

LOAN WAS ILLEGAL

State Funds Deposited in Violation of Law.

METSCHAN GETS NO INTEREST

Supreme Court Says Public Funds May Be Placed in Bank for Safe Keeping, but Subject to Order at All Times.

The funds deposited by ex-State Treasurer Metschan in the Williams & England Bank were state funds. An order allowing claims in a receivership case is conclusive upon all parties to the case, but probably not as to other creditors. It is a felony for a public officer to loan public funds with or without interest, but this does not prohibit a mere deposit in a bank for safe keeping, the money being at all times subject to order.

Where funds so deposited are lost by the failure of the bank, the claim against the bank becomes a personal one when the officer makes the loss good from his personal funds. Until they are made good the claimant has no right to interest.

SALEM, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—The Supreme Court today handed down decisions in five appealed cases, in all of which the lower courts are affirmed. The most important case is that of Ladd & Bush vs. E. C. Giltner, Phil Metschan, J. A. Baker and W. H. Odell, in which it is held that the claims of Giltner and Metschan against the defunct Williams & England Bank were for money that belonged to the state and that they are not entitled to interest thereon. It is held that Odell's deposits were of state money and Baker's claim was for deposits of city money made by City Treasurer Swafford, but that both Odell and Swafford made the money good from their private funds, whereupon the claims became theirs and they were entitled to interest.

Bank vs. Metschan.—After the failure of the Williams & England Bank, in 1896, and the appointment of a receiver, numerous claims were filed by creditors, among them a claim of Ladd & Bush for $10,000, E. C. Giltner, agent, $35,000; Phil Metschan, as State Treasurer, $3,000, due on open account; E. J. Swafford, City Treasurer of Salem, $25,000, on open account; and W. H. Odell, Clerk of the State Land Board, $504.27, on open account. The claims were all allowed by the court and interest allowed on the claims which drew interest by contract. At a later time when the court ordered the payment of interest on claims which did not draw interest by contract, Ladd & Bush objected to the payment of further interest on any interest on the claims. The question of interest on the Giltner, Metschan, Swafford or Odell claims, on the ground that the claims were for public funds loaned in violation of law. The lower court held that the claims were state funds and that the state was liable for interest thereon. The Supreme Court affirmed, and directed that no interest be paid upon either of the said claims. The objections as to the other claims were overruled.

The Supreme Court held that it is doubtful whether an allowance of claims by the court, in a proceeding apparently ex parte, is conclusive upon other creditors or persons interested, except in the case of those who have parties to the proceeding. As Ladd & Bush were parties and could have made their objection at the time of the hearing, the question cannot now be inquired into at their instance. The question of interest upon non-interest-bearing claims not having been passed upon at that time, it is held that Ladd & Bush could make an objection to the payment of interest on their claims. The court held that it is contended by the objectors that such claims represent public funds deposited with the insolvent bank, and that the state is not liable for interest on these claims, and that the private funds of individual claimants, and for this reason no interest should be paid thereon. It is made a felony by statute for any person having in his possession any money belonging to the state, county, town or other municipality, to convert to his own use, or loan the same, with or without interest (Hill's Laws, section 177). The case of the deposit in a bank for safe keeping is not prohibited by this provision. It is manifest that in case of the failure of the bank, the officer is not entitled to interest in his own right on the funds so deposited, but over the right of the state or municipality might be in the premises. If, therefore, the claims are in fact for public money, as the objectors allege, no interest should be allowed thereon. A public officer may not join, with or without interest, any part of the public funds in his possession without being guilty of a felony, but he is required to keep such funds safe and for that purpose may deposit them in a bank, provided that they are at all times subject to his order and there is no fixed period during which he has no right to demand their return. The deposit is made on his own personal responsibility, however, and if, in case of the failure of the bank, he makes the loss good, the money deposited must necessarily become his property and thereafter be considered and treated as such.

