MARQUAM GRAND THEATER - Tonight at 8:15, Thomas Jefferson as Rip Van Winkle. CORDRAY'S THEATER-This evening at 8:15, THE BAKER THEATER—This evening at 8:16. Neill Stock Company in "Shall We Forgive Her?"
TAYLOR-STREET M. E. CHURCH—This evening at 8:30, cantaia, "The Holy City."

TO FUENISH SCOTTISH RITE CATHEDRAL Now that the work of plastering and finishing the inside of the Cathedral of the Scottish Rite Masons has been commenced, the committee in charge of the turnslability. furnishing of the building is beginning to order furniture. This is going to be a somewhat extensive job, and is being taken in hand and disposed of by degrees, as it is too extensive and expensive a matter to be undertaken at once. Probably the first thing to arrive will be a $10,000 organ, exhibited by the Aeolian Company at the Pan-American Exposition, which has been ordered, and is to be shipped about January I. Residents in vicinity of the cathedral will mis take the deep roar of its double bass for thunder, and the reverberations from the music will turn all the milk within a mile bonnyclabber. A number of the t magnificent electrollers obtainable have been ordered through the Portland Gas Company from the Eastern manu-facturers, the cost of which will run away up to considerably over $10,000. For the seating of the auditorium 250 balcony chairs of the latest and most approved style were ordered vesterday by P. S. Maicolm. No expense is to be spared in furnishing the cathedral so that the in-terior shall compare well in beauty and deur with the exterior of the build-which when completed will be one of the sights of Portland.

SEVENTH-STREET IMPROVEMENT. - Seventh street is being improved, though the visible signs of it look fike anything but improvement. The concrete has been put down between Taylor and Yambill, and the block between Alder and Morrison will be finished, so far as the foundation goes, in three days. The contractor says the rain has seriously delayed the work, and in some cases has undone what had been supposedly completed. For the asphalt coating dry weather is absolutely es-sential, and the contractors sleep with one eye on the clouds and spend the day reading the weather reports and figuring out the probabilities of error. Several people have cast aspersions on the quality of concrete used, but explanations go that some defects were due to the mud and rain. In two or three places it had to be relaid in part. Until good weather comes the citizens that live above Seventh must bear with the inconveniences of mud and water and com-fort their souls with thoughts of the nice, shiny pavement that will be there next MINING MEN TOO MUCH FOR HIM .- A reporter whose duties require him to be out late at night was rather surprised when going home yesterday morning about 2 o'clock to fall in with a very respectable citizen on his way home. He looked as if he had been fooling with the flowing bowl. He said he had been talking business to half a dozen mining men from the borderland between Oregon and Idaho, and had made a deal with them about a piece of mining property. "Those men from elevated regions are Those men from elevated regions are great drinkers." said he. "I tried to keep sober-by taking mineral water and cigars occasionally till I drank all the mineral water of all kinds in the cafe, and had all my pockets filled with cigars, but I had to drink occasionally, and in the end began to feel boozy. I had 47 cigars in my pockets and smoked a dozen, besides handing cigars all around many times. I believe each of those men took over 100 drinks, and they were not in the least phased and did not want to go home till easy, so I came away."

INTEREST IN OREGON.—H. C. Allen, city assenger and ticket agent for the Nickel Plate Road, at Eric, Pa., was in Port-land Monday, and called at the Cham-ber of Commerce. He said in the course of his conversation that there was a great deal of inquiry going on in Penn-sylvania about Oregon, and that he was constantly in receipt of letters asking for information about this state. He was given 2000 pamphlets on the resources of on and 1000 Lewis and Clark leaflets, he promised to see that these were distributed among the prospective movers in his section of the country. He strongly advised the chamber to do some advertising in Pennsylvania, and the advertising committee has a plan under advisement for the distribution of Ore-gon literature throughout Middle Atlantic

THIS MAN A LONG TIME GONE.-A letter has been received by Auditor Devlin from Eusebe Chagnon, of Biddeford, Me., asking for information as to the whereabouts of her brother Aldolph, or Alfred Chagnon, who left home 50 years ago and intended to return in 1876, but has not been heard from since he left. The only information received by his relatives in regard to him was seen in a newspaper that a man by the name of Aldolph Jason was drowned in April, 1876, and as the missing brother has not been heard of since it is not known but that he was the man drowned. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of Mr. Chagnon, dead or alive, or of the man drowned, is asked to inform Miss Chagnon

DENTAL EXAMINATIONS END TODAY .he examinations given by the State loard of Dental Examiners has taken a longer time than was expected, and will not be completed before this afternoon. The work is going on smoothly and the applicants seem to be well satisfied with the questions that are asked. Today Dr. Beattle, of Oregon City, will examine the class in operative dentistry, and this will complete the examinations. This after-noon the board will meet and compare notes, and this evening a list of the successful applicants will be given out.

