WRECKED AT CURVE
Thirty Persons Killed in an Alabama Disaster.

EIGHTY OTHERS WERE INJURED
All but Three of the Victims Were Residents of Mobile, Alabama.

WRECKED AT CURVE.
In the early morning of yesterday, a heavy coal train, bound for Mobile, Alabama, was wrecked near Mount Olive, Alabama, about 50 miles from Birmingham, killing thirty persons and injuring eighty others. The train was traveling at a high speed when the engineer saw a clearing in the smoke and tried to stop the engine. The passenger cars, which were packed with people, were thrown from the track and fell towards the grade. Many of the victims were crushed under the wreckage.

VALUE OF ORGANIZATION

WASHINGTON, D.C., Sept. 2.-The President, in his farewell message to Congress, today, declared that the value of organization was worth the price. He said that the Union, for which the nation had fought, was worth every sacrifice that had been made to preserve it. He declared that the Union, with its great resources and its vast wealth, could stand any sacrifice that was necessary to preserve it.

LETTER CARRIERS

President Wilson today asked for 50,000 additional letter carriers to meet the increased demand. He said that the letter carriers were the backbone of the nation, and that they were needed to carry the mail to every corner of the country. He said that the letter carriers were the heroes of the nation, and that they were needed to carry the mail to every corner of the country.
