

STRIKERS ON RAIDS

Shenandoah Miners Go Foraging for Provisions.

CAVALRY MAY BE CALLED OUT

Life of One Farmer Threatened Because He Tried to Protect His Property—Soldiers Are Feeding Many Women and Children.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Aug. 11.—Complaint was made to brigade headquarters today that strikers are foraging in the rich agricultural district north of Shenandoah. The life of one farmer was threatened because he attempted to protect his property, and the raids have reached such serious proportions that the farmers are preparing to take some concerted action to stop further depredation. It is not unlikely that the cavalry will be sent into the district tomorrow to stop the raids.

Ludwig Munbeck, a farmer, reported that for some time past raids have been made on his place by parties of men. Early today he caught a man loading up whole stalks of corn. The man was taken to the place, and as the latter was leaving he fired two shots at the farmer. The foragers do not confine themselves to stealing crops, but also take poultry. The soldiers in camp are daily feeding several hundred women and children. They come there saying they are hungry, and as there is more than enough food in the camp to supply the wants of the men, the officers permit the soldiers to give something to the needy applicants.

Colonel Hoffman, of the Eighth regiment, was asked if all these persons were foreigners, and he replied that a good many belonged to the English speaking classes. The officials of the miners' union deny that there is any actual war. They maintain the local unions are about as quiet as they can be at this time of distress.

NO COLLIERIES START UP.

Fourteenth Week of Strike Sees No Change in Conditions.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., Aug. 11.—"Extremely quiet" was the tenor of all the information received here today from the surrounding region. No strikers were reported to have been seen at the beginning of the fourteenth week was about the same as it was during the previous 13 weeks.

In speaking of the conditions in this vicinity, Colonel Hoffman, of the Eighth regiment, said today that many barefooted women and children come to the camp every day, who take away from them the scraps of food thrown out of the mess tents. He said they are not all foreigners, but a good percentage belong to the English-speaking classes. The striking miners and their pickets operate them for the purpose of taking out a number of mines this morning, but when it became evident that no attempt would be made to resume work they quickly withdrew.

PLAN TO SETTLE THE STRIKE.

Government Intervention Suggested to President Roosevelt. NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—President Roosevelt, according to the World, a plan submitted by Martin Dolph, ex-president of the International Order of Railway and Commercial Telegraphers, by which the strikers are to be put in the anthracite coal fields could be needed. President Roosevelt referred the proposition to the Attorney-General's Department, and it is now being considered by H. M. Hoyt, acting Attorney-General.

This plan is to have the Government exercise the right of eminent domain and seize a certain number of the mines and operate them for the purpose of taking out all the hard coal required by the Government in its various buildings, on the ships of the Navy Department and for all other governmental purposes. The right of the Government to intervene in a strike which interferes in any way with governmental functions was proved, Mr. Dolph contends, by President Cleveland's action in the case of the strike of 1854, when he ordered out the United States troops to keep the strikers from interfering with the transportation of the mails. In the present case intervention of the kind he contemplates, says, would also break the backbone of the strike by forcing the operators to resume work in all the mines.

New York Union Scores Judges.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—The Central Federated Union of this city has gone on record against the Judges who have issued injunctions against the striking miners. At a meeting Tuesday a long preamble and set of resolutions were unanimously passed. The first paragraph of the preamble denounces the Judges mentioned and calls them "willing and subservient tools of the coal trust." After still further scolding the Judges the resolutions "urge the miners to insist upon, and if need be, defend their right to feed starving brothers in defiance of the mandate of the Federal Courts, and that we pledge them our hearty support to the furthering of that end." Copies of the resolutions will be sent to all labor bodies for endorsement at their Labor Day demonstration.

Forced to Refuse Strikers Credit.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 11.—A big mass meeting of miners was held at Nanticoke this afternoon, which was addressed by National Board Member John Fallon and others. The speakers said it was the determination of the striking miners to remain out until the operators granted their demands.

