PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 25,-President Mitchell, of the United Mineworkers of America, accompanied by his counsel, C. S. Darrow and H. D. Lloyd, arrived here from Washington tonight. They will leave for Scranton tomorrow. Mr. Mitcheli was questioned concerning the status of settlement of the mineworkers' strike. He said:

The railroad companies wired the sirike commission that the general terms of the proposition were satisfactory, some of the minor details to be adjusted later. This message suggested that the commission adjourn until December 3, in order that these 'minor details' might be adjusted."

Mr. Darrow here interrupted by saying: "The initiative was taken by the operators.
