BURIED ALIVE IN SEWER DITCH.—One of a number of Italian laborers employed in digging a trench for a sewer in East Salmon street, had a narrow escape from being crushed to death, a day or two ago. It is usual in digging sewer trenches to have sections of three or four feet at short distances to support the sides and to tunnel under them for the sewer pipe. Owing, it is thought, to the earth having been saturated with drainage from an ice factory nearby, one side of the trench caved in, pinning the Italian's feet first, and forcing him over on his back. Fortunately his head and shoulders went into the tunnel under one of the sections and he was able to crawl out. He was buried under four feet of earth for the greater part of his length, he was able to breathe until his companions had shoveled the earth off him, which took them half an hour. The men were not accustomed to seeing people buried alive and the catastrophe so scared them that only one of them showed up for work the next morning. Very few can say that they were buried under four feet of earth for half an hour, and came out alive, for earth lies heavy on a man when it gets him down.

SALOONKEEPER PAYS A FINE.—Because he opened his saloon to use his telephone and allowed several men to come in after him and attend to their thirst, shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday morning, John Tommich, saloonkeeper, Alder street, near Third, was fined $25 yesterday by Municipal Judge Hogue. "I was under the influence of liquor," pleaded the defendant. "My bartender closed my saloon that morning at 12:30 o'clock, I went to a dance, and came up town with three or four friends. I opened my place to use the telephone, and we just served one round of drinks when my friends came in." "You broke the law," declared the Judge. "You have no right even to open the front door of your saloon after 1 o'clock A. M., when you have once locked it. However, as you did not evidently know that this is the law, I will impose the lowest penalty under the statute, a fine of $25." The fine was paid.

MARQUELEADED AS CARTOONIST.—The police state that the man who recently masqueraded in theater circles in this city as P. Opper, the cartoonist, and who was said to be in love with Marie Rose of "The Belle of New York Company," is not Opper at all, but is Paul Ford, who appeared in San Francisco last February as Paul Leicester Ford, the novelist. The bogus Ford cut a wide swath in San Francisco at that time, and was supposed to spend lots of money on jewelry and wines. He is also said to have a record in Indianapolis, Ind.

HISTORY DAY AT WOMAN'S CLUB.—Oregon history day at the Portland Woman's Club promises a treat for those who attend. Ellen Condon McCormack, of Eugene, the talented daughter of the eminent geologist, Thomas Condon, will give an address on "The Early Geology of Oregon," Friday at 2 P. M. in the Seiling-Hirsch building. Mrs. McCormack is simply equipped for her work, as she was an enthusiastic collaborator with her father in his researches, which culminated in the publication of his book "The Two Islands."

FREE DELIVERY TO PATRON HOME.—It has already been announced that donations of food for Thanksgiving are general supply as well as the Patton Old Ladies' Home in East Portland, may be left at the store of Adolph Dekum, who will see to it that they are promptly forwarded. Arrangements have also been made by which the Package Delivery will call at the houses of donors receiving and transporting whatever may be given, free of charge. The Package Delivery telephone number is Main 299.

ALLIGATOR REMOVED BY CLARK.—A man, Sam Calonge by name, of Irwin, Idaho, writes to the Lewis and Clark Board that he has a rock on which is inscribed "Clark, 1806." This rock was picked up on the South Fork of Snake River. "I can furnish you affidavits of that fact and am willing to write to you regarding its possible value as a relic," there is no record of Captain William Clark ever having seen the South Fork of Snake River, so that the inscription probably is not genuine.

CHARGED WITH STEALING DIAMOND.—Harry Thomas, 24 years old, was arrested last night by Detectives Day and Welner charged with the larceny of a diamond stud from S. P. Hanawalt, as the latter was boarding an "S" trolley car, on Third street, near Yamhill, last Saturday night. Thomas denied the charge and said: "If Hanawalt insists that I took his stud, I will gladly buy him one as good, as I wish to leave for San Francisco, on business."

GOOD WORDS FROM MAN WHO KNOWS.—The Lewis and Clark Board has sent 20,000 leaflets to G. M. McKinney, immigration agent at Chicago of the Harriman lines. Mr. McKinney is greatly taken with the leaflets. "You cannot send us too many of these," he writes. "The pamphlet is of such size that we can inclose it with any of the advertising matter sent out of this office."

BANQUET OF ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY.—The St. Andrew's Society of Oregon will give a banquet Monday evening at 8:15 o'clock. St. Andrew's day occurs this year Sunday, and the Scots are forced to go one day better. There will be toasts and musical selections, and a pleasant entertainment is in store for those who attend.

STRUCK WOMAN BY LOVER.—Charles Bowers was arrested last night by Police-man H. A. Parker, at Second and Madison streets, charged with having threatened to kill Frankie Kisor. The latter said that Bowers wished to marry her, and that when she refused he struck her, and made threats against her.

