CHIEF SKOOKUM WANTS HIS MONEY. It is seldom that trouble between Indians and whites over land matters is heard of nowadays. The Indians are a vanishing face, but there are still some of them on Klickitat River, where the railroad from Lyle to Goldendale is being built. and one of these is a chief named Skook-um, through whose land the milroad passes, and who, of course, expects to be paid for the right of way. All ar-rangements were made in regard to this matter some time ago, and the necessary papers were forwarded to Washington, and are to be returned to the Indian agent who looks after the Klickitats, Mr. Skookum will receive his r. This was not exactly satisfactory to Skookum, as the company desired to go ahead with the construction of the road through his land before pay-ment is made. He intimated that he wanted to see his money before his land was meddled with, and seemed determined was medded with, and seemed determined to stop the building of the road. So H. C. Campbell has had to go up and nego-tiate with Skookum. He is rather bet-ter situated than some of the early settiers of this region were when they had to negotiate with Indians, and will probably carry out his negotiations satisfactorily to all concerned. His friends, however, who remember the days of toma-hawks and scalping knives, will be pleased when they see Mr. Campbell return home with his scalp in the proper place.

CANVAGRACK DUCK IN MARKET .-- A maknificent apecimen of the genuine canvas-back duck, which came to the market yesterday in a shipment of ducks from Wappato Lake, was purchased by a sports-man, who intends to have the skin mounted to remind him of the happy days before the swinish carp were introduced here. Then there were lots of wappato lakes, and almost anybody could get a string of canvasbacks, and when all the other ducks, which sportsmen now spend their time and money to kill, were known and spoken of as trash ducks. Another very odd-looking duck, with bill and feet nearly white, and evidently a cross be tween the mallard and sprigtail varieties, was found at a market by a sportsman, who will have it mounted as a curiosity. Immense numbers of ducks have been shot during the late storm, and the markets are crowded with them, a large percentage being mallards in very good

RAISES GOOD APPLES HERE.-W. S. Felling, the well-known old-time orchardist and fruitgrower, who has been con-nected with fruitgrowing in this section for 40 years, says he can still raise just as handsome apples here as are produced at Hood River, by supplying the soil with fertilizers to make good things that have gone out of it, as lime, etc., and by spraying and giving his trees the same attention which trees receive at Hood River. As to apples keeping, he says that 40 years ago, when he worked for Lambert & Lewelling, orchardists, he used to go out and scratch around among the dead leaves in the Spring and find Jannetings, Red Romands. Virginia Greenings and American Pippins, also called "Grindstons," which had lain among the fallen leaves all Winter and were still sound and of good flavor. POOLS INSTRAD OF CROSSINGS .- Com plaint is made by many women of the large and deep puddles which take the large and deep puddles which take the place of crossing on Morrison street on both sides of Third street. One of these pools is in front of the Northern Pacific Railway office, and the other diagonally across, by McAllen & McDonnell's store. Both pools are caused by the wearing out of the asphalt pavement and the concrete foundation under it, and on rainy days both pools are over-shoe for the days both pools are over-shoe for the ien. Very similar nulsances at Third Washington were being repaired in fine style yesterday, and it is in order for some one to put the intersection of for some one to put the intersection of Third and Morrison to rights at once. Asphalt pavement makes good crossings when in order, but when the asphalt and the foundation are worn out, bad pools are the result.

COUNCIL OF JEWISH WOMEN.-It is the custom of the Council of Jewish Women once a year to hold an open session, to which the members and their friends are invited, and at which an address is given by a brilliant speaker, and a fine musical programme is presented. The open meeting this year will be held at the Temple Beth Israel, December 8, at 8 o'clock, when Rabbi Jacob Voorsanger, of San Francisco, one of the most eminent clergymen and ablest orators on the Pacific Coast, will deliver an address. Dr. Voorsanger in rabbi of the Temple Em-manuel and holds a chair in the University of California. His subject next Mon-day evening will be: "The Sabbath and the Jewish Women."

