

BRAGG TO QUIT CUBA

Consul-General's Words Cost Him Place at Havana.

TRANSFERRED TO CHINESE POST

General Wrote His Wife That Whistle Could Be Made Out of Pig's Tail as Easily as Something Out of Cubans.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—General Edward S. Bragg, Consul-General at Havana, has been transferred to the post of Consul-General at Hong Kong, taking the place of William A. Rublee, who has been transferred to the Consulate at Havana.

The change in the Havana Consulate-General has been in contemplation for almost three months. It was fully decided that it was necessary to make the change, and the only question was where General Bragg could be placed without substantial loss to himself, for it is difficult to find in the Consular service a position paying as well as the one at Havana. The official salary of the place is $6000 per annum, but there are fees attached, much of which go to the Consul-General, which swell the total compensation to about $7000 a year.

Although it is well known that General Bragg has been guilty of a lack of judgment, at least in allowing to escape from him a rather contemptuous criticism of the Cuban people, in view of the fact that he was not directly responsible for its publication, the President decided to look on the case with a lenient eye. Early in July General Bragg wrote a letter to his wife at her home in this country in which he used this language:

"A whole Sam might as well try to make a whistle of a pig's tail, as to try to make something out of the Latin race." The letter was published on July 14. A few days later the Cuban Government asked Mr. Squiers, our Minister to Havana, if the quotation was authentic, intimating that if it were so, General Bragg had probably destroyed his usefulness at Havana. By direction of the State Department, Mr. Squiers called on General Bragg for an explanation. He at once admitted the authenticity of the quotation, but held he had a right to write what pleased him in a purely personal letter to his own wife, and without discussing the question with the State Department. Mr. Squiers called on General Bragg for an explanation. He at once admitted the authenticity of the quotation, but held he had a right to write what pleased him in a purely personal letter to his own wife, and without discussing the question with the State Department.

About two weeks ago this was found through the willingness of United States Consul-General William A. Rublee, at Hong Kong, China, to change his post for that at Havana. The delay in making the announcement of the change has been caused by the necessity of arranging the details of the transfer. It is understood now that they have been perfected, and the change will take place as soon as Mr. Rublee can reach Havana. Mr. Rublee's post at Hong Kong is salaried at $6000 per annum, and his notarial fees, to all of which he is entitled, amounted last year to $1067, so that General Bragg probably will not lose very much by the change.

The new appointee at Havana, like General Bragg, is a Wisconsin man. He is a son of the late Horace Rublee, ex-editor and part owner of the Milwaukee Sentinel. He was originally appointed as United States Consul at Prague, Austria, in 1890, and retired from that post in 1893. He entered the Consular service in 1901, going directly to Hong Kong as Consul-General. His record in that office is said at the State Department to be excellent.

WILSON NOT LIKELY TO SUCCEED

Minister to Chile Stands Little Chance of Transfer to Europe.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Oct. 8.—It is not probable that Henry L. Wilson, of Spokane, Minister to Chile, will be transferred to a European post. He has long been ambitious for the transfer, and since his return to the United States, on leave, has spent some time in Washington in an endeavor to effect such a transfer. Inquiry at the White House, and among those to whom the matter has been suggested, brings out the fact that all appointments to European missions have been provided for, and if any further vacancies occur, it is probable that persons in the diplomatic service in Europe or in the State Department in Washington, will be selected. Minister Wilson was at the White House several times during his recent visit here, but it has been since his departure that the State Department has considered his request to be sent to Europe.

G. A. R. IN LINE.

Heid stepped himself on his right leg and hopped to the farther side, adjusting his injured leg to a board which had been placed there in full. Secretary Crowley joined him on the left, and Colonel Theodore A. Bingham, in full uniform, occupied the seat in front. Mr. Roosevelt watched the President's departure from the window, and as the President drove away he saluted him by raising his hat.

A platoon of mounted police acted as an escort for the President. As the party swept into the broad-avenue, a tremendous cheer went up, and the sidewalks and stands were white with fluttering handkerchiefs. The President acknowledged the cheers by lifting his hat and bowing right and left. In front of the reviewing stand, the President's carriage was halted until the citizens' committee and escort of General Torrance, the commanding chief, had passed. The journey down the avenue was made to the right of the oncoming column of veterans, the demonstration swelling in volume as it proceeded. Spectators and veterans alike cheered the appearance of the Chief Executive. The return journey from the Peace monument was made on the other side of the avenue, and at a more rapid pace. When the carriage drew up in front of the Jackson Place residence, the horses were checked with foam.

SIDE NIGHTS ON PROCESSION.

War Kites and Badges Typical of States Are Striking Features.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The Illinois delegation led the G. A. R. parade today, and was about half an hour in passing the reviewing stand. When the head of the column reached a point immediately in front of the stand the commander of the department turned and proposed three cheers for the President of the United States. The summons was heartily responded to, as was a subsequent proposal for cheers for General Torrance, and another for Mrs. John A. Logan.

CHOLERA MORBUS.

