AMUSEMENTS TONIGHT.

SHIELDS PARK (13th and Washington)—Demostello, the Lamonts, tradeville and music.

Mr. Burrell and His Chickens—Walter P. Burrell, the well-known capitalist, was arrested yesterday on a charge of poaching on a train at the Union Depot, by Deputy Game Warden Henry W. Prettman, charged with having his possession of chickens out of season. Arrangements were made that he would attend a hearing before Municipal Judge Hogue. The complaint against him was issued by Deputy District Attorney Spencer. It is understood that Mr. Burrell's contention is that as he caught the chickens in Wasco County, he thought there would not be any harm in bringing the game to this county. But there is where he erred, for shortly after his train left the Dalles early yesterday morning a Deputy Game Warden caught on to the fact that Mr. Burrell and his chickens were speeding toward Portland. So this violent officer of the law telegraphed to Deputy Game Warden Prettman to stop Mr. Burrell when the latter arrived at the Terminal Depot. REMOVE OIL TANKS—A petition asking the Common Council to take such action as may be necessary to cause the removal of the tanks of the Standard Oil Company from their present location was filed with City Auditor Devlin yesterday by residents and property-owners on the vicinity of East Second and Madison streets, which was swept by fire a short time ago, and which is close to the tanks. The petition states that the tanks are a menace to life and property, and is signed by D. C. O'Barry, H. N. Barry, Russell & Blyth, Paul Weisinger, James Surman, M. D. G. E. Wharton, Emil Bowman, Philo Holbrook, W. L. Boise, L. J. Goldsmith, A. W. Moore, H. Weisner, Thomas Hising, E. M. Sargent and S. Morrow. The petition will probably be considered by the Council tomorrow in connection with Councilman Clark's ordinance regulating the storage of combustibles. Petitions for the improvement of East Taylor street from East Water to Union avenue and for the laying of concrete walks on both sides of East Burnside street from East Twenty-second to Twenty-fourth were also filed.

MANY INMATES AT THE POOR FARM—The poor farm and County Hospital contains at the present time about 120 inmates. This is the largest number in the history of Portland and has been considered a large winter crowd, and in the summer the average was about 80 inmates. But the population has largely increased, and with the increase in population there are more indigent sick and poor to care for. This it would seem ought not to be so in the growing West, where it is possible for almost any man to make a living, but it is a fact just the same. A winter crowd now runs up to 150 and over. In the County Hospital sick are now attended to that were formerly sent to the outside hospitals. Yesterday a woman and two young children were sent to the poor farm. The mother is sick and needs hospital treatment. The children had to be sent with her to be provided for until she recovers. Their appearance shows that she takes good care of them when she is able to do so.

JAPANESE PAY $40 FINE—An undersized Japanese, named N. Matoba, was before Municipal Judge Hogue yesterday to receive sentence on the charge of being a disolute person, a jury having found Matoba guilty last week. The Judge immediately sentenced the Jap to a fine of $40, or 30 days in jail. His attorney in the course of a long-winded argument, wished to have it appear on the court records that the defendant made work on the city rockpile if he undertook to serve the 30 days. The Judge replied that, officially, he had no knowledge of the rockpile regulation. "Then I wish to appeal to a higher court, the Hon. J. H. Hogue," Hogue said. "The Judge refused to accept, saying: 'If you desire to present authorities showing that an appeal can be taken from a decision of this court I will look over such authorities.'" The authorities listed are, however, were not forthcoming, and the fine was paid.

SPORTSMEN RETURN—A. E. Gust and W. E. Carlson returned yesterday from a trip to the mountains, where they killed a number of deer. They report many. They left the city July 28, leaving the railroad at Roseburg, and making west into the heart of the Coast Range. The country through the region is one of the most difficult access, and it is necessary so thick that traveling is attended with all difficulties possible. They remained in the mountains five days, each killing the limit of five deer, and they and their males was up on July 15, and they were shot with impunity. If the legal number is not passed, the blue grouse are very plentiful, and a number were killed on the trip. They report many hunters from Roseburg and the vicinity in the mountains, and they were met on Monday by Pete Parks and Morris Abram, of the city mentioned.

