GREENE AND GAYNOR FREE

VICTORIOUS IN THEIR FIGHT AGAINST EXTRADITION.

Quebec Judge Refuses to Quash the Writs of Habens Corpus-Uncle Sam Will Try Again.

QUEBEC, Aug. 13. - Colonel John F. Gaynor and Captain Benjamin D. Greene scored a decisive victory today in their fight against extradition to the United States. They are wanted in connection with alleged frauds in harbor-work for the Federal Government, involving mil-lions of dollers. Judge Caron, in the Superior Court, discharged the prisoners from the custody of Sheriffs Langelier, of Quebec, and Valee, of Montreal, in whose official care they have been since their sensational arrest in Quebec last May.

A large number of the prisoners friends were in the countries and they beartly.

were in the courtroom and they heartily congratulated the two men upon their release. Colonel Gayner and Captain Greene left the courtroom soon after Judge Caron had concluded and proceeded to the Chateau Frontenac. Colonel Gaynor, who is suffering from rheumatism, retired to his room. It is understood that the United States Government will institute new proceedings for extradition, but up to a late hour no step had been taken by counsel representing the Washington

Judge Caron, who spoke in French, ocsubject caron, who spoke in French, to cupled about two hours in delivering his judgment. In reviewing the legal proceedings since the arrest of the prisoners, he pointed out that their counsel had he pointed out that their counsel had raised an important question as to the warrant issued by Magistrate La Fon-taine as filegal, on the ground that it did contain the date nor the year in which the alleged offense had been com-mitted. He could not presume when the offense was committed, and it may have been previous to the signing of the treaty between the United States and Great Britain and, if so, the accused could not be held, as the treaties had no retroactive ording to a deposition made in Montreal by Mr. Erwin, counsel for the United States, in May last, continued Judge Caron, the accused were charged with fraud committed on or about Janusry 1, 1897. That crime was not included in treaties, and that of receiving money under false pretenses was only included in the treaty of 1990. This was fatal to the presecution, and the warrant issued by Judge La Fontaine was defective, as offense included therein did not fall under the extradition treaty, consequently the arrest was illegal and the accused must be set at liberty. After citing authorities in support of his decision, Judge Caren concluded as follows: 'Considering that the warrant in virtue of which the petitioners are detained con-tains no date of the commission of the offense, whereof the petitioners are accused; considering that in view of the treaties of extradition existing between Great Britain and the United States it is positively provided that these treaties shall have no retroactive effect for offenses committed before their passage: considering that the allegation of the date of the commission is in consequence es-sential to give jurisdiction to the commissioner to issue a warrant of arrest; considering, furthermore, that it is al-leged in the warrant that the offense for which said warrant has been issued is one of criminal participation, punishable by the laws of both countries, which is a condition required by the last paragraph of the first article of the treaty of 1890; considering that the information indictments and true bills and all documents produced for the issue of the warrant show that the offenses of which the petitioners are charged and for which they would have to stand their trials in the light of the charge of the cha United States, should extradition be granted, are not within the terms of the treaties of extradition between Great Britain and the United States and disclose no offense committed by the prisoners for which they could be extradited ander the said treaties; considering in consequence that the warrant of arrest issued by the said Ulric La Fontaine, in his above stated capacity, is null and illegal and could not warrant the arrest of the petitioner, the court rejects the motion of the United States, intervening party, to quash the said writs of habens corpus issued by me on June 21 last to the said C. A. Valee, doth declare the arrest and detention of the said petitioners illegal and doth annul and set aside the

"It is ordered that the petitioners b liberated and discharged from the cus-tody of C. A. McMaster and Dandurand, counsel for the United States Govern ment, and Mr. Gervaise, counsel for Messrs. Gaynor and Greene, returned to Montreal this evening. Since judgment was rendered today, the accused have enjoyed their liberty, and tonight could be seen among the promenaders on the terrace. According to the judgment, the ac-cused are perfectly free to travel in any part of the British Empire. Counsel for the United States will take time to con-

WILL CORRECT DEFECTS.

Solicitor-General Still Believes They Can Be Extradited.

