching Ting Ping, the leader of the recent insurrection in the southern part of Chi Li Province, who was erroneously reported to have been killed in an engagement with Government troops last May, has been captured in Honan Province and executed. His head has been exhibited at the scenes of his exploits as a warning.

Commons Vacancy Filled.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—D. E. Shackleton, a member of the Labor party, has been elected to the House of Commons without opposition, to fill the vacancy in the Clithero division of Lancashire, caused by the elevation to the peerage of Sir Ughtred James Kay-Shuttleworth, who sat for the division as a Liberal.

Jane Hading Coming to America.

PARIS, Aug. 1.—James K. Hackett has negotiated with Jane Hading and her company for a French season of 20 weeks in the United States under the independent booking agency of which Mr. Hackett is one of the directors.

THE SLEEPING SICKNESS.

Fatal Malady Common in Villages of the Congo.

New York Sun.

The British Government is investigating a mysterious disease, which was first observed about 15 years ago in native villages along the Congo, known as the sleeping sickness. The cause of the malady is not understood, nor has a cure been discovered. White men seem to be safe from its attacks, but the victims among the natives are numbered by many thousands. Stanley lived for five years on the Congo and never heard of the disease, which began to attract attention some years after he had founded his stations along the river. The malady has been gradually spreading eastward until it has reached the British territory of Uganda, where several thousand natives have died of it within the past year. The commission sent out by the British Government will study the disease in that region. The malady is painless, but usually fatal. The only symptom apparent to the medical missionary is an irresistible impulse to sleep. The patient may go to sleep in the midst of a conversation or while he is eating his dinner. This unnatural slumber does not refresh him, but he slowly grows weaker. The periods of sleep become more frequent and of longer duration, and the patient usually dies in one of them.

A Friendly Tip.

Chicago News.

"Young man," said the Irish Magistrate, as a youthful prisoner was brought before him, "I would advise you to make a full confession if you want to get off with a light sentence."

"And if I don't confess, then what?" asked the young man.

"Oh, in that event," replied the Magistrate, "I shall probably have to acquit you for want of evidence."

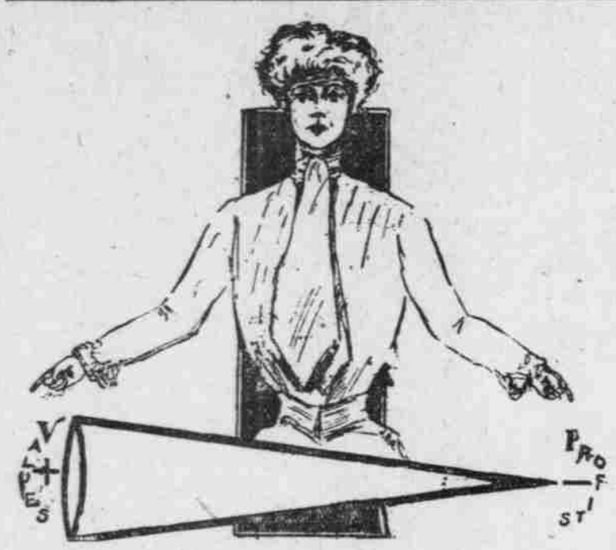
Our Jewelry Sale continues popular and there is still a wide and choice variety to select from.

A Lesson in Perspective. Profits Have Diminished to the Vanishing Point



This is the attitude in which we stand to our customers at the present time. They are now leaving our store with the big-end-of-the-horn values, while for profits we come very near the little end. However, our sales are large and we are content to clear the way for Fall goods already arriving. This should be sufficient to convince people that now is the time to buy.

Saturday we close our store at 6 o'clock, because we do not believe that the few people who wish to do their trading at a later hour are as great in number as those who will be kept at their posts beyond the limits of a natural working day to serve them. All progressive movements are in the direction of shorter hours for the toilers. We have faith in Portland as a progressive city.

MAY YOHE AND STRONG

BOTH ARE ANXIOUS FOR A RECONCILIATION.

On One Side It Is a Case of Hysteria, on the Other Fear of Criminal Proceedings.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—May Yohe spent the day at the Savoy Hotel, dejectedly reading and rereading a batch of letters which she had just received from Putnam Bradlee Strong, and in which, while urging forgiveness and beseeching news of Miss Yohe's future movements, he carefully disguised his own whereabouts. On the inside of the paper of one envelope Strong writes: "Send word by bearer if you forgive me," on reading which Miss Yohe exclaimed: "There have been all sorts of friends here today, offering me all sorts of inducements to leave here, but I care only for Bradlee. Where is he? Why don't they bring him to me? Why does he write me if he does not love me? I would forgive him in a minute if he would only say that he is sorry." Miss Yohe grew hysterical.

Strong's letters declared that he was within a day's ride of Paris, which was obscure enough to leave Miss Yohe in doubt as to whether he was in England or at Genoa. Miss Yohe had all her trunks packed in readiness to go to Paris, but an intimation she received that Strong was not there finally decided her to remain in London. Referring to this decision, she said: "I don't see how I can spend another night in this miserable place, but I suppose I must."

Before leaving London, Strong told his friends he intended to go to the United States and never see Miss Yohe again. It is now evident that he has changed his plans, and that a reconciliatory meeting between him and Miss Yohe is only a matter of a few days. Such a meeting would probably have occurred already if Strong were not doubtful as to Miss Yohe's attitude in the matter of criminal proceedings against him.