TO MAKE WORK EASIER—County Clerk Fields contemplates having an entrance made between the County Clerk's office and the Recorder's office, in order to facilitate work. At present, to go from one office to the other, it is necessary to go around by the hallways a distance of about half a block. The Recorder's office is crowded for room, and Mr. Fields says that with an entrance from one office to the other some of the force in the Recorder's office can be given desks in the County Clerk's office proper, where there is ample room, except when registration of voters is in progress. With the two offices connected, the books which are large and heavy can easily be carried from one to the other.

DALLE'S DAILY EXCURSIONS by boats of White Collar Line from foot Alder street daily, T. A. M. 3.00 and scenic route of world. Moffett's Springs, health resort, St. Martin's Hot Springs, health resort, Jewett's, at White Salmon, noted summer hotel for scenery and rest; Hood River, where stands the Cloud Cap Inn, a mansion in the skies. Ask for tickets to all these places. "Dalles" electric sign. For phones, Main 351.

SAD DAY FOR DRUNKS—Twelve "drunks" were severely dealt with in the Police Court yesterday. Formerly the usual fine for a person charged with and found guilty of drunkenness, was $2. Yesterday Municipal Judge Hogue fined nine "drunks" $5 each, and two of them $10 each. An old offender, Nate Kniffman, was fined $30, and the fine was paid.

FISHING IN THE NECANIUM—Judge Cleland and family, who are spending the summer at their cottage on the Necanicum, are not among those who complain of a scarcity of crabs, clams or fish at the beach. They have a fine boat, and the Judge, and Miss Mattie as well, have developed into fine ornsmen, and Mrs. Cleland has become a very enthusiastic and skillful fisherman with the troll, and through their united efforts they manage to secure a fair share of all the delicacies to be found in that region. By a person who arrived here yesterday morning from Clatsop Mrs. Cleland sent a friend, who has to remain at home, a beautiful trout a foot in length—a sample of those she catches trolling in the Necanicum—and also a magnificent crab, the meat as white as snow, one of a lot captured by the Judge, who knows every haunt of these crustaceans in the creek. Large numbers of fish trout run up the Necanicum from the sea at this season. In former days they used to be trapped on a riffle near the Seaside House, the first the trout encountered on their way up the creek. It was no uncommon thing in those days to see a school of, say, 30 or 40 under the riffle, and the fish would be taken in the afternoon, and to see them all taken from the trap on the riffle early the next morning. Such fishing as that is, of course, not allowed any more, and the trollers enjoy better sport.

LITTLE TAX MONEY COMES IN—Business in the tax department of the Sheriff's office is quiet. Under the new law the bulk of the taxes were collected in about one month, and the work of checking up is nearly over. Those who took advantage of the law allowing taxes to be made in two payments have until October to make the second payment. A little money is taken in every day. Deputy Sheriffs are still out seizing wheels of persons who ride on the bicycle paths without having paid the bicycle tax. The County Clerk still collects more or less money on the old delinquent roll. These receipts with fees added enable the County Treasurer usually to have some money on hand.

TO CARE FOR VIOLENT INSANE—A petition is being passed in county jail for the protection of insane patients who sometimes, when violent, smash their heads against the wall. A padded cell has been asked for a various times for years past, but for some reason the matter was always dropped without action. Sheriff Storey requested authority from the present Board of County Commissioners which granted his request at once. H. P. Emery, the Court-house carpenter, is doing the work. The cost will be small. County Jailer Jackson since he took charge of the jail has made the trustees and the short-term prisoners clean and scrub the jail throughout.

ROW AMONG COLORED PEOPLE—The various troubles existing between three colored people, Richard Jackson and Joseph and Jennie Foster, were passed upon by a jury in the Municipal Court yesterday. First Jackson was placed on trial, charged with assaulting the Forbess couple, and the evidence went to show that both sides were to blame, and that the woman threw pepper in Jackson's face. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Jackson then turned around and preferred charges of assault against the two Fosters. They pleaded guilty and were fined $10 each. Lawyer A. W. Wolf represented Jackson, and prosecution was conducted by Deputy District Attorney Gatens.

