

NOTES TURNED OVER

Washington Will Let Venezuela Try It Alone.

TALK OF THE COMMISSION

Bowen May Be Asked to Represent the South American Republic in Dealing With the Europeans.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—The Venezuelan government now is in possession of the complete notes of Great Britain and Germany containing the various reservations made by those governments before the decision was reached that the issues between Venezuela and the European governments having claims against her should be referred to the Hague tribunal for arbitration. The United States has acted as intermediary in the steps leading up to the acceptance of arbitration, and now turns over to the Venezuelan government the formal work of completing the basis for full hearing before the Hague. The notes were transmitted to the Venezuelan government through Minister Bowen at Caracas.

There were no new features to the situation here today. Officials are hopeful that the governments interested will work harmoniously and conscientiously to reach an early and final solution of the trouble. The Administration is anxious that there soon may be amelioration of the blockade. It is certain this Government will use every effort to have the blockade called off pending consideration of the questions at issue by the Hague tribunal, for the double reason that its continuance is always a menace to peace and order and because of the harmful effects on American shipping to Venezuelan ports. Just what the allied governments have determined upon in that regard it is difficult to say, as Secretary Hay has uniformly refused to make public their reservations and demands as a preliminary to arbitration, feeling that such information should come from the governments themselves.

FORMATION OF THE COMMISSION.

Suggestions as to Its Membership—Castro Has Not Accepted.

CARACAS, Dec. 28.—United States Minister Bowen and Lopez Baralt, Venezuelan Minister of Foreign Affairs, held a long conference last night. Mr. Bowen, obeying instructions from Washington, conveyed to Senator Baralt President Roosevelt's refusal to act as arbitrator in the Venezuelan difficulty. The Venezuelan minister said that he would accept the international peace court at the Hague, which had been expressly organized to consider questions in which the honor of a country or the disposition of territory was not concerned. He suggested the organization of a commission to sit in Washington, the allied powers to be represented on this commission by their Ambassadors to the United States, and Venezuela by a delegate. The commission is to sign a document setting forth the matters to be decided at the Hague court. Mr. Bowen said also that Germany would not press for an immediate payment, and that she had agreed to accept a guarantee based on a percentage of the custom receipts.

As a result of this conference, Senator Baralt telegraphed President Castro to return from La Victoria. The President will reach here tomorrow and Venezuela's answer to the foregoing proposal will be given then. It is understood that Venezuela will make any concession, even abandoning her demand that her navy be returned. Through the Venezuelan delegation's comment, the Venezuelan government will ask the United States to lift at once. Senator Baralt has expressed the desire that Minister Bowen represent Venezuela on the commission. If Mr. Bowen declines, the post office it is suggested in official circles that it be given to W. W. Russell, secretary of the American Legation.

Senator Baralt has prepared the following statement for the Associated Press: "Venezuela agrees to pay all her debts, the payments to be guaranteed by a certain percentage of the customs receipts or by the formation of a special loan, also to be guaranteed by the customs receipts to submit the issue to the Hague will be acceptable to President Castro. I am sorry that President Roosevelt was unable to act as arbitrator." Senator Baralt has suggested to President Castro the promotion to higher rank of Senator Pulido, Charge d'Affaires of the Venezuelan government in Washington, and the appointment of Isaac Capriles, son-in-law of the late President Crespo, as Secretary of Legation.

Venezuelan Revolutionists Active. WILLEMSTAD, Curacao, Dec. 28.—The Venezuelan revolutionists have resumed active hostilities against President Castro. There occurred yesterday morning a lively engagement between 1200 revolutionists under General Riera and government forces at Caracas against President Castro. Details of the engagement are lacking, but it is known here that the revolutionists had artillery. The government forces were commanded by General Benfante. The battle was a tactical draw, and the revolutionists retained their position. The armistice between the government and the revolutionists has just expired.