Coroner's Jury in Murder Case.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 11.—The coroner's jury impaneled to investigate the death of Daniel Sweeney, the mine watchman, who was murdered at Nanticoke last Wednesday, met today, and after hearing a number of witnesses, returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death at the hands of persons unknown to the jury.

Postal Clerks Against Affiliation.

CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—The postal clerks of Chicago, by majority vote, have instructed their delegates to vote against the proposition to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor when it is brought before the National Association of Postal Clerks at the convention to be held at Kansas City the first week in September. While they are willing to pledge their heartiest sympathy to the Federation, they feel certain that affiliation with it would not be to their interest, because of their relations with the Government.

Vote Not to Clear McGuire.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 11.—The executive board of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners today received returns from more than 100,000 members of the organization throughout the country to whom had been submitted a referendum on the question of the charges

ELKS WILL MEET TODAY

SALT LAKE IS FAIRLY OVERRUN WITH MEMBERS OF ORDER.

Electrical Display in Honor of the Grand Lodge One of the Best Ever Seen in the West.

A TERRIBLE DROUGHT.

Millions of Sheep Are Dying in New South Wales and Queensland.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 11.—Advice received by the steamer Mowera from Australia tell of terrible drought in New South Wales and Queensland, which has devastated the sheep ranches of that section of the southern colony. Millions of sheep have died, and men formerly considered wealthy have been compelled to seek employment. Samuel McCaughey, the sheep king of Australia, lost over 1,000,000 sheep of his herd of 1,500,000, and other large herders have been equally unfortunate. In one district, the residents erected an arch of sheep skulls on the occasion of the visit of one of the Cabinet Ministers.

The work of wiping out the natives of the South Sea Islands goes merrily on, if the reports in the Australian papers are to be relied upon. The papers give an account of an expedition by Germans to the New Hebrides to avenge the murder of a Mrs. Wolff. This expedition completely wiped out a village, natives from which committed the murder. One hundred and thirty persons, including the native who led the expedition to the village. A combined German and British expedition has started for New Guinea, where the natives are punished for the murder of seven British subjects.

NOTED OUTLAWS RUN DOWN.

Capture of the Kennifia Cost New Zealand $200,000.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 11.—The steamer Mowera, arriving today, brought the news that the Kennifia, New Zealand outlaws, have been captured, after a chase of three months, which cost the government $200,000. These brothers having committed a murder, took to the woods. Two police officers who pursued them were killed, their bodies burned, and the ashes placed in the saddle-bags of their horses with a note stating that the pursuers would be treated similarly. The horses wandered back to the police camp, and the hunt was continued with renewed energy. The outlaws were surprised in their camp, their horses shot and they had to flee. One of them was running and was captured without any difficulty. The other was surrounded and surrendered. During their outlawry they lived off the residents of base districts through which they passed, and on one occasion visited a village and robbed a grocery store.

BANK WILL NOT BE CRIPPLED BY LOSS.

DENVER, Aug. 11.—D. H. Moffatt, the Denver banker and railroad promoter, who is president of the State Bank of Aspen, which is alleged to have lost $4,000 through the desertion of Leonard W. Dingle, the teller, said today that the necessary funds had been forwarded from here to prevent any inconvenience to the bank and that the institution would not be crippled.

FUNERAL OF M'MILLAN.

Public Services for the Late Senator Will Be Held at Detroit.

MANCHESTER, Mass., Aug. 11.—F. H. McMillan, W. C. McMillan, sons of the late Senator James P. McMillan, and Mrs. P. H. McMillan reached Manchester from Detroit this afternoon. They were driven to the home of the late Senator's summer residence. Later plans for the funeral were discussed, and it was decided that the service should be held at Eagle Head, Wednesday forenoon. The body will then be taken to a private funeral car at the Boston & Maine Railroad Station here. A special train will carry the body to Boston and thence direct to Detroit. Senator McMillan's home, at Detroit public funeral services will be held Friday afternoon.

Senate Committee Named.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Senator Frye, president of the Senate, has appointed the following committee to attend the funeral of the late Senator McMillan:

Messrs. Allison, Bacon, Burrows, Cockrell, Cullum, Fairbanks, Foraker, Gallinger, Hale, Hanna, Keam, Lodge, Martin, Mason, McComas, Pritchard and Wetmore.

