Several Men Testify Against Veras ity of State's Chief Witness in'

Murder Trial.

The Gladiesee murder case will be sub mitted to the jury today. The taking of testimony was completed yesterday after-noon, after which the jury was taken to noon, after which the jury was taken to view the scene of the crime. The at-torneys for the defense, Rodger B. Sin-nott and Oscar I. Neal, endeavored to show that Andrew Jackson, a witness for the state, is the guilty man, and that he testified against Gladissee to shield himself.

Thomas Doyle, an employe of the Northern Pacific Terminal Company, gave important testimony on this point. He testified that at 12 o'clock on the night of the murder, as he passed the Willamette Iron Works building, he met a dark negro. Mr. Sinnott asked that Gladissee, Ed Johnson, who is jointly indicted with Gladissee, and Jackson, he made to stand up, and Doyle picked out Jackson as the nearest in general appearance to the man nearest in general appearance to the man he saw near the iron works. The witness said Jackson's build was about the same as that of the negro he observed, which was not like that of Gladissee or John-son. Jackson is a dark colored man, and both Johnson and Gladissee are light, vellow negroes. On cross-examination Doyle stated that he would not attempt to identify Jackson as the man he met on that night, but Jackson resembled the man in the matter of build and complexion.

L. C. Ruhl, keeper of the Clarendon lodging-house, testified that before the arrests were made Jackson told him Gladissee murdered Borgua. Jackson, as a witness, testified that his first knowledge of the gullt of Gladlssee was the re-sult of a confession made to him by Glad-issee in jall. Ruhl also proceeded to testify that the detectives stood in with Tony Gallagher, a bartender, and was roceeding to tell other things in this onnection when Judge Cleland stopped im by ruling such evidence to be immaorge Hardin (colored), an ex-membe of the police force, testified that he met Gladissee on the night of the murder at the saloon of Madame Olcese, about midnight, and conversed with him until 1:30. He said Gladissee acted about as ual. The prosecution fixes the killing to have taken place about 12 o'clock at

Deputy District Attorney William Gatens testified that he advised the Municipal Judge not to sentence George Smith on a charge of vagrancy, as Smith was an important witness in this case. Deputy District Attorney Spencer testi-fied about the same, and said the reason was that the state desired to keep Smith was that he state desired to keep Smith here as a witness for the prosecution. Officer Grif Roberts testified that the reputation of Andrew Jackson was bad, and that he was not worthy of belief. Alex Christi, a colored man, who worked with Jackson in the Libby mine, at Marshfield, testified that he was unworthy of credence and was of bad moral character. Henry Gaddle, a negro from San Francisco, testified about the same. D. D. Jackson gave somewhat similar evi-

The watch stolen from Borgus was found tied up in the sleeve of a shirt on the roof of the building where Gladlesee roomed. The remainder of the shirt was discovered in the defendant's room. The bundle was tied with a yellow cord. A package of sulphur was found in the apartment, and the state called R. C. Bergevin and George W. Tabor, employed at the Acme drug store, to testify that they tied packages of sulphur with yellow string, but neither would admit this to be the rule of the store. Jackson roomed in the same house that Gladissee

Attorney A. C. Spencer commenced with the opening argument to the jury late yes-terday afternoon, and will conclude this morning. He will be followed by Messrs. Neal and Sinnott for the defense, and District Attorney Chamberlain will close.

REWARD FOR HIS WARNING.

Reed Is Discharged Because He Prevented Jail-Brenk.

J. A. Reed, charged with larceny of certain attachments of a marine engine valued at $200 from a warehouse on Everett street, on May 25, was released from custody by Judge Sears yesterday on motion of Deputy District Attorney John Man-ning. The charge was dismissed because he assisted in preventing a serious jail-break recently in the county jail. Mr. Mauning stated that he asked for Reed's release on the recommendation of the Sheriff and with the consent of the Chief of Police. F. R. Strong, the chief pros-ecuting witness, also consented to Reed's

He afterward took Reed into his office, and Reed told him about bars that had been sawed through, and of a plot to beat him (Jackon) into insensibility. Under-Sheriff James Stott informed the

SHERIFF MEETS LORD.

Has Verbal Sparring Match With Law Enforcement League Lawyer.

"The Sheriff and the Chief of Police will have to enforce the laws, or they will have a hard time staying in office." This remark was made to an Oregonian reporter yesterday afternoon by Charles F. Lord, attorney for the Law Enforcement League. Mr. Lord has not yet seen fit to mention the names of any member of the society except that of George H. Kil-ner, and he still insists that the purpose of the organization is not to enforce tain ordinances and laws so strictly that the sentiment will change in favor of an open town.

Sheriff Storey and Lord met by chance in the hallway of the Courthouse, and indulged in a breezy talk concerning the proposed new deal. The Sheriff an-nounced to the attorney in the hearing of several persons, who were standing by:
"I have given my deputies instructions to arrest all persons guilty of infractions of the law, and to bring them to the County Jail."

Mr. Lord, in response, said: "In all seriousness, I wish to say that I am coming to see you and have a talk with you." "When will you come?" asked the Sher-

"Well, I am going out of town," replied the Sheriff, in a joking manner.
"That's all right," said Mr. Lord, "but if things don't go right, I will bring the just tell me what court to appear before, and I will be there," retorted the Sheriff. There was a little further talk along the same line, concluding by the Sheriff saying to Mr. Lord that he would call his deputies together and be on hand whenever it was necessary.

