STATE FISH REPORT

Washington Commissioner Completes His Work.

YEAR'S OUTPUT IS $6,730,870

Columbia River Pack a Record-Breaker-Recommendations Made for Patrol-Boat and Sockeye Hatchery on Fraser River.

OLYMPIA, Dec. 1 .- (Special.) - The value of the output of the fisheries industry of the State of Washington for the year 190 estimated by Fish Commissioner T. H Kershaw in his annual report at $6,730.870, including salmon pucked, fresh, salt and smoked fish, shell fish and all fish pro-

The annual report of the Fish Commissioner was filed Saturday in the office of the Governor. Taking the figures above given Mr. Kershaw states that the amount exceeds the value of the coal output of the state by $3,300,000; humber, shingles and lath by $1,300,000, and is a slight advance over the value of the wheat grown in the state during the past year. The number of cases of salmon packed in the year is given at 777,484. The Commissioner reports that as a total this is under the output of last year. In the Puget and district the run of sockeyes and consequently the output in 1901 were phe-nomenal. In 1902 the sockeye run fell off greatly though the Fall run of fish was good and as a whole the Puget Sound dis-tricts' report is considered a fair one for the year's work. On the Columbia River, the year's work. On the Columbia Aiver, the pack is a record breaker. The run was steady all season and the canneries packed their capacity and the shippers had all the fish they could handle. The hig output on the Columbia brings the total up to a gratifying figure. As compared with the year 1900, which is considered an average one, the pack shows an increase in 1902 of over 100,000 cases. The prices in 1902, were very favorable to the packers and shippers, and the value of the output shows an increase over 1900 of $2,368,400.

report shows that in the Puge Sound district there were II salmon can-neries, one crab cannery, one clam can-nery and two sardine and herring canneries operated; in the Columbia River district five salmon cannerles were operated; in the Willapa Harbor district thre salmon and one clam canner, and in the Gray's Harbor district one salmon can-

Grand total 84 518 405 Recommendations of Commissioner. Among the recommendations made by Mr. Kershaw is one that a patrol boat be purchased for the use of his department on the Columbia River. Owing to the number of sloughs on the Columbia and its many tributaries, the Commissioner has found it very difficult to enforce collection of licenses and obedience to the closed meon laws. The last Legislature ap-ropriated $1500 for chartering patrol cats, but these boats are most needed at a time of year when it is very expensive to charter them. The sum of $2000 is rec mended for the purchase of a boat and an allowance of $900 per year for its opera-tion. The Commissioner declares that the additional fees and fines collected will make up for the increased cost. A large part of the report is consumed in discussing the need for a sockeye hatch ery. The only spawning streams of the sockeye in Puget Sound are tributaries of the Fraser River, in British Columbia, and efforts have been made to secure concessions from the Canadian government look-ing to the establishment by this state of a $6500.

hatchery on one of these tributaries of the Fraser. Hegry Doyle, president of the British Columbia Cannerymen's Associa-tion, is now in Ottawa urging this concession upon the Dominion government, and Mr. Kershaw expects a favorable report before the adjournment of the Legislature. A doputy has already been sent to British Columbia to select a site, and his report is given in full in Mr. Kershaw's report. The site selected is on Poole Creek, one The site selected is on Poole Creek, one of the headwaters of the Fraser. Poole Creek is said to be one of the principal sockeye spawning grounds. Mr. Kershaw points out as one of the arguments that such a hatchery is a necessity the fact that the sockeye constitute 80 per cent of the entire pack. He also suggests the the entire pack. He also suggests the building of a rack at the mouth of Dakota Creek in Whatcom County, to prevent the return of fish to the Sound and the hauling of sockeyes from the traps to the creek for hatchery purposes. Two thou-cand dollars is asked for this experiment. A suggestion is also made in regard to the Nooksack River, looking to the build-ing of a rack, the hauling of fish from the traps with the expectation that they will be taken in at the Nooksack hatchery on Kendall Crock. There are now no sockeye hatcheries on the Sound.