THE OREGONIAN GOES EAST.—Mr. C. R. Hansen, resident manager of C. R. Hansen & Co., leading employment agency, with offices in Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles, was surprised to receive among the large number of responses he received from a recent advertisement inserted in this paper, a letter from Cambria, Wyo. It frequently happens that local merchants who advertise in The Oregonian sell goods as the result of this advertising in different parts of the country. An advertiser in this paper some time since received an order for a considerable amount of goods from Texas. With the constantly increasing demand for authentic information of Oregon, the Pacific Northwest. The Oregonian's circulation in the Middle West and in the East is steadily growing.

NEW KIND OF APPLES.—There are so many kinds of apples of so many colors and shapes on the market these days, and there are so few of the kinds which were common years ago, that but few can name many of the varieties displayed by dealers. Yesterday a man had in his store, attracted by a box of apples, which were so dark colored as to have a striking appearance. He asked the dealer what kind of apples they were and was told that they were "Arkansas Black." A colored man standing by remarked that he used to live in Arkansas, but he had never seen any black apples there. The quality of these apples was not inquired into, but their color is slightly against them.

HARD TO KEEP STREETS CLEAN.—The street-cleaning department has been kept hard at work all through the stormy weather keeping catchbasins open. The small force are now endeavoring to clean up the gutters obstructed by fallen leaves, etc. The effort to clean away rubbish thrown in the streets constantly, the clippings from rosebushes, cut grass, limbs of trees, etc., is so trying that Superintendent Donaldson is making out a list of persons who throw rubbish in the streets, and will endeavor to stop the practice either by publishing the list or having the offenders arrested.

YOU WILL NEED SOME ASSISTANCE IN selecting your route on that trip you have in mind to the old home East, and we will be glad to tell you all about the service you will get on the North Coast-Kansas City-St. Louis special, which leaves Portland daily for Denver, Kansas City, Omaha, St. Joseph, Council Bluffs, St. Louis, Chicago and other far Eastern points. Call at the Northern Pacific Ticket Office, No. 255 Morrison street, corner of Third, and the ticket agent will help you out and offer such suggestions as will be appreciated in making a choice of the lines you will travel over.

PUMPKIN PIE FOR THANKSGIVING.—Pumpkin pie, of creamy, custard-like consistency, and flaky puffs of baking-powder biscuits were made at the School of Domestic Science yesterday afternoon, during Miss Voorhes' lecture on pastry. There was the usual good attendance, and as the audience sampled the biscuits and pie there were numerous comments on their excellence and on the dexterity with which Miss Voorhes managed her cooking, for in her pastry-making there was not the least bit of disorder or scattered flour or sticky dough.

ACROSS TO CHERRY TO BRUSH.—Great sport with wild geese was enjoyed Sunday and Monday at Arlington by the party of railroad men which went up there Friday night. The party, composed of Thad Bueck, E. R. Ingersoll, George Cave and P. Sinclair, all of Seattle, found all the bars and islands for 10 miles along the Columbia black with the birds and shot 50 of them. It was a good load for all four of the men, who returned yesterday morning.

OFF TO MANILA, ON MATRIMONY BENT.—Numerous telegrams were sent to San Francisco, yesterday, wishing a pleasant voyage to Mrs. H. B. Litt, who sailed there yesterday on the steamer Hong Kong Maru for Manila, in company with Miss Spiegel, who is to be married to Bennie Litt on their arrival there. Mr. Litt has forwarded as a New Year's gift to his son a request to return here after his marriage and assume the management of his business.

DOG CATCHERS ARE OUT.—The fine weather has caused Poundmaster Reed to start out the dog wagon and a force of dog catchers, and they are picking up a dozen or so unlicensed dogs daily. They will be around as long as unlicensed dogs are to be found whenever the weather is fine enough for dogs to be out. A lady whose dog has been taken in, was hunting for a kettle of hot water yesterday and said she wanted to scald the poundmaster.

NEW SCOTCH OR HARRY MARSHALL.—British Consul Laidlaw has received an inquiry from Harry Marshall, of Hull, England, asking for news of his son Harry Marshall, Jr., aged 25, of whom he has had no news since July, 1898. At that time he was supposed to be going to the Pacific Coast, seeking work in a railroad or logging camp. Any news of the young man will be gladly received by the British Consul or the father.

A FALSE HEART.

Coffee Does Not Let It Beat True.
 "Coffee served me a very hard turn about two years ago. My doctor said I had chronic dyspepsia with serious heart and nervous trouble and nothing would cure me when I gave up coffee," said Miss Hattie Williams, of Birmingham, Ala.