TO FORM CONSUMERS' LEAGUE—Steps will be taken to form a branch of the Consumers' League in this city at a meeting to be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the chapel of the Unitarian Church. All interested in the work are invited. Mrs. Frederick Nathan, of New York, who gave such an excellent address on the principles of a Consumers' League, at the meeting held at the Rockpile Church last Thursday night, will be present at the meeting this afternoon, and further explain the good work that can be accomplished in organizing a branch league here.

DELAY ON FOURTH STREET.—The Fourth-street improvement is yet at a standstill. At the corner of Madison street the street is still blocked with rails, and the barrier of tar are still lying along the edge of the curbs where they have been for about a month. The contractors over two weeks ago said that they were waiting for wooden blocks and they expected a supply soon. They have until September to complete the job, and will doubtless get through by that time.

ASTORIA DAILY EXCURSIONS by White Collar Line. Boat foot Alder street daily, T. A. M., except Sunday, for Astoria, the city by the sea. Chinook salmon canneries—now doing their best work; tons of fish. Come and take a ride. No tourist should visit Oregon and miss this trip.

HELD TO THE GRAND JURY—John Hall and Henry Jones two young men who were arrested last week, charged with obtaining money by passing bogus checks, were before Municipal Judge Hogue yesterday. They pleaded guilty, and were each held in $500 bail for the grand jury.

WHAT VISITORS SAY.—A prominent hotel man said yesterday the principal complaint his guests have against the city is that it suffers awnings to be hung low and to cover in many cases, only half the sidewalk. The men, particularly those who wear the hats, he said, tell him that they cannot go a block without losing their headgear, unless they walk on the edge of the curb or in the street, and as they have no objection to appearing in public to give an exhibition that would attract the attention of the small boy, they had to keep their eyes open for awnings and stoop when passing under them. The ladies told him that it was impossible to make a parasol last more than a few hours, for it was sure to be caught and broken by the low-hanging covering of the iron frame. In former days the awnings were required to place the awnings at least seven feet above the sidewalk, and also to extend them to the curb.

CITY WANTS CITY COURT FEES.—The City Auditor received a telephone communication from the County Auditor yesterday, stating that he believed that all fees collected in state cases tried in the Municipal Court should be paid into the County Treasury, instead of the City Treasury, as at present. Some time ago the county appeared to think that it had a claim upon such fees, but it never pressed it. Asked whether the county would be taken in the matter Auditor Devlin said the fees would be paid to the City Treasurer as usual. Section 60 of the charter provides, he said, for the payment of the fees to the County and the city officers intend to follow the law.

REVOLVER GOES OFF.—People passing Third and Morrison streets yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock narrowly escaped being killed by a revolver. A man belonging to Howard Murphy, a fruit vendor, Deputy Constable Atkins went in the first place to serve an attachment on Murphy to recover a debt of $5, and he placed an attachment on the fruit in Murphy's wagon. Murphy started to unroll a blanket under the seat of his wagon, and his revolver dropped from the blanket when there was a bang, and a bullet went whizzing over the pavement. Fortunately nobody was injured. Murphy was placed under arrest, and bemoaned what he called his hard luck.

CHARLES WREN LEXINGTON.—N. W. Scott was arrested by Detectives Kerrigan and Snow last night at Front and Stark streets, charged with the larceny by bailment of a wheel, on the complaint of W. J. Holly.

ORNDORF CITY BOATS leave Taylor street week days at 8:20, 11:30 A. M., 1, 6:15 P. M. Round trip, 25c. A most delightful way to spend three hours.

CHINESE GAMES TO QUIT? Police Commission Makes a Trip of Inspection.

Chinese fan-games are running in Chinatown, and, although Mayor Williams, the Chief of Police and Commissioners Ladd and Bates examined the inside arrangements of a notorious Chinese gambling den on Second street, after they attended a meeting of the Police Commission, it was officially given out that the Commissioners had not discussed the gambling question. The Police Commission usually meets evenings, but yesterday's meeting was called at an early hour in the afternoon. The resignation of Policeman Frank Bulger was presented and accepted. On the application of City Auditor Devlin, C. S. Simmons was appointed special officer at the City Hall, with police authority.

