Appointment of Bolmes as Supreme Justice May Result in an Efffort to Reopen the Inspinr Cases.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Aug. 12.—An Eastern paper quotes President Roosevelt as saying to a friend that he would sacrifice a second term to secure reciprocity with Cuba. This may

Recent reports from the island show that there is a strong conservative element in the island that is trying to prevent the hotheads from ruining the country by offensive methods toward the United States. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington. Aug. 13.-The selection of Oliver Wendell Holmes to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court may result in reversing the insular policy of the United Justice Gray was one of those voting to sustain the Foraker act levying duty on goods going from the United States into Porto Rico, and also on goods coming from Porto Rico into the United States. Although free trade has since been established between the island and the United States, it was upon the decision in the Porto Rican cases that the Philippine tariff legislation of the last session

There is no reason why another case could not be brought by some one importing articles from the Philippines into the United States. If the new Justice has a different view of the case than Justice Gray, and should vote with Fuller, Harlan, Brewer and Peckham, the whole insular policy would be changed, and absolute free trade between the Philippines and this country would follow. It is more than probable that those who are interested in exporting goods from the United States to the Philippines or bringing Philippine goods to this country may think it worth while again to raise the question.

It a not expected that Justice Holmes will give any intimation as to how he stands upon this question, though it is possible that some close friend of the sident ascertained his views before the appointment was made. In view of the conditions existing, it is hardly believed that the President would have appointed a man that he knew would overturn existing conditions. It is also intimated that Holmes might follow a precedent that has been established in some cases by the court of not reversing a question once settled. At the same time, many able lawyers believe that the court was wrong on its insular decisions, and they may try to have the case reopened.

"Journalists" Contract Law," which is now pending before the Italian parlia-ment. The salient points of this bill are

The duration of a contract between journalist and the proprietor of a paper cannot be less than two years for a chief editor and one year for an ordinary writer. A journalist taken on trial becomes a fullfledged journalist at the end of two months have been said, but, of course, everybody affect the stability of his position or force knows that the cause of Cuba would not be advanced by any such sacrifice, and it will with his political opinions. Two will be supplied each ship, one for the starboard and one for the port anchor, but for convenience in handling and construction each chain is subdivided into shots of 50 or 130 feet

A portion of the completed chain was tested by apparatus installed at the Leb-ation works, which is said to be the largest chain-testing machine in this country, having a capacity of 600,000 pounds. At a strain of 600,000 pounds the jaw of the holding shackle of the ma-chine was broken, but none of the links was affected. At the second test the breaking strain was placed at 549,000 pounds, when the jaw of the machine feeding the oil to the tester was frac-

SOCIETY OF THE ARMY OF THE PHILIPPINES IN SESSION.

General Hale, the President, States the Reasons for Maintaining the Organization.

COUNCIL BLUFPS, Ia., Aug. 12.-The third annual reunion of the Society of the Army of the Philippines began in this city today with nearly 2000 delegates and veterans in attendance. After a brief re-ception early in the day the society was called to order in Arcanum Hall by the president, General Irving Hale. Following the address of General Hale, routine business was taken up, the session lasting the greater part of the afternoon.

General Hale in his annual address said that August II was chosen as the date for the convention because of the capitu lation of Manila, "which was the last the United States the possession of the Phillippine Archipcingo with all its prob-lems, conflicts, responsibilities and pos-sibilities." MAKES CHANGES IN 1TS LAWS. Portland in Field for Typographical Union Convention in 1905.

CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 12.—The convention of the International Typographical Union made many changes in its laws to-day. After providing yesterday for the day. After providing yestermay loadest substitute getting the first vacancy, it today restricted the hours per week to a maximum of $4, put evening papers with Sunday editions on the seven-day basis and made many minor changes. An effort to include superintendents as well-as foremen in the membership was made. It developed that there will be strong opposition among the delegates to indorsing the newly organized International Ladies' Auxiliary, although there is no opposition to local ladies' auxiliaries. The convention became very animated over an "alleged factional fight" that was precipitated by the Indianapolis Union, and showed its conservatism in defeating a proposition to prohibit any member from belonging to the militia. Consideration was continued of the ciaborate report of the committee on laws. The committee recommended that all unions put forth every effort to abolish the interchange of matter previously used in type matrices, and that the con vention change it so as to read: practice is unlawful and shall not be per mitted." The proposition was recommit-ted after a long discussion, with instructions for the laws committee to construct such a law as would prevent the ex-change of local matter, but not to interfere with the syndicate matrices.

endum system in the election of officers were defeated.

The proposition of West, of Louisville, to substitute piscework in daily newspaper offices in place of timework, and timework in place of piecework in job offices caused a long discussion and was finally caused a long discussion, and was finally defeated.

The question of limited membership came up in a proposition defining the rights of machine men other than print-ers, by deburring them from the opera-tion of machines. The action of the Birmingham convention extending equal rights to all allied crafts was sustained.

and the new proposition was lost.

Consideration of proposed changes in the laws of the union were considered all afternoon and until late tonight. Amendments were adopted against working for less than the scale of the union, against men recommended by supply agents of others, and against granting labels to unions where the scale falls below $10 per week. Several changes were made it laws regulating labels as to firms violat-ing any union laws. Various amend ments also were made regarding member ship cards and dues. Minor changes were made in the laws limiting the hours per week and the classification of papers. There was an exciting discussion over in amendment providing that no perso s entitled to membership in a typo is entitled to membership in a typo-graphical union who is a member of any state militia. The sentiment was gener-ally expressed against union men belong-ing to the militia, but many of those holding these views did not want the Typographical Union to go on record against any part of the Government or against any ladividual rights. The amendment was defeated by a viva voce SAILS FOR BARCELONA vote, which indicates a large majority against the proposition.

Nominations for the place of holding the convention next year were made by Breitenstein for Asheville, N. C.; Ryan for Newark, N. J.; Blakeley for Richmond, Va.; Bynum for Washington, D. C., and Daveler for Salt Lake City. The contest seems to be between Washington and Newark. It is conceded that the convention in 1804 will be held at St. Louis.