TO APPOINT LIVESTOCK DELEGATE-County Judge Webster has received a let-ter from C. F. Martin, secretary of the National Livestock Association, requesting him to appoint a delegate to attend the sixth annual meeting of the associawhich will be held at Kansas City on January 12, 14, 15 and 16. Judge Web-ster states that he will appoint some good livestock man who desires to go, must pay his own expenses, as the county has no livestock fund to draw upon.

LADY FINGER APPLES ARRIVE .- The pretty little rosy-cheeked apples called Lady Fingers, which are so much in de-mand at Christmas time for decorating Christmas trees, etc., are now coming into market. Like many other varieties of apples they are not so handsome this year as usual, not having such red cheeks or glossy skins, and many of them are rusty and scabby, which will lessen the demand for them, as they sold principally on their good looks.

WILL ADDRESS HIGH SCHOOL-Upon inwith abbress fries School.—Cool in-vitation of Professor Davis, principal of the Portland High School, Rev. Norman Howard Bartlett, who delivered the me-morial address for Portland Lodge of Elks Sunday afternoon will address the pu-plis of the High School at 1:20 o'clock this on. Mr. Bartlett's services are al-in demand in educational circles. and the High School pupils will no doubt

FOURTH-STREET PAVING TO BE COM-PLETED.—The work of improving the right of way of the Southern Pacific Company on Fourth street is rapidly near. ing completion. All the work remaining to be done is the paving of the right of way with wood blocks for a little over a block, and a full force of men are at work on this. The City & Suburban Railroad Company has completed the improvements to its line on Third street, and is push-ing the improvement on Morrison street as rapidly as possible. The public watches the increase of the work with patience. the progress of the work with patience, but all will be glad when this street, one of the busiest in town, is cleared of the rows of empty cement barrels which mark the improvement, and is open and free to traffic again. The various companies making such improvements have used all possible diligence and have got through with the work much faster than was expected, but the long-continued stormy weather has caused much delay, which was unavoidable. It is to be hoped that when another such mass of work is undertaken by any railway company some more favorable season will be chosen to

FRESHET TESTS SEWERS. - The large sewers which carry away the water from the canyons west of the city, as the Johnson Creek, Balch Creek and Marquam Gulch sewers, have this senson successfully withstood the severest test they have ever been put to, and have escaped so far without injury. They were all put in good order before the rains commenced. the gulches cleared of drift and rubbish as far as practicable, and the channels of the creeks paved at the entrance to the sewers to prevent small stones and gravel from being washed into them. Monday and Monday night the volume of water flowing into these sewers was greater than was ever known before. William Braden and his force were out in the rain a great part of the day and night watching to prevent obstruction of the sewers, and were out again before it was light yesterdey morning, but the precautions taken to prevent damage to the sewers appear to have been effective, and the usual expenditure for repairs to these big sewers is not likely to be necessary. CUTTING DOWN SHADE TREES. - The march of improvement has done away with nearly all the shade trees in the business part of the city and from the residence districts, especially the older settled ones, the trees are rapidly disappearing. Their absence in most cases

The soloist was Miss Elizabeth Patterson Improves the appearance of the At the corner of Front and Couch streets, where seven large poplars events, really made her debut in Portland last night. ROYAL ARCANUM ELECTS OFFICERS. ast evening Multnomah Council, Royal Arcanum, had an unusually fine meet ing. Three new members were initiated and the following officers were elected for and the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Regent, A. M. Ella-worth; vice-regent, E. C. Bronaugh; or-ator, K. Evans; secretary, J. E. Bro-naugh; treasurer, E. C. Mears; gollector, C. H. Gilbert; Chaplain, H. M. Carlock; guide, J. E. Lewton; trustee for three years, F. Dayton; warden, W. E. Pot-ter; sentry, D. G. Woodward. The fol-lowing resolution was, on motion of lowing resolution was, on motion George W. Hazen, enthusiastically adopted: "Resolved, That this council has been highly honored by the appointment of one of its past regents, the Hon. John Bar-rett, to be Minister to Japan; that we extend to him our congratulations and wish him all honor and success."

