the old war horse, George A. Steel, who grudgingly took the time from his farmfing operations to attend to this sacred duty. Theodore Cameron, of Jackson-ville, and W. H. Moore, of Moro, had sent their proxies to the secretary.

Steel as a Farmer,

While waiting for Committeeman Mulkey to assemble, Proxy Steel delivered an encomium on vetches as a farm crop. He said it beat anything as a food for cattle. His horses and cows would leave any other fodder on the place, even ple, to get at vetches, Summer or Winter. And then the yield was so prodigious that it was a very profitable crop to grow, and easy on the land. Mr. Steel spoke so familiarly of farmers that his hearers began to pity him for being forced into the nefarious game of politics, but when he spoke of having electric lights in his burn all sympathy was withdrawn. That kind of a farmer cannot excite pity in Oregon, President Church gloried in sugar beets. He said the crop in the Grand Ronde Valley this year would turn out a third greater than ever before, and double that last year. People of that favored valley are catching on to the knack of sugarbeet culture, and are making it a success, All this was much more interesting and important than a perfunctory committee meeting, but it was cut short when Committeeman Mulkey arrived and the busi ness for which the meeting was called was taken up. The first thing on hand was election of a successor to the late I. A. Macrum, of Forest Grove, who was not only a member of the committee, but vice-president of the league as well. To cut To cut a long story short, Proxy Steel said he ominate John D. Daly, of Corval-committee of Washington County citizens who have promised to get the promoters of the road a free right of way. He says that grants have been secured for about half the distance. There are yet about two dozen farmers who have not yet made concessions in the line of the road, but they are all willing to do so. The right of way is to be 20 feet wide, and the survey is all complete to Hillsboro.

"We are all greatly interested in this project," said Mrt Heidle, "and are go-ing to carry it through without fall. We trust that Portland citizens are disposed the same way. The members of the committee are J.

Party of Superintendents and Englneers on Annual Tour.

A party of division superintendents and engineers of the Southern Pacific arrived from the south yesterday morning on a special train of four cars, and they are engaged in inspecting the track, right of way and depot property of the Oregon lines of the company. It is the regular annual inspection. The party is comannual inspection. Th posed of the following:

J. H. Wallace, engineer maintenance of way, and T. W. Heinzleman, superintend-ent of motive power. San Francisco; J. A. Naugle, manager of the Sonora Rail-way, and J. Montague, resident engineer, Guaymas, Mexico; C. S. Stroufe, superintendent, and George C. Clark, resident engincer, Tucson o superintendent, and A. D'Heur, resident engineer, San Joaquin division; R. J. Laws, superintendent, and Frank Miller, resident engineer, Sacramento division superintendent of the Carr. McGrath, son & Colorado Rallroad, Upon arrival of the train at the Madison-street bridge crossing yesterday morn-ing the officials transferred across the oridge to the Jefferson-street depot, and left immediately over the Yamhili di-vision. At Whiteson change was made to the West Side division and the line to Corvaliis was inspected, the train re-turning to Portland a little before 6 P. M. This morning the party will start out on the East Side line and will inspect the Woodburn-Springfield branch today, M. This reaching Albany to stay tonight. The main line will probably be inspected as far as Glendale tomorrow, and Thursday work will be completed through to Dunsmulr, the southern end of the Oregon lines.

Attorney Huston argued, him among other things, that Mrs. Smith, who was a joint debtor with her husband, had tried. made a payment on the note, which renewed the obligation. In answer to this Attorney Moser as

Counsel admitted that the payment would have the effect of renewing the claim against the estate under the Oregon law, but maintained that the Oregon law does not apply, but only the statute of Washington This claim was disallowed some time ago by Judge Cake, and the administrator appealed to the State Circuit Court. The motion to dismiss the appeal is on the ground that the administrator has no appealable interest. Judge Sears took the matter under advisement.

as to the advisability of trying to bring the encampment here in 1963, Mr. Beach "I think it would be unwise. I said: am anxious to see the Grand Army come out here, for many reasons, but I must say that I think it would not be wisdom to have it in 1900. I favor 1906. That meeting, if it came here, would likely be the last one on the Coast, for the mem-bers are growing old and the ranks are thinning. But if it were understood by the veterans on the Coast that it was the last time, they would flock to Portland to finding refuge in England or the United States. and says:

The last order of business was selection of 14 delegates to the National Republican League, which will meet in Chicago Octo-ber 2-3. In this duty the committee was guided by the following paragraph from the National League constitution:

The National convention shall be compoof six delegate-at-large from each state or-ganization in the league, and four delegates from each Congressional district in which there shall be one or more Republican League clubs tractions with the together with the president and the secretary of each state league, and all officers of the National organization, who shall be exofficio delegates.

