MEN LEAVE SHIP

Steamer Elba Loses Nearly All Her Sailors.

BOARDING-HOUSES ARE BLAMED

But They Don't Care About Reapers. Three Sailors in Jail—Jupiter Ship Found at the Body.

The old adage about reapers defied the law of physics in the worst conceivable event in the seafaring trade when the steamship Elba, lying in ballast at the United States harbor, was struck by a gale and capsized. Three sailors were rescued, but nearly all of the crew was lost. In all, 14 men were saved, and the bodies of the others were washed ashore.