DUXBURY, Mass., Aug. 13.—The decision of Judge Caron, of Quebec, releasing Benjamin D. Greene and John F. Gaynor, was shown to Solicitor-General Richards at his Summer home here today. He expressed no surprise at the action which had been taken and said that he would not at this time enter into a discussion of the case or express an opinion as to the attitude of Judge Caron. He would say that if there were any technical defects in the warrant, these could be easily corrected by the United States Government, and having done this, the Govern-ment would renew its efforts to get the two men back into this country for trial Mr. Richards said that in his own mind he had formed an opinion as to the stand ing of the men in the light of the law for it had been part of his duty to argue the original case, that against Captain Carter, in its several stages until it was before the Supreme Court. Captain Carter had been convicted and imprisoned. When It came to the cases of Greene and Ony-nor, he said there might be some question as to extradition under the treaty be tween the United States and Great Brit. sin, but if there was such a question this could be argued. He had no reason to believe that under the treaty Greene and Gaynor should not be extradited. Assistant Attorney-General Hoyt, who is also visiting here, would not comme on the release of Greene and Gaynor. Disappointment at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. IR.—The decision of Judge Caron in the Greene and Gaynor-cases was a decided disappointment to Government officials interested, as they had hoped for a favorable outcome of the efforts that have been made to secure the extradition of the two men. Attorney-General Knox is out of the city and in his absence Assistant Attorney-General Beck is acting as the head of the Department of Justice. Mr. Beck declined to comment on the decision futher than to say that he regretted it. Mr. Beck sent a telegram to the counsel for the Government at Quebec, requesting the narrigulars in the case. of the Government will be in the case. That matter will be determined by Attorney-General Knox, who has given the case considerable personal attention, and who has felt confident that the efforts of the Government to secure the extra-dition of the two men would be success-

Knox Will Not Discuss It. BEVERLY, Mass., Aug. 12.—Attorney-General Knox was informed by the Asso-clated Press tonight of the release of Greene and Gnynor at Quebec and also was shown Judge Caron's decision. He read the letter carefully and then added: "I have nothing to say in regard to Judge Caron's decision. It would be highly im-proper and extremely indelicate for me to make any comment on any decision of a foreign court in which the United States Government is involved, especially when the cases go against the Government."

UNSTABLE CABINET.

The Balfour Ministry Is Losing Its Popularity.

NEW YORK, Aug. 18.-The resignation of the Duke of Devonshire from the Coun-cil has not yet been announced, but is expected with confidence by well-informed politicians before October, says the Lonion correspondent of the Tribune. The King may have urged him to retain office at a special audience previous to the meeting of the Council, Lut it has been under stood in inner circles of the Government supporters for a fortnight that he was bent upon following Lord Salisbury and Sir Michael Hicks-Beach into retirement. If this resignation occurs, Mr. Balfour's cabinet will lose, with the exception of Joseph Chamberlain, the only member possessing great influence in the country studied the more artificial and temporary appears the series of political compromises effected. It may succeed in carrying the education bill in October by reduced majority, but it lacks the politi ical authority for retaining the confidence of the country. There is little in the suggestion that Mr. Balfour is riding for a Discussing the breaking up of the Colo-nial Assemblage, the correspondent cables that Sir Wilfrid Laurier starts with Sir Gilbert Parker today for the Channel Islands and Paris, and will visit Rome before returning to London in September. He will not discuss the work of the imperial conference, but it is an open secret that he has exerted a decisive influence in keeping the colonies out of what he calls the "vortex of European arms-

There was without doubt, a vigorous ef-fort on the part of Mr. Chamberlain to concentrate attention on this subject, as the most available ground for common ac-tion, but there has been a complete fail-ure to commit the colonies to the costly policy of military and naval defense of the empire. This question, apart from the increase in the Australian naval con-tribution remains where it was and the the increase in the Australian naval contribution, remains where it was, and the question of sleamship subsidies has not been taken out of the hands of the colonial Ministers interested in working out plans for the fast mail service on the Arlantic and Pacific. Preferential trade is virtually remanded to the serious consideration of the British Colonial Governments' inapayers. It has been recommended cautiously and tentatively within the bounds of existing tariff arrangements. Mr. Seddon will not accompany Premier Barton to America and Canada, having changed his plans. The young sons of the Prince of Wales, the Princes Edward and Albert constituted themselves aids to the King, and brought several general officers, who smilingly obeyed their summons, to an audience with their grandfather. The great lawn below the terrace was a beautiful sight in red, yellow, green and blue.
> The Bengalese, Sikh, Gurkhas and Pun jab cavalry made a strong contrast to a single khaki spot where the British regu-lars from Indian stood. At the word of command fluttering lances, rifles and car-bines were grounded, and the contingents one by one filed past the royal canopy saluting Their Majestles and receiving medals at the hands of the Prince of

> At the close of the review the troops were drawn up in front of the King, who addressed the officers as follows: "I wish to convey to all ranks the high satisfac tion it has given me to see this splendid contingent from India. I almost feared, owing to my serious illness, that I would be prevented from having the advantage of seeing you, but I am glad to say that by God's mercy I am well again. I recognize among you many of the regiments I had the advantage of seeing at Delhi dur I hope the contingent has enjoyed its stay in England, and that all may return in safety to their homes, I wish you to convey these senti-