House Committee.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Speaker Henderson, who is at Atlantic City, has requested Representative Corliss, of Michigan, to communicate with the members of the delegation to Congress and secure their presence as the members of the House committee to attend the funeral of the late Senator. They, as well as the Senate committee, will assemble in Detroit to attend the funeral.

Long Funeral Procession.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Alderman Brookes' funeral, which was held in Brooklyn today, was probably one of the largest ever seen in that borough. Though illiterate, the Alderman was a most popular man in the section of the city near the Navy-Yard, and his constituents determined to show their love for him. The undertaker in charge received orders for 100 carriages, and there were probably as many more when the cortege moved from the church. With these carriages and the societies following the hearse, it is estimated the procession was a mile long.

Funeral of Senator McMillan.

MANCHESTER, Mass., Aug. 11.—A private funeral service for the late Senator McMillan will be held at his summer home, Eagle Head, Wednesday forenoon. The body will then be taken to Boston and thence to Detroit, where public services will be held Thursday afternoon.

FROST DAMAGES CORN.

Severe Cold Wave Experienced in Northwestern Iowa.

DES MOINES, Ia., Aug. 11.—A severe frost reported in Northwestern Iowa. The frost did the damage to corn has been considerable.

Cold Weather in Nebraska.

OMAHA, Neb., Aug. 11.—The thermometer in this city early today and in the Northern portion of the state it went as low as 29. Light frosts are reported over the Northern part of this state and Southern South Dakota, but no damage was done.

Town is Burning Up.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Aug. 11.—Word has just been received (8 A. M.) that the town of Searcy, 25 miles north of Little Rock, is burning up. No further particulars obtainable at this hour.

Delay in Enforcing New Tarif.

PEKIN, Aug. 11.—The delay in enforcing the tariff schedule arranged at Shanghai arises from the action of the government in submitting the whole question to the Yangtze Viceroy, which will involve a delay of months.

ELKS WILL MEET TODAY

SALT LAKE IS FAIRLY OVERRUN WITH MEMBERS OF ORDER.

Electrical Display in Honor of the Grand Lodge One of the Best Ever Seen in the West.

A TERRIBLE DROUGHT.

Millions of Sheep Are Dying in New South Wales and Queensland.

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 11.—The rain which fell at intervals throughout the day and threatened the gorgeous decorations in honor of the annual convention of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, which opens in this city tomorrow, ceased late this afternoon, and the weather man promises a continuance of the beautiful, clear, cool weather that prevailed tonight. The streets in the business section of the city are ablaze tonight with the most beautiful display of electrical decorations ever seen in the Rocky Mountain region. Thousands of incandescent lamps in white and purple are draped across and alongside the streets, hanging in festoons and gathered in immense sets pieces at various corners. A prominent feature of the decorations are hundreds of mounted elk heads, which appear on all sides.

Twenty-three special trains arrived in the city today, filled with delegations, and 12 more are expected to arrive by tomorrow. It is estimated that 5000 members of the order are now in the city.

THE GERMAN AMBASSADORSHIP

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Rumor awards the Ambassadorship to Germany to Dr. David Jayne Hill, the Assistant Secretary of State, as the successor of Dr. Andrew D. White resigned. Dr. Hill has the splendid mental equipment and the diplomatic training for the position. He was a university president at the age of 29, with all the other accomplishments that such an exalted position in the diplomatic service suggests. He was early the author of textbooks for colleges and universities upon rhetoric, logic, psychology, economics, sociology and philosophy. From college lecturer he became a brilliant public speaker. His success as president of Rochester (N. Y.) University brought him many offers of similar chairs. His courses of lectures on European diplomacy and treaties, in the Columbian School of Consular Jurisprudence and Diplomacy, at Washington, attracted wide attention. He resigned the presidency of Rochester University in 1896 to perfect his studies in international law and the public law of Europe. Two years later, October, 1898, while still abroad, President McKinley appointed him Assistant Secretary of State. In this important place he has had special charge of such great international commissions as the commission to the peace conference at The Hague, the first Philippine Commission, the Pan-American conference at Mexico City, preparing the instructions and overseeing the negotiations on behalf of the State Department.

