

TOO MUCH WISDOM

Archbishop Ireland's Reproof to Catholic Agitators.

HAVE NO CAUSE FOR COMPLAINT

Adjustment of Matters in the Philippines is Now in Hands of Men Qualified to Deal Justly With All Interests.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 3.—Archbishop Ireland, preaching today in the Cathedral, said in part:

"The Apostle Paul gives this counsel, 'Not to be more wise than it behooves to be wise; but to be wise unto sobriety and according to the measure of faith.' In the mind of the apostle things most excellent, if made use of in undue measure and without proper regard to circumstances or times and persons, are turned into things pernicous and hurtful. And this is undoubtedly what is happening in the case of the very zeal in defense of Catholic interests which seems to be causing an explosion at the present time among certain classes of American Catholics. The interests of the church, it is said, are made to suffer at the hands of the Government in its newly acquired dependencies, and that to arms, sounded from the rostrums of Catholic societies and through the columns of Catholic papers, to the perturbation of the whole Catholic body, and, indeed, of the whole country. The moment has come to say to Catholics: 'Be wise; be zealous unto sobriety and according as God hath divided to every one the measure of faith,' and such counsel I take liberty to give to my hearers. 'Who are they who complain and protest and call upon Catholics to be up and doing? Are they those who might claim to represent the church in its general or even local interests? Catholics or non-Catholics? Certainly he has not complained—rather has he been heard from in very different tones. Have the ecclesiastical authorities in the dependencies invoked our assistance? Catholics or non-Catholics? Where they have been heard from, as in the case of Porto Rico and Cuba, it was to tell us in the plainest words that they had no grievance, although from time to time they had been on several previous occasions dinned into our ears that the church was robbed and persecuted in both those islands. 'Whoever complains have been heard from in the name of religion, and it behooves all classes of the population to do their utmost to nurture and maintain peace and harmony; it behooves Catholics even more than others to be models of prudence and good will in this regard. The simplest approach among them to form a political party on the basis of religious interest would be fatal to those interests and fatal to public peace. It is quite easy for a few to kindle a fire which will threaten ravage to a whole community, and which a whole community will find it an arduous task to extinguish. 'Nor is public agitation necessary in America to redress grievances. If grievances do exist, whether such grievances have origin, as is more often the case, from mere intemperance, or whether they rarely happens, from malice aforethought on the part of the individual officials of the Government. I say it advisedly, as I am prepared to stand by what I here say; there is always a remedy, and it is so far as circumstances may allow, if it is sought through quiet and reasonable methods from the right representatives of the Government. Let justice be done in America, in no other country, and the government so fair-minded, so impartial, so willing to treat all classes with absolute justice as that with which we are blessed in America. 'And let Catholics be careful lest by imprudent agitation and repeated mistrust of the Government of America they instill into the minds of many of their fellow-citizens a notion that as Catholics they are disposed to force themselves into a people apart, ever dissatisfied with America and its institutions, ever ready to complain, ever anxious to find a plea upon which to rest their indignation. The Catholic body will never prosper in America unless it be thoroughly imbued with the spirit of the country and with a deep love for its welfare. To be one with the country is to be one with the people. Leo is ceaselessly teaching Catholics in every country; it is the lesson which I am confident he would wish Catholics in America to take to heart and to practice, even were there in so doing some sacrifice to be made. 'As to matters in the Philippine Islands, we cannot discuss them. They are for the time being beyond our reach, since they are the subject of negotiations between the Government of America and the sovereign pontiff. To take at the present such matters into our own hands would be to mistrust the wisdom and the good will of the sovereign pontiff, and of this loyal Catholics should not be capable; it would be to treat with discourtesy and ingratitude the Administration in Washington and the American Catholics will not permit themselves to do. The logic of the situation in presence of strange complications for church and state is to be to trust the wisdom and the good will of the sovereign pontiff, and to let the Vatican transfer negotiations to Manila, as the pontiff has already done. Well, some of our people are born to clamor; and privilege to clamor more than to be silent. We do not mean to do so, and who will be as wise in disposing of them as we could well hope to be—Leo XIII.'"