It is held that upon the failure of the bank Odell borrowed money upon his own responsibility and made a loan to the state in the State Treasury, and that Swafford's bondsmen made a settlement with the city on account of his delinquency. As to the Metschan and Giltner claims the opinion is that the claims are the property of the state, and that the state is liable for interest thereon.

Circuit Court at Corvallis.—CORVALLIS, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—In the Circuit Court, convened this morning at 9 o'clock, Judge Hammett presiding, the regular November term, Pearl Cooper, of Independence, pleaded guilty to a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, and was fined $25. The case of the State vs. Allen, charged over for alleged sheep-stealing, was dismissed by motion of the District Attorney. In the case of John Fierstein, aged 11, an information was filed for petit larceny. The jurors were dismissed at the opening of court, and there will be no jury cases during the term. The docket number 35 cases in all.

NEW TOURIST SERVICE.—St. Louis and Other Southeastern Points Reached From Portland. Commencing Wednesday, November 26, a new tourist sleeping car route from Portland will be inaugurated by the O. R. & N. on train No. 6 (8:30 P. M.) to St. Louis. The amount required for the regular November term, Pearl Cooper, of Independence, pleaded guilty to a charge of carrying a concealed weapon, and was fined $25. The case of the State vs. Allen, charged over for alleged sheep-stealing, was dismissed by motion of the District Attorney. In the case of John Fierstein, aged 11, an information was filed for petit larceny. The jurors were dismissed at the opening of court, and there will be no jury cases during the term. The docket number 35 cases in all.

SALEM CITIZENS TICKET

PRESENT CITY OFFICIALS UNANIMOUSLY RENOMINATED.

Harmonious Meeting With Prepared Programme—Republicans Hold Primaries and Elect Delegates.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—A mass meeting of those who are interested in the citizens' movement was held in the City Hall this evening, and the following officers were renominated: Mayor—C. P. Bishop. Recorder—N. J. Judah. Marshal—D. W. Gibson. Treasurer—John Motz. Councilmen—First Ward, E. P. Walker; Second Ward, S. A. Riggs; Third Ward, Thomas Sims; Fourth Ward, George Griswold. The meeting was attended by about 60 citizens, and was harmonious throughout. The proceedings were what might be called "cut and dried," as a programme had been made out containing the names of the men who were to make the nominating and speaking speeches at each place, and everything went according to programme. This feature of the meeting

C. P. BISHOP.

State vs. Daly. Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

State vs. Daly.—Elizabeth Gist, appellant, vs. O. Doko, respondent, from Marion County, R. P. Boise, Judge; affirmed. Opinion by Justice Wolverson. This was a controversy over the dividing line between two farms in Marion County. Surveys developed the fact that defendant occupied a strip of plaintiff's land about a half mile long and 20 feet wide at one end and seven feet at the other. The lower court found that defendant had been in adverse possession of the land for more than 10 years, and the plaintiff therefore failed in his suit. In affirming this decision the Supreme Court says that the possession of defendant was clearly under claim of right.

much good cannot fail to result. A valuable feature of the meeting was the display of work prepared by the Indian pupils, showing the practical lines along which their training is being pursued. The greatest credit is due to the teachers of this section for their enterprise and industry in conducting these annual institutes, and especially to those who gave personal time and attention to the arduous duties of preparation and the management of the details of the sessions.

RECEIVED BY THE STUDENTS.

Very Rev. Thomas Greeting on His Return to Mount Angel. MOUNT ANGEL, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The students of Mount Angel College tendered a reception to the Very Rev. Prior Thomas last Saturday on the occasion of his return from the East, where he had gone to attend a general conference of Benedictine superiors.

When Prior Thomas left Mount Angel the scholastic year had scarcely opened and the attendance was very large. On his return he found a still greater body waiting to welcome him for the registration figures have now reached 161. Saturday's reception began with a well delivered address by John D. Porter, after which a programme of classical music was rendered under the direction of Rev. Father Dominic. At its conclusion Prior Thomas spoke to the students about his Eastern trip and expressed his pleasure at being again among them. Anent the new college to be opened next year he had little to say, except to the effect that the Benedictine fathers would consider their efforts amply repaid if the students entrusted to their charge went forth into the world and society as representative and worthy young men.