DR. DAVID JAYNE HILL, POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR OF DR. WHITE.

DR. DAVID JAYNE HILL, POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR OF DR. WHITE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Rumor awards the Ambassadorship to Germany to Dr. David Jayne Hill, the Assistant Secretary of State, as the successor of Dr. Andrew D. White resigned. Dr. Hill has the splendid mental equipment and the diplomatic training for the position. He was a university president at the age of 29, with all the other accomplishments that such an exalted position in the diplomatic service suggests. He was early the author of textbooks for colleges and universities upon rhetoric, logic, psychology, economics, sociology and philosophy. From college lecturer he became a brilliant public speaker. His success as president of Rochester (N. Y.) University brought him many offers of similar chairs. His courses of lectures on European diplomacy and treaties, in the Columbian School of Consular Jurisprudence and Diplomacy, at Washington, attracted wide attention. He resigned the presidency of Rochester University in 1896 to perfect his studies in international law and the public law of Europe. Two years later, October, 1898, while still abroad, President McKinley appointed him Assistant Secretary of State. In this important place he has had special charge of such great international commissions as the commission to the peace conference at The Hague, the first Philippine Commission, the Pan-American conference at Mexico City, preparing the instructions and overseeing the negotiations on behalf of the State Department.

UNIONS CAN'T AGREE.

(Continued from First Page.)

you suppose that we are going to take all of the trouble that it requires to get wages to a good figure and then admit men to our organization who will do the work for less? Then, for laborers, they only ask $2.50 per day, and the plasterers are getting from $2.50 to $3.50. And there is still another reason why we object to them. They have said that if there were not enough of them to do the work that they would send to California for more men, and not take in the men that are here. They say they have a secret in their work that they do not wish to give away. It is against our principles to get outside men to do work to the loss of those who live here. When they go about the matter right, and conform their ways to the ways of the country, they can be admitted, and not until they do."

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION MEETS.

Fiftieth Annual Session of the International Typographical Union.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 11.—The 50th annual convention of the International Typographical Union began its session here with all the 285 delegates present and over 100 visitors. Pike's Opera House was crowded, including the galleries, who are here for the first convention of the ladies' auxiliary.

After the welcoming addresses, to which President James M. Lynch responded, a resolution was adopted by the support of the United Mineworkers in their anthracite strike was adopted. The officers and committees were then announced. The committee on laws consists of Hartigan, Crawford, Benton, Spree and O'Neil. Telegrams and letters of greeting on the 50th anniversary of the International Typographical Union were read from almost all other labor organizations. Most of the time was devoted to the reading of the report on laws, and President Lynch's supplemental address on this report and their consideration was postponed until tomorrow.

The annual reports of the officers were then made, after which the convention adjourned until tomorrow.

Streotypers and Electrotypers.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 11.—The first convention of the International Streotypers' and Electrotypers' Union was called to order here today. The meeting is the first of the independent body. About 20 delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada were present. Hereafter the streotypers and electrotypers have begun a division of the International Typographical Union, but since the last meeting of the larger order they have organized independently.

Arguments in Heine Case.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 11.—Clerk of the Supreme Court Heine today heard objections to the bond furnished by the Boston & Montana Company in the Minnie Healy case to protect F. Augustus Heine because of an injunction pending

POWER IS A FIGUREHEAD

INSIDE HISTORY OF HIS FIGHT ON GREAT RAILWAY MERGER.

Big Firm Bought Stock for Power to Use His Name—He Now Passes as Blake.