Mr. Kershaw recommends the opening of negotiations looking to the purchase back from the Government of the Baker Lake hatchery in Skagit County. This, he says, is the best located hatchery in the state, and could be worked to better advantage if in the hands of state authorities. The hatchery was built in 1826 and operated till 1899 by the state, when it was sold to the

Mr. Kershaw embodies in his report the report of R. W. Donne, superintendent of the state experimental station in Kitsap

Enstern Ovaters Do Not Propogate. Possibly one of the most important sub jects touched upon in the entire report is the declaration of Mr. Donne, that the several years' experiments have developed the fact that Eastern cysters will not propagate in Washington waters under natural conditions. The Eastern oysters will spawn profusely, but the spat will not set or thrive. The greatest difficulty to overcome is the low temperature of the waters of the Sound. The average tem-perature of the water is about 10 degrees lower than in the Atlantic spawning grounds, and the Sound waters are also subject to sudden changes that result in a much greater range of temperature than is conductive to the life of the Eastern oyster spat. A number of reports have been received in the past year of successful propagation of Eastern oveters in the Sound and Williama Harbor districts, but Mr. Doane says that investigation in each instance showed that the oysters grown were transplants. The growing of Eastern transplants is proving very success-

Fish Commissioner Kershaw makes some emphatic recomendations in the matter of the protection of natural native ovster beds, and state reserves. No protec-tion at all is now afforded and be recomends that to prevent the depletion of the reserves a price be charged for the seed oysters allowed to be taken off and that a competent inspector be given au-thority to prohibit the taking of seed oysters from reserves when in his opinion the same is necessary. Mr. Kershaw also reports that a large portion of the lands reserved has no natural oysters on it and that such unproductive portion should be sold that artificial production may be established thereon.

DIVISION OF INTERESTS

Probable Method of Expending the Various Fair Appropriations.

PORTLAND, Dec. 1 .- (To the Editor.) -- A letter from Salem signed "Inquirer," published in this morning's issue, asks how the money subscribed in Portland and the amount appropriated by the state and by the United States for the Lewis and Clark Centennial will be expended. That subscribed by Portland, say between $100,-000 and $500,000, will be expended by the directory of the Lewis and Clark Exposition having charge of the enterprise. That appropriated by the state will probably be expended by the state commission appointed for that purpose, which will be provided for in the bill when introduced (no bill has yet been perfected).

The object of such a bill will be to have every county properly represented at the Exposition, space being prepared in advance for each county's exhibit by the state commissioners or their representative, so that visitors may see what county each particular exhibit is from, so that county and section of the country from which it came may have due credit, making it attractive for the newcomer, thereby inducing settlement in the county of his choice.

The amount appropriated by Congress will be expended as may be provided in the bill appropriating the same, through United States Commissioners appointed for that purpose, or otherwise. It is hoped it will be used in the erection of suitable buildings and making exhibits of the products of our newly acquired possessions-Alaska, Hawail and the Philippine Archipelago. It is difficult to particularize. We can better outline our plans and the ecope of the Exposition when we secure the appropriation. H. W. CORBETT.

A large proportion of the union labor vote went to Little, but Koerner's good record in the Council carried him through by a narrow margin. Pheister was not so well known as Albright, but polled a strong vote from the mills, and had the union labor upport behind him. The total vote today was 593, and Fred J. Meyer, who was a candidate for re-election as City Treasurer and had no op-position, polled 529 votes. C. M. Mason was the victor in the Third Ward for Councilman, beating J. H. Howard by six votes. Both men were members of la-bor unions, and their contest was inter-esting. Jury Out 36 Hours-Simonis, in Jrne 1900, Sent Two Young-Women Powdered Arsenie.

BAKER CITY, Dec. 1.-Charles Edward Simonis has been convicted the second time on the charge of attempting to poison Lena Howell and Nora Wallace. The jury was out almost 86 hours.

