NOW FOR GROCERS' TRUST

SCHEME ON FOOT TO COMBINE WHOLESALE HOUSES.

Firms in All the Cities in the United States Will be Invited to Attend Conference.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 10.—The Interstate Grocer will say tomorrow that a combine to include every wholesaler of groceries in the United States is in the course of formation. The Grocer will say: "The details of the great plan are not public property. They will not be until after November 5 next, when the initial steps toward forming the combination will be taken in Detroit. George D. Hanford, of New York City, is engineering the deal. In a few days the entire wholesale grocery trade in the United States will receive invitations to this meeting. Already a large number of the leading wholesale grocers in the East have been personally seen by Mr. Hanford, or his representatives, and nearly all of them have expressed a willingness to be present.

"An out line of the plan follows: It is proposed to take over the business of the entire line of wholesale grocers in the United States. One great corporation will be formed which will buy outright the business and good-will of all the firms. A central office for the officers of the company will be determined upon, probably in New York. This central office will deal in all the leading grocery products, and do the buying for all the houses of the corporation. It is not proposed that the company go into the manufacturing of grocery products, but rather that the business between the large manufacturers and the company will be through one general office. It is expected that this will enable the company to buy in such large quantities as greatly to reduce the first cost of the goods."

Flint Glass Plants to Combine.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 10.—It was learned today that at the meeting of the flint glass manufacturers, held here Wednesday, plans were considered for the establishment of a selling agency, or the purchase outright of all the plants and the formation of a combination. Ninety per cent of the flint glass bottle-makers of the country were present, and final action is expected at a general meeting called for October 22. The capital, it is said, will be $30,000,000.

MUST BE GIVEN TO PARKS

Supreme Court Decides Chicago Lake-Front Case.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—Montgomery Ward has won his long-fought fight for the preservation of the entire lake front for park purposes. The Supreme Court of Illinois having denied a rehearing of the case. The whole tract from Randolph street to Park Row and from Michigan avenue to the harbor line of breakwater is thus permanently secured for a park, and the erection of any building in the area is prohibited.

The opinion handed down was in the "Lake Front Army case," which was the last in the long series of endeavors to obtain parts of the lake front for other than park purposes.

WINTER'S WORK LAID OUT

Eliot Fraternity Will Study Early History of Oregon.

The William G. Eliot Fraternity of the Unitarian Church has chosen "The History of Oregon to 1859" as the subject for the Winter's work in the Tuesday evening study class. The history of no state offers more romance or greater variety of incident than does that of Oregon. The aristocracy and the wealth of the Carolines and Virginia we had in the Hudson's Bay Company, while the religious order of the Puritans was equalled by that of our heroic missionaries. The fraternity purposes to alternate class study evenings with lectures by prominent people. Among those who have consented to speak are: Governor Geer, Professor Young, Mrs. Cartwright, Mr. Himes, Mr. Morris, Mrs. Corum, Miss Barlow, Miss Rourke, Mr. Gillette, and Mr. Bell. Beginning October 14 the class will meet every Tuesday evening in the church parlors or occasionally in the homes of the members. Any one interested in the work will be welcomed as a member of the class. The programme containing a complete outline of the work will be ready for distribution before the first meeting.

Pierce, Third Assistant Secretary of State, and D. V. Siskies, of New York, ex-Consul-General at Bangkok, representing President Roosevelt, and Edwin V. Morgan, of the State Department, secretary to the President's commission. The Prince left the steamer at quarantine on the navy-yard tug Powhatan and landed at the Pennsylvania Railroad Station in Jersey City, where a special train was awaiting to take him to Washington.

Sad Accident to Messenger Boy.

Messenger boys are usually very expert in balancing upon their heads trays holding an impromptu meal that has been ordered from a restaurant, but one came to grief yesterday afternoon on Washington street. He was riding gaily along in the approved messenger boy style, when his saddle slipped off, causing a sad downfall of crockery and boy. Besides a general breaking up of China, Greece, in the shape of ham gravy, was disastrously affected, but as it was not a Thanksgiving dinner Turkey did not share in the calamity.

Batteries Named After Soldiers.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Secretary Root has conferred the names of soldiers who have distinguished themselves on the season's batteries. At the Fredillo he has named batteries in honor of Second Lieutenant Henry M. Boutelle, Second Lieutenant Blaney and Second Lieutenant M. Baldwin, all killed in action.

SLAIN BY A MANIAC

YOUTH MURDERS FOUR MEMBERS OF HIS FAMILY.

Mother, Sisters and Brothers—Ax Is Wagon Used—Victims' Heads Pounded into a Jelly.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 10.—While laboring under mental aberration, the result of strain of perfecting an appliance for patent on a strike which is now pending in Washington, Charles Cawley, 17 years of age, of Homestead, Pa., early today killed his mother and one sister and fatally injured four other children. He also tried to kill his two older brothers, but was detected, overpowered and turned over to the police. Two of the children died tonight, making four dead.