CHAUTAQUA, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Congressman Grosvenor, of Ohio, spoke before 800 people today upon the Philippine question. He said:

"When I was asked to come to Chautauqua the aim was that I should present the problem from the viewpoint of the Administration, perhaps as opposed to that of Dr. Schurman, and I expected my time to be occupied with replying to his criticisms, reinforced as they were by better opportunities for observing the conditions in the archipelago than I have enjoyed. However, I am happy to say that while I have stood still in my position upon that question, that gentleman has reached the viewpoint where no word that is uttered on the platform falls of my most hearty indorsement.

THE GERMAN AMBASSADORSHIP

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Rumor awards the Ambassadorship to Germany to Dr. David Jayne Hill, the Assistant Secretary of State, as the successor of Dr. Andrew D. White resigned. Dr. Hill has the splendid mental equipment and the diplomatic training for the position. He was a university president at the age of 29, with all the other accomplishments that such an exalted position in the diplomatic service suggests. He was early the author of textbooks for colleges and universities upon rhetoric, logic, psychology, economics, sociology and philosophy. From college lecturer he became a brilliant public speaker. His success as president of Rochester (N. Y.) University brought him many offers of similar chairs. His courses of lectures on European diplomacy and treaties, in the Columbian School of Consular Jurisprudence and Diplomacy, at Washington, attracted wide attention. He resigned the presidency of Rochester University in 1896 to perfect his studies in international law and the public law of Europe. Two years later, October, 1898, while still abroad, President McKinley appointed him Assistant Secretary of State. In this important place he has had special charge of such great international commissions as the commission to the peace conference at The Hague, the first Philippine Commission, the Pan-American conference at Mexico City, preparing the instructions and overseeing the negotiations on behalf of the State Department.

DR. DAVID JAYNE HILL, POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR OF DR. WHITE.

DR. DAVID JAYNE HILL, POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR OF DR. WHITE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Rumor awards the Ambassadorship to Germany to Dr. David Jayne Hill, the Assistant Secretary of State, as the successor of Dr. Andrew D. White resigned. Dr. Hill has the splendid mental equipment and the diplomatic training for the position. He was a university president at the age of 29, with all the other accomplishments that such an exalted position in the diplomatic service suggests. He was early the author of textbooks for colleges and universities upon rhetoric, logic, psychology, economics, sociology and philosophy. From college lecturer he became a brilliant public speaker. His success as president of Rochester (N. Y.) University brought him many offers of similar chairs. His courses of lectures on European diplomacy and treaties, in the Columbian School of Consular Jurisprudence and Diplomacy, at Washington, attracted wide attention. He resigned the presidency of Rochester University in 1896 to perfect his studies in international law and the public law of Europe. Two years later, October, 1898, while still abroad, President McKinley appointed him Assistant Secretary of State. In this important place he has had special charge of such great international commissions as the commission to the peace conference at The Hague, the first Philippine Commission, the Pan-American conference at Mexico City, preparing the instructions and overseeing the negotiations on behalf of the State Department.

UNIONS CAN'T AGREE.

(Continued from First Page.)

you suppose that we are going to take all of the trouble that it requires to get wages to a good figure and then admit men to our organization who will do the work for less? Then, for laborers, they only ask $2.50 per day, and the plasterers are getting from $2.50 to $3.50. And there is still another reason why we object to them. They have said that if there were not enough of them to do the work that they would send to California for more men, and not take in the men that are here. They say they have a secret in their work that they do not wish to give away. It is against our principles to get outside men to do work to the loss of those who live here. When they go about the matter right, and conform their ways to the ways of the country, they can be admitted, and not until they do."

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION MEETS.

Fiftieth Annual Session of the International Typographical Union.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 11.—The 50th annual convention of the International Typographical Union began its session here with all the 285 delegates present and over 100 visitors. Pike's Opera House was crowded, including the galleries, who are here for the first convention of the ladies' auxiliary.

After the welcoming addresses, to which President James M. Lynch responded, a resolution was adopted by the support of the United Mineworkers in their anthracite strike was adopted. The officers and committees were then announced. The committee on laws consists of Hartigan, Crawford, Benton, Spree and O'Neil. Telegrams and letters of greeting on the 50th anniversary of the International Typographical Union were read from almost all other labor organizations. Most of the time was devoted to the reading of the report on laws, and President Lynch's supplemental address on this report and their consideration was postponed until tomorrow.

