

LIGHTS TURNED ON

Elks' Carnival Grounds Brilliantly Illuminated.

DECORATORS WORK AT NIGHT

Booths Ready to Receive Displays—Opening Parade Tuesday—Elks' Excursion to Seattle Returns With Third Prize.

For the first time part of the lights in the Carnival grounds were turned on last night to enable the various decorators of booths to hasten completion of their tasks.

Through the generosity of H. C. Bredon it has been possible for the Carnival Company to provide five beautifully quarter-sawn oak bedroom sets for the couples that will be united on wedding day at the Carnival.

Recent finders of balloon tickets to the Carnival are: Adolph Van Hoomissen, 235 East Mill Street.

ELKS BACK FROM SEATTLE.

Captured Third Prize and Were Royally Entertained.

The big delegation of Portland Elks who have been attending the Seattle Street Fair and Carnival returned home yesterday afternoon, giving glowing accounts of the treatment accorded them by the Puget Sound Elks.

When seen last evening, W. M. ("Pike") Davis, who was a leading spirit in the Portland delegation, said that they were treated like princes, at both Tacoma and Seattle, and had a royal good time all the way through.

MAY MAKE AN EXHIBIT.

Hudson's Bay Company at Lewis and Clark Fair.

Those in charge of the Lewis and Clark Fair are considering the project of securing an exhibit from the Hudson's Bay Company, the early hunters and trappers of all the Northwest country.

Chipman, who holds the position of commissioner, is the principal officer in the Dominion. His address is Hudson's Bay House, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

TO MAKE A GREAT BUND.

Plan of Consolidating German Societies Makes Progress.

The plan of consolidating the two leading German societies in this city and vicinity to secure the consolidation and organizations is progressing favorably.

BACK FROM A FINE TRIP.

Portland Party Has a Vacation Around Lake Quinalt.

With their faces and hands bearing evidence of fine new coats of tan, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bruun and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. T. Bushong of this city, are home again, after an enjoyable three weeks' vacation trip in and around Lake Quinalt, Wash.

FIRE RISK TOO GREAT.

O. R. & N. Co. Wants Something Done for Lower Albina.

A communication asking for better fire protection in Lower Albina has been addressed by the O. R. & N. Co. to Mayor Williams.

RECREATION.

It is suggested that a day of rest and pleasure, take the O. R. & N. train from Union depot at 9 A. M. for a short trip up the Columbia, returning, if desired, by the city service to be as follows:

RACE SEASON OPENS WELL

GREAT SUCCESS OF THE SEATTLE FAIR MEET.

Over 350 Horses There, and Many Close Contests—Outlook for State Fair.

M. D. Wisdom, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, returned yesterday afternoon from Seattle, where he officiated as a judge at the King County Fair Association race.

"All told," there were about 350 head of horses at the meet. There were a few attempts made to carry on unfair racing, but the management and the judges put an end to all such efforts.

BIG TIME ON LABOR DAY.

Programme Will Afford Recreation and Amusement.

An entire day of pleasure is being planned for Labor day, Monday, September 1. Even the labor addresses will be dispensed with, and the whole day given up to having a good time.

IS THIS THE TRIO?

Trying to Convict the Men Who Robbed Cunningham.

Considerable wrangling between the lawyers for the prosecution and defense occurred yesterday in the Municipal Court in the case where J. D. Keenan, James Hughes and Chester Harvey were charged with stealing a small sum of money from William Cunningham, on Second street, near Couch, last Monday night.

KINDNESS TO THE HORSES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(To the Editor.)—At this distant point and date I wish to thank The Oregonian for an article on the editorial page of The Sunday Oregonian of August 10.

Meier & Frank Company. All merchandise purchased today on credit will go on your September account. Monday, September 1st (Labor Day), this store will be closed all day.

New Felt Walking Hats. Exclusively styles that immediately appeal to the correct dresser—Shapes and trimmings that show good taste and style. (Second Floor.)

50c Ribbons 20c. Just as the headline reads—Fifty-Cent Ribbons for Twenty-Nine Cents, but for today and tomorrow only—the following facts tell the story better than type.

29c yard. Cloak Dept. New Arrivals Yesterday. Handsome new heavy Cotton Waists for Fall wear.

Ladies' "Haveleek" Coats for evening wear—answers the same purpose as the "Inverness" for men. First arrivals in Silk Waists—and such beautiful ones—far ahead of all expectations.

Boy's Clothing. Headquarters for boys' good clothing—Thousands of parents will testify as to the satisfactory clothing we sell for the little gents—if you have never tried us here's your opportunity.

Men's Wear. Bargain furnishings for economical men. A short list of very inviting specials that should find many eager buyers.

Last Two Days of the Great "August Linen Sale." Meier & Frank Company.

Silverfield's. STIRRING SPECIAL ON MOREEN PETTICOATS. FOR TODAY AND TOMORROW. A large assortment of Black and Colored Moreen Petticoats, made in a variety of styles. Just the proper thing for wear. Reg. $4 $2.95.

The New Waist Silks. In plaid and Roman striped Velours—Beautiful colorings—Silks that are finding great favor throughout the East for waists and trimmings.

Muslin Underwear. Some tempting values in ladies' Unde: muslins for today and tomorrow—Clean, fresh goods that have just arrived and every garment having the label of the Consumers' League, which insures it having been made in clean, well ventilated factories.

Friday Surprise Sale. Lord & Taylor Hosiery Samples. For today, the 679th Friday Surprise Sale. Our annual offering of Sample Hosiery from America's leading hosiery house, Messrs. Lord & Taylor, of New York City.

Men's Wear. Bargain furnishings for economical men. A short list of very inviting specials that should find many eager buyers.

L. Shanahan. A SURPRISE SALE. EVERYBODY WILL LIKE. A timely bargain and timely advice. You no doubt will be surprised by some one coming in on you during the carnival—so here's your chance to prepare for him: cost. FRIDAY AND SATURDAY ONLY at this price.

brick and stone and what not for the ever-present building work was preparing to quit work. One man had taken the harness all off his horse (a big, contented-looking dapple gray), and right there in the side street, not more than 20 feet from the crowded avenue, was carefully playing the horse all over the animal, to the evident satisfaction of the horse. His very attitude said "thank you." I am also more than glad to notice in this Greater New York a rapidly increasing tendency to abolish that heinous practice of docking the tails of carriage horses, and, to some extent, the remark applies to the saddle horses. Many handsome turn-outs are now seen where the animals serenely wear their natural "bristles." And how comfortable they look! More especially, too, as the other atrocity, overhead check reins, seem to be also disappearing. Speed the day when both forms of torture will be relegated to a past deep and lasting LILLIAN C. OLDS. Mount Hood Government Camp. Good hotel, rates reasonable. Safe guide for mountain-climbing. Address A. M. Youm, manager, Salmon, Or.