This is an extremely dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood some one has died from it, and in many instances before a physician could be secured or medicine obtained. Mrs. E. H. Delano, of Durant, Mich., is subject to severe attacks of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. She has always given her quick relief. During the summer she has used two bottles of it. This remedy is safe and pleasant to take, and is the most reliable and dangerous to the life to keep it at hand, ready for instant use. For sale by all druggists.

PARTY NOT WITH LODGE

REPUBLICANS OF MASSACHUSETTS FOR TARIFF REVISION.

State Convention Obedient Behest of Senator, but District Meetings Are Against His Policy.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Oct. 8.—Senator Lodge is finding it impossible to hold the Republican party in Massachusetts in line with his policy of leaving the tariff alone, and although at his request the state convention refused to declare for revision, in no less than six district conventions, subsequently held, the candidate of the convention has declared for revision. In the Third District, the Republican nominee is running against Representative Thayer, Dem., on a tariff revision platform. In the Seventh, Representative Roberts stands for revision. In the Eighth, Representative McCall demanded it in his speech of acceptance, and in the Twelfth, Representative Powers is outspoken for revision, as is Representative Lovering in the Fourteenth.

The most noteworthy case of the latter, is in the New Boston district, the Eleventh, where E. V. Fos, brother of the Illinois Representative, is the Republican candidate. He not only stands for revision, but for reciprocity with Canada, and is publicly answering the speech of Senator Lodge, declaring that some of his points are "rot." It is common gossip in Massachusetts that Lodge is worried by the demands on the part of the rank and file of the Republicans for revision in one form or another.

SHAW TALKS ON TRUSTS.

Secretary of Treasury Appears Before Massachusetts Club.

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—More than ordinary interest was attached to the annual dinner of the Republican Club of Massachusetts at Symphony Hall tonight, from the fact that the club had for its guest Leaslie Shaw, the Secretary of the Treasury, whose recent measures as the head of the Treasury Department have been so widely and so conspicuously discussed before the people. Seven hundred people occupied seats at the dining tables, and the two large balconies were filled with spectators, the majority of whom were women. The speakers included, besides Mr. Shaw, Murray Crane, Lieutenant-Governor John L. Bain and Senator Henry Cabot Lodge. When Mr. Shaw was introduced as the man who had abolished trusts in such a way as to receive the praise of the people, he was given a magnificent reception. He devoted his remarks to the trust problem, speaking along the same lines as in recent speeches.

Senator Lodge, the last speaker, received a reception no less cordial than that extended to Secretary Shaw. He prefaced his remarks by according hearty praise to Secretary Root, and said he was glad of the opportunity to answer the attacks which had been made upon the Secretary in connection with some work of the Army, particularly of his appointment to the Union Pacific grants. Mr. Lodge said that he had been guilty of cruelty and excesses in the guerrilla warfare which had been carried on in the Philippines. He admitted that some cruelties had been practiced, but he contended that they were because of the character of the war. He cited some cases of extreme barbarity on the part of the Filipinos, and the torturing of a soldier with slow fire.

MOODY ON SPEECHMAKING TOUR.

Secretary of the Navy Will Come as Far West as Omaha.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Secretary Moody left today for a tour of speechmaking in the West. He will deliver an address on "The Navy" before the Marquette Club, of Chicago, tomorrow night, and Friday morning at the University of Wisconsin. His itinerary has not yet been finally arranged, but he will be gone about two weeks, and will go as far West as Omaha. During his absence Assistant Secretary of the Navy will have the direction of naval affairs.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Congressional nominations were made today as follows: Thirteenth District, Francis E. Harrison, Democrat. Fifteenth District, Henry P. Martin, Democrat. Sixteenth District, William Spooner, Republican.

REAL ESTATE TRUST.

New York Millionaires Are Back of the Concern.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Permanent organization of the United States Realty & Construction Company has been effected by a meeting of the directors. Officers were elected as follows: President, Bradish Johnson; chairman of the board, H. S. Black; vice-presidents, Albert Fluke, Robert E. Dowling, and E. P. McCormack; secretary, G. Babage; treasurer, B. M. Fellows.

BRITISH FAR BEHIND THE TIMES.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The reports of the commissioners sent to South Africa to investigate trade openings have been published. They emphasize the enormous opportunities for trade in engineering, mining, agricultural and electrical machinery of all kinds, street-car and lighting equipments and iron and steel construction work. The commissioners found everywhere that American and German competition was very keen. They were surprised at the antiquated business methods of the British manufacturers.

SAGE IS DOING WELL.

Illness of Financier Causes Excitement in Wall Street.

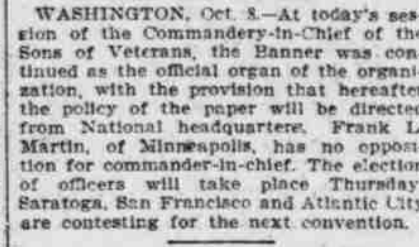

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—The condition of Russell Sage, who has been suffering from a bad cold and was threatened with pneumonia, was reported this morning as favorable. He is at his country house at Cedarhurst, L. I. The physician attending Mr. Sage said he was in no danger, but that it would be better for him to remain at home until next Monday. Wall street was inclined to be doubtful about Mr. Sage's condition this morning. Mr. Sage has a large number of loans on collateral that might be wanted at any moment, and in the event of his death either a sudden calling in of his loans or a situation in which the securities in his safe deposit vaults, which are held as collateral, would be tied up indefinitely.

