HARRIMAN'S BROTHER ILL

Condition of Well-Known New York Banker is Serious.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—William M. Harriman, the well-known banker and member of the Stock Exchange, and brother of E. H. Harriman, is, according to the Herald, seriously ill at his home in this city from heart disease. While his condition is serious, the physicians say his outcome will not necessarily be fatal. He has suffered from the trouble for several years, and spent the Summer at Mannheim, Germany, under treatment.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—Elections were held yesterday in 42 states, and up to an early hour this morning the returns indicated that the control of the National Congress remains with the Republican party. While official returns may make the working majority of the Republican party in the House a close one, there is no doubt that it will be sufficient for all party purposes. From a National standpoint, the control of the lower branch of Congress was the real contest. Many of the states elected Legislatures which will choose United States Senators, but the result of these elections have in no way imperiled the Republican majority in the upper body. In those states which elected Governors there was no state in which the party in power was not continued in that position. In some of the states, however, there was a decided change from the vote cast two years ago. In the East the interest centered in the great states of New York and Pennsylvania; in the latter because of the conditions brought about by the recent coal strike, and in New York because of its bearing upon the Republican candidate for Governor.

Big Falling Off in New York.
New York re-elected Governor B. B. Odell and the entire state ticket, although the falling off in the Republican plurality, as compared to 1918, was enormous. At a late hour last night Odell's plurality was placed at about 10,000. The Democrats made a slight gain in the Legislature, but not enough to injure the election of a Republican successor to Senator Platt. The Democrats also made gains in the Congressional elections, the unofficial figures placing the delegation at 20 Republicans and 17 Democrats.

In Pennsylvania Samuel W. Pennypacker, Rep., was elected Governor by a plurality of more than 150,000, and the Legislature is overwhelmingly Republican. The Democrats elected two, and possibly three of the 32 Congressmen. The indications in New Hampshire are that Nathan S. Batchelder, Rep., candidate for Governor, was elected over Henry E. Hollis, Dem., by a plurality of at least 10,000. There was a heavy shrinkage from the vote of two years ago. The Legislature is Republican in both branches by large majorities, insuring a Republican successor to Senator Gallinger, who will probably succeed himself.

In the West.
In the West, Kansas, Idaho and Utah, were storm centers because of the fight for United States Senators, while in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and several other states, close Congressional districts attracted much interest.

In Illinois, while official figures are lacking, there is every indication that the Republican ticket has been elected by a good majority, and that the next Legislature that will elect a successor to United States Senator Mason will be safely Republican.

The Republicans in Connecticut elected their entire ticket by a plurality estimated to be at least 15,000, with the General Assembly safely Republican.

In Maryland the election was only for Congressmen, the Republicans electing four of six members. Virginia's election was confined to the election of Congressman, and returns show that the Democrats have elected nine of the 10, with one district doubtful. The Democratic majority in North Carolina is estimated to be about 63,000, with a solid Democratic delegation in Congress and a Democratic Legislature.

Tennessee rolled up a Democratic majority for Governor, and the entire state ticket was elected by about 37,000. In Michigan the Republicans elected Governor Bliss and the entire state ticket, and 11 of the 12 Congressmen. The Legislature is strongly Republican, thus insuring the election of ex-Secretary of War Alger to the United States Senate.

Change in New Jersey.
In New Jersey there was no change in the political situation. Massachusetts went strongly Republican, the entire state ticket of that party being elected, the plurality for the head of the ticket being 37,478.

In Rhode Island the Democrats have elected L. F. Carvin Governor, but, with this exception, the Republican state ticket will go through.

In California the returns indicate that the Governorship is in doubt. The Legislature will be Republican. The latest reports from Montana give the state to the Republicans. However, the Democrats do not yet concede their defeat.

In Kansas the Republican state ticket has been elected, with eight Congressmen. The Legislature will be safely Republican. Returns from Nevada point to a fusion victory. Heavy Republican gains are conceded throughout the State of Colorado, although returns are so meager that it is impossible to give reliable estimates of the result.

Returns received from Iowa go to show that the Republicans have elected their state ticket by 15,000 majority.

Deadlock in Delaware.
The results from the Legislature in Delaware seem to bring about a deadlock, as was the case two years ago. Ohio is claimed by the Republicans by a plurality

BY A LARGE VOTE

Washington Is Again Republican.

MAJORITY IS OVER 10,000

All Three Democrats Beaten for Congress.

SENATOR TURNER IS OUT OF IT

Legislature Will Have Large Majority Against Him—Red-Hot Battles in King and Spokane Counties.

SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Returns are coming in very slowly. Indications are that the state will go Republican by about 10,000 majority, with the election of three members of Congress and control of the Legislature.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 4.—(A. M.)—The Republicans have carried the State of Washington by a majority that may run as high as 12,000, though the indications are that it will be nearer 10,000. The Democratic state committee does not claim the election of any of its state ticket, though insisting that the meager returns received justify the committee in insisting that there is a chance for Democratic control of the State Legislature. Chairman Morrison, of the Republican committee, holds that the Republicans will have a majority on joint ballot of July 49.

The returns received up to this hour seem to justify the claims of a safe Republican majority in both branches of the Legislature. Owing to the fact that there is an overwhelming majority of Republicans in the list of hold-over Senators, this branch has never been in doubt. The House will probably be controlled by a proportionate majority.

It is likely Justice Hiram E. Hadley, nominee for Justice of the Supreme Court, will lead the Republican state ticket. The three Congressional nominees will run very close. In King County it is conceded Ed Cuddehe, Dem., has been re-elected Sheriff by a majority somewhere between 1800 and 1200. Indications at this time are that George U. Piper and Andrew Henrich, candidates for the State Senate, are beaten, and the Republicans will lose several members of the House. It is likely, however, that 20 Republican members of the Legislature will be sent to Olympia.

KING COUNTY.

SEATTLE, Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Incomplete returns from King County precincts, up to 2 o'clock this morning, indicate that the Republicans have carried practically everything. The contest between Wooding and Cuddehe, for Sheriff, is very close, with the chances favoring the latter, who is a Democrat, and the present incumbent. In the Thirty-fourth Senatorial District, where a bitter fight was made against George U. Piper by a combination of interests behind William Hitchman Moore, the Democratic nominee, present indications point to the election of Moore. It is claimed by his friends he will be elected by a majority varying between 100 and 150.

The defeat of the Republican Legislative ticket in the Thirty-third Senatorial District is also probable. This is a very close district, and under normal conditions might have a Democratic leaning. A personal fight was made against the Republican nominee, and it is claimed tonight that James Conway, for state Senator, Burton E. Bennett and James Gihilly, for Representatives, are elected. The Vandevanter-Smithers fight has probably resulted in a victory for Vandevanter, despite the strong fight waged against him in favor of the Democratic Senatorial nominee Smithers.

It is estimated not more than 60 per cent of the total vote was cast today, and the Republican majority may show a decrease on this account. The relative majority, however, will be practically the same as that of two years ago. The lack of interest in the campaign was evidenced tonight by the fact that only three persons sat in the Democratic state headquarters to receive returns. There were not more than 20 at the Republican state headquarters, and a very small crowd at the county headquarters. Governor McBride was seeking information regarding the result here tonight.

SPOKANE COUNTY.

SPOKANE, Nov. 4.—The Republican Congressional ticket has a majority in Spokane County of from 1200 to 1500. At this hour it seems that the Democrats carried seven of the 12 Legislative candidates, and the Republicans 5. Of these five, three are understood to be for Ankeny for Senator, and two for Wilson. The Republicans have carried their county ticket, with the exception of Treasurer and Coroner. Rasher and Graves, Dem., for the state Senate are elected.

SPOKANE, Nov. 5.—(Special.)—Complete returns from 37 precincts out of 60 in Spokane County indicate that the Republican Congressional and Supreme Judge tickets will carry the county by margins of from 2000 to 4000. The legislative ticket is very close in each district, each precinct reporting changing the result slightly, one way or the other, so that it is impossible to forecast the result, except that the majorities for either side will be close. The county ticket goes Republican, with the probable exception of Mudgett, Democratic candidate for Treasurer, who is running from 300 to 250 ahead of his ticket, and seems to have a good chance of election.

The feature of the election was the scratching, which was more general than at any election ever held in this county. Both sides scratched freely on the county

GREAT RUN BY COLER

Country Saves the Day for Governor.

CITY HEAVILY DEMOCRATIC

Vote of Both Parties Lighter Than Two Years Ago.