MINNAPPA DIDN'T CRITICISE IRELAND

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 3.—A. B. Minnahan, of Columbus, president of the Federation of Catholic Societies, passed through Cincinnati tonight en route to the National convention of the federation in Chicago. He said:

"My attention has been called to a widely circulated criticism in a supposed interview with me, of Archbishop Ireland's recent interview on the matter of the withdrawal of the friars from the Philippines. I wish to say that the interview purporting to have been had with me is made out of whole cloth. When requested to give an interview I replied that I had nothing to say."

"DOWN WITH PRIESTS"

CRY OF SOCIALIST OPPONENTS OF FRENCH NUNS' SCHOOLS.

Demonstrations in Favor of Government's Action—Many Schools Closed by the Police.

PARIS, Aug. 3.—The Socialist demonstration in support of the government in the schools question, which was held in the Place Maubert in the Latin quarter today, passed without disorder.

A procession of 300 persons formed in front of the Hotel de Ville, a majority of the paraders wore Socialist emblems, a little red flower in their buttonholes.

They marched, singing Socialist songs and shouting, "Down with the priests!" from the Place Maubert, where red wreaths and a bouquet of roses were laid at the foot of the statue of Etienne Dolet. An imposing force of police and municipal guards preserved order. They split the crowd into small factions and prevented collisions with Clericals, who were attending a meeting of protest in a hall in the neighborhood.

Efforts of one or two anarchists to create trouble after the demonstration were speedily suppressed.

Advocates here, however, of the idea report the occurrence of a few noteworthy incidents in connection with the closing of the unauthorized schools by commissaries of police. There were slight disorders at Bordeaux, where the priest, who wished to hold the schools, came into conflict with counter-demonstrations. The police were obliged to disperse the crowd.

The Mayor of a township near Roanne, Loire, rang the tocsin, and incited a crowd armed with pitchforks and cudgels against the police commissary, who was unable to expel the Sisters. The Mayor was suspended for this action by the Prefect.

Part of the garrison at Brest is being held in readiness to assist the police commissaries to close the schools in Finistere, where feeling is still running very high.

At Lyons, M. Tourgnol was cheered by his audience.

At Vienna, near St. Etienne, a crowd of 600 persons opposed the police commissary, who wished to close the nuns' schools.

EUROPE TO WAR NO MORE.

To Reduce Armaments and Watch the United States.

ROME, Aug. 3.—With regard to the statements in these dispatches under the date of July 12, that one of the principal questions of discussion between King Emmanuel and the King of Italy having been the reduction of the armaments, a representative here of the Associated Press learns that King Emmanuel's visit to Emperor William at Berlin the latter part of this month is intended to continue this same work in the direction of reaching an international understanding in the matter of reduced armaments, the King of Italy having been encouraged by the Czar, who is ready to resume the leadership of the movement that he initiated at The Hague peace conference.

According to information received from an authoritative source, the sovereigns referred to argue that the time of European wars is almost over, as their interests are so great that they are not worth while to fight for a strip of land here and there in Europe. Consequently the large armaments which are now intended for European conflicts might be reduced or transferred to the defense of colonial interests, the gain being devoted to the improvement of commerce and industry and for a collective attack against the common danger—American competition.

Polars Explorers Want Investigation.

CHRISTIANIA, Norway, Aug. 3.—A dispatch to the Morgen Bladet from Tromsø, Norway, says that Captain Johannsen, of the America, which arrived at Honningvag, Norway, August 1, with Erylv B. Baldwin, the Arctic explorer, on board, has asked to be examined before a maritime court concerning incidents which occurred on board the America during the voyage of the Baldwin-Ziegler Arctic expedition. To this dispatch the Morgen Bladet adds that there are sensational reports in circulation, one being to the effect that Captain Johannsen was deprived of his command during the voyage.