Strategic Stroke Against Castro. WILLEMSTAD, Curacao, Dec. 28.—News has reached here from an authoritative source in Caracas that Vicente Gomez, First Vice-President of the Republic, intends to carry out a bold strategic stroke against President Castro. General Zolito Vedal and five other leading supporters of General Matos, who had sought refuge here, left the island of Curacao early this morning in a sailboat, which took them to the direction of Curacao, near Coro, on the Venezuelan coast. The departure of these men is taken as proof that the revolt against President Castro is again active.

Steamer Lands at La Guayra. LA GUAYRA, Dec. 28.—The Red D. Line steamer Maracibo arrived here this afternoon at 3 o'clock and entered the port. She had on board 1000 passengers and received passengers and mails for La Guayra. Afterward she left for Willemstad.

The British cruiser Charlybids passed this port yesterday, going in a westerly direction. She communicated with the British cruiser Tribune. The Charlybids returned from the West this afternoon and continued in the direction of Trinidad.

Blockade Will Continue. LONDON, Dec. 28.—A dispatch to the Central News from Rome says it has been semi-officially announced that under special agreements the blockade of the Venezuelan coast by the allies will continue during the arbitration of the issues.

Mexican Plague Abating. MAZATLAN, Mexico, Dec. 28.—There is a better feeling, now that the plague has somewhat abated in virulence. The energetic measures taken by the authorities have had excellent results. The people

Celebration of Golden Jubilee in Progress at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 28.—The golden jubilee of the Passionist Fathers in the United States is being celebrated in the monastery of St. Paul of the Cross. The first session was opened this morning at 10:30 with a solemn blessing of a marble Calvary group over the altar and a solemn pontifical mass. The blessing of the Calvary group was conducted with much religious pomp by Cardinal Gibbons. In the sanctuary were: Right Rev. Bishop Phelan, presiding; next to the cardinal, Most Rev. Archbishop Ryan of Philadelphia; Most Rev. Archbishop Elder, Right Rev. John W. Shinnahan, Right Rev. P. J. Donahue, Right Rev. Leo B. Egan, and a number of prelates, dignitaries and priests, of this and other dioceses.

The afternoon service commenced at 2:30 o'clock with solemn pontifical vespers and benediction. Archbishop P. J. Donahue, of Wheeling, acted as celebrant at vespers with the Passionist fathers as chanters in copes. Mass will be offered tomorrow morning at 10:30 for the deceased, Archbishop Burke of Albany. Before the celebration Cardinal Gibbons will be present at the mass, but will leave at 1 o'clock in a special car over the Baltimore and Ohio for Wheeling, W. Va., where he will give a reception by Bishop P. J. Donahue.

BOXERS UNSUCCESSFUL.

Several Citizens Beheaded Because in League With Rebels.

VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 28.—According to advices received by the steamer Tartar, the Boxer rising in Sze Chuan continued and another attack was made on Chengtu in November. While some of the rebels battered the gates another body stormed the outer fortifications, and the soldiers fought desperately and ultimately defeated the Boxers, killing many and capturing some. Had the fort been captured by the Boxers the city would have been the property of the rebels. The captives were tortured and from information given under this pressure several citizens were arrested, charged with being in league with the rebels, and all were beheaded. Before the execution a messenger arrived from the Boxers demanding the release of the prisoners. The messenger was hanged in a cage.

Human copies of the Shanghai papers send particulars regarding the execution of Major Liu, the Chen Chou military official, who refused to protect the murdered missionaries, Bruce and Lewis, from the mob. The execution was demanded by the British government and China forced to accede after a naval demonstration at Hankow. The condemned man was taken from the yamen by a British soldier and taken to a place outside the city walls, where he was beheaded. He was clad in his official uniform. The execution was witnessed by a large number of foreigners from the tower over the city gate. After the execution the remains were wrapped in a red wrapper by the Magistrates, and all were buried in a common grave.

Before leaving Pekin en route to Washington, Su Liang Cheng, who will replace Wu Ting Fang as Chinese Minister to the United States, was given a medal and a large bouquet by the Empress Dowager, with whom he was in audience for some hours.