MAN KILLED BY TRAIN.

Bradford Boynton Struck by Albany Local at Woodburn. WOODBURN, Or., Nov. 24.—Bradford Boynton was struck by the Albany local at 3:30 this morning, and so badly injured that he may not live for 24 hours. He was going over Young Street crossing, and being quiet dead fell on the tracks. The proximity of the train until it was within five feet of him, when he jumped, but was caught by the engine and thrown 30 feet. He skull, right shoulder, arm and leg were fractured.

The injured man was taken to his home in this city, where an operation will be performed on his skull this afternoon, but doctors of the city hope of his recovery. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Boynton, of Woodburn, and over 10 years of age. He came to Oregon with his parents across the plains in 1890.

Later—Boynton died at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

PRESS CLUB BANQUET.

Salem Business Men Will Discuss Subject of Advertising. SALEM, Or., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—The Salem Press Club will give a banquet at the Willamette Hotel tomorrow evening in honor of the city's good merchants of this city. The purpose of the occasion is to discuss questions relating to advertising with a view to the advancement of the interests of both advertisers and publishers. Addresses will be made by J. A. Portland Agent, H. M. M. Frank, Portland; Advertising Agent, A. D. Dinmore, of Joseph Mayers & Sons, Salem; Manager, E. G. Jones, of the advertising department of The Portland Oregonian; A. F. Hofer, business manager, of the Salem Journal; R. H. Hendricks, publisher of the Salem Statesman, and by numerous business men of Salem.

IN STORM OF ASHES.

Gunboat Ranger Was Off Coast During Santa Maria Eruption. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—The gunboat Ranger, which has arrived here from Santa Maria, will remain two months undergoing repairs. Captain Potter and the officers of the Ranger witnessed some of the effects of the eruption of the volcano, Santa Maria, while passing up the Central American coast, but at the time were not aware of the disaster that had fallen upon Guatemala. In the Gulf of Tehuantepec the Ranger was for two days in a thick atmosphere with pumice stone and ashes covering the surface of the sea in all directions. The shore, which was many miles distant from Santa Maria, was covered with white ashes.

TO APPRAISE PROPERTY.

Committee Selected to Determine Value of Stubblefield Estate. WALLA WALLA, Wash., Nov. 24.—W. P. Winans, L. L. Lorenson and O. O. Drumheller were tonight selected as a board of appraisers by the trustees of the Stubblefield Memorial Orphans' Home to determine the value of the estate left by

N. J. JUDAH.

Nominated for Third Term as Recorder of Salem. The late Joseph L. Stubblefield, who left $100,000 for the maintenance of an orphan asylum. Two offers of land for the erection of the buildings have been received. One citizen whose name is not made known, offers to sell certain property for three-fourths of its value and to afterwards donate one-third of the same. The Ladies' Relief Society will give gratis property valued at $300.

LOOKED DOWN THE BARREL.

Nine-Year-Old Seattle Boy Killed by Twenty-two-Caliber Revolver. SEATTLE, Nov. 24.—Leslie Leroy Hughes, a 9-year-old boy living at York station, near the city, was shot and instantly killed shortly before 8 o'clock tonight by the accidental discharge of a 22-caliber revolver, with which he and a party of boy friends had been shooting at a tin can. They had used all the cartridges but one, when young Hughes looked down the barrel. In some way the trigger caught and the gun exploded, wounding him in the right breast.

PREMIER FILLS HIS CABINET.

