MARQUAM GRAND THEATER - Tonight at 8:15, Thomas Jefferson as Rip Van Winkle. THE BAKER THEATER-This evening at 8:15. Neill Stock Company in "Shall We Forgive Her?" CORDRAY'S THEATER-This evening at 8:15, SEWER BROKEN.—The fact that the outset of the Madison-street sewer was broken in several places by the workmen driving piles for the repair of the approach to the Madison-street bridge was noticed a short time ago, but no particular attention was attracted to the matter, as terra-cotta pipes are easily broken by driving piles through them. Now a six-inch cast-fron sewer pipe has been broken at the foot of Ankeny street. It was put in by the Dekum estate from the property sold to SEWER BROKEN.-The fact that the out-Dekum estate from the property sold to Closset & Devers to the river. Smyth & Howard bought the wharf property at the foot of Ankeny street about the same time, and in some manner a lot of heavy of timber were thrown into the pen trench on top of the iron sewer, reaking it in several places and stopping the flow of sewage from Messrs. Closset & Devers' property. It is going to be a terrible job to get under or through the ilmber to reach and repair the broken sewer, but who will have to stand the cost is not yet decided. A lawsuit is likey to be started against the parties who made to force them to repair the ewer. There is trouble ahead for som

BRIDAL VEIL MILL REBUILDS.—The Bridal Veil Lumbering Company, whose mill was burned last September, is hard at work making preparations for building a new and larger and more modern one. The mill burned was two miles back from the O. R. & N. Railroad, but the new one is to be 4% miles back. The comany bought a small sawmill and has set up near where the new mill is to be built, and it is kept busy sawing material for the new mill. This is to be a band-saw mill of the latest and most improved style, with a 14-inch saw. The machinery for it has been contracted for, to be de-livered March 1, 1903. The company has a callroad from the old site to the new mill, and will soon be in the lumber manufac-turing business on a larger scale and more favorable conditions than ever.

ROYAL ARCH MASONS ELECT OFFICERS regular meeting of Washington Chapter, No. 18. Royal Arch Masons, last night the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: J. W. Rowland, excellent high priest; G. W. Shellenbarger, king; H. Davis, scribe; E. E. Sharon, secretary; S. Bullock, treasurer; J. H. Rich-mond, captain of host; H. B. Adams, principal sojourner; Clyde Evans, royal arch captain; M. J. Canning, master third veil; F. A. Van Kirk, master second veil; H. H. Parker, master first veil; T. H. Brickell, sentinel. Immediately following election the officers were installed by Most Excel-lent Grand High Priest W. A. Cleland, Past High Priest W. J. Fullam acting as delays in street improvement work of late. ed by bad weather, have not had the undertaking more such improvements, Bids were advertised for yesterday for the improvement of portions of five streets in different parts of the city, the improvements aggregating two miles in length, Bids were also called for for the construc-tion of a brick and stone sewer in Cook wenue, which is to be about two miles ong and from 24 to 60 inches in diameter. It will drain a large portion of Upper Albins and adjoining tracts covering over 400

CHINESE INJURED,—A laundryman who works for On Lee, 311 Burnside, was thrown from a west-bound car last night on Thirteenth and Washington and painfully bruised. It was shortly after 9 o'clock, and in the darkness it was not noticed that the man had rolled across the pavement and was senseless. The conductor of the Thirteenth-street car saw him there on the next trip down and picked him up. The patrol wagon was called and the Chinaman, who had par-tially recovered, was taken to his place of business, as he refused to go to the sta-tion to have his wounds dressed.

MONUMENT FUND GETS $20.—The mem-Battalion, O. N. G., which was disbanded in May last, had in their treasury at the time $20. It was placed in the hands of Lieutenant N. M. Sloan to be turned over to the soldiers' monument fund. Owing to circumstances, it was impracticable to do this until yesterday, when Lieutenant Sieen paid the money over to the treasurer of the fund according to his directions. This notice is intended to inform the members of the division, now widely scattered, that thier wishes have been attended to SIX NEW DENTISTS.-Six of the ten applicants for dental diplomas successfully passed the examination which was con-ducted by the State Board of Dental Examiners Monday, Tuesday and Wednes-day. The successful ones were: B. H. Kaser, Allen C. Tucker and M. D. Carlisle, of Portland; A. B. Eastham, of Vancou-ver, Wash; H. B. Nehrbas, of Monmouth, and E. E. Bailey, of Salem. The four who failed made a good showing, but they did not meet the requirements set by the board, and their applications were re-

FOUND RIPE RASPBERRIES. - Misse Mamie Keyes and Alice Gilbert, of this city, while out at Montavilla yesterday, cured a large handful of sprays of rasp berry bushes on which were fully ripe berries of good size and flavor, half grown berries of good size and havor, hair grown and green, or in buds and blossoms. These sprays were secured by reaching over a fence, but enough ripe berries were seen to fill a crate. If there is a little fine weather between now and Christmas there will be lots of fresh strawberries and raspberries in the market.

