TROUBLES OF A MUSICIAN, -Samuel Dris-Municipal Judge Hogue yesterday charged with threatening the life of his wife. The evidence of the latter was that she went to her mother's house Saturday night, to her mother's house Saturday might, taking her buby with her, and that her husband called early Sunday morning, broke down the door of the house, threatened her life, and took the baby away from her. Her husband's story was that he had been compelled to do most of the household cooking since he was married, that he never made threats against his wife, as she alleges, and that he merely went to his mother-in-law's house to get his buby, who had been taken there by his wife. "When I came home, with the baby," went on Driscoll, "I found that most of the household goods had been taken out of the house, including bed-ding. On previous occasions, my wife has scratched my face so badly that I was ashamed to go to work," The Judge re-marked that the affair was evidently a bitter family quarrel, and that his duty in the matter would be to ask that Driscoll furnish a bond for $100, guaranteeing that he will not harm Mrs. Driscoll. The bond was furnished. Relatives say that

DAREWITT AND THE HIGHWATMAN.-The fact that he had been attacked and robbed of his watch and $5.65 in money was reported to the police yesterday by P. H. Darewitt, proprietor of the Witch Hazel Monday night, on Market street, near Second. One of the strangers drew a ver struck him over the head, Darewitt got possession of the revolver for a mo-ment, but afterwards lost the weapon. Darcwitt was then at their mercy, and they relieved him of his money and watch. One robber had a smooth face, and the other had a sandy mustache. The police wonder that Darcwitt does not bear marks of physical violence after fighting two highwaymen, and one of

CITT CREMATORY INSPECTED.—The city crematory was inspected yesterday by Mayor Williams in company with Health Commissioner Biersdorff and Councilmen Albee, Bentley, Cardwell, Flegel, Rumeile, Sharkey, Sigler and Zimmerman. The officers found that a great deal of the garbage that should have been burned had been dumped into Guild's Lake, and that some person had been picking out the disease-breeding rags and selling them to rag-dealers. The employes were warned to keep a sharp watch and see that these offenses were not repeated. The crema-tory was found to be in good condition, and after the inspection the officers returned home by way of North Front street, which they found to be the worst street in the city. The street was in even worse condition than when it was reported to the Council, and the Mayor and the Councilmen received a severe joiting when they passed over it in their

Mr. Gibbs Dying—A. S. Gibbs, former-ly a prominent official of the Pacific Coast Company, at Scattle, is lying at the point of death at Good Samaritan Hospital. Mr. Gibbs, who was once a well-known resident of Portland, and who is a nephew of the late ex-Governor Gibbs, about a year ago left his employ ment at Seattle and went to San Diego for the benefit of his falling health, still retaining, however, an important rela-tion to the Pacific Coast Company. He did not improve and he recently came North with his wife and two children. He remained for a time at Marshland, near Astoria, but on Monday it became necessary to bring him to Portland. He is very low, and probably cannot long

CONSUMERS' LEAGUE ORGANIZED .- The Consumers' League, Portland branch, was organized yesterday afternoon at a meeting held in the chapel of the Uni-tarian Church. The attendance was not so large as had been hoped for, because so large as had been noped for, because of the lateness of the season, and many women who are known to be in sympathy with the work are at the beaches. Mrs. Frederick Nathan, of New York City, spoke on the objects sought after by the Consumers' League. A temporary organ-Consumers' League. A temporary organization was effected by electing Mrs. Julia Marquam president, and Mrs. L. H. F. Additor secretary. Permanent officers will be elected at a regular meeting of the league to be called in October.

EDITORS FOR YAQUINA BAY.-The Oregon Press Association will hold its annual meeting at Newport, August 14-17. M. L. Pipes, first president of the association, will speak on "The Libel Law:" a paper on "Needed Newspaper Legislation" will be read by ex-president D. M. C. Gault, and Mrs. Edith Tozler-Wetherred, of the governing board of the International League of Press Clubs, will discuss "Women in Journalism." President Hard-ing and Secretary Tozier have arranged for sessions morning and night, leaving afternoons free. Several measures to be brought before the next session of the Legislature will receive attention.

SALOON-KEEPERS OBSERVE ORDINANCE. -The 1 o'clock saloon closing ordinance is now enforced, and all of the firstclass saloons shut up promptly at the pre-scribed time. A few of the dive keepers are reported as evading the law by clos-ing the outside dcors and keeping a crowd in the inside and in back rooms. The sa-loon-keepers who close say they intend to see to it that all are compelled to obsy the law strictly.

Washington Street Corner Brings 425,000.—John P. O'Shea has purchased the property at the southeast corner of Thir-teenth and Washington streets from the German Savings & Loan Society of San Francisco, for $28,000. The property was at one time owned by M. Lyons. It fronts 115 feet on Washington street, 19 feet on Thirteenth street, and contains two twostory dwelling-houses.