To End Sidewalk Obstruction.-The intersection of Third and Salmon streets, on the est side of Third, which has been badly obstructed for some time on ac-count of building operations in progress or delayed, is at last being put to rights. A cement sidewalk is being constructed by T. M. Richardson on both fronts of his new brick block, and the excavation of the Holman Undertaking Company, on the opposite side of Salmon street, is being used in burning up a great mass of rubbish of lumber, old cement barrels, etc., which have so long encumbered the street In a few days Mr. Richardson's sidewalks will be completed, the street will be passable, and all the trouble will

will be passable, and all the trouble will be forgotten.

Y. M. C. A. Social Toniont.—The monthly social of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held tonight, under the direction of the young people of the the First Baptist Church. An attractive programme has been arranged, which will be given in the auditorium, followed by a social time in the parlors. followed by a social time in the parlors. The members of the association and their friends, both indies and gentlemen, are invited to be present.

S. C. BEACH (ex-County Recorder) invites his many friends to take notice of the new partnership formed with Mahn & Abbott, printers, 92 Second street. on the higher planes of higher vibrations; in other words, the higher one's thoughts are lifted, the vibrations are correspondingly increased. If, one wishes that "heaven within" spoken of by the Bible, increase the vibrations. When one thinks of hate, envy and evil, the vibrations are on a low plane, but when the thoughts are of goodness and brouty, the rate of vibrations are of an increased rate, and in so doing the thinker lifts himself to God. After the lecture, a great many questions were asked by the audience and

BAD OUTLOOK FOR SMELT.-Receipts of Columbia River smelt have fallen off of late, owing to the severe storm of Sun-day and the other days, which have driven the dittle fish back or to the botbut the take will rapidly increase when the weather becomes favorable, unless the immense quantity of smelt captured In the Cowlitz River last season, tons and tons of which, it is said, were wast-ed, has reduced the schools. The question of securing some protection for the smelt, to prevent wanton destruction and waste before the schools are exterminated, is now being discussed. This is a matter for the State of Washington to attend to, as the smelt now ascend the Cowlitz River only in search of spawning pools. They used to run up the Sandy in great numbers, but practically deserted that stream some years ago.
When the main school of smelt starts up the Cowlitz, it forms a solid column. the Cowiltz, it forms a solid column, which can be plainly seen by the fisher-men, who dip into it with scoop nets and load skiff after skiff till they have no more skiffs. Just how long that style of fishing can be carried on without exterminsting the fish remains to be seen.

MILE IS ALL RIGHT.-Samples of milk from two dairies not far from the city were secured Monday by Food Comcity were secured Monday by Food Com-missioner Balley. He took the precau-tion to be present at milking time, and saw the milk drawn into his jars. At this season, and after such a long-con-tinued spell of disagreeable stormy weather, it would not be surprising if the quality of the milk produced at any dairy should be a little below the standard, but upon making a test of the two samples upon making a test of the two samples mentioned to ascertain the amount of butter fat they contained, Mr. Balley was gratified to find that one yielded 2.6 per cent of butter fat and the other 3.9 per cent, the standard being 3.4 per cent. The cows in these dairies have evidently heen supplied with shorts, bran or other nutritious food, as they could not yield such milk on the grass now to be had. He is more interested in the quality of has been said and written about tubercattle and the bacilli in milk and many innocent cows have been killed on account of this; but the writings on these subjects are very contradictory, and therefore of little moment.

CHEAP APPLIE IN SACKS .- The sight of a ton or more of Spitzenberg apples in burlap sacks, piled on the sidewalk on Front street like a lot of potatoes, at-tracted the attention of many yeaterday, especially as the apples were from fiood River and were being sold at 75 cents a suck. Those who have been paying any-where from $1 to $2 per box for Hood River apples, when told that the sacks contained about two boxes each, began to imagine that apples must be getting ground for some time, and were solled and some were brutsed and some were wormy. When apples are high-priced it is in vain that one looks for good ones at cheap rates. The same may be said of delicious salads were prepared by Miss all other farm products and products of any kind, nearly all of which are higher than appears necessary these days. GET YOUR PLANTS AND PRIZES.-There awaiting owners of the plants, in a vacant store at the corner of Washington and Nineteenth streets. They are from the exhibition of flowers lately held in the Exposition building, under the auspices of the City Improvement Association. The plants and the prizes can be obtained by calling on George Otten, florist, near the Exposition building. Those whose plants have won prizes ought certainly to want both the plants and the prizes, and they must be worth looking after, but will not be if neglected much longer.