"My stomach was so bad that I could not eat any solid food without its nauseating me, and I was so nervous I could not sleep and my heart was in a dreadful condition. I had heard a great deal about Postum Food Coffee and how much good people had derived from changing from coffee to Postum, so one day I sent for a package."

"The first cup I drank helped me, for it removed all the gas from my stomach, or perhaps the quelling of coffee produced that result, at any rate, in less than a week there was a wonderful change; no more restless nights, no more pains around my heart that made me think I had heart trouble; no more sick stomach. This was two years ago. I am now entirely well and Postum cured me. I found it was no medicine. I needed but proper food and nourishment and to quit coffee entirely."

"My brother-in-law (a coffee drinker) was very sick with stomach trouble and all he could eat was the white of an egg. I insisted on his trying Postum. He said the first cup he drank soothed his stomach and was nourishing. In a few days he was able to eat solid food again, and now he uses it altogether and does not use coffee."

"My next door neighbor, another coffee drinker, had suffered with catarrh of the stomach, and for months could not eat anything—was just living on beef tea. I carried her some Postum and gave her directions for making it and now she can eat anything she wants and it does not hurt her. She says she feels better than she has for 10 years."

"I could tell you of dozens of people who have been benefited by leaving off coffee and drinking Postum. It has done me so much good I tell everybody to use it. I have been using it now for two years and my digestion is fine, my complexion clear and everyone says I look 10 years younger."

COULD FIND NO OIL IN OREGON.—The Minnesota-Oregon Oil Company, which organized to explore Oregon for oil, has given up its quest in this state and will try elsewhere. The stock of the company was subscribed by Oregon and Minnesota people. Its directors met Monday and decided that Oregon has no oil that can be found. The company worked mostly in Crook County, where it has 33 claims. It has $4000 left in its treasury, $3000 of which its directors have voted to invest in Missouri.

PLEA OF MORPHINE FIEND.—"I can't leave off taking morphine," declared W. H. Reynolds, in the Municipal Court yesterday. "I have taken the drug for 20 years, and the only way I can cure myself of the habit is to end my life. If you will discharge me once more, Your Honor, I will leave town, and will give you my word of honor." But Reynolds' words were drowned in the burst of derision that followed. His case was continued, in order to find out if he has the means with which to leave town.

DEATH OF SLAM IN COMING.—The Crown Prince of Slam will arrive on the Southern Pacific train from San Francisco at 7:45 A. M. Saturday and will spend several hours in the city. He will go from here by the Northern Pacific to the Sound. It is probable that in the next day or two a meeting of the trustees of the Chamber of Commerce will be held to arrange for his entertainment while here.

DEATH OF ENOS LEON ILLINOIS.—John D. Mahoney, a carpenter aged 63 years, died yesterday afternoon at St. Vincent's Hospital, where he had been confined since 1901. He had been afflicted with heart disease and had been bedfast for a year and a half. He has no relatives in Portland so far as known, and the funeral will be held Friday morning from the hospital.

DEATH OF A REYNOLDS, A PIONEER.—A. Reynolds, a pioneer of '52, died yesterday morning at Cedar Mill, aged 60 years. He is survived by his widow and two brothers, Charles Reynolds, of Gresham, and Alfred Reynolds, of Vancouver, British Columbia. Mr. Reynolds was born in Ohio, and settled in Powell's Valley, Or., in 1852.

Good Things For Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving should be an occasion of family reunions and enjoyment. But much depends upon the quality of the "big dinner." We'll help you on this score; but won't you send us your order early? You'll be better pleased.

Ice Cream

The best it's possible to make. All the popular flavors and some new ones. Put up in bulk or brick form in small or large quantities.

Water Ices

Are increasing in favor. Ours have that "vivify" texture, obtainable only by using the best of materials and plenty of them. Pineapple and Roman punch will be the favorite kinds this week.

Salted Nuts

New crop nutmeats are in and very choice. Almonds, pecans, peanuts and pineapples, prepared as they should be, in choice creamy butter.

Pies

Our real home-made mince and pumpkin pies are famous. Thanks giving dinner without them is like potatoes without salt. They are delightfully seasoned, and all ingredients of finest quality; generous size and generously filled. The mince is made with an extra measure of brandy when so ordered one day in advance.

Cakes

Three layers of light, golden cake, with two layers of rich filling between, and a delicate icing on top. These varieties to order: Maple, chocolate, marshmallow, walnut, banana, fig, and coconut, lemon and orange cream. Must be ordered one day in advance. Lady fingers and macaroons.

Candies

The plain, old-fashioned kinds are most appropriate for this day of feasting. We suggest our new caramels, honeycomb taffies, and genuine Mexican pinocchle—all most delicious. An extra variety of the richer creams and chocolates.

ORDER EARLY.