Eberts Accepts Position of Attorney-General. VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 24.—Colonel Prior, the new Premier, filled up his cabinet tonight when D. M. Eberts, the Attorney-General in the Danvers Government, accepted that position in his Administration, and W. B. McInnes, Vancouver, became president of the council. The Prior Cabinet is composed

Perfect Health
BY THE USE OF
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Mrs. H. A. Aldbrook of Austin, London, Ontario, writes: "I was suffering from great suffering from female weakness. I wrote this for the benefit of others suffering from the same affliction. I doctored with your family physician without any good result, so my husband urged me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I took four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, four of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and two of his 'Pleasant Pellets.'"

The Common Sense Medical Adviser, 1008 large pages in paper cover, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

KOPP BREWERY SOLD.

Transfer of Astoria Property Involves Sum of $100,000. ASTORIA, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—Deeds and bills of sale were filed for record today, whereby John Kopp transfers to Charles Robinson and Emil Schimpf, and the latter transfer to the North Pacific Brewing Company, the property known as the Kopp brewery, together with the good will of the business and the right to designate as "Kopp's" any beer manufactured by the company. The consideration named in the instruments is $100,000.

CITY CENTRAL COMMITTEE ORGANIZED.

The Republican city central committee has been organized by the selection of John Hahn chairman, and G. O. Anderson secretary. This committee has named C. A. Leinweber as a candidate for Councilman for the Third ward to fill the vacancy caused by the withdrawal of Amos Briz.

BY PLURALITY OF 25,000.

Washington Official Returns Show Republican Strength. SEATTLE, Nov. 24.—According to figures compiled by the Post-Intelligencer from a complete official returns from every county in the state, the average majority given Republican candidates was 25,000. Hadley, Rep., nominee for Judge of the Supreme Court, leads his ticket with a majority of 26,383. The Republican candidates for Congress, who are elected at large, had pluralities over 20,000. The highest Democrat on the ticket, as follows: Jones, 24,892; Cushman, 24,597; Humphrey, 24,042.

WELCOME TO PRINCE OF SIAM.

Formal Ceremony by Acting Mayor of San Francisco. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—The Crown Prince of Siam today was formally welcomed to San Francisco by Acting Mayor de la Riva. The prince visited a photographic gallery and then went driving with Charles Webb Howard. In the evening he was the guest at a dinner given by Homer S. King, of Wells, Fargo & Co.

Changes in Northwest Postoffices.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Nov. 24.—The recent order of the Postoffice Department discontinuing the postoffice at Caveville, Baker County, Or., has been rescinded. The postoffice at Ekhead, Douglas County, Or., has been moved a mile and a half to the north, and Archie R. Carson appointed postmaster. The postoffice at Pokesdam, Klamath County, Or., has been discontinued. The postoffice at Weipoint, Stevens County, Wash., is to be discontinued November 29.

Well Known in Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—Louis G. Desor, for 15 years a resident of this city, died suddenly last night in Tacoma. The deceased was born in Germany in 1849, and was a veteran of the Franco-Prussian War, during which he was severely wounded several times. For his services during this war Emperor William I conferred the honor of the Iron Cross upon him. He arrived in America in 1874, and shortly after enlisted in the Twenty-first Infantry, U. S. A., and was discharged at Vancouver in 1882, and engaged in business here. He was a member of Washington Lodge, No. 4, A. F. & A. M., of this city. A widow survives him. No arrangements for the funeral have yet been made.

Famous Serrano Indian Dies.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Nov. 24.—Marie Catalina, last of the famous Serrano Indian basket-weavers, is dead. She was 90 years old at the time of her death, having been born 21 years after the first settlement of this valley by the Franciscans. The Serrano tribe, formerly the most powerful on the coast side of the San Bernardino Mountains, has dwindled away to a mere handful of Government pensioners, numbering only 54.

Thanksgiving Services at Salem.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—Union Thanksgiving services will be held at the First Presbyterian Church at 10:30 A. M. Thanksgiving day. Rev. C. A. Robing, of the United Evangelical Church, will deliver the Thanksgiving sermon, and nearly all the Salem pastors will participate in the services.

Mrs. Elizabeth Simpson, Washougal.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Nov. 24.—(Special.)—Mrs. Elizabeth Simpson died at her home at Washougal yesterday, of cancer. She was 70 years of age, and left a husband and three children.