LOST THEIR TWO CHILDREN.-G. H. Hagman and wife are bunting for their two children, a boy and girl, aged 4 and 3 years, respectively. Mr. Hagman brought his family from Montana lately, and they have been stopping at the Grand Central Hotel. Yesterday they left the children in charge of a Swedish lady, residence unknown, but supposedly on Glisan, some-where between Fourteenth and Flitteenth streets. Being unable to find the house again, they were in great distress last night, and any information as to the whereabouts of the boy and girl will be thankfully received by them at the Grand PHES FOR RIDING ACADEMY.—Wake-field & Jacobson have completed the work of driving a number of piles on Johnson street, between Twenty-first and Twenty-second, to prevent the property of the old riding school, where some buildings are being removed, from caving down into the street. They are next going to drive a lot of piles at the old Pen-noyer mill, above town, to support an immense water tank to be erected there. An extensive apparatus for extinguishing fires has been put in there, with which the tank is to be connected.

QUARTERS FOR TWO ARTILLERY POSTS. Quarters for a one-battery artillery post are to be erected at Fort Worden, Wash, just north of the City of Port Townsend. Captain George H. Penrose, Constructing Quartermaster, has advertised for bids for the construction of 15 buildings there, It is also said that bids for the construc-tion of similar buildings at Fort Casey, on Whidby Island, across from Fort Wor-den, will also be asked for some Flueden, will also be asked for soon. Plans, specifications and instructions to bidders are on file in the office of the Depot Quartermaster in this city SECOND STMPHONT CONCERT.-The sec. ond symphony concert will be given Tuesday evening, December 9. The programme offers several novelties for orchestra, and Miss Elizabeth Patterson Sawyers, pinnist, will be heard for the first time in Portland.

ARRESTED ON SUSPICION.-Martin Hest. ness and Oscar Brown, two Swedes, were seen acting suspiciously last night at Second and Burnside streets, by Police-man Patton, and he locked them up at the City Jail, so that their records can be examined. CONGREGATIONAL BAZAAR this afternoon and evening. Free admission this after-noon. To the entertainment this even-ing, admission 10 cents.

Duschene, who is now lecturing in Portland, delivered the first of his addresses at 182 Sixth street last night to a large audience, on "Vibration the Law of Life." Professor Duschene will lecture again on Tuesday next, probably at some public hall, the lime and place to be announced in The Sunday Oregonian. Professor Duschene is a native of India, and bases all his conclusions and theories on proved physical laws of vibration. He began his lecture with a statement of the physical laws and the theory of vibration of atoms. By showing how the sevtion of atoms. By showing how the several vibrations produced sound, light, heat and color, he drew up the connection between them and the various grades of thought. Thoughts on low planes are productive of slow vibrations, and those on the higher planes of higher vibrations.

When he saw I had money, Lewis said that he wanted $2 from me, and that if I would not give up the money he would take it from me. We went to an American saloon, and after I had set up the drinks one of the men took me by the neck and the other one went through my pockets, taking about $3." One witness, F. A. Wyman, testified: "Joseph set up the drinks in the Chinese saloon, and ordered 'splitters,' a sort of Chinese gin, and paid 15 cents for the five of us." In defense, both Lewis and Blowell entered a flat denial of Joseph's charges.

