WATERMELON THIEVES CAPTURED.

Special Officer Nash made a smart capture when he landed two youths, named James Smith and Frank Reynolds, at the police station, charged with being implicated in an attempt to rob a fruit store at Front street, near Washington, last night about 10 o'clock.

Special Officer Nash happened to notice
Smith emerging from Levy's fruit store and walk rapidly away, and as the policeman followed him, he noticed that several of the wooden bars protecting the stock had been forced, and there was a hole large enough to admit a man. He arrested after Demitt and arrested him as the youth was engaging Reynolds in conversation at the street corner. Both boys at first denied any knowledge of the robbery, but under a sharp cross-examination at the hands of Police Captain Boore Reynolds admitted that he was poked out to give the signal to Demitt when a policeman approached. But he admitted he did not know what Demitt was doing in the store. "Why did you stand at the corner, then?" he was asked.
"Too keep out of the way," he answered.
"I heard a noise coming from the fruit store, as if something was being broken." Demitt would not say one word, except to state that he came over from the East Side to meet some boys who were to be on the place. Nash, who had been with his boots, was up to the boys before they knew he was near them.

HIGH PRAISE FOR OREGON.

State Dairy Commissioner Wright, of Iowa, in a letter to the Delaware County News of Manchester, Ia., has some high praise for Oregon. He says in part: "On this trip we saw both sides of the Willamette Valley, the farming section of Oregon. They have 40 inches of snow in the winter, little snow or cold weather in the winter, grow all the grains and grasses that Iowa does except corn and bluegrass and all the fruits imaginable except tropical fruits. Western Oregon is a great prune-producing section, as well as a great grass and cattle country. Their lumber interests are enormous and the dairy interests are increasing with rapid strides. I must not close without saying that Western Oregon is the finest place in the world except Iowa. It has all kinds of scenery within its borders and its people are uniformly hospitable to a degree refreshing to the tourist. Some of our party were old travelers, but we all agreed that not one of us had ever experienced so delightful a trip as that to Portland and the coast."

WHO WANTS TO GO TO ST. PAUL?

There will be a convention of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress at St. Paul, Minnesota, on August 18, and it is the desire of the Board of Trade to have some one at the gathering to represent this city. The meeting will be an important one and Portland should be well represented, but there are but few who will care to make the necessary expenditure to go to St. Paul and back. If any one is going to make a trip in that direction, it is the earnest desire of Secretary Moore that he communicate with the board, and arrange if possible to attend the congress.

HOT DAY IN PLAZA BOOKS.

About 200 persons, men, women and children, sought relief from the heat in the Plaza books yesterday. Men stretched out full length on the grass, and others sat and read newspapers. Young women could be seen sitting under the shade of the trees reading novels, and mothers were there with babies in baby carriages. Barefooted children played in the corridors and halls of the City Hall, which is a cool place, and in a general way Fourth street in the vicinity of the City Hall and Courthouse yesterday had somewhat the appearance of a summer resort.

ARRIVED WITH REQUISITION PAPERS.

Eric Zimmerman, of Sanbornish county, Washington, arrived at the police station last night with requisition papers signed by Governor McBride, of Washington, and Governor Geer, of Oregon, asking for the custody of Frank Metzger, the Seattle bartender, who is wanted in Seattle to answer to a charge of drugging the proprietor of a saloon and robbing him of $50. Sheriff Zimmerman will likely take his prisoner to Seattle today.

REPORT OF MUNICIPAL JUDGE.

Municipal Judge Hoke yesterday filed his report for the month of July with City Auditor Devlin, showing $699 receipts, including $21 received in state taxes. Auditor Brander says he will soon obtain a written opinion from District Attorney Chamberlain that moneys collected in the Municipal Court in state cases must be paid to the County Treasurer, and not to the City Treasurer, as has long been the practice.

PUGILIST FORFEITS BAIL MONEY.

"Mysterious" Billy Smith, pugilist, did not answer to his name yesterday, in the Municipal Court, when a charge was read out that he had assaulted Policeman A. C.
Biggers, at the Italian picnic, last Sunday.
Smith's bail of $50 was declared forfeited.