CHILD-WIVES OF INDIA.

Portland Women Consider Their Condition.

The Indo-American Woman's League heid an interesting meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. James Palling, Mrs. S. V. Hill, the president, in the chair, Mrs. N. A. E. Stone, chairman of the programme committee, read interesting let-ters in respect to the organization of the league in Dehver; also the report from a recent annual meeting in Los Angeles, showing great interest in the educational work of the league in disseminating knowledge concerning the condition of little girls in India, who are doomed while mere bables to endure all the pen-alties of wifehood and maternity at an age when the little ones at home are playing with dolls. This raised the question of child labor in the South and brought out a most interesting discussion. Mrs. A. S. Duniway took for her topic the attitude of the Southern press on the child-labor question, quoting largely from the Baltimore, Chattanooga, New Orleans, Atlanta, Raleigh, Richmond and other leading journals, showing that thinking men in the South are agitating the matter from an economic as well as a hu-manitarian standpoint.

Mrs. Duniway was followed by Mrs. S.

A. Kern, who quoted statistics compiled by such authorities as Mrs. McFayden, Jane Addams and Elbert Hubbard to show that it is quite time to awaken the pub-lic to the condition of childhood in our own country.

The next meeting of the league is to be held October 27 at the home of Mrs. H, M. Clinton. All interested are invited to be present.

AN ENEMY TO PHEASANTS The Black Crow Devours Newly Hatched Upland Birds.

PORTLAND, Oct. 13 .- (To the Editor.)-The writer, in conversation with a re-turning hunter from Lane County, learns that the farmers of that section aver that the highly successful Mongolian pheasant has no greater nor more cruel and perhas no greater nor more cruel and per-sistent enemy than the common, good-for-hothing, black crow. While on his hunting trip he saw many of these black rascals suspended by the heels from the fence-posts, and he was told that in the Bpring thousands of egg shells were to be seen on the fences and stumps. The pheasant is negligent as to the hiding of its nest and the wily theying crow pheasant is negligent as to the hiding of its nest and the wily thieving crow soon discovers it. It is quickly despoiled, and nothing would suit the black robber better than to discover newly hatched chicks therein. I would suggest to every sportsman that he lose not a single chance to decimate the ranks of the crows; that he never neglect a chance to put these rescals out of business. They may kill a few insects, but they are cor tinually searching for birds' nests when mischief. They are a real and great menace to the magnificent upland shoot-ing of this valley, and I hope this note will help to account for thousands of them. THOMAS G. FARRELLA

East Taylor Street Is Just Improved, and Residents Don't Want It Torn Up Again.

Property-owners on East Taylor street in Sunnyside yesterday started their remonstrance against granting the franchise for a rallway asked for by the Portland Railway Company from East Twentieth street. The route of the franchise pend ing before the City Council, which covers East Taylor street, starts at the intersec tion of East Tenth and East Burnside streets, goes to East Alder, thence to East Twentieth, and thence to East Taylor. This street has just been well im proved, and property-owners object to its being torn up for a car track. Opposition to the franchise on East Burnside street to East Tenth seems to have disappeared. A petition asking the City Council to pass the ordinance granting the franchise has been signed by more than half the property-owners.

No opposition has developed on the branch that covers portions of East Tenth, East Davis, East Sixteenth, East Irving and East Twenty-fifth streets. The people in the district tributary to this proposed line seem very anxious for the construction of the line. "We have no car line out here," said a property-owner, "and we want one badly."

In Albina there is no opposition to the franchise covering portions of Russell, Commercial, Shaver and Maryland avenue.

PORTABLE CLASSROOMS READY. But East Side Schools Will Soon Need Further Addition.

The two portable classrooms built to relieve the overcrowded Highland school house were completed yesterday, and will probably be occupied by tomorrow. Each will accommodate 40 pupils, 80 altogether. A few will be sent from the Thompson building, in Central Albina, but most of the pupils for the extra classrooms will come out of the Highland school, where there are now enough pupils attending to fill six rooms

Owing to the great building activity in the surroundings, it is thought that it will not be long before the Highland school will again become overcrowded. The big Thompson schoolhouse, with its is rooms, is already crowded. Even with the new additions at Woodlawn, Sellwood and Sunnyside, the Board of Education will be confronted with a problem to house all the pupils. Schoolhousez in these three points, with the additional rooms, will be fully occupied as soon as completed, and it is not believed that there will be any reserve rooms. Probably a number o portable classrooms will have to be built as it is difficult to rent outside rooms near the main buildings.

THERE WILL BE NO DEBT.

Mizpah Presbyterian Church Will Be Dedicated Free of Incumbrance. Rev. Jerome McGlade, pastor of the Mispah Presbyterian Church, East Thir-teenth and Powell streets, said yesterday that the debt remaining on the new edi-fice, amounting to something over $450, had been practically subscribed, and that the building would be dedicated Sunday entirely free from debt. Sunday morning this debt still remained. Over $300 was then subscribed, and in the evening $200 more. Since then enough more has been Wherever the matter is presented signatures are added to the bonus papers. There are no "knock-ers" in Sellwood.

"These races," he said yesterday, "were well conducted, and the young squawe proved to be as good in the jockey line as the boys themselves. Of course, the Yakimas, like many other tribes, are inveterate gamblers, and it was common to see blankets thrown into the scale and even shirts stripped from the backs of the owners and wascred on a favorite steed.