A DESTRABLE FUEL -A destrable fuel is one that is easily controlled. Coke is easily lighted, burns freely if desired or by an adjustment of draughts may be made to hold the fire all day giving out but little heat. Coke burns with a clear blue flame, carrying little soot, making a very desirable fuel.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?-There is not much in a name, but a name often gives the wrong suggestion, as was the case yesterday with one of the residents of Port-land. He had built a fine home on Twenty-fourth street and on account of the lack of oaks in his vicinity had called the home "Oak Lea." A farmer was coming to the city and wished to have his aliments treated by a certain Chinese doctor of whose marvellous powers he had read. On his way he forgot the name. He could not think whether it was "Sing Lee." "Wing Lee." or a number of familiar Chinese names that he thought over, and he was anytons as to whether he would he was anxious as to whether he would be able to find the noted man after he got here. He was very much relieved, how-ever, when he passed the residence in question and saw the name of the place. This was just the sort of a place that he had supposed the man of fame would have for a home, and he read the name, "Oak Lee," and was sure that this was the name that he had been trying so hard to remember. He alighted and went in and asked to see the doctor. It took some little persuasion before he could be convinced that he was in the wrong place and that there was no Chinese doctor THOUGHT GRAVE WAS ROBBED.-The temporary quiet of the police station was broken yesterday afternoon when two boys, who said they were the sons of the late Fred Worthington, who was buried four years ago in Lone Fir Cemetery, asserted that their father's body had been stolen from its grave. They stated that their sister had been to the cemetery a few hours previously, for the first time since Memorial day, and that she found the grave dug up and the place where the coffin was, empty. The police communi-cated with the superintendent at the cemetery, and he deckared that the boys were mistaken, as the grave had not been molested. On inquiry, this was found to be the case. It is thought that the young woman, in searching for her father's grave, became confused, and mis-Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll have ceased to live took a freshly dug grave for the one together.

PREIGHT MAKES FAST TIME.-Two cars of frozen salmon started for New York on the 22d of July, and reached their des-tication in the remarkable time of 251 and a half hours, or 11 days, 17 hours and 20 minutes. To do this, these cars had to make every connection on the schedule. House, Front and Madison streets. According to Darewitt's story, he was stopped by two men about 11 o'clock last and had to be on time at every meeting place. It is seldom that freight of any kind reaches New York in less than fourrevolver, saying: "Hands up, and keep quiet." Then it was that Darewitt showed cars made was very fast. The shipment fight, and when the man with the revol- was consigned for Hamburg, and salled was consigned for Hamburg, and salled from New York yesterday for Europe on the Graf Waldersee, of the Hamburg-American line. The route taken from Astoria was over the Astoria & Columbia River, O. R. & N., Oregon Short Line, Union Pacific, Chicago & Northwestern, and Eric Railroad into New York

> COLORED MAN ARRESTED. — Dunbar Thomas, colored, who lives near Mrs. Thomas, also colored, at the southeast corner of Tenth and Hoyt streets, was ar-rested last night at Sixth and Alder streets by Detectives Ford and Cordano, charged with the larceny of $20. Although complainant and defendant are of the same surname, they are not related. Yes-terday morning Mrs. Thomas left a dia-mond ring and $15 in a purse under a pillow in her bedroom, and went to another room to talk to her husband. After break-fast, the couple found that the purse only contained $5 and the diamond ring, Com-plaint was made to the police concerning the theft of $20 and the arrest of Dunbar Thomas followed. The police say they have evidence against him which cannot yet be given out.

PATING OCCUPATION TAX .- The receipts from the occupation tax for the quarter amounted, up to yesterday, to $42,404 50, an increase of approximately $400 over the total receipts for the last quarter. All the large firms which are subject to the tax have paid their assessments, but there are a great many individuals who have not yet appeared before the City Treasurer. These number 1000 or more, and delinquent notices are being sent to them by City Auditor Devlin at the rate of from 80 to 125 a day. Each relies at the firm by City Auditor Deviln at the rate of from 89 to 125 a day. Each notice states that the license for the quarter has not been paid, and if not paid within 19 days from the date of the notice legal pro-ceedings for its collection will be begun. The license of most of the delinquent is

SOLDIERS FOR THE PRESIDIO.—The Union Soldiers for the Preside.—The Union station last night was the sceep of a military encampment. Troops G and F, of the Pirst United States Cavalry, arrived at noon yesterday from Fort Yellowstone. They leave this morning to rejoin the other troops of their squadron at Presidio. Major Woodworth, United States Army, is in command, and the boys were made as comfortable as possible on the concrete floor of the station. As they expect to sail for the Philippines very soon, no comsail for the Philippines very soon, no com-plaint was heard, for the prospect of speedy service cheered their surroundings.

QUERY BY A FIREMAN?-There is a faint QUERY BY A PIREMAN!—There is a faint lingering hope among certain members of the fire department that somebody may be sent Best, as delegate from Portland to attend the convention of Fire Chiefs of the United States, to be held in New York next month. "I hear that the city of Seattle has appropriated $1000 to send the Chief of the Seattle fire department and one member of the board to attend the Fire Chiefs' convention at New York." one member of the board to attend the Fire Chiefs' convention at New York," remarked a veteran fireman, last night. "I wonder when Portland will appro-priate $1600 for a similar object?"

