The Spokane team went to pieces it the last half of the third inning yester day, allowing Portland seven runs, thu giving the home nine the game and incl dentally the series. The Spokane lad were only able to cross the home plat three times during the nine innings, bu they kept Portland to a goose-egg in ever one except the third, so that the fine score stood 7 to 3. The game was a good one from a spectator's standpoint, and th Portland players did their best to put up good ball from the time that the firs sphere went over the plate.

McLaughlin went to the bat first for th unchgrassers, and only lacked one bal of having enough to get a pass to first, when a nice one came along right where he wanted it. He couldn't resist the temptation, so he hit it on the nose for three bases. Right out past first it went, just out of Weed's reach and about a toot inside the bag. By the time Zeigler pot his hands on it McLaughlin was safe in third. Ferris went out on a popfly to Engle, and Reltz stepped into the box. He knocked the ball where he thought that Engle was not, but that gentleman grabbed it just in time, and, after some ittle dancing and jumping. McLaughlin was put out between third base and home and Reitz was stopped before he got to second. When Portland came to the bat Maxie Muller struck out, Van Buren hië the hall, but found it waiting for him when he got to first, and Anderson fol-lowed Muller's example with three swipes at the air. The crowd did not like Col-pan's judgment at all, and did not besi-tate $6 may so. He didn't seem to care a bit, but kept on calling balls and strikes in the same tone that the fire whistle uses to announce a fire in the First Ward.

In the second Eisey seemed on the point of fanning when he changed his mind and knocked a foul that Catcher Shea easily nabbed. Donahue hit hard out past Harris, who watched the ball go by his feet in a very dejected manner. His failure to stop it counted for nothing, however, for the runner tried to go down with Engle's arm, but was not fast enough, and got out on second. McKevitt went out on a long fly to Van Buren. Weed got as far as second in the last half, but was put out while Shea was preparing to bat.

In the disparance third to the Howelle.

In the disastrous third inning Howe went out on a fly to Zelgier; Frary, w batted in Grim's place and caught duri the game, struck out, and Pfeister di on first. Then came the deluge. Sh came up for Portland and hit out ov third, getting one hase. Delsel took place, as he was suffering from a la leg. Delsel went to second, while En went to first on a short hit. Muller to Pfeister, but Elsey dropped the b on first and everybody, Muller include got one base on the error. Van Bur made a nice hit over second, and by t time he got to first Deisel and Engle we both home, with Muller hugging second Anderson at the bat. He hit for bag and got another on an error, while Muller crossed the plate, making the third that had done so in this inning, with no one yet out. Zeigler made a beautiful hit over the shortstop's head, bringing in Van Buren and Anderson, and getting third himself while Donahue was trying to do some fancy juggling for the edification the grandstand. In the meantime Weed went out on first, Harris reached second on a left field hit and Zeigler made the sixth tally, while Deixel went out on a fly. Reitz muffed Shea's fly, letting Harris make home, and giving the better first, where Deisel took his place. It was En-gle's turn, lift he knocked a fly to Pfeister, and brought an end to a very spec-tacular inning, the features of which were seven runs, five safe hits and four errors. The small boy at the tallyboard had a hard time finding the figure "7," as it had not been used for such a long time.

In the fourth Spokane got her first run, by Ferria, who reached first on a muffed fly to Harris and made home on a threebagger by Elsey. The Portland players went out in quick succession, only one (Van Buren) getting past first.

For the Bunchgrassers Frary made a two-bagger in the opening of the fifth, but no one got home in that inning. Portland repeated the performance of the

In the sixth McLaughlin made a hit and was followed in quick succession by Fer-ris. Reitz made a two-bagger, but was put out trying to get third, while the two runners were scoring. The next two up at the bat were each thrown out at first. Engle, for Portland, reached second, but got no farther.

In the seventh McLaughlin went out on In the seventh stranger of the a fly to Anderson, and Howells did the same thing with Weed. Frary planted a two-baser in Muller's back yard, but couldn't score. In the last of this inning and the first of the eighth no one go past first but Elsey, who made a long two-bagger, one of the longest ever made on this field. When Harris came to the bat for Portland he was presented with a copy of the War Cry, but even this touching gift did not make him brace up, for he struck out as soon as possible. The rest of the game was limited to pop files and efforts to reach first, which were for the most part unsuccessful. The final score stood 7 to 3 in the home team's favor. Engle pitched good ball. The 12 hits that were made off him were well scat-tered, and the score shows that the Spokane people could make very little from them. The first time he went to the bat he received a beautiful pair of elk-tooth cuff buttons from an admirer—a very pretty gift. The Portland team as a whole did very well, and not an error is to their credit, or discredit in the column their credit, or discredit, in the column.

Colgan seems to be a little rusty on the game, or his eyes are bad, for he was rather far off in some of his decisions as regards balls and strikes yesterday. The

HELENA'S TURN TO WIN.

Pitchers' Battle at Butte Goes to the Visitors.

BUTTE, Mont, Aug. 14.—It was Helena's turn to score today, 7 to 4 being the tale of the game. Dowling and Thompson were pitted against each other, and Dowling came out second best. Thompson kept the hits of the Miners well scattered, and his strike-outs came at opportune mo-ments. The game was practically feat-ureless, both teams playing listiessly. The contest was one clearly between the two pitchers. The score:

TACOMA AGAIN DEFEATED. Senttle Gets a Big Lead in the First

Inning. TACOMA, Aug. 14.-Harmon was wild at the start today, and four bases on balls, with his bad throw to second, helped Scattle get four runs in the first inning. The game was never thereafter in doubt for Hogg was steady as a clock and received great support. Letcher made a wonderful running one-handed catch of a fly from Klopf's bat in the eighth, and in the ninth Campbell made a hard stop, falling down, yet getting the ball to Babbirt in time to catch Andrews, while Babbitt whipped it to first in time to get McCarthy. > BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETS. American League Officials Clean Up Unfinished Business.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 14.-An important meeting of the board of directors of the American League was held at the Hoilenden today, the session lasting nearly five hours. The meeting was called by President Ban Johnson for the purpose of discussing the plans of the league and to make a report on the season as far as it has gone. The meeting was purely an executive one, and none besides the directors, with the exception of Vice-President Charles W. Somers, was able to enter the room. Every member of the board was present, which is made up as follows: B. F. Shibe, of Philadelphia; P. J. Killites, of Boston; Charles A. Comiskey, of Chicago, and John F. Kilfoyle, of Cleveland. That the meeting must have been of more importance than the mem-bers of the board intimated was proved by the length of the proceedings. But when asked if anything had been done, President Juhnson said that a lot of un-finished business had been cleaned up and only the business of the league was fin-Discussing the amalgamation story sent out from Chicago, Mr. Johnson said: "There is absolutely no chance for an amalgamation between the American League and the National League.