The weapon used by the fiend was an ax, which he crushed and hacked his victims beyond recognition.

The dead: The fatally injured are: Josephine, the baby of the family, aged 15 months, head and chest battered; Agnes, aged 10, head crushed.

The Cawleys lived in a neat six-room house in Homestead. Last night all the members retired about 10 o'clock. Mrs. Cawley and Belle occupied one bed, while Josephine, Adeline, Raymond and Agnes occupied another bed and crib in the same room. Charles, the murderer, his brother James, aged 20, and Harry, aged 15, occupied the front room, second floor, adjoining their mother's room.

About 2 o'clock this morning Charles quietly arose and dressing himself, but not putting on his shoes, crept down to the cellar and secured an ax. Coming up stairs, he went into his mother's room where she and the baby were sleeping. Turning up the light the maniac approached his mother's bedside, swung the ax high in the air and brought it down with such force that the skull was crushed. The mother evidently never knew what struck her, but the crazed son, thinking that his first blow did not do its work, pounded the dead mother's head almost to a jelly. Belle, the oldest daughter, slept in the next room, and the dull sound of the ax on her mother's head did not arouse her. Charles hurried to her side of the bed and struck her with the ax. It is thought that the first blow slipped and awoke the girl, but the next blow killed her. The fiend then struck each of the smaller children over the head with the bloody weapon.

Believing that he had dispatched them all, Cawley started for his brothers' room, but James, the eldest, had been awakened by the groans in his mother's room, and as Charles entered he seized a heavy rocking chair and after a fierce struggle overpowered him and turned him over to the police. On the way to the station he fought furiously, but after being placed in a cell he calmed down and did not seem to realize what he had done.

After a thorough examination by the Coroner's jury, it was reported that Cawley did the deed in a fit of insanity.

Cawley was lodged in the county jail here at 10 o'clock. He failed to recognize his brother James. For two years he has been working on a device for a combined air and powerbrake. It is said to be a wonderful invention, and that men who have seen it marveled at the mechanical ability of the inventor, in view of his years. He was of a kindly disposition, and was said to have been very fond of his mother and brothers and sisters. Recently, he has been unusually quiet and while his actions were a trifle queer, no attention was paid to him. When questioned later today, Cawley denied emphatically that he committed the deed. He tells a fairly connected story in which he reiterates his innocence. He says he was awakened at an early hour by sounds on the first floor and went down stairs to investigate. Returning upstairs, he states, he found his sister lying across the bed, covered with blood and fled to give the alarm.

RANGE WAR MURDER CASE ON.

Tom Horn Placed on Trial for Killing Wyoming Sheepman.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 10.—The trial of Tom Horn for the murder of Willie Nickel, in the Iron Mountain country, opened in the District Court today. The courtroom is inadequate to accommodate the crowd of persons who desire to hear the evidence.

District Attorney Walter R. Stoll made the opening speech for the prosecution. It is understood that the defense will endeavor to prove an alibi for Horn, who was in the employ of leading cattlemen at the time of the murder. Perhaps the most damaging statements made by the prosecution against the accused in the opening address, outside of an alleged confession which was made by Horn to Detective Joseph De Fors, and which was brought out at the preliminary hearing, was that Horn left a package containing a bloodstained sweater in a store at Laramie the day after the murder. The attorney also said that Horn visited Denver two months after the tragedy and there told a party of friends that he was the "main guy" in the Nickel killing, that "the Nickel business was the best shot he ever made, but it was the dirtiest job he ever done."

The defense made no statement. The taking of testimony will be commenced in the morning.

(The murder for which Horn has been brought to trial is one of three committed in the Iron Mountain country, the purpose of which, it is alleged, was to intimidate and drive out the sheepmen and small ranchers, who were occupying range lands which the cattlemen desired to hold for themselves. The murdered man was a son of Kella Nickel, who had taken up a small ranch in the Iron Mountain country, and placed 3000 sheep there. After the murder of his son, Kella Nickels was also ambushed and badly wounded.)

JEALOUSY PROMPTS MURDER.

Man Shoots Husband and Wife, Then Ends Own Life.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Mysterious features surround two attempts at murder and afterward a suicide on the lower West Side. On Wednesday Mrs. Adams, wife of a plasterer, was admitted to a hospital, where she is being treated for a bullet wound in the head. She was accompanied by Henry Brockstedt. How she received the wound is not known, as the stories told do not agree. Twenty-four hours later Brockstedt entered the Adams home and found the husband of the wounded woman there alone. He attacked Adams with a revolver, beating him over the head, and then shot him. The police took up the case, and a few hours later found Brockstedt dead in his room in Dominick street. He had swallowed a quantity of carbolic acid and then shot himself.

Adams was conveyed to the hospital where his wife lay. The couple were permitted to converse, but no clear idea could be gathered of the shooting other than that Brockstedt had attempted a double murder because of jealousy.