TAKES KAISER TO TASK.

Pardon of Lieutenant Hildebrand is Universally Disapproved.

BERLIN, Aug. 1.—The pardon of Lieutenant Hildebrand by the Emperor is universally disapproved outside of military circles. Even the aristocratic Grenz Bote says the attempt at discrimination between the duel and the duelist is a mistake.

"The stability of the monarchy is shaken," says the Grenz Bote, "by this pardon, which is incomprehensible to the people's sense of justice and which contradicts former Ministerial declarations. The thoughtful, serious spirit of our people fails to understand these frequent changes of ideas and differences. Moreover, the Christian conscience of the people is disquieted. Concerning duels, the public's attitude is entirely in line with Christianity, and the people's feelings should be spared even where they are not sympathized with."

The popular idea of th esignificance of the pardon is that the government's anti-dueling order was merely a matter of form to stop the moral pressure having been brought against army duels.

Swiss Diplomatic Changes.

BERNE, Switzerland, Aug. 1.—Dr. G. Carlin, late Swiss Minister to Italy, has been appointed Minister to Great Britain, replacing Dr. C. D. Bourcart, who is ordered to Washington to relieve J. B. Pioda, Swiss Minister to the United States, who goes to Italy.

These changes are due to the resumption of diplomatic relations between Italy and Switzerland following a settlement of the difficulties that grew out of a demand made by Commander Silvestrelli, Italian Minister to Switzerland, for the punishment of the owners of an anarchist newspaper, which it was alleged had published an article insulting to the memory of King Humbert. The Swiss Government objected to the language used by M. Silvestrelli in making the request and asked that he be replaced by another Minister. The severance of diplomatic relations followed. A settlement of the difficulties was arranged through the mediation of Germany.

The government announces that Dr. Bourcart has declined the post of Minister to the United States.

Lynch Committed for Trial.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Colonel Arthur Lynch, the Nationalist member of Parliament who is accused of high treason during the Boer War, was taken to Bow-Street Police Court today. Before the court committed him for trial, Colonel Lynch made a long statement, in which he said that he had gone to South Africa under contract with the Paris Journal and that he had not expected to stay more than two months. He also arranged to serve the Century Magazine, Collier's Weekly and several other American publications. He denied that he saw Dr. Leyds, the Boer agent, before starting, and he declared that he had no mission from Leyds to the Transvaal. Lynch was then committed for trial. Before going to Court Colonel Lynch was visited in his prison cell by W. H. Redmond and other Nationalist leaders.

Dislikes Ovations to Boers.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Richard John Seddon, the Prime Minister of New Zealand, was given a banquet in Liverpool tonight. In the course of a speech, Mr. Seddon again referred to the great menace to Great Britain and the colonies from the competition of American commercial combinations. He said he thought that state control of trusts was safer than attempts to suppress them. He advocated the subsidizing of British shipping and the commercial federation of the empire. He strongly deprecated the ovations which had been given Boer Generals, and said he feared the way the late enemies of the country were being made gods would greatly shock the colonies. The remarks regarding the Boer Generals were received with signs of dissent.

Dreyfus Comes to the Front.

PARIS, Aug. 1.—Ex-Captain Dreyfus a few days ago wrote a letter which was published in the Radical, replying to a statement made by the Marquis de Gallifet, the ex-Minister of War, to Joseph Reinach, to the effect that Dreyfus was in the pay of Russia. Dreyfus described this statement as an absolute lie.

Today the Journal des Debats prints a letter from the Marquis de Gallifet, saying: "Captain Dreyfus is aiming to revive his affair, but I decline to follow him. He admitted his guilt when he signed a petition for pardon."

Switzerland and Olympian Games.

BERNE, Switzerland, Aug. 1.—President Zemp, of Switzerland, today received the Olympian games delegates, Judge John B. Payne, L. W. Noyes and H. J. Furber, Jr., of Chicago, and listened attentively to an explanation of the plans for the games made by Mr. Furber. The President said: "I will follow with the greatest interest the preparations for the games, and will use my best efforts toward official participation on the part of Switzerland. I will immediately recognize the games in the official journal."

This club is settling down to practical work, with a membership of over 80, about equally divided between Americans and Englishmen. It will not interfere with the work of the American Society, whose energies are expended on National festivals.

Not Excited Over Marcus Island.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—In a dispatch from Tokio, the correspondent of the Times says the Japanese press treats the matter of the ownership of Marcus Island (which is claimed by an American citizen and also by the Japanese Government) calmly. The correspondent says that public opinion is evidently convinced that the United States may be trusted to act with strict justice, and that the so-called guano deposits are illusory, as the island is subject to heavy rains, which wash the guano out.

Disputes Rosebery's Claim.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The pro-Boer section of the Radical press disputes Lord Rosebery's claim of an Imperialist victory at Leeds, contending, says a London dispatch to the Tribune, that the Liberal candidate, Barran, won the election, not by dissecting party but resisting reactionary legislation. It also deplores the Imperialists' attitude on the Irish question.

Russians to Fight Oil Trust.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—The Times this morning says a combination is being formed between some of the largest oil producers and refiners in Baku, Russia, to open distribution agencies in England and elsewhere for the sale to retailers and others of Russian oil at a price considerably below that now ruling.