KINGS COUNTY A BIG SURPRISE

Tammany Candidates for Supreme Court Have a Walk-Over in Some Districts That Went for Low for Mayor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The New York Herald estimates less than 10,000 for Odell, but flashes him a positive winner at that figure.
The Journal and World, in special editions, concede Odell's election.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—In spite of a phenomenally large vote in New York and Kings County for Bird S. Coler, Dem., the returns, up to a late hour tonight, indicate the re-election of Benjamin B. Odell, Rep., to the Governorship of New York State by 110,000 plurality. Coler's plurality in Greater New York exceeded 115,000, a surplus of 5000 above the claim made by Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, but even that large vote was not sufficient to overcome the Republican majorities from up the state. Odell's vote in the country was lighter than two years ago, but Coler's was also lighter than Stanchfield's in the same year. In New York City, Coler's plurality was approximately 117,000, made up as follows:
New York County 32,000
Kings County 28,500
Queens County 5,500
Richmond County 2,500
Coney Bay, where President Roosevelt's country home is situated, and where he voted today, was carried by Coler, his plurality being 131. Two years ago Odell's plurality was 273.

COLER WILL NOT GIVE UP.

Democratic Candidate Makes Institution of Crooked Work.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Mr. Coler, Democratic candidate for Governor, was asked tonight what he thought of the result of the election. He said:
"You can quote me as saying that I do not give it up. I cannot imagine how, with the magnificent vote I received in Greater New York, there should be such a peculiar vote in the upper part of the state. I am convinced that there has been a little of that peculiar 'heaven chimed' business going on." This is all Mr. Coler would say.

LEADERS GIVE UP THE FIGHT.

They Privately Concede the Re-Election of Odell.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Democratic leaders at headquarters at 10:15 o'clock informed callers privately that Coler was probably defeated. They virtually conceded the election of Odell. To a representative of the Associated Press Elliott Danforth said the reports up to 10 o'clock were much more favorable to the Republicans. Secretary Mason, of the Democratic committee, said that while the outlook was bad for Coler, he was not ready to concede the election of Odell.

Returns From State.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Two thousand five hundred and one election districts out of 3941 in New York State outside of Greater New York give Odell 280,731; Coler, 279,172. The same districts in 1918 gave Odell 449,932; Stanchfield, 319,570.

Vote in Buffalo.

BUFFALO, Nov. 4.—The vote in 105 districts out of 158 in the City of Buffalo give Odell 27,489; Coler, 23,452.

Coler's Plurality in City.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—With 18 districts to be heard from, Coler's plurality in Greater New York is 119,411.

