From Everett, Wash.—J. C. Farmer and wife, at the Park Avenue.

From Tacoma—L. Gross, at the Albemarle.

Several new attractions are on the bill this evening at the popular marquee. Some of the artists appearing in this city for the first time. Jean Dowling, the phenomenal contralto, comes direct from the Metropolitan Opera house, the latest success, "Mid the Orange Trees and Blossoms She is Waiting," and other beautiful songs. Alma Roselle is a great favorite, and deservedly so; the march song, "Dear Old Stars and Stripes, Good-Bye," which she sings, with illustrations by the great vitagraph, rouses the audience to a great pitch of enthusiasm. The great Novis impersonator, in one of the best features of the evening's entertainment, Belle Belmont, the coon singer; Richard Wilde, Dot Stanley, Oliveette and others appear.

Arrested for Collecting Wrong Bills. J. H. Knight, who works in an office in the Alley building, was arrested last night by Detectives Ford and Cordano, charged with obtaining money by false pretenses in the collection of J. G. Pope, a San Francisco traveling man. Pope told the police that while visiting the Alley building yesterday he lost several bills bearing the stamp of the Harry Unna Company, of San Francisco. One bill for $5.50 was made out to H. C. Schroeder, an East Side grocer, and it is charged that McKnight called on Schroeder and collected the money, giving the Unna Company's receipt. It is also charged that McKnight tried to collect $2.50 from the Whyte Grocery Company, but was not successful. When taken to the police station McKnight said: "It's true that I collected the money from Schroeder and gave a receipt. Some one brought the bills into my office during my absence, and I understood that they had been sent to me for collection. I have simply acted as an agent in this matter."

Charged With Violating Saloon Law. J. T. Donovan and A. Lewis, two saloon-keepers at Fifteenth and Baxter streets, were arrested yesterday by Police Officer Nelson, charged with keeping open their saloons after 1 o'clock A. M.

To Try Gambling Cases. The gambling cases against W. M. Ayers and several other men recently arrested at the Portland Club, will be tried before a jury at the Municipal Court this afternoon.

PORTLAND-CHICAGO. Several hours is the time of the "Chicago-Portland Special" from Portland to Chicago. Leaves Portland every day at 10 A. M. Ticket office Third and Washington, O. R. & N. Co.

"The Penitent" Comes Saturday. "The Penitent," which Manager W. E. Neave will produce at the Marquam Grand Theater one night only, Saturday, October 11, is said to be one of the most powerful plays on the stage, both in conception and dramatic interest, and will be produced with the cast of exceptional players. The story is said to be intense, with the motive very interesting and the climaxes thrilling.

Sousa's Band Plays Friday. The advance sale of seats for John Philip Sousa and his famous band will open tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Next Friday afternoon and night this popular American band will be the attraction at the Marquam Grand Theater, giving two entirely different programmes.

"Nevada." Miss Elsa Ryan, the Dolly Gray of the new drama, "Nevada," which will commence a week's run at the Marquam Grand Theater next Sunday afternoon, has no fear of losing her laurels or of being overhauled.

High-Grade Pianos for Rent. Sold on high establishment. Pianos tuned and repaired. H. Sinsheimer, 72 Third at.

It's a "Garland." That's all you need to know a stove or range.

FOOD FOR SLEEP. A Sure Way to Comfort. The right kind of food will restore any weak stomach. It is better off without drug than with it. It is better off with light weight and easily digested food than with the heavy, indigestible food of the street.

A man in Grand Rapids, Mich., upon recovering from a severe attack of nervous prostration, writes: "The principal trouble was an intensely irritated condition of the stomach, so severe that diluted milk would cause a sensation as if it had been scalded, and it was lowered. At length I began to study my own case, and abolished drugs and commenced experimenting with my diet. Grape-Nuts was brought to my notice, and I found it very palatable, and at regular morning dish it met all the requirements, and sustained me until midday. After using Grape-Nuts a week, physical discomfort grew less, my strength began to return, and I gained steadily in weight. "Along with all these improvements came good, peaceful sleep, which had been so slightly a visitor, and with it came returning hope and ambition, and now, with perfect health, it gives me pleasure to give Grape-Nuts the credit it deserves." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

owed, and has provided herself with a most capable company. Many stars vying for their first tour fear to do this, but Miss Ryan is both conscientious and generous; conscientious in that she charges her audiences the very best in every character impersonated, and generous because she is willing to share the honors with her efficient support.

Miss Allen in "The Eternal City." WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Miss Viola Allen appeared as Donna Roma in Hall Caine's dramatization of "The Eternal City," which received its first production in this country at the National Theater tonight. The house was crowded. The play proved to be one of tremendous force and power, and scenically is one of the most magnificent produced on the stage in recent times. Miss Allen's supporting cast included Charles Morgan, M. Holland, Frederick Belleville and George C. Boniface.