This is one of the most sensational cases ever tried in the Circul Court of this county. Simonis, who is a resident of Eagle Valley, it is alleged was once the lover of Lena Howell, but the young lady discarded him for James Shultz, whom she has since married. On June 11, 1960, Simonis sent two powders by Nora Smith, one to Miss Howell and the other to Nora Wallace, telling her they were complexion powders. The girls took the powders and soon after became vio-lently III. A doctor was called, and pronounced fi arsenical prison. Miss Howell was at the point of death for several days, and at one time the attendants thought she was dead. After suffering from a long and severe illness both girls recovered. Simonia was arrested and tried in Union County, Eagle Valley at that time being a part of Union County. The first trial resulted in a hung jury, but later a second trial resulted in a conviction and a sentence of three years to the penitentlary. The case was appealed to the Su-preme Court, where the verdict of the lower court was reversed. The trial just concluded is the third time the case has been tried. Simonis will be sentenced Wednesday.

JEROME MAKES A RAID. Police Batter Down Steel Doors Into

Palatial Gambling Houses. NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—One of the most sensational raids ever made in New York took place last night, when District Attorney Jerome with a strong force of police broke into the palattal establishment said to have been conducted by Richard Canfield as a gambling house, in Forty-fourth street, a few doors from Fifth avenue. Entrance was effected by smashing in the basement windows.

On entering the raiding party was confronted by Mr. Canfield, who has just returned from a trip to Providence, R. L. and who protested that the house was simply his private residence and that, had he known that any suspicion of gambling attached to it, he would have willingly admitted the authorities at any time. A search of the house showed that the lower NEW YORK, Dec. 1 .- One of the mos search of the house showed that the lower floors were vacant and furnished. When they ascended to the next floor, their attention was attracted by a panel wall which was protected with stout steel plating. When this had been battered in, after about half an hour's work with a sledge hammer, the police say they discovered a large number of checks, with roulette wheels and other gambling apparatus. Canfield and a half dozon men who were found with him in the house, all of whom were in evening dress, were arrested and taken to the police station. The raid was made on ovidence secured by a detective employed by the District Attorney's office. It was said tonight that it It was said tonight that it was doubtful whether this man could identify Canfield as having been concerned in any actual gambling operations in the house.

The raid caused the most intense excitement in the vicinity and enormous crowds gathered while the police were reaking their way in.

The captain of the precinct, in which the house was located, was ignorant of the raid until all was over, when he arrived at the head of a squad of men in time to eacort the wagon containing the captured paraphernalia back to the station-house. That the raid had been anticipated for days the police feel certain. The conditions indicated that such was the case, for nowhere in the entire establishment from the basement to the fourth floor, on which are Mr. Canfield's private apartments, was there any sign of recent use. It was also considered significant that Mr. Canfield's counsel was in the house at the time of the raid, although Mr. Canfield explained that he had simply "dropped in for din ner."

The raid on Canfield's house had hardly been finished when the police of the Tenderioin precinct descended on the house in West Thirty-third street known as the "House with the Steel Doors," and reputed to be run as a gambling house by Frank Farrell. Ladders had been provided to the second story window, but the steel front doors were found to be open and no oppo-sition was made to the entrance of the police. The lower floors of the house were found to be magnificently furnished, but nothing of a suspicious character was discovered, until while sounding a wall on the top floor, the police captain discovered a secret steel door apparently serving as a means of communication with the adjoin-

After the door had been broken down with axes and crow bars, the police en-tered the next house, which they found to be magnificently furnished from cellar to attic and equipped with roulette wheels, card tables and other gambling appliances all of which were selzed. But two persons were found in the house, both of whom were arrested. One was the colored doorman and the other a man whose name was unknown, but who was said to be a rela-tive of Frank Farrell.

the physical health re-established.

"I had suffered from indigestion and only those who have suffered from it know what it really is," writes Mrs. M. J. Fagan, of 1613 East Genesee St., Syracuse, N. Y. "I had had severe attacks of headache and dirziness, with cold hands and feet; everything I ate distressed me, bowels were constiputed and I rear growing wey thin and nervous. I cannot half express the bad feelings I had when I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took nine bottles of the 'Discovery' and have taken several bottles of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pelleta. I commenced feeling better with the first bottle and kept on improving. Now I am so greatly improved in health my friends often speak of it. I most heartily recommend these medicines to all suffering as I was."