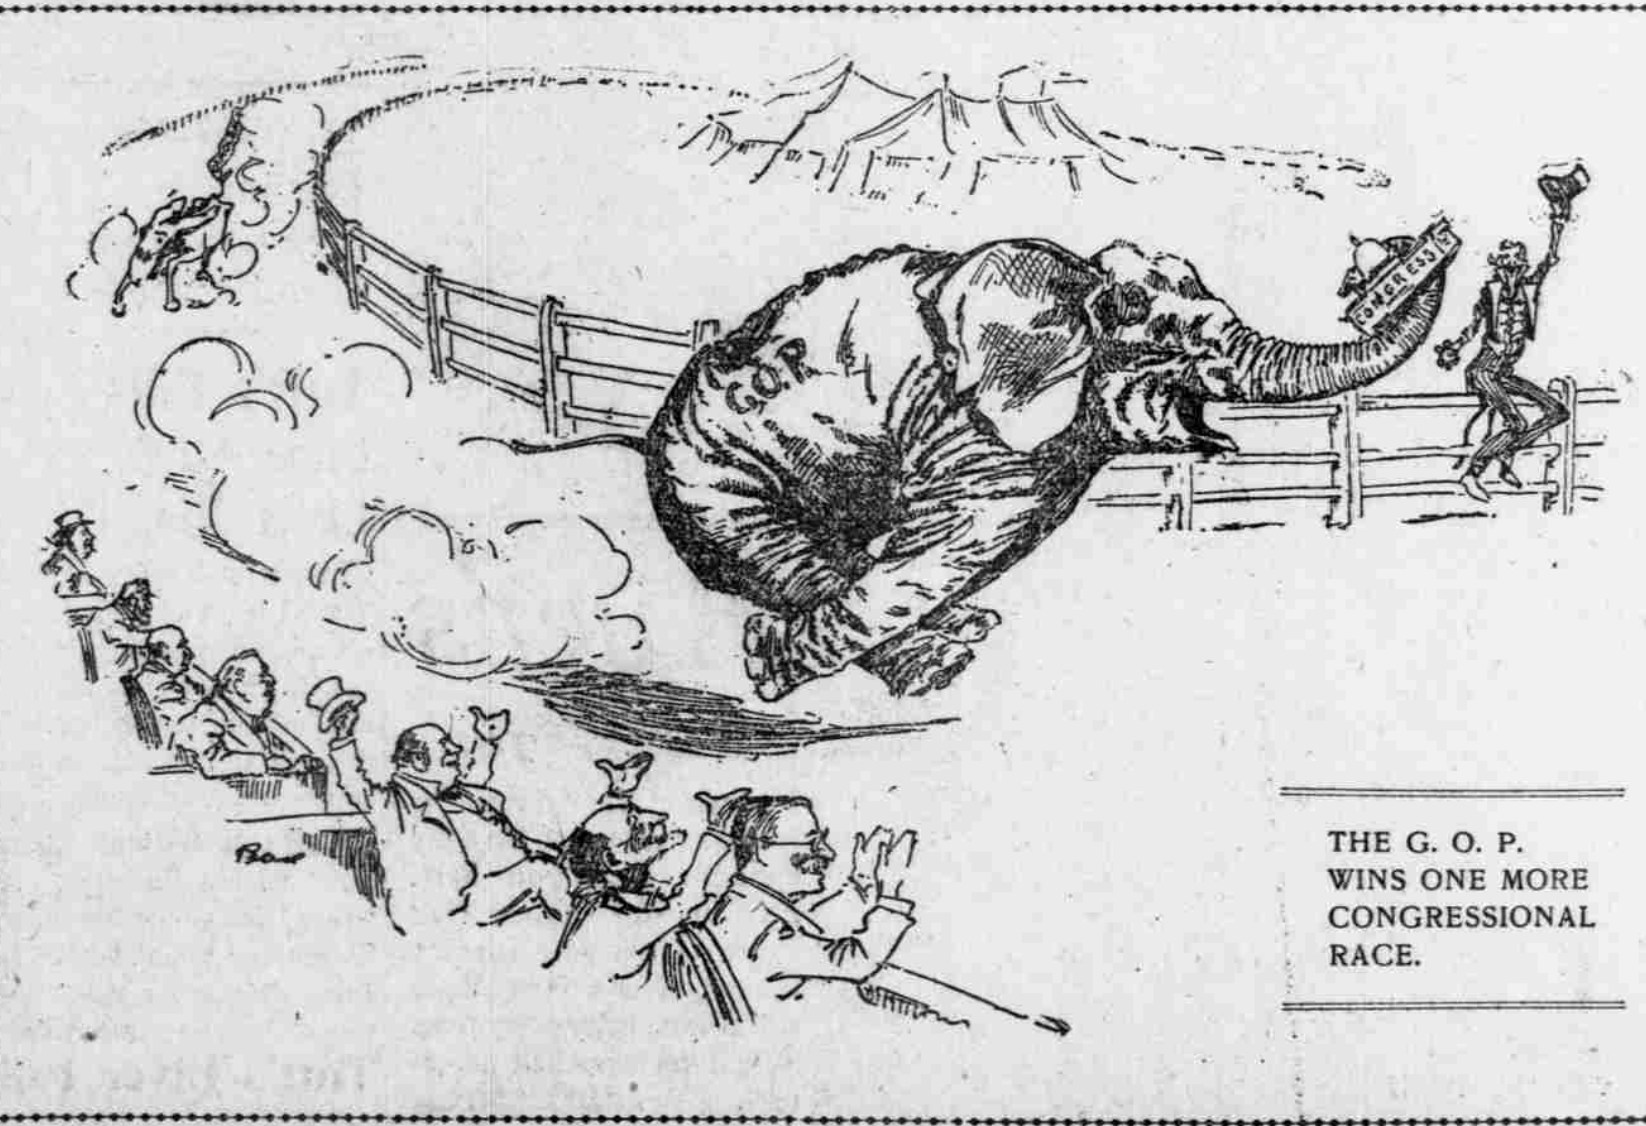

CITY OF NEW YORK.

Return to Democracy is Emphasized by Old-Time Majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The City of Greater New York, which last year elected a Fusionist to the Mayoralty, returned to the Democracy today, and rolled up one of its old-time majorities for that party. Locally, the candidates voted for were three Justices of the Supreme Court, 19 members of the National House of Representatives, 21 State Senators and 62 State Assemblymen. In Kings County a Sheriff and in Queens County a District Attorney were elected. Coler's plurality for Governor in the city was well above 100,000.

From the start, the returns showed that Edward H. Amend, Vernon M. Davis and Edward E. McCall, the Tammany Hall Democratic candidates, were elected to the Supreme Court by pluralities ranging from 50,000 to 80,000. Their opponents were