These three applications for positions as regular policemen were considered, no action taken: H. C. Lee, born in Wisconsin in 1865, formerly a business man; has lived 10 years in this city, resides at 290 East Sixth street, stands six feet tall and weighs 180 pounds; Joseph E. W. Land, born in Wisconsin in 1875, has resided in Oregon two and one-half years, resides at 265 1/2 Front street, is a logger, 40 years of age, stands five feet tall, weighs 150 pounds, and is recommended by Attorney F. R. Strong and S. M. Barr.

When Mayor Williams came downstairs he was met by an Oregonian man, who asked if any incident had happened at the meeting. "Nothing of importance," replied the Mayor. "We attended to routine business." He then walked outside, where he was joined by the Chief of Police and Commissioners Ladd and Bates, and the quartet went to a notorious Chinese gambling den in a house adjoining the firemen's headquarters, chemical store, and the company No. 1, on the west side of Second street near Oak. They examined with evident interest the iron-shed door which guarded the entrance to the fan-games, the same place where Mayor Rowe and Police Commissioner Rankin were unwillingly detained for a bad quarter of an hour one night about six months ago, when the lock on the door obstinately refused to open. A carpenter was forced to dislodge the screw bolts before the visitors were set at liberty. However, no such accident happened to Mayor Williams' little party yesterday, and they came out wearing broad smiles. Evidently the iron door which will bar the policemen's progress when the season of the raids begins tickled their fancy.

"Big men see a Chinese house. Come in a hully," explained a perspiring Chinaman who stood guard at the street door. Some sort of action against gambling is evidently contemplated. It is well known in certain circles that the Chinamen have been playing fan-tan on the quiet, although they were warned not to do so by the police. There is more or less quiet gambling going on in the white houses, it is said, behind closed doors, and the Chinamen reason, when the white people gamble, why should our games be shut down?

TO OPEN PORTLAND BRANCH. California Corporation Makes This City Northwest Headquarters.

The corporation of Waterhouse & Lester, with stores at Sacramento, San Francisco and San Jose, Cal., dealers in wagon and carriage supplies, will open a branch house in this city about January 1, in the new Henry Wethead building now being erected at Fifth and Oak streets.

Portland has been selected after a careful examination of business conditions in other cities of the Northwest. E. W. A. Waterhouse is president, Seymour Waterhouse, secretary, and the resident manager of the new Portland branch will be A. H. Wagner.

The officers of the corporation last night signed a ten years' lease of part of the Henry Wethead building, at Nos. 8 and 7 1/2 Fifth street. They will occupy one quarter of the entire building, with 50 feet frontage on Fifth street, with five stories and basement. Fifteen men will be employed from the start. Waterhouse & Lester first started business at Sacramento, where their wheel factory is now located, in 1850. Their San Francisco branch was started two years later, and their San Jose branch was begun about the year 1882.

"Our new Portland branch will take care of our trade in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Alaska," said E. W. A. Waterhouse. "I want to state that we have selected Portland as the field for our new operations. In preference to locating in other cities we have personally visited during the past few weeks. I am convinced that we can secure here the best general jobbing facilities, after a careful examination of other rival places. Portland has a business destiny before her, and the business outlook here is unusually good."

DON'T GET IN A SWEAT. Perspiration—"sweat" is what the Bible and we common people call it—is a way nature has of driving out of the body refuse that has no business there. We sweat more in summer, because, in the overheated bowels, undigested food ferments more quickly than in winter and produces irritating acids and gases. The bowels, overworked, try to relieve themselves by violent convulsions, causing terrible gripes and colics, and diarrhoeal discharges so acid as to make you sore, and leaving the intestines weak and worn out. Nature assists body-cleaning by sending the filth out through the pores of the skin. It is not safe to stop perspiring altogether but most of the impure matter should be sent out by the natural movements of the bowels, and the offensive, ill-smelling, linen-staining sweat done away with. Keep your bowels strong all summer with the pleasant, candy cathartic CASCARETS, that clean the system and don't allow the excrement to be sweated out through the pores. Take a tablet every night, before going to bed. They work while you sleep and make you feel fine and cool all day.