News was received from Bangkok of a collision between the German steamship Riever between the North German Lloyd steamer Pira Chom Kiao and the East Indian Company's steamer Kelantan, the latter sinking in a few minutes. No lives were lost. The bark Aberystwyth Castle, which was dismasted 250 miles off Yokohama as before reported, has been sold to Japan. Yokohama and the crew sent to New York.

SICK AND THE DEAD.

Death of Benevolent Catholic. MISHAWAKA, Ind., Dec. 28.—Very Rev. August B. Oechtering, rector of the Catholic Church for 46 years, and dean of the fifth Indiana district, died here this afternoon, after an illness of two months. He was educated at Cincinnati, and ordained there. Dean Oechtering was one of the best-known Catholic clergymen in the Central West. His age was 62 years. He inherited wealth from his parents in Germany, but devoted all to the parish here.

Sudden Death of Michigan Historian. DETROIT, Dec. 28.—Silas Farmer, author and publisher of a two-volume history of Michigan, and a recognized authority on history of the Northwest, died suddenly today at his residence in this city. Death was due to acute indigestion. Mr. Farmer, who was 61 years old, was a Fellow of the American Geographical Society, and was a well known as a lecturer.

Funeral Services. NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Funeral services for the late Nat Salsbury were held today, at the services of the Masonic Fraternity. Rev. Dr. Burdell of Forest Hill, a life-long friend of the dead soldier, preached the sermon. Many prominent theatrical people were in attendance.

Catholic Priest Dead. TIFFIN, O., Dec. 28.—Rev. John P. Puetz, aged 70, rector of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, in this city, died in Las Vegas, N. M., last night, where he was spending the winter for his health.

Cornelius Vanderbilt Improving. NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—Cornelius Vanderbilt continues to improve. His temperature is slowly dropping toward normal and the attending physicians are well satisfied with his progress.

PASSIONIST FATHERS.

Celebration of Golden Jubilee in Progress at Pittsburg.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, Dec. 24.—People in Washington are taking a lively interest in the various Senatorial elections to be held in Oregon, and special interest is manifested in Oregon. It being a foregone conclusion that Simon will not return, Oregon people are frequently asked concerning his successor. Some additional interest is manifested because it is well known here that Commissioner Hermann, of the General Land Office, has Senatorial aspirations, and it is expected that he will be on the ground when the Legislature meets, looking after his fences.

Hermann's position has evoked considerable interest because it is a well-known fact that the Commissioner is expected to resign as Commissioner of the General Land Office soon after the Oregon elections last June. Why this resignation has not taken place cannot be fully explained. The arrangement was made with the late President McKinley, and grew out of the friction that occurred between Secretary Hitchcock and the Commissioner. Western men who do not approve of Hermann's administration, and who are not in favor of the matter, got to a point where President McKinley would have to dispense with his Secretary of the Interior or with his Commissioner of Land Affairs. Then came the awful tragedy at Buffalo, and while this did not absolve Hermann from the arrangement that he should retire, the new President did not like enforcing it after the Oregon election, especially as large appropriations were made each year by the general government for the support of the militia. The prospects are that this bill in some amended form will get through before the end of the year, and that the bill is not yet pronounced, and is confined to a few of the Southern Senators who generally find something to split hairs over. The most unfortunate feature of it is that it would give a general staff rights discussion, and this could be made the pretext of occupying the time of the Senate indefinitely.

SHERMAN STRUCK CORK.

Damaged, but Proceeded to Manila Under Own Steam.

MANILA, Dec. 28.—The United States Army transport Sherman struck a rock near San Antonio Light south of Luzon, Friday night. The transport was damaged, but proceeded to Manila under her own steam, and arrived here today.

Suppressing Ladroneism. MANILA, Dec. 28.—Governor Taft's energetic expeditions looking to the suppression of ladroneism have produced unusual activity in this direction. Numerous Municipal Presidents in the provinces of Cavite, Laguna and Batangas have been Constabulary in running down the bandits.