Another dispatch that reached here from Tromsø says the pilot of the America has demanded an investigation into several mysterious deaths among those on board the vessel, which occurred during the voyage.

Chinese Suspected of Dishonesty.

SHANGHAI, Aug. 3.—The hitch in the negotiations between Sir James Mackay, the British Tariff Commissioner, and the Chinese commissioners for the adoption of Sir James' scheme for Chinese tariff revision, which arose from the fact that the Chinese objected to the British regulation concerning inland navigation, concerns every one outside of the British commission of the utter dishonesty of the Chinese in their professions in favor of the abolition of the Hkin, or provincial transit duty. The American Commissioner assured Liu Kun Yi, Viceroy of Szechuan, that the United States would never consent to the abolition of the Hkin, because the bulk of American imports go to Manchuria and the northern provinces, where there is no Hkin.

Strauss Not Yet Decided.

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—Newspapers of Berlin publish a letter from Richard Strauss, the musician, saying the statements that he has appeared in the American press that he intends going to the United States to conduct a series of concerts are premature. Herr Strauss admits that he has received two offers to go to America with this object, but says that he has not yet decided whether to accept or not.

INVESTIGATE AFTERWARDS; ORDER TO TROOPS.

Severe Treatment for Those Who Assault Soldiers From Ambush—Three Alarms.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Aug. 3.—The entire Twelfth Regiment was called to arms last night as a result of three attacks by men in ambush who assaulted the troops now in camp on the plateau outside the town. These attacks are becoming so frequent that Brigadier-General Gobin has decided to adopt stern measures to end the trouble.

The first attack, according to Colonel Theodore F. Hoffman, was made at 10:45 o'clock last night. Private Payne, of Company I, on sentry duty, saw a party of men on the Mahony City road, which runs from the town to the westward. He commanded the men to halt and called the Corporal of the Guard, but before the latter could respond a shower of stones and rocks were thrown at the sentry. One rock struck him on the chest, knocking him down, and causing his gun to fall from his hands. He jumped up and fired several shots in the air, and as he did so the men ran down the road. One of the pickets captured Stopotitz, but the other escaped.

The shooting aroused the whole camp, and the Eighth Regiment was put under arms, and the company of B. E. and K. were soon out in skirmish lines. They beat the underbrush and laurel, which is five or six feet high all around the camp, but failed to find any one, and then returned to quarters. Fifteen minutes later another shower of stones was thrown at the stable guard, located south of the Twelfth Regiment. The guard turned out, and three men were seen running away, but no pursuit was given.

Some of the bullets went whistling over the tent of the sleeping soldiers of the Twelfth Regiment, across the road. The noise of the firing and the bugle call aroused the Twelfth Regiment, and the Governor's troop of cavalry, and each unit set out immediately to investigate the trouble. Another thorough investigation was made, without result, and then the command, after standing in formation for 30 minutes, was called to quarters. It was not again disturbed.

There is no use making me to talk about the other things. It would not be military. It would be of no use. I am a deservier and take what is coming to me. I deserve it or not, I have done what I thought was right and am ready to settle down in quiet."

Last Saturday there were 60 cases and 35 deaths from cholera in the provinces. Since the outbreak of the epidemic there have been throughout the archipelago a total of 2,408 cases of cholera and 1,636 deaths. DRIVEN FROM THE CARS.

Electric Railway Strikers Make Trouble in Ohio.

BENTON, O., Aug. 3.—The strike of employees of the Camden interurban Electric Railway almost tied up the lines from Gaysville, W. Va., to Hanging Rock, O., and intermediate points. In seven hours all the nonunion men were driven from the cars in this city by violence. Crowds gathered at street intersections, hurling fruit, eggs and other missiles at motorman and conductors. At noon James Saunders, a union man, who refused to quit, was taken from his car and dragged toward the Ohio River, on
