ORMSBY IS LET OUT

Office Superintendent Reserve Abolished.

POSITION IS SUPERFLUOUS

Supervisors Independent Hereafter Nothing Against Ormsby in Discontinuing Services-Record Has Been Efficient.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Oct. 9 .- Pursuant to the general forestry policy adopted by Secretary Hitchcock, the office of Superintendent of the Cascade Reserve will be abolished December 21, when S. B. Ormsby, of Salem, now superintendent, will terminate his official career. From that time the Cascade reserve will be in charge of the Forest Supervisors. The department finds the office of Superintendent superfluous and tending to retard the expedition of public business Heretofore Supervisors have had to act the Superintendent; hereafter each will act independently. It was first intended to discontinue the superinten dency at once, but as Ormsby is making several examinations, particularly with regard to the proposed Blue Mountain reserve, a continuance was granted until the close of the year.

In discontinuing his services, the department says there is nothing whatever against Ormsby, as his record has been

EXTRADITION NOT GRANTED. Ease of Geisey Called Up Finely

Balanced Question.

OLYMPIA, Oct. 9 .- (Special.) -- Governo McBride today denied the request of the Governor of Oregon for extradition papers for George E. Geisey, who is wanted in Oregon for grand larceny. The request for the extradition of Geisey called for a decision by Governor McBride on a finely balanced question, Geisey is a patrolled Washington convict. He was sentenced to 124 years in the state penitentiary for burglary committed in Tacoma. After serving a little over 15 months he was paroled on March 15, 1901, by the late Governor Rogers. The law providing for the parole of convicts in this state specifies that there shall be a "first friend" of the convict who shall arantee him employment and vouch for his good behavior.

Since the accusation of grand larceny came from Oregon, Geisey's "first friend," Delano Myers, of this city, has declined to act further in that capacity. The withdrawal of the surety from the parole of a convict results in the convict going back to the penitentiary in ordinary cases, but in this instance there was the question whether Gelsey should be turned over to the Oregon authorities or sent back to the Washington penitentiary.

Governor McBride this morning decided on the latter course. Had Gelsey's "first friend" stood by him the extradition papers would have been issued, and in the event that Geisey was not convicted in Oregon his parole would not have been

He will be returned to Walla Walla today to serve the rest of his term.

OREGON PIONEER OF 1847. S. W. Hunt Died Last Night at His Home in Salem.

SAISEM, Or., Oct. 9 .- (Special.)-G. W. Hunt, an Oregon pioneer of 1847, died at his home on High street this evening of pneumonia. G. W. Hunt was born in Indi-ana in 1831 and came to Oregon in 1842. ana in 1831 and came to Oregon in 1847. In 1850 he married Miss Elizabeth N. Smith, and soon thereafter took a donation land claim in the Waldo Hills, where he spent all but the last few years of the remainder of his life. He was a very constul farmer, and within a few years or taking his claim he had one of the est farms in the Hills. He was a great lover of fine livestock, and imported num-bers of thoroughbred horses, cattle and sheep for breeding purposes. The first Bhropshire sheep brought to the Coast were imported by him. Mr. Hunt was a well-educated man, and took a prominent part in local affairs of a public nature. He was a stanch Republican and a vigorous worker, but, though often requested to accept public offices, he always refused. In the early days he was in the thick of the fight in several battles with the Indians, notably in the famous battle on the Abiqua. He was a consistent Christian and took an active interest in the religious meetings in the community in which he lived. Mrs. Hunt died in 1891. In 1901 Mr. Hunt married Elizabeth Ewing, who survives him. He leaves four children, all well known in this section of the state. They are: Mrs. T. E. Achby, of Albany; M. W. Hunt, of Salem; J. T. Hunt, of Whiteaher, and Mrs. B. D. Steeves, of Welser, Idalio.

CROWDS SEE FRUIT FAIR. Throngs of Visitors at the Ho-River Apple Show.

HCOD RIVER, Or., Oct. 9 .- (Special.)-The second day of the Hood River fruit fair proved a big success. All day long growds of visitors thronged the pavilion on Oak street, and were loud in their praise of the big red apples and other fruits on display. People who had seen former Hood River fruit fairs thought it impossible to improve on them, but they all remark that this year's display is su-perior to anything of its kind ever shown in the - acific Northwest.

The officers of the fair and the townspeople are making every effort to entertain the visitors, and the fruitgrowers take pleasure in expiaining to inquiring sightseers the secret of their great success in fruit culture. As an advertising feature for the valley, nothing can equal the present display of its products.

An increased attendance is expected tomorrow, when a special excursion from The Dalles will bring a large crowd. The musical and literary programme this even-ing was well rendered and thoroughly en-joyed by those in attendance.

TO PREVENT FOREST FIRES.

Senator Brownell Will Present Such a Bill at Coming Legislature.

OREGON CITY, Oct. 9.—(Special.)— State Senator George C. Brownell has prepared a bill regulating the setting of fires in timber and during slashing time in this state, and will present it at the coming session of the Oregon Legislature. The enormous loss of timber and the suffering of people this year caused by the fires has led Senator Brownell to prepare the bill. Speaking of the bill, Senator Brownell this morning said:

"On account of the great timber interests in this state, when we stop to think that the revenue derived from the timber business of Oregon exceeds that of wheat and the vast number of men employed in this great industry, and the large amount of capital invested in the lumber and timber interests, that it is about time that some very stringent law relating to the indiscriminate setting fire to alashings by settlers, campers, loggers and others should be enacted at the coming session of the Oregon Legislature. "I have prepared a bill that I hope may cover the case and meet the emergency, which I intend to introduce in the is of great interest to the people of Uma-tilia County, and may affect many titles to Indian lands on all reservations of Oregon. The case involves a quarter sec-tion of land worth $6000 near Adams, in this county, and there comes with it five other cases, involving $14,000 more. Mrs. Philomene Smith selected for herself and children 520 acres of land on the Umatilia reservation in 1888, under the allotment act. After occupying and improving it, the alloting agents in 1891 re-fused to allot her on the land selected. The Interior Department rejected her petition to be placed on the land chosen by her, but said she might have other land. All the other good land was gone when this decision was reached. She then brought suit in the United States Circuit Court to secure her original selections for herself and children, with the result that the judgment of the court as above announced gives her the land originally selected by her. There are said to be many other similar cases on the Umatilla reservation.

Efforts are being made, and have been for six months past, to devise an econom ical plan of furnishing plenty of good wholesome water for the people's use. The clerk, F. E. Tompkins, has been vainly endeavoring to secure some reliable person or company to dig an arte-sian well of a depth of 500 feet or more until an abundant supply is secured. The matter is growing quite serious, as the people are very much dissatisfied with the present supply.