OREGON PALM LEAF 18 INCHES LONG. Prespector Wells, of the O. R. & N., has brought down from the Morrow County coal field-a large piece of indurated clay with the perfect impress of a palm leaf tom of the river. Only seven pounds were 18 inches long. The leaf must have been received from Monday night's fishing. like that which, in these latter days, is like that which, in these latter days, is used for the palm leaf fan. Mr. Wells says a large section of the clay containing this leaf was broken off accidentally. The palms are supposed to have constituted a large part of the forest that was converted into coal in the course of the ages-the coal that Morrow County citizens hope to see mined in large quan-tities before many more months shall Several interesting palm impresses have been found in that region. This one, like it predecessors, found its way to Colonel Hawkins' museum in the City Hall. It come from the region where the three-toed horse and other prehistoric re-

ILLUSTRATED COURIER OUT .- The Illustrated Courier, a new publication to advertire Oregon, made its first appearance yesterday. It is a well-printed, well-filustrated weekly, bearing the legend "Devoted to the interests of the great Northwest and the promotion of the Lewis and Clark 1965 Centennial." In forme it is a quarto of 18 pages, and a cover and the contents include articles on the coming Fair, Oregon's resources, humorous stories, editorial comment and pages for women. Throughout it displays careful work, and its purpose will be amply fulfilled if the promise of the pres-ent number is carried out. Alfred D. Bowen is the editor, and he has a capa-ble staff of assistants. Among the conble staff of assistants. Among the contributors to the first issue are ex-Senator Corbett, Henry E. Reed and S. E. St. Amant. It will appear weekly hereafter, and will be complete in all departments ELKS TO HOLD MEMORIAL.-Final atrangements have been made for the annual memorial services of the Portland Lodge of Elks, and, from the announced programme, it will be one of the most interesting exercises ever held by the Portland Lodge. The Marquam has been secured, and the building will be opened the milk, as shown by the percentage of butter fat it yields, than he is in the question of tuberculosis. A great deal gramme are: Rev. SIX MONTHS FOR A CHINAMAN.-Ah Ling, a Chinaman who has been sent to jail for larceny several times during the past year, was again before Municipal Judge Hogue yesterday, charged with stealing carpenter's tools valued at $7 from C. Drennan, of Union avenue. The evidence was that Drennan caught the Chinaman in the act of stealing and pur-sued and caught him. Ah Ling, when asked what he had to say, shrugged his shoulders and went through a series of evolutions, as if illustrating how he could throw some one on the floor. He was

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

The Baker Next Week.

All next week at the Baker Theater, starting with Sunday mattinee, the popular Neill Stock Company will present the great play in which Marie Walnwright made one of the most distinct successes of her career and which Jacob Litt, the famous theatrical manager, produced to an enormous business in New York and London, "Shall We Forgive Her?" The play is one of exceptional metit and tells a story which is most interesting from beginning to end, there being several strong emotional scenes and an abundance of comedy of the kind that never fails to please. The play will be given a production at the Baker Theater next week that will rival the original and compare most favorably with that given The Baker Next Week. compare most favorably with that given it by Miss Wainwright.

C. F. Martin & Co. warrant all their instruments without limit as to time. As they express it: "We guarantee satisfaction in overy respect; if any defects appear we will repair them or replace the instrument and pay express charges both ways, the only rule being that such defects come by our fault in any way."

The value of such a warranty is not so much in the safety it gives as in the assurance that the work is done well in the first place. The makers of the Martin guitars and mandoins believe that there is a bright future for these instruments, and they are building for that future as well as for the present.

Visions of the Orient, with its mysteries and magnificence, are vividly portrayed in E. J. Carpenter's big production of "A Little Outcast." which comes to Cordray's for one week beginning with the matinee of Sunday, December 7. In this play, for the first time in any production, a correct view of a Chinese restaurant is given. It is conied any production, a correct view of a Chinese restaurant is given. It is copied from the big restaurant of Sing Fats, which is the pride of San Francisco's Chinatown, and its beauty is accentuated by the brilliant costumes of a party of society leaders who are out "sluming" after the theater. There are ming" after the theater. There are scenes in "A Little Outcast" which fairly take your breath away, and the enthusissm with which the best critics from New York to San Francisco have re-ceived it has greeted no other play of the season. It is the prominent success of the hour. One of the principal fea-tures is the Chicago Newsboys' Quartet. The usual ladies' and children's matinees will be given Saturday.