The annual reports of the officers were then made, after which the convention adjourned until tomorrow.

Streotypers and Electrotypers.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 11.—The first convention of the International Streotypers' and Electrotypers' Union was called to order here today. The meeting is the first of the independent body. About 20 delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada were present. Hereafter the streotypers and electrotypers have begun a division of the International Typographical Union, but since the last meeting of the larger order they have organized independently.

Arguments in Heine Case.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 11.—Clerk of the Supreme Court Heine today heard objections to the bond furnished by the Boston & Montana Company in the Minnie Healy case to protect F. Augustus Heine because of an injunction pending

POWER IS A FIGUREHEAD

INSIDE HISTORY OF HIS FIGHT ON GREAT RAILWAY MERGER.

Big Firm Bought Stock for Power to Use His Name—He Now Passes as Blake.

CHAUTAQUA, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Congressman Grosvenor, of Ohio, spoke before 800 people today upon the Philippine question. He said:

"When I was asked to come to Chautauqua the aim was that I should present the problem from the viewpoint of the Administration, perhaps as opposed to that of Dr. Schurman, and I expected my time to be occupied with replying to his criticisms, reinforced as they were by better opportunities for observing the conditions in the archipelago than I have enjoyed. However, I am happy to say that while I have stood still in my position upon that question, that gentleman has reached the viewpoint where no word that is uttered on the platform falls of my most hearty indorsement.

THE GERMAN AMBASSADORSHIP

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Rumor awards the Ambassadorship to Germany to Dr. David Jayne Hill, the Assistant Secretary of State, as the successor of Dr. Andrew D. White resigned. Dr. Hill has the splendid mental equipment and the diplomatic training for the position. He was a university president at the age of 29, with all the other accomplishments that such an exalted position in the diplomatic service suggests. He was early the author of textbooks for colleges and universities upon rhetoric, logic, psychology, economics, sociology and philosophy. From college lecturer he became a brilliant public speaker. His success as president of Rochester (N. Y.) University brought him many offers of similar chairs. His courses of lectures on European diplomacy and treaties, in the Columbian School of Consular Jurisprudence and Diplomacy, at Washington, attracted wide attention. He resigned the presidency of Rochester University in 1896 to perfect his studies in international law and the public law of Europe. Two years later, October, 1898, while still abroad, President McKinley appointed him Assistant Secretary of State. In this important place he has had special charge of such great international commissions as the commission to the peace conference at The Hague, the first Philippine Commission, the Pan-American conference at Mexico City, preparing the instructions and overseeing the negotiations on behalf of the State Department.

DR. DAVID JAYNE HILL, POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR OF DR. WHITE.

DR. DAVID JAYNE HILL, POSSIBLE SUCCESSOR OF DR. WHITE.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—Rumor awards the Ambassadorship to Germany to Dr. David Jayne Hill, the Assistant Secretary of State, as the successor of Dr. Andrew D. White resigned. Dr. Hill has the splendid mental equipment and the diplomatic training for the position. He was a university president at the age of 29, with all the other accomplishments that such an exalted position in the diplomatic service suggests. He was early the author of textbooks for colleges and universities upon rhetoric, logic, psychology, economics, sociology and philosophy. From college lecturer he became a brilliant public speaker. His success as president of Rochester (N. Y.) University brought him many offers of similar chairs. His courses of lectures on European diplomacy and treaties, in the Columbian School of Consular Jurisprudence and Diplomacy, at Washington, attracted wide attention. He resigned the presidency of Rochester University in 1896 to perfect his studies in international law and the public law of Europe. Two years later, October, 1898, while still abroad, President McKinley appointed him Assistant Secretary of State. In this important place he has had special charge of such great international commissions as the commission to the peace conference at The Hague, the first Philippine Commission, the Pan-American conference at Mexico City, preparing the instructions and overseeing the negotiations on behalf of the State Department.

UNIONS CAN'T AGREE.