THE PHOTOGRAPHY PROVER. The photograph studio conducted by F. M. Cammack, on First street, near Yamhill, has been stormed by several indignant women during the past few days, anxious to recover photographs they had given Cammack to enlarge, and also anxious to recover small sums of money they had paid him. Even the notice pinned on the front door of the studio—"Gone to the coast; back by August 27"—failed to appease them. Cammack was arrested last night by Detectives Ford and Cordano, at First and Washington streets, and he was indignant at being caught in the toils.
"Isn't it funny that people should push me so," he declared, hotly. "They will set their photographs enlarged, if they only wait for them. I'm honest."
"Thank you had gone to the coast, until August 27," queried one of the detectives. "I've been working hard in a laundry," confessed Cammack. One of the complainants against Cammack is Smith and Frank Reynolds, at the police
in an attempt to rob a fruit store at
night about 10 o'clock. For several nights it has been a rumor going around the city circles that a gang of boys was sitting a chance to loot the fruit stores, a special attraction being watermelons.
Special Officer Nash happened to notice

stand at the corner, then?" he was asked.
"Too keep out of the way," he answered.
before they knew he was near them.

BRIDGES ARE DANGEROUS

OLD SANDY RIVER STRUCTURE
NEEDS REPAIRS.

Bridge South of Scott's Butte Has Also Outlived Usefulness—Roadmaster Steele's Report.

Roadmaster Steele states that the Sandy River bridge, 23 feet long, is in a dangerous condition and will have to be repaired. It was built 25 years ago and contains numerous rotten timbers. The bridge south of Scott's Butte, on the road leading to Sunnyside, in Clackamas County, has also outlived its usefulness.
Mr. Steele also stated that there are six or seven bridges on the St. Helens road which require new stringers and bents to make them last for about two years more.
Many bridges were put in 12 or 15 years ago, and are now worn out. The County Court has announced that no money will be expended on roads which can be avoided, because there is no money in the road fund, but absolutely necessary repairs to bridges will be made, otherwise many roads would be impassable. The tax levy for road purposes this year was only 1 1/2 mills, which raised a revenue of about $2000. There are over 1000 miles of roads in Multnomah County, besides numerous bridges, large and small, and new roads are constantly asked for. It therefore does not take long to spend this amount of money in making and keeping up roads and bridges.

SHE CLAIMS FURNITURE.

Cynthia Cliff Seizes Injunction to Prevent Sale by Mortgagee.
Cynthia Cliff yesterday filed an injunction suit in the State Circuit Court against W. H. Wilson, Delicacy Trading Company, M. Gaglietta, manager, and others to restrain the sale of furniture in the City View Hotel, on East Clay street. Judge Sears issued the necessary order pending a hearing of the case. According to complaint, the hotel was acquired by Mrs. Frances Barker and her husband, and they sold out to Wilson, who gave a chattel mortgage on the furniture to Mrs. Barker for $200. She transferred the mortgage to Cynthia Cliff. The Delicacy Trading Company holds a judgment against Wilson, and levied on the furniture. Mrs. Barker still claims the property, and altogether the case is considerably mixed. The court enjoined the sale of the furniture to satisfy the judgment held by the Delicacy Trading Company. Graham & Cleeton and Dell Stuart appear as attorneys for the suit.

Young Burton Does Penance.

Young Burton, the ring-leader in the plot to break out of the County Jail, is confined in a dungeon, or dark cell, as a punishment. He also has an Oregon boob on, and is very meek and repentant.
Jailer Jackson has been putting the prisoners in the sweat-box in order to ascertain who brought in the saw. Visitors have been allowed in the jail too promiscuously, and this will be stopped.

Articles of Incorporation.

Supplemental articles of incorporation of the Allen & Gilbert Company were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by F. N. Gilbert, H. J. Oake and Ralph Hamaker, changing the name to the Allen & Gilbert, Ramaker Company, and increasing the capital stock from $2000 to $200,000. The articles of incorporation is to deal in pianos and musical instruments.

Bridgetenders Appointed.

The Board of County Commissioners have appointed J. P. Anderson bridgetender on the Morrison-street bridge, and D. C. Ljungbergy on the Burnside-street bridge, on probation. Commissioner Barnes made the statement yesterday that there were some appointments made on August 15, but not before.

Court Notes.

The will of Albert L. Prentiss, deceased, was admitted to probate in the County Court yesterday. The property valued at $1000, is devised to George W. Dustin, a friend of the estate, who is named as executor of the will.

In the case of A. T. Haynes against Louis Beary to prevent infringement on a patent hay-rake, an order was made in the United States District Court yesterday giving the plaintiff a decree by consent, without costs or damages.

Kate Agnew petitioned the County Court yesterday to be appointed administratrix of the estate of Belle Fuller, deceased, consisting of furniture in a lodging-house at First and Morrison streets. The petitioner alleges that Mrs. Fuller was indebted to her for several hundred dollars and advanced.
