BUTTE, Mont., Aug. 24,-(Special.)-Mc Closkey's sluggers were able to wield the willow today, and pounded out a victory in the last game of the series with Portland. Butte not only hit the ball, but fleided to advantage. One of the two errors made by the Buttes allowed the visitors to make a run. Portland showed a lack of confidence, and played a comparatively listless game, Contrary to the custom Portland went to the bat first. Zeigier opened with a single, and Van Buren got first on Dow-ling's error. Anderson flew out to Marshall, and Weed brought Zeigler in with a tmely single. Vigneux gave Kane a fly, and Muller put one up for Marshall. In Portland's next time up Harris hit out for two bags, and although Deisel sacrificed him to third, he failed to score, Witheck hit to McHale, but Harris was kept at third by a clever throw to McDon-ough. Zeigler, the next man at the bat, was an easy out. Dowling got a single in Butte's half, but the next three men were easy outs. The fourth was a pretty Vigneux flew out to Knox. UPCHURCH TEAM WINS. Defeats the Woodmen Nine by Score 15 to 4. The Upchurch team defeated the Wood-man team on the professional grounds yesterday afternoon by a score of 15 to 4. A game had been scheduled early in the week between the Upchurch and the Dia-mond "W" teams, but on Thursday last it was found that the Hillsboro people would be unable to come down, and so yesterday's game had to be arranged for. His first engagement with a professional team was in 1839, when he pitched with an independent team in Helena. Mont. In 1900 he was one of the star pitchers in the Montana State League, being a member of the Butto team. Lust year he played ball with Tacoma in the Pacific States League, and he was so well thought of after the sea-son had closed that the Tacoma management made every effort to retain him, even after his sale to Chicago. In Mem-phis he has proved himself a wonder, and there has been no inclination on the part of the local management to shirk any fight made upon them in order that they might retain his services. Mr. St. Vrain married and his wife is with him in Memphis.

A review of the scores of the recent Butte-Portland games, shows that the Portland men made the following butting averages during the series: Weed. 400; Ziegler, 391; Vigneux, 376; Harris, 300; Van Buren, 250; Witbeck, 350; Moler, 222; Diesel, 222; Anderson, 216; Engle, 15; Shea, 000; Kostal, 000.

An old National League player, who was in Portlans recently, says that Andy Anderson, the popular second baseman of the Portland team, is by far the best -around player in the Northwes League. and has absolutely no interest in any of the Northwest teams or players. He cays that Anderson fields his position better than any man in the league, throws accurately and is a hard hitter. Furthermore, the critic, who has seen every team in the Northwest League play ball, says that Weed is the next best man. TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP IN DANGER. Englishmen Putting Up Strong Game

-Will End Wednesday. NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 24.-One by one he four-score tennis players who last Tuesday began the national championship singles have fallen before superior players, and only six now remain in the ournament. Tomorrow, the fifth round the tournament will be played, and it expected the winners will meet on Tuesday or perhaps Wednesday to pat-tic fro the honor of challenging the pres-ent champion, William A. Larned, for the national championship. The indications are that M. D. Whitman, of Boston, will be one of the players in the finals, and that one of the Doherty brothers will be the other-which one has not been decided. The feeling among the tennis experts here seems to be that the champlonship is in grave danger, and that Whitman alone stands between it and the Dohertys.

The English players have been playing stronger and stronger, and it seems al-most impossible to defeat them. Tomorrow the younger, H. L. Doherty, will play L. E. Ware, of Boston, and this match will be the feature of the day's playing. Ware has shown considerable ability this year, and it is expected he will put up a strong game against the Englishman, but few believe he will win. The tournament probably will be brought to a close Wednesday or Thursday,