First came the selection of six delegates from the state at large. President Church said he understood that Governor Geer and W. S. Duniway had received invitations to go over into Ohio and spellbind he voters of thai state, and he thought it would be convenient for them to repre-sent Oregon Republicans at the National League meeting in Chicago while they were in the East. They were at once put down for delegates. Proxy Steel said he also had received a very flattering invita-tion from the Ohio campaign managers, who spoke of his great efficacy on the stump, and craved the boon of his favor for a few days of impassioned oratory in the Miami Valley. He, who had never made a stump speech in his life, thought this a good joke; and so did the others, who put him down for a delegate. George W. Hazen, of Portland; J. L. Rand, of Baker City, and John D. Daly, of Corvallis, finished the list of delegates at large.

Fuil Delegation Provided.

From the First Congressional District there were selected H. E. Ankeny, of Jacksonville; Claud Gatch, of Salem; W. A. Carter, of Gold Hill, and W. A. Howe, of Carlton, Yamhill County. As delegates from the Second Congressional District. Senator Simon, of Portland; E. L. Smith, of Hood River; Thomas C. Taylor, of Pen-dieton, and W. W. Stelwer, of Wheeler County, were named.~

All these were informally elected and the secretary was instructed to notify them of the fact, and to request that if any of them could not attend the meeting proxies in blank be executed and sent to the sec-rotary, to the end that Oregon should be properly represented, even if by proxy. It was presumed that the secretary would Lave knowl-dge of those who will go, and that he would turn the proxies over to The secretary is also to notify Mr. Daly of his election. Then the meeting adjourned.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Ex-Senator John B. Allen, of Senttle, is at the Portland.

Professor Stroehlin, of Geneva, Switzerland, arrived at the Portland yesterday.

Benjamin I. Cohen has gone to San Francisco. He will be away about two weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Garesche came from Victoria yesterday, and are at the Portland.

Louis Sommer, a leading mining man of Baker City, arrived at the Portland yesterday.

Ex-Attorney-General J. B. Metcalfe, of Washington, came in from Seattle yes-terday, and is at the Portland.

C. E. Curry, manager of the Northwest Warehouse Company, with headquarters at San Francisco, is in the city for a few days, relieving Local Manager T. W.

Superintendent Fields and Engineer Grondahl, of the Oregon lines, of course, accompany the party over these lines. They will continue with the inspection party to San Francisco.

Railroad Notes.

General Passenger Agent Craig, of the O. R. & N., was at his office yesterday for the first time this month, having just returned from a trip in the East.

Nearly all Union Pacific trains from the East arrive in Portland behind time, and two causes are given for it. One is that the traffic is too heavy, and the other is that the labor troubles on the Union Pacific main line delay traffic materially. Chief Engineer L. D. Kinney, of the Great Central Railroad, has so far recov-ered from the grip that he was able to be at his office for a short time yesterday. He mays everything is proceeding satis-factorily at Coos Bay. He sent several men out on last night's steamer, among them being I. S. Kaufman, of Spokane,

Great Central Land Company. Under the encouragement of the Southern Pacific traffic department the farm-ers of the vicinity of Gaston, near the boundary between Washington and Yam hill Counties, will hold a public sale or fair at that place on October 8. There have been pledged for this sale 2300 head of livestock, 1000 bushels of grain, 1000 tons of hay and a large quantity of miscellaneous produce, and much that is not pledged is expected to be there. It is hoped to make these exchange fairs a regular institution there, and at other points where they can be made advantageous. General Freight and Passenger Agent Coman, of the Southern Pacific, yesterday received a letter from C. H. Markham, formerly in the position now held by Mr. Coman, but now vice-president and manager of the Texas lines of the company, in which Mr. Markham speaks of his restored health and his work in the South. He is pursuing there the same policy that did so much to popularize the Southern Pacific in Oregon. A recent newspaper clipping shows that he is taking pains to get railroad favors down to the producers, the men who till the soil, and that it makes a good impression among Texas farmers. Mrs. Markham is now spending a few days with Portland triands

Creditors of a defunct corporation canto such the stockholders to compel them to pay unpaid stock subscriptions. Judge Sears so, decided yesterday in the case of Joseph Falco against M. C. Banfeld, the Kaupisch Creamery Company et al. The Court Notes.

Judge Sears will announce decisions this morning in the following cases: Joseph Paquet vs. E. W. Spencer; motion to make amended complaint more definite and certain.

C. A. Moore vs. J. C. Shofner; motion to require defendant to deposit money. Owing to the absence of Judge George in Eastern Oregon, the trial of the suit of Funk & Groener against George Weisinto bankrupicy over a year ago. Falco represents himself and other creditors, and in a complaint which he filed alleged that Banfield and other shareholders owe several thousand dollars on stock in the tinued until today,

Mr. Beach remarked that San Francisco had considered the advisability of asking for the encampment, but had decided that it was not wise. California much preferred that some other Coast city should entertain this body.

Mayor Williams was asked in regard to the probable attitude of the Council, "I do not think the promoters can look to the Common Council for anything very large," he said, "for we are pressed for money. Personally I would be very glad to have them come here, on condition that we can afford it. I understand that an estimate places the expense to the city at $00,000. I would not be in favor of inviting them if the cost is to be so great. There is one easy way for the advocates of this scheme to find out what support the city will give, and that is by bringing the matter up regularly before the City Council on petition."