Onio Society.-The Ohio Society will hold its regular monthly meeting at Elks' Hall, Friday evening, December 12, at 8 o'clock. Matters of unusual interest will be brought before the society. Judge Caples will deliver an address, and all Ohloans are earnestly requested to be

MR. BARTLETT DID NOT LECTURE.-Norman Howard Bartlett was unable to de-liver his lecture, "The Giory of a High Ideal." at the High School yesterday aftermoon, on account of a severe headache.
CHARLES CROCK MISSING.—Charles Crock, 13 years old, of Woodstock, is missing from his home. He disappeared last Monday, and wore a dark cap, dark overalls

Newly Wedded Couple Fined.—
George Emery and his wife Lillian were married at Vancouver, Wash., Tuesday, and when they came to this city in the evening they had a few drinks at a Third-street saloen, when Emery saw a man there who had a grudge against him. A free fight immediately started, which was stopped by the arrival of Policemen Bailey and Gibson, and the Emerys and William Armstrong were locked up at the police and Gisson, and the Emery and which Armstrong were locked up at the police station, but not before Mrs. Emery had given the police her opinion of them in no measured terms. Armstrong secured his release soon afterward on ball, but when the case was called yesterday at the Mu-nicipal Court he failed to answer his name and a bench warrant was issued for his arrest. George Emery was detained for a further hearing in the sum of $100 bail. Mrs. Emery pleaded guilty to using objectionable language and was fined $30

BUTCHER'S HORSE PLAYS A TRICK.— Drivers of delivery wagons in stormy weather should not stay too long in houses delivering articles and leave their horses exposed to the storm, as some horses understand their rights in such cases. The driver of a butcher's delivery wagon lingered an unreasonably long time in a house at Fourteenth and Taylor streets a day or two ago, when it was raining torrents. The horse waited a reasonable length of time for him, and then trotted off with the wagon to a place where he knew he could find shelter. The driver put in a few hours paddling about in the rain seeking for the horse and wagon before he found them. Hereafter, when he desires to linger by a hot stove, he will tie up his horse.

MIKE HOUSTON FINED. "Mike Hous-ton!" called out Jailer Roberts in the Municipal Court yesterday, and a colored man stepped out of the prisoners' pen. "Is your name Mike?" queried Municipal Judge Hogue. "Sure," replied the prisoner. "When we arrested this man for vagrancy he said he had often been in fall, and would as soon be in jail again as not," stated Policeman Balley, "I came from Spokane," remarked Houston. "Are you a traveler, or is this your permanent place of residence?" he was asked, and he grinned broadly. "The sentence is 15 days in jail, then you can continue your travels," concluded the Judge, ARRESTED ON LARCENY CHARGE.-Simo and Nathan Shepps were arrested yester day on Morrison street near Eleventh by Detectives Ford and Cordano, charged with larceny on the complaint of Lawyer P. H. Ward. When searched one defendant had $10 in his possession and the other $20. It is charged that they are keeping a picture of Mr. Ward's wife and refuse to return it. The picture was given them on the understanding that they would enlarge it, and it is charged that they afterward declined to deliver it to the owner unless he paid them more money than is called for in the contract, RECEPTION TO MR. BARTLETT.-The Portand Lodge of Elks will this evening tender Norman Howard Bartlett, the distin-gulshed lecturer, who delivered the annual nemorial address last Sunday, an in-formal reception at the lodgeroom. In consequence of this function there will be no initiations. As there are a great many Elks in the city who have not had the pleasure of personally meeting Mr. Bartlett, the reception tonight will offer the opportunity. A largely attended meeting may therefore be expected. CAMBRA CLUB EXHIBIT.-The Oregon Camera Club's eighth annual exhibit is now on at the clubrooms, second floor Oregonian building. This exhibition is ree to the public, and will be open from to 11 P. M. each day during the week. Catalogues descriptive of the prints are rovided for visitors, DEATH OF EBERT E. THOMPSON .- Ebert E. Thompson, 23 years old, a hotel-keeper of Dallas, died yesterday at St. Vincent's Hospital after a short illness from an at-tack of appendicitis. He leaves a widow and one child. He will be buried at his former home at Lebanon.