NEWARK, N. J., Aug. 3.—Five thous-and spectators witnessed exciting bicycle races at the Vallsburg track today. The five-mile race for professionals was unique in that no similar race was ever held in this country. The contest was arranged for a gruelling battle, and such it proved to be. T. D. Condon has sold one of his favor-Ite trotters, T. D. C., a 5-year-old, by Zombro, to George T. Beckers. The price has not been made public, but it is said to be good and satisfactory to both parties, The trotter is now in the Beckers stable, and his name has been lengthened by his new owner to Tee-Dec-Cee, with "Teddy" as an abbreviation. In the purchase of Teddy, horsemen think Mr. Beckers se-cured a prize. Last year the trotter made a mile in 2:21%, and the last half in 1:06, after only six weeks' work. dy has been in pasture all of this season, and has done very little work. Mr. Beck-ers will train him at Irvington during the rest of the Summer, and will winter him in California. Next year Teddy will be in California. Next year Teddy will be placed on either the grand or the Califernia circuit, and his owner predicts a of age, mark of 2:15 or better for him, Cresceus did not cut the expected dash at Indianapolis Thursday, but he showed that he had the mettle, and something may drop before the season ends. On what to him was a new track he went against his record of 2:02%, but he made 2:04%, half a second less than the track mark for trotters, established by Nancy Hanks, 10 years ago. Ketchum is pleased with the result, but not so the local admir-ers of the horse, who predicted anything from 2:02 to $2:02. Local prophecies were based upon the work at Cleveland. In stiff trials about two weeks ago Cresceus, driven by Ketchum, went in 2:40, 2:28, 2:18% and 2:14, and the last quarter of the last mile was done in 30 seconds, or a two-minute gait,

The Jester, a 2-year-old in the Beckers stable at Irvington, gives promise of be ing one of the fastest of his class on the Coast. He will make his first appearance on the track at Salem in the $500 trot, and he is picked for a winner. In a work-out Thursday he stepped a mile in 2:30, with the greatest case imaginable, and he cleared the last eighth in 17 sec-ords a 2:10 gait. Mr. Beckers thinks the Jester has a wonderful future.

T. W. Lawson has taken Boralina off the turf, and the race with The Abbott, scheduled to take place at Hartford, Conn. on August 20, has been declared off. Boralma has gone to pieces, and his owner gives up all hopes of his ever re-turning to the turf. He will be given a well-earned race at Dreamwold farm, and there, Lawson writes, he will have the select portions of the oats and hay, even if he lives to be a centennarian. The Ab-bott also has gone lame, and his race with Lord Derby is off.

Horses with defective evesight, or no eyesight whatever, seem to be winners in the East. Leaving out the great Rythmic, who is entirely blind, there are New Rich-mond and Elastic Pointer, each of whom does business with one eye.

The first week of the Seattle races closed Saturday, and the ending was anything but satisfactory to the Oregon favorites, Mack Mack, driven by Helman, went down before Commonwealth, and won only a single heat, and, by the way, dropped out of his class. He had been entered for the 3:30, and he made the mark for the race, which was 2:18. This mark places him in the 2:18 class, and he cannot be entered in the 2:30 in the late closing events at Irvington, or the State Fair, entries for which will close today. Mack Mack will have to go into the new class, and it is said that it is not any too fast for him, for he has shown something like 2:15 speed. It is said that he would have made 2:16 at Seattle, but the track was new to him, while Commonwealth had been ambling there for several weeks.

Simpson and Tilden both came back from Scattle yesterday morning, and the latter returned last night. Neither one had much to say about the races, excepthat good time had been made. Simpson thought that some of the horses which made 2:14 could make 2:11 or 2:12 on th Irvington track, which was slow, bu comparatively faster than that of Seattle Of the runners, he said that they wer closing up on the world's record. Som other Portlanders who were in Seattle ex pressed their opinions quite freely. The said the Scattle track was very slow, an that horses trained to it had the greater advantage in the world. Where the trace had been stumped holes had been left in the ground, with no pretense of a filling and strange horses found the excavation One or two dropped into them, and a wel known horseman says that Helma checked on the third heat, and lost the race rather than take chances of lamin Mack Mack. Of the presiding judge, Ful-lerton, of Vancouver, B. C., the Portlander gaid he was a good, straightforward man, but he did not know the "how" of horse-racing. Another complaint was of a postponement of the races. It was nothing un-usual to line the horsemen up and tell them that a race scheduled for one day would not take place until the next, and some were so disgusted that they took their horses away. Of fairness, all that was praiseworthy was said. M. D. Wisdom, of Portland, one of the judges, ordered a driver who was supposed to be "holding in" off his seat, and replaced him with Tilden, who won the race handily.

Lady Jones was the only Oregon winner nt Seattle. In the 3-year-old stakes she made 2.26%, and she did not require any great urging, either. Last year Lady Jones won the 2-year-old stakes at Salem.

T. D. Condon will enter Lord Kitchener for the 2:24 stakes at Irvington and Salem. The Lord will arrive from California about September 8, and he will be lodged at Saiem until the Portland races begin. Salem stake, for which he is entered, amounts to $1000.