People Continue to Resist Closing of Sistern' Schools in France. BREST, France, Aug. 12-Soldiers have peen requisitioned in several places in Finisterre during the past two or three days to protect Police Commissariats engaged in closing religious schools from threatening crowds. Thirteen schools belonging to White Staters remain unclosed in Finisterre. A battalion of infantry and a strong body of mounted gendarmes are expected in St. Meon and Ploudanell at once to overnwe the populations of those towns. The inhabitants of Folgoet are encaged in building a wall of masonry be-bind the principal doors of the church school. At St. Meon scouts on horses, cleycles and even cutomobiles, are reconnottering in order to give the slarm of the coming police. The peasants declare they will throw beehives among the gendarmes and will put bechives in the barracks. The exputsion of the Sisters at Concarness was undertaken today. Requite on PARADE FOR THE KING automobiles reached the town at 2 o'clock sportsmen were slow in arriving on many in the morning from Quimper and reported mours, and on account of the hardward that troops were on the way. The tocsin was rung, bugles were blown and boys ran through the streets ringing hand bells. Large crowds gathered around the railroad station, and around the school. Several bodies of gendarmes and two companies of infantry arrived by a special train. The Commissary ordered the school evacuated, at which the crowd shouted, "Long live the Sistera." The gendarmes advanced toward the school, but they were repulsed and a general scrimmage followed. Later the troops reached the building, and the police tried to break down the doorway with axes, but the resistance of the people continued. The Commissary finally forced an entrance to the school. When this had been accomplished, the Sisters, smid the vehement protests of the crowd, left the building. Entrance to the school in the willage of Benzenie was also forced. Here the Sisters, when they emerged from the school building, were conducted to the church by the Mayor and a procession of people, headed by the national flag draped

KAISER'S SHARP CENSURE. Offers Sum for Art Purposes That

Bavarian Diet Refused. BERLIN, Aug. 13.-The refusal of the Bavarian Diet to vote funds asked by the government for art purposes has drawn a sharp public censure from Emperor Will-iam, who offers personally to furnish the sum required. In a telegram to Prince Regent Luitpold, of Bavaria, from Swinemund, dated August 10, the Emperor said:

"I have just returned home and read with the despest indignation of the refusal of the Bavarian Diet to vote the sum for which you ask for art. I hasten to express my displeasure with the mean ingratitude displayed by this action to the House of Wittelsbach and your august person, which ever has been a shin ing model in the support and advance-ment of art. I therefore beg to be allowed to place at your disposal the sum require, so that you may be enabled to accomplish your task in the domain of WILLIAM.

Prince Luitpoid replied by telegram, exprecising his heartfelt thanks for the warm interest shown by the Emperor, and his magnanimous offer. The Prince Regent continued, however, that he was glad to say that through the public-spirited liberality of a member of the Bava-rian Reichstag, who had placed the requisite sum at his disposal, the government aiready had been placed in a position to carry out the original designs.

THE GROUSE SEASON.

Sportsmen Find Poor Shooting on the Scottish Moors.

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.-The opening of the grouse season in Great Britain, August 12, this year, is thus commented on by the Herald's London correspondent: According to the reports from the North. sportsmen never remember such a wretched opening of the grouse shooting. Not but that they went North with less hope than last year, a cold Spring, succeeded by an uncongenial Summer, having killed the young broods off on many moors while the batching in many districts proved a failure. to the noor reports of the birds,

On the Perthshire and other Scotch moors the results for the day on those moors on which shooting was started were very poor, in several cases being only a fourth or a fifth of the yield of last year's first day. The coveys were found to be scarce and small. On the Yorkshire moors it was also the worst "twelfth" known for very many years. The sport generally was most disheartening, though on some of the low-lying moors such bags were obtained as made those shooting on the hills envious, instance, Sir Christopher Furness shot over the Grantley moors, near Ripon, with Marmaduke Furness, Joseph A Pease, M. P.; Dr. Maclagan, of London the Hon. J. G. Maxwell Scott and Mr C. N. Nicholson, and birds were found to be fairly numerous and strong. lunch the party had bagged the goodly number of 210 brace. Also up to luncheon, Colonel Charles Worth's party on the moors to the west of Richmond, with four guns, had oagged 136 brace, while seven or eight other parties bagged an average of 50 to 60 brace during the first half of the day, up to which time only reports are to hand so far. But these were exceptions, and or the whole it has been a most inglorious twelfth. Grouse are selling in the markets a 24s ($6 a brace), against 16s ($4) last