(Continued from First Page.)

you suppose that we are going to take all of the trouble that it requires to get wages to a good figure and then admit men to our organization who will do the work for less? Then, for laborers, they only ask $2.50 per day, and the plasterers are getting from $2.50 to $3.50. And there is still another reason why we object to them. They have said that if there were not enough of them to do the work that they would send to California for more men, and not take in the men that are here. They say they have a secret in their work that they do not wish to give away. It is against our principles to get outside men to do work to the loss of those who live here. When they go about the matter right, and conform their ways to the ways of the country, they can be admitted, and not until they do."

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION MEETS.

Fiftieth Annual Session of the International Typographical Union.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 11.—The 50th annual convention of the International Typographical Union began its session here with all the 285 delegates present and over 100 visitors. Pike's Opera House was crowded, including the galleries, who are here for the first convention of the ladies' auxiliary.

After the welcoming addresses, to which President James M. Lynch responded, a resolution was adopted by the support of the United Mineworkers in their anthracite strike was adopted. The officers and committees were then announced. The committee on laws consists of Hartigan, Crawford, Benton, Spree and O'Neil. Telegrams and letters of greeting on the 50th anniversary of the International Typographical Union were read from almost all other labor organizations. Most of the time was devoted to the reading of the report on laws, and President Lynch's supplemental address on this report and their consideration was postponed until tomorrow.

The annual reports of the officers were then made, after which the convention adjourned until tomorrow.

Streotypers and Electrotypers.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 11.—The first convention of the International Streotypers' and Electrotypers' Union was called to order here today. The meeting is the first of the independent body. About 20 delegates from all parts of the United States and Canada were present. Hereafter the streotypers and electrotypers have begun a division of the International Typographical Union, but since the last meeting of the larger order they have organized independently.

Arguments in Heine Case.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 11.—Clerk of the Supreme Court Heine today heard objections to the bond furnished by the Boston & Montana Company in the Minnie Healy case to protect F. Augustus Heine because of an injunction pending

THE SALESWOMAN

Compelled to Be on Her Feet the Larger Part of the Day Finds a Tonic in Pe-ru-na.

Miss Curtin of St. Paul Gives Her Experience.

Miss Nellie Curtin.

Miss Nellie Curtin, 646 Pearl street, St. Paul, Minn., head saleswoman in a department store writes:

"I have charge of a department in a dry goods store, and after standing the larger part of the day, I would go home with a dull ache, generally through my entire body. I used Peruna and feel so much better that I walk to and from the store now. I know Peruna to be the best medicine on the market for the diseases peculiar to women."—Miss Nellie Curtin.

Nothing is so weakening to the human system as the constant loss of mucus. Catarrhal inflammation of the mucus membrane produces an excessive secretion of mucus. Whether the mucus membrane be located in the head or are subject to disease and blight by catarrh. The proper course for sufferers is to head these symptoms carefully over, mark those that apply to your case, and bring this with you to Dr. Copeland and his laboratory.

If you live away from the city, send them by mail, and ask for mail treatment.

In either instance, and whether by mail or office treatment, the patient may be assured of the speediest relief and cure possible to medical science.

CATARRH OF HEAD AND THROAT

The head and throat become diseased from neglected colds, causing Catarrh when the condition of the blood predisposes to this condition.

- "Is your voice husky?"
"Is there aching in the throat?"
"Is your throat sore?"
"Is your throat red?"
"Is your throat swollen?"
"Is your throat dry?"
"Is your throat itchy?"
"Is your throat raw?"
"Is your throat hot?"
"Is your throat cold?"
"Is your throat numb?"
"Is your throat tingling?"
"Is your throat burning?"
"Is your throat stinging?"
"Is your throat itching?"
"Is your throat crawling?"
"Is your throat crawling with ants?"
"Is your throat crawling with worms?"
"Is your throat crawling with snakes?"
"Is your throat crawling with scorpions?"
"Is your throat crawling with spiders?"
"Is your throat crawling with beetles?"
"Is your throat crawling with flies?"
"Is your throat crawling with