Prominent Salem Pioneer.

SALEM, Nov. 24.—Martin Van Buren

Turkey Money Free

A Present for Everyone.

HERE'S HOW TO GET IT:

Cut out the coupon, as printed below, and present it when paying for your purchase. It will entitle you to a cash rebate of ten per cent on anything you may buy. In this manner we propose to stand the expense of your Thanksgiving turkey.

CUT OUT THIS COUPON—IT'S WORTH MONEY.

Rebate Coupon in Oregonian.

GOOD FOR 10 per cent Cash Rebate

From now until Thanksgiving day, we will allow a cash rebate of 10% from anything you may buy, if this coupon is presented at time of purchase.

THE LION CLOTHING CO., 165 Third Street.

CUT OUT THIS COUPON—IT'S WORTH MONEY.

This offer holds good until Thanksgiving day.

All our Garments are Marked in Plain Figures. Satisfaction is Guaranteed

THE LION CLOTHING CO., 165 THIRD ST., PORTLAND, ORE.

Mann, a pioneer of 1880 and an honored and prominent resident of Marion County, died at the Salem Hospital today, aged 65 years. He left seven brothers and sisters, all pioneers and prominent residents of Oregon.

Machinery for Condensed Milk Plant. HILLSBORO, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—The machinery for the plant of the Oregon Condensed Milk Company, of which J. P. Tammie is president, arrived today, and will be installed at once. The new factory will be in operation in a few weeks.

George W. Pickett Laid to Rest. EUGENE, Nov. 24.—(Special.)—The remains of the late George W. Pickett were buried this afternoon in Masonic cemetery. Religious services were conducted by Dr. Leverette, followed by interment with Masonic ceremony. Local lodges of Masons and Elks attended in a body.

BOUND HAND AND FOOT

With muscles drawn and throbbing with pain, and joints swollen, stiff and tender, the rheumatic patient is as helpless and dependent as though bound hand and foot. No disease causes such intense suffering, such sharp, nerve-racking pains as Rheumatism, and this unforgiving monster, unless checked, crushes the strength and hope of its victims.

When the system becomes infected with Uric Acid and other like poisons they are absorbed into the blood and lodged in the muscles, joints and nerves. Then with the suddenness of an electric shock, pains begin to shoot through the muscle or joint affected, which often swell and become inflamed, and becomes tender, feverish and sore. Unless treated through the blood Rheumatism grows steadily worse, finally ending in shrunken muscles, immovable joints, shaky nerves, and a general paralysis of the system. The cure of Rheumatism can never be complete or permanent until the acid blood has been purified and the system cleansed of all poisonous matter. S. S. S. does this promptly and surely, because it is a perfect blood medicine, and an antidote for the irritating acids that cause Rheumatism.

S. S. S. purifies and invigorates the polluted, stagnant blood, and when a free, healthy circulation is again established, the gritty, corroding particles are washed out of the aching muscles and joints, and the longed for relief comes and the cure is permanent because the cause has been removed and nothing remains in the blood to produce another attack.

Write for special book on Rheumatism. The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

HAND SAPOLIO

FOR TOILET AND BATH

It makes the toilet something to be enjoyed. It removes all stains and roughness, prevents prickly heat and chafing, and leaves the skin, white, soft, healthy. In the bath it brings a glow and exhilaration which no common soap can equal, imparting the vigor and life sensation of a mild Turkish bath. All Grocers and Druggists.

Blood Poison

NOT A RELIEF BUT A CURE

HELENA, Mont., Oct. 4, 1902. I wish to thank you for my relief. I was suffering from rheumatism and was taking morphine to relieve me, when, on the advice of a friend, I purchased a bottle of your Perrin's Pile Specific. It relieved me of my pain, and I am now a happy man. Truly yours, JULIUS MEYERHOFER, Furrier, Helena.

PERRIN'S PILE SPECIFIC.