BIG EXCURSION TO SALEM. Two Thousand Portlanders Spend a Day at State Fair.

Portland day at the State Fair was onounced success. Two thousand peopl Clark Exposition, members of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, members of the Cham-ber of Commerce, Board of Trade and Manufacturers' Association, and also many adies, made up the excursion party. There were two special trains, one leaving here at 8 o'clock and the other at 8:35, and 180 passengers went up on the regular train, which departed at 8:30. The trip was made in 2% hours and the weather throughout the day was pleasant. All of the excursionists wore 1955 buttons and badges con spicuously displayed. There was no formal reception at Salem, but the Portland crowd was treated with every possible courtesy by the fair managers and others. The visitors first attended the thoroughbred stock show, and afterwards viewed the exhibits and saw the races. The gentiemen in charge of the ticket office informed the Portlanders that it was the banner day in number of admissions in 10 years. The crowd enjoyed themselves thoroughly, and left Salem homeward-bound at 6 o'clock.

RAIN ENDS FOREST FIRES. All Danger Is Now Past in the Lewis Plaza.

River Section. SPELVAH PRAIRIE, Sept. 18-(Spe-cial)-The fire along the North Fork of the Lewis River is now completely subducd, except in outlying mountains, where It is doing no damage. Every one has now been accounted for in that vicinity. Few families intend leaving the district and will rebuild their homes and go to work once more. The fire has covered an area of country the extent of which cannot be learned until the smoke clears. The rain, which began on the Lewis River at 2 o'clock yesterday alternoon, will ef-fectively dampen the few smoldering fires, and all danger in that neighborhood is Grading Contract Let.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 18.-Grant Bros. have been awarded the contract for grading the San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake Railroad, from Ontario to Riv-enside, about 20 miles. Grading is ex-pected to be completed into Riverside before January 1, when the Clark road will ave in operation approximately about 75 miles of its main line. The estimated cost of the new work will be between $75,000 and $100,000. As scon as the line is completed to Riverside contracts for construction across the mountains will be

this morning by a Great Northern pas-senger train. He was walking ahead of the train, which was backing into the depot. The rear car struck him and threw him head downward against the ties, fracturing his skull.

on the ground, and watched it go over his head, making the air red hot as it went. Jake Delsel got in its way, but it passed right along, and Jake got a little mark in the column headed "E." In the meantime Andrews waddled down to first. Joe McCarthy stepped up to meet Engle's twirls, but the pitcher was not yet over the surprise, and he gave the batter a pass, sending Andrews along to second. pass sending Andrews along to second. Swindlose bunted, and again everybody moved along the line. Nobody was out yet, and Andrews had a big juicy vision of about four runs, but Zalusky went-out on a fly to Muller. Andrews got ready when the fly neared Maxie's mits, and came home the instant it landed, making the first score for his side. It was up to the locals, and they were there with the goods. Murdock got transportation to bag number one, and Jake bunted a moment later, getting first himself, and sending Murdock on to second. Zalusky thought that he would do something fine, and tried to catch the man at second, but he overthrew, and two men took bases. Engle hit, Joe McCarthy at short made a bad error, the two runners, Murdock and Delsel, scored, and the batter went to second. Muller flew out, but Van Buren got first on balls, and Engle sneaked along to third. Weed went out at first, and gave Engle a chance to score. Anderson, with a nice eye, picked out a ball to his liking, and hit it for two bags, scoring Van Buren, and making *Sullivan out; hit by batted ball, the tallies 4 to 1.

Tacoma looked blue when she went in in the sixth, but both Letcher and Nagel hit, and the blue tone faded out. Rock-enfield stepped to the bat, and after a little preparatory swinging, lifted the ball over the right fence between the maple-syrup and canned-corn eigns. Murdock climbed the new flag pole in his garden and tried to mark the ball's trail, while telephone bell jangled out of tune some fan from the city called up and wanted to know how the score stood. There was still a chance for Sammy's bunch to do something, and they tried to do it all right. Weed opened up the inning, and went out at first. Anderson knocked a grounder, and thought that he was out sure, but the butter-finger that was at short let it elip along, and Andy went to first, safe and sound. Stovall went in, and the crowd called out that