CASTORRH IS THE CAUSE OF MOST KIDNEY DISEASES

Pe-ru-na Cures Castorrh.

SAMUEL R. SPRECHER.

Samuel R. Sprecher, Junior Beadle Court Angelina, 322 I. O. O. F., 305 New High street, Los Angeles, Cal., writes:

"I came here a few years ago suffering with catarrh of the kidneys, in search of health. I thought the climate would cure me but found I was mistaken; but what the climate could not do Pe-ru-na could and did. Seven weeks' trial convinced me that I had the right medicine and I was then a well man. I know of at least twenty friends and members of the lodge to which I belong who have been cured of catarrh, bladder and kidney trouble through the use of Pe-ru-na, and it has a host of friends in this city."—Samuel R. Sprecher.

CASTORRH OF HEAD AND THROAT

The head and throat become diseased from neglected colds, causing Catarrh when the condition of the blood predisposes to this condition.

"Is your voice husky?" "Do you spit up slime?" "Do you ache all over?" "Do you growl at night?" "Do you have colds at night?" "Is your nose stopped up?" "Does your nose discharge?" "Do your nose bleed easily?" "Is there itching in the throat?" "Is this worse toward night?" "Does the nose itch and burn?" "Do you hawk to clear the throat?" "Is there pain across the eyes?" "Is there pain in front of head?" "Is your sense of smell leaving?" "Do you hawk to clear the throat?" "Is there pain across the eyes?" "Is there pain in front of head?" "Is your sense of smell leaving?" "Do you hawk to clear the throat?" "Is there pain across the eyes?" "Is there pain in front of head?" "Is your sense of smell leaving?"

CASTORRH OF STOMACH

This condition may result from several causes, but the usual cause is catarrh, the mucus dropping down into the throat and being swallowed.

"Is there nausea?" "Are you vomiting?" "Do you belch up gas?" "Do you have waterbrash?" "Are you sick after eating?" "Is your tongue coated?" "Do you hawk and spit?" "Is there pain in the stomach?" "Do you have nervous and weak?" "Do you have sick headache?" "Do you blot up after eating?" "Is there disgust for breakfast?" "Is there gnawing sensation in stomach?" "Is your throat filled with slime?" "Do you at times have diarrhoea?" "Is there rush of blood to the head?" "When you get up suddenly are you dizzy?" "Do you have sick headache?" "Do you feel as if you had lead in stomach?" "When stomach is empty do you feel faint?" "Do you belch material from throat?" "If stomach is full do you feel oppressed?"

CASTORRH OF THE LIVER

The liver becomes diseased by catarrh extending from the stomach into the tubes of the liver.

"Are you irritable?" "Are you nervous?" "Do you get dizzy?" "Have you a bitter taste?" "Do you have cold feet?" "Do you have aching bowels?" "Do you get tired easily?" "Do you have aching in the back?" "Is your eyesight blurred?" "Have you aching in the face?" "Is your flesh soft and flabby?" "Are your spirits low at times?" "Is there bloating after eating?" "Have you pain around the loins?" "Do you have purging in bowels?" "Is there throbbing in the stomach?" "Do you have a sense of heat, burning?" "Do you suffer from pains in temples?" "Do you have a palpitation of the heart?" "Do these feelings affect your memory?"

CATARRH IS THE CAUSE OF MOST KIDNEY DISEASES

Pe-ru-na Cures Catarrh.

It cures catarrh. Catarrh of the kidneys is the cause of most kidney disease. Pe-ru-na cures catarrh, wherever it happens to be located. It rarely fails.

CASTORRH OF BRONCHIAL TUBES

This condition often results from catarrh extending from the head and throat, and if left unchecked, extends down the windpipe into the bronchial tubes, and in time attacks the lungs.

"Have you a cough?" "Are you losing sleep?" "Do you cough at night?" "Have you pain in side?" "Is your chest cold easily?" "Is your appetite variable?" "Have you stitches in side?" "Do you cough until you gag?" "Are you low-spirited at times?" "Do you raise frothy material?" "Do you spit up yellow matter?" "Do you cough on going to bed?" "Is your cough short and hacking?" "Do you spit up little clumpy mucus?" "Have you a disgust for fatty foods?" "Is there tickling behind the palate?" "Do you have aching in the chest?" "Do you feel you are growing weaker?" "Is there a burning pain in the throat?" "Do you cough worse at night and mornings?" "Do you have to sit up at night to get breath?"

SYMPTOMS OF EAR TROUBLES

Deafness and ear troubles result from catarrh passing along the Eustachian tube that leads from the throat to the ear.

"Is your hearing falling?" "Are you constantly hearing noises in the ear?" "Do you hear better some days than others?" "Do the noises in your ears keep you awake?" "When you blow your nose do the ears crackle?" "Is hearing worse when you have a cold?" "Is roaring like a waterfall in the head?"