ARRESTED FOR HAVING GAME.—L. L. Schumann will have a hearing today before Municipal Judge Hogue, charged with having in his possession game out of season, which was sent to California MR. AND MRS. BAKER, the blind singers will sing at the midweek meeting of First Congregational Church this evening. All are cordially invited to attend. VEGETARIANS TO MEET .- The Oregon Vegetarian Society meets this eve 183 Sixth street at 8 o'clock. All interest ed in the subject are invited.

AT THE THEATERS "Rip Van Winkle."

Rip Van Winkle.....Thomas Jefferson Derrick von Beekman... Walter Colligan Cockles, his nephew....A. M. Andrews Stine .......J. A. Hyde Little Meenie ..... Little Reenie Hendrick Vedder ......James Dolan Seth Vedder .....John Walsh

worthy successor to his famous father in the role of "Rip," opened at the Marquam last evening, Whether or not one had ever before seen this fine play, handled by either Thomas or his father, one could have only the feeling of satisfaction at having witnessed a work of art. There is little comparison between father and son as "Rip," for the reason that they are practically twins in this character The similarity extends even to the tone and the remarkable control of voice. In this respect the younger man is thought by many to have an advantage. One never has the impression that "Rip" has any worry about being heard. At times his voice is but a murmur, yet never a word or intonation is lost to the auditor in the remotest corner. One does not see finer work on the stage than in the scene where Rip leaves home, and again—in the last act—when he greets and discovers him-self to his daughter. Thomas Jefferson will surely keep up the name made famous by his illustrious father and ancestors. The company is good throughout. Annette Marshall makes an ideal Gretchen. She makes a far more lovable character of it, of course, than one can imagine of Rip's wife in Irving's tale. No one can blame Gretchen for developing shrewish-ness as the wife of such a sorry, goodhumored good-for-nothing as Rip was. One is divided in affection for Rip and sympathy for her, but can scarcely withhold approval for her act in driving him forth from their home. As Derrick von Beekman, Mr. Walter

Colligan displays fine perception of all the possibilities in the character of the rascally old curmudgeon. His voice, gestures and general make-up render the bullying of Gretchen by old Derrick so realistic that it seems a wonder that a little spirit of fighting resentment does not animate the rheumatic and weather-besten bones of old

The very clever stage work of the chil-dren, Little Reenie and little Willie Fink, quite won the audience. There are tiny artists The scenery and the stage setting gen-erally is excellent. The company will be seen for the last time tonight.

AN IDEAL PRODUCTION. Shall We Forgive Her?" Most Admirably Presented at the Baker. It is seldom that audiences leave a theater so well satisfied and thoroughly pleased as are those which file out of the Baker Theater every night after witnessing a performance of the Nelll Stock Company, and especially so is the fact this week. The bill, "Shall We Forgive Her?" is a beautiful domestic drama which is being presented in a style far beyond that of the majority of the productions of the present day, even by metropolitan com-panies., The cast for this splendid play is an exceptionally capable one, and the stage settings and environment are all and more than one could desire. For such a production only words of commenda-tion can be said. A better poised company of players than the Neill Stock Com-pany is seldom seen, even at the theaters of the larger Eastern cities playing only the high-priced attractions, and the great question which arises in one's mind after witnessing one of its performances is How can such high-class entertainments be given at such low prices as those at the Baker? Nevertheless the fact remains that Manager Baker is surely giving his patrons the best entertainmer for the money ever given in the West.

Beyond a doubt the most attractive trip across the continent is via the Canadian pacific. If you are contemplating a trip to any point East, call at 142 Third street, where you will be presented with a book-let descriptive of this great scenic route.

Are as popular as ever. As an entertainer at home they are unexcelled.

Every pleasure that sound can give is condensed on its cylinders, and the privilege of "boxing" your own and your friends' voices for future use is a neverfailing source of enjoyment.

Its variety is inexhaustible, for as long as human genius keeps on producing new music, new recitations, new instruments, the phonograph goes on making permanent the otherwise fleeting pleasure.

The charm of the enjoyment depends on the clearness and accuracy of the reproduction, and for this reason the Edison phonograph gives greater satisfaction than any other device sold for this purpose.