FINE OREGON MUTTON. - English pride themselves on their Southdown mutton, which their epicures pronounce the finest in the world. If the Southdown sheep are any larger or any fatter than some seen hanging in front of a Portiand market yesterday, which were raised by R. Scott, of Milwaukie, the epicures who have to eat them are to be pitied. The dressed carcasses weighed about 140 pounds each, and appeared to be mostly tallow. As they were raised and fattened on Oregon grass, clover, ctc., there could of course be no better flavored mutton produced anywhere.

OLD FORY KNEW. Experience Teaches People.

"My parents considered coffee simply a harmless beverage for old and young, so when a mere baby I commenced to drink it, and when I reached womanhood, found myself truobled with nervousness, headhe and an irritable temper and to obtain relief I drank more and more coffee, thus adding fuel to the fire.

"I grew worse until life was one black night of pain. My nerves were shattered, body wrecked with suffering, my stomach gave out and utterly refused to digest the most simple foods, and finally I lay for weeks starving and longing for food, but unable to eat more than just enough to keep me alive.

"While in this state, my next door eighbor brought in a fragrant cup that I supposed was some new grade of coffee, and, although I had suffered so ter-ribly from its effects, the temptation was too strong to resist, and I drank it with relish. I noticed it had a rich, agree-able taste, and I drank it without distress. She repeated the kindness two or it was not coffee that hurt me after all. I was assuring my friend of this one day when she astonished me by saying that I was not drinking coffee, but a pure food drink called Postum Food Coffee, made from nourishing grain for building up the system and nerves instead of tearing them down.

"I then began to drink Postum regularly, and to get well slowly but surely Today I am a strong, hearty woman; my nervous system is entirely rebuilt, and with a reserve force of strength in time of need; I sleep well and awake re-freshed and feel bright for each day's task, with no indigestion or stomach trouble, and a good, strong active brain ready for any mental strain or toll. "Rarely has the Portland Symphony Or chestra given a more able concert, from a true musical sense, than the one given last night at the Marquam Theater. The large audience was quick to recognize this fact, for the programme appealed to them and they gave encores to two orchestra numbers Mr. E. E. Coursen was happy in choosing the kind of music he presented and he conducted with dignity and author played by the orchestra was Mozart's "Symphony in D Major," adagto, allegro, andante and finale-presto, The opening movement is grand and inspiring, and in the andante the strings have a lovely mel-ody to work to a dainty, soft finish. The finale is not so strong as one would naturally expect after getting charmed with such a pleasing introduction. Mr. Coursen gave a strict, scholarly reading to Beetho ven's "Egmont" overture, but as an open-ing plece the overture did not shine. The tone quality is so odd. To hear Tschaltone quanty is so odd. To near tschai-kowsky's "In Autumn" was an unalloyed delight. It opened with a woodland mel-ody, plaintive yet not sad, with plenty of rich, warm color, and the finish was as dainty as could be, mostly sustained by cellos. The orchestral playing, particularly among the first violins, was excellent in this number, and it is little wonder the audience encored it. The favorite number was Delibes' intermezzo from "Naila," and it is the daintiest, the most fairy-like bit

Symphony in D Major.......Mozart Adagio-Allegro, Andante, Finale-Presto. mphony in D Major ....

Sawyers, planiste, who, although she has played at one or two of our musica best number was Rubinstein's famous "Etude in A Flat." She was an artist to her finger tips in this number, and it is no wonder she received a hearty encore. She graciously responded with a gay little plece, "Enfants du Bal" (Westerhout). Miss Sawyers holds the degrees of Mus. Bac. and A. C. M. from the American College of Musicians,

One of the greatest productions ever attempted by a stock company will be pre-sented at the Baker Theater all next week, starting with Sunday matines, when the Seill stock company will produce the great military play by Lee Arthur, "We-uns of Tennessee." This piece is conceded to be one of the best military plays ever produced in this country, and has achieved a magnificent success wherever it has been presented. The Nelli stock company will give a performance of "We-uns of Tennes-see" that will be perfect in every partic-ular, and the business at the Baker all the week will be up to the usual stand-ard of crowded houses at every perform-

COMING ATTRACTIONS. Jefferson Tonight.

Thomas Jefferson, as "Rip Van Winkle," will begin an engagement of two nights at the Marquam Grand The-ater tonight. The advance sale of seats mutton produced anywhere.