Colored Barrer Fines.—The case against H. C. Smith, a colored barber, who was recently given a hearing in the Municipal Court, charged with being a dissolute person and with having roamed over the streets of the city after hours without lawful buriness come we were without lawful business, came up for sentence before Municipal Judge Hogue yesterday. The Judge decided that in the former charge no case had been made out, but on the latter charge he imposed a fine of $25.

VACATION FOR POLICEMEN.-This morning vacation season opens in the police department, when about six policemen will take off their uniforms and don the garb of private citizens for one week. This custom will continue every week until all the policemen, detectives and two captains have had their vacations. The Chief of Police is not sure yet whether he can get away or not. He has not had a vacation for four years. Lockington, who attempted to take the life of his wife and to commit suicide Monday night, was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital, and was reported last night to be in a safe condition. His throat was scarred by the knife and one of the veins in his neck was cut, but the injuries are not serious and he is considered to be in no danger.

CHICKEN CASE IN COURT.-A debate chicken Case in Court.—A debate about chicken feed will probably consume a portion of Municipal Judge Hogue's time this afternoon. Mrs. Annie Vaiol will have a hearing charged with giving objectionable food to 65 chickens, the property of Mrs. John Nelson, from which feeding the chickens died last Sunday at all Musicalini avanue.

WARN WEATHER AGAIN .- A number of fice yesterday over the condition of the weather, but Forcast Official Beals re-ferred complaints to the records of other years, and it was found that he was not exceptionally unkind this year and that the average heat for last month and the first of this one is not up to that of the average year. It seems that he has not used the best judgment, however, in allowing the public to have cool days for a long time and then to bring the hot weather on all at once. He would not promise to let up on the heat for awhile and would not even say that there would not be hotter weather yet. He insisted that he had to do his duty by all, and that it is now the senside man's turn. To many yesterday seemed to be the hottest day of the season, but at no time during the day was the temperature above 50 degrees. There has already been a day that the thermometer reached as high as 35 de-grees, and in previous years it has gone as high as 102 degrees, about this time of Docrors Slow to Report.—Although yesterday was the 5th of August, and the Health Commissioner should, under ordinary circumstances, have his report for July ready for the printer by that time, compliation of it was only partly com-pleted on account of the neglect of some physicians, principally those having offices in the suburbs, to present their returns. Births occurring as early as July 2 were not reported until Monday, and reports of a few deaths in the middle of the month reached the office at the same time. An old employe of the city said yesterday that such carelesness appeared to be part of the nature of some physicians, and he remembered one month when after the report had been printed and circulated a number of additions to the vital statistics were received. He said there was once an ordinance requiring physicians to present returns immediately, but whether it was still in force or not he could not say, for the doctors appeared to consult their own convenience and not that of the Health Commissioner.

Ex-Pugilist Arrested -"Mysterlous" Billy Smith, the fighter, was arrested last night at Third and Pine streets by Detectives Snow and Kerrigan, charged with assaulting Policeman Biggers at the Italian picnic, last Sunday. Smith was re-leased on depositing $50 bail for his ap-pearance before Municipal Judge Hogue

DEPUTY RESIGNS .- William Burns, who who was appointed Deputy Health Com-missioner to succeed William J. DEATH OF S. W. ALDRICH and ex-Druggist Passes Away. S. W. Aldrich, a well-known railroad contractor of this city, and until about three years ago the proprietor of the Al-drich Drug Company, died yesterday at the Good Ssmaritan Hospital from cancer of the stomach. His wife and two chil-dren-Dora, aged 16, and Walter, aged 14survive him. The time for the funeral services has not yet been set, but they will be conducted by Rev. J. F. Ghormiey, of the First Christian Church, of this city.

Well-Known Railroad Contractor

Mr. Aldrich had been for the past 14 years one of the leading citizens of Fortland. He was a 22-degree Mason, and a member of the Order of Eiks and the Workmen, He had charge of a number of the large railroad constructions, and had just completed a confirmat for the O. R. & N. Co. before he was taken sick. The large tunnels across the Blue Mountains were built under his charge, and a number of the long tunnels of the Southern Pacific in California.

The history of his allment dates back for several years, although he had been confined to his bed for only about three, weeks. "He had been troubled with his stomach for at least 15 years," said one very small, and few of them exceed $2.

should be cremated."

The remains were taken last night to Finley's undertaking pariors. Mr. Aldrich was 44 years old, and lived at 180 St. Clair street. The functal services will be in charge of the Masons, assisted by the Elks and Workmen. He carried a heavy life in-surance until a short time ago, but at the time of his death the amount that he had in the Workman lodge was all that he car-ried. He left enough behind him, however so that his family will be well cared for