Pope Against Philippine Church. ROME, Dec. 28.—The Tribune says the pope has ordered the archbishop of Manila to indicate in more definite terms his endeavor to promote the creation of a national church in the Philippines.

POISONED BY WINE. Fatal Peace Offering After a Serious Misunderstanding. CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—Poisoned, it is charged, by means of a bottle of wine, given as a Christmas present, Richard Cummings, 50 years of age, died today at the home of Mrs. Lizette Shanahan, 423 Ashland avenue, Chicago.

The man who gave the wine, Mrs. Theresa Moniak, and their 14-year-old daughter, Mary, of 423 Ashland avenue, were arrested on suspicion of having poisoned Cummings.

A bitter quarrel is said to have taken place between Cummings and Mrs. Shanahan, on the one side, and the Moniahs on the other. The wine, according to the story told the police, was given to Mrs. Shanahan by Mary Moniak on behalf of her parents, as a peace offering.

Mrs. Shanahan drank some of it and said she suffered from acute indigestion. She offered some of the wine to her niece, who complained that it tasted bitter. Cummings drank the remainder, and died within 24 hours.

"DOLLIE EARL" IDENTIFIED. Rochester Girl Wife of New York Saloonkeeper. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 28.—Dollie Earl, the actress, who last night committed suicide in her dressing-room at a burlesque house, was today identified as Dollie Allen, daughter of Mrs. Wm. Allen of Rochester, N. Y. The identification was made by Mrs. Meyers, of this city, who said she had known the actress since childhood. Mrs. Meyers stated also that Miss Allen was married to Frank Bauermeister, proprietor of a saloon in New York. Her grandfather was John T. Allinger, who, according to Mrs. Meyers, was a wealthy man in Rochester, and who, at his death, left his business to T. J. Allen, the girl's father. Dollie Earl, as she was known on the stage, formerly sang with some of the leading opera companies, but about eight years ago her voice failed, and she appeared with various burlesque companies. The coroner has not yet heard from any of her relatives.

HUMBERTS GO TO PARIS

SPANISH AUTHORITIES TURN THEM OVER TO FRENCH.

They Are Objects of Much Curiosity Along the Way—Mrs. Humbert Is Indignant.

PARIS, Dec. 28.—The train bringing to Paris the members of the Humbert family, who were arrested in Madrid, was due to arrive at 4:30 o'clock tomorrow morning, but owing to an accident to a brake it was two hours late at the Spanish frontier, thereby missing connections with the Paris express at Bordeaux. In their anxiety to reach Paris, an assembling of crowds and demonstrations upon the arrival of the Humberts, the authorities here refuse to say at what station the prisoners will leave the train. The precautions probably were taken by the delay in arriving, as it now seems probable that the train will reach Paris in broad daylight, instead of, as intended, in the darkness of early morning. It is possible that the prisoners will be taken from the train at some station outside the city and thence conveyed secretly to prison. Cells at the Conciergerie have been prepared for their reception.

At Hendaye, on the Spanish frontier, the car containing the prisoners was detached from the Madrid train outside the station on the Spanish side of the frontier, and the Humberts were hurried into a French car held in readiness, and handed over to the French officials. After this had been done the Spanish police retired. The change of cars was accomplished so rapidly that the waiting crowd barely caught a glimpse of the party, but it greeted the prisoners with ironical cheers and hurrahs. This greatly enraged Mrs. Humbert.

After the car had been attached to the French train the journey was continued. Large crowds gathered at all the stations along the line, and waited for hours in the hope of seeing the Humberts. They were disappointed, however, as the blinds of the car were kept closely drawn.

At Bordeaux the Humberts car was attached to the fast train, which is scheduled to arrive here at 7:30 tomorrow morning.

FRENCH OFFICERS QUARREL.