To Formulate Plans.—All persons inas the name of Jefferson is a trade-mark that generally fills the house, especially when he is to present "Rip Van Winkle." Nearly every man, woman and child is familiar with tains and the Village of Failing Water situated on the banks of the grand old Hudson River, long ago, when the Dutch held title to those lordly shores. Mr. held title to those lordly sub-Jefferson's performance of the happy-go-Jefferson's performance delightful. He "Rip" is simply delightful won the hearts of Portland people when here a year ago, and is sure of a hearty welcome this time.

> At Cordray's Next Week. The Vallori Sisters, now with "The Tel-ephone Girl" Company, are two pretty and vivacious soubrettes, who introduce a new and startling act, which captures the audience and never falls to bring sounds of applause. The "Telephone Girl' Company opens at Cordray's The-ater Thursday, December 18, and will be the attraction three nights, with usual Saturday matinee.

The Holy City. This evening at the Taylor-Street Methodist Church, corner Third and Taylor streets, the beautiful contata, "The Holy City," will be given, with Mrs. Reed, Mr. Zan, Mr. Belcher and other prominent soloists, a chorus of 60 voices and orchestra of 24 pieces. All are requested to be seats at the hour stated. The loors will be closed during the rendering of each number.

"The James Boys in Missouri."

Undoubtedly the greatest scenic produc-tion ever attempted on an American stage, which certainly takes foremost place in the list of new melodramas, is "The James Boys in Missouri," which is to be presented here shortly at Cordray's Theater. John Abbott and Harriett Less and a great company are in the cast.

Minstrels Coming. Primrose and Dockstader's Minstrels will be the attraction at the Marquam Grand Theater next Monday and Tuesday nights, December 15 and 16. The advance sale of seats will be placed on sale next Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

ONE AMONG A THOUSAND. "To Hell in a Pullman" Given Unstinted Praise.

The sale of seats for Norman Howard Bartlett's celebrated society lecture, "To Hell in a Pullman," opens at the Marquam Grand bexoffice this morning. It is a long time since the Portland public has had the opportunity of hearing a speaker of the ability of Mr. Bartlett, and those who expect an intellectual treat will not be disappointed. The lecture is pronounced one of the gems of the lecture world. Both press and pulpit are unanimo

There has already been a large demand for seats, and the probabilities are that the gifted speaker will be greeted by a large audience. Many who were unable to hear Mr. Bartlett at the Elks' memorial service Sunday will be glad of the op-portunity to hear him in a lecture that has brought him wide fame. The lecture will be delivered Friday night at the Marquam Grand Theater.

In reference to this lecture and the speaker the following press clippings may be of interest:

Norman Howard Bartlett's lecture at Byndicate Hall, Wednesday evening, en-titled "To Hell in a Pullman," was a masterly effort. Eloquent, dramatic and pathetic, it held the audience spell-bound throughout. It is not often one has the experiments to listen to such a scholarly opportunity to listen to such a scholarly polished orator as is Mr. Bartlett. Fee piatform speakers equal him in so many points of excellent.—Tracy Trumpet.

At the Agricultural College last night Norman Howard Bartlett appeared as the fourth attraction in the University lecture course. Mr. Bartlett's subject was "To Hell in a Pullman," a sattre on the prevailing shams of society. Over 500 students were present, and they were unanimous in pronouncing the lecture one of the star features of the course. As an orator Mr. Bartlett is regarded as one of the most able speakers of the Northwest.—The Times, Minneapolis.

WOMEN IN INDIA.

Dr. Temple Duchesne Lectures of Their Place in Hindoo Religion.

at the A. O. U. W. Hall on "Woman's Place in the Hindoo Religion." The theme of the address was to illustrate the fact that every country has its own ideals of religion and morality, and that the Hin-doos should not be unjustly judged by "The condition of women in India has been obtained from the reports of mission-aries who come in contact with the lower classes only," said Dr. Duchesne. "The Ve-das, the sacred book, was largely written by women, for at that time they held the same privileges as men. The Mohamme-dan invasion centuries ago necessitated changes in the customs for protection of the women and children, and, though these have lost their application, they have ever since continued. Both the Vedas and the political law gave women more rights than she now enjoys in America. The child marriages in the southern provinces are also due to the old invasion, for the young girls needed protection from the invaders. They were never sanctioned by the higher classes, and are gradually dying out. "The men in India are more intel-lectual than the women. The biblical con-ception of woman's place has stood in the way of her development. In America, to-day, woman is the intellectual and relig-ious inferior." In closing, Dr. Duchesne said: "It is entirely unjust to judge those of a differ-ent standard of morals by your own par-ticular standard."