Allegation and Denial of a Personal Encounter. PARIS, Dec. 28.—The Figaro this morning says that Admiral Gervais recently had a personal encounter at the Ministry of Marine with M. Pelletan, the Minister of Marine. M. Tisserand, the Admiral with his hat, and was afterward ordered out of the office by the Admiral. The matter will come up at the Council of Ministers tomorrow.

Admiral Gervais, until he was retired the other day, owing to having reached the limit of his age, waited for hours in the hope of seeing the Humberts. They were disappointed, however, as the blinds of the car were kept closely drawn.

The Matin this morning publishes an interview with the French politician, who denies that there has been any personal encounter between Admiral Gervais and M. Tisserand. M. Pelletan says the last time the Admiral appeared at the Ministry of Marine was when he called to take leave on his retirement. His interview on this occasion with M. Pelletan was most courteous. M. Pelletan says the Admiral has never complained of M. Tisserand.

Japanese Elections in February. TOKIO, Japan, Dec. 28.—The Imperial Diet reassembled today. The House of Representatives was immediately dissolved by imperial order; the House of Peers was prorogued until the elections have been held for February.

The dissolution of the Diet is due to the opposition of the party leaders to the government's plan to raise money for the naval program by increasing the land tax. The leaders refused the government's offer to compromise by reducing the tax. The opposition desired that the land tax be abolished, and that the funds for the naval increase be provided from other sources.

Archduke Objects to Exile. VIENNA, Dec. 28.—According to an interview published in the Reichs-Anzeiger, Leopold has refused to sign a renunciation of his rights as an Austrian subject. Emperor Francis Joseph insists that the Archduke resign everything and never return to Austria. The Archduke claims the payment of his appanage, and declares that he will take every legal step to fight against exile. He says he will never abandon his rights as an Austrian subject.

The Saxon Princess Scandal. GENEVA, Dec. 28.—Newspapers here allege that the Swiss government has refused the request of the German Legation to extradite the Crown Princess of Saxony from Switzerland.

BRUSSELS, Dec. 28.—The Petit Bleu has published the following story of his relation with the Crown Princess of Saxony, in which he admits the paternity of her sixth child.

Russian Y. M. C. Meeting. ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 28.—The third annual meeting of the Russian Young Men's Christian Association under the patronage of Prince Oldenburg was held here tonight. Among those present were Prince Oldenburg, Senator Taganov, E. L. Nobel and Franklin Gajdar. The Russian branch of the association is now nearly self-sustaining, and its membership in the last year has largely increased.

Russian Earthquakes. ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 28.—An earthquake shock, which lasted 23 seconds, was felt today at Bigke, in the government of Pskov.

The Governor-General of Turkestan, in a report to the Czar on the Andijan disaster, says he hopes that within a month it will be possible to find temporary accommodations for the troops and authorities at the devastated city.

Dined With Dowager Empress. PEKIN, Dec. 28.—The ladies of the American Legation and Lieutenant-General Miles and his party were entertained at luncheon today by the Dowager Empress and Emperor. United States Minister Conger also gave a diplomatic dinner in honor of the General. Tomorrow the Minister will dine at dinner with a number of Chinese officials to meet General Miles.

Chinese Post-Office Service. SHANGHAI, Dec. 28.—Yuan Shai Kai, viceroy of Chi Li Province, has drawn up plans for the formation of a department of communications on the Japanese model. His plans have received general sanction. The new department is to be entrusted entirely to the control and management of the Chinese postal service.

Earthquake in Sicily. ROME, Dec. 28.—A severe earthquake shock was experienced at Syracuse, Sicily, this evening. It was preceded by subterranean rumblings.

Japanese Tribute to Dead Minister. VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 28.—The Japanese papers received by the steamer Tarant, both foreign and vernacular, refer in sympathetic terms to the career in Japan of the dead American Minister, Colonel Buck. The Advertiser, Mail, Gazette and Herald, of Yokohama, and Japan Times, of Tokio, all say, in the course of lengthy articles, that Colonel Buck was always the gentleman, and his loss will be sorely felt not only every American, but also the Japanese.
