Mrs. Tingley Testifies in Point Loma Libel Case.

SHE DENIES ALL CHARGES

Did Not Starve Children or Endeavor to Abolish Marringe-Much Evidence Adverse to Her Shut Out by Rulings of Court.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 1 -- Catherine Tingley was placed upon the stand as her own witness in rebutting the testimony of the defendant in the trial of her action for libel against the Los Angeles Times, All of the principal charges made against her and the Point Loma institution, of which she is the official head, were read to her, and she denied them seriatim. She made a cool, deliberate witness, and oc-cupled the stand most of the afternoon, She had a ready explanation for such of the charges and inferences as she did not repudiate. She stated with much emphasis that she had not withheld food from children, but, on the other hard, said it was one of her theories of child-rearing that the infants should be fed every half hour. She flatly denied the testimony al-leging she had stated that life upon Point Loma would evolve a state which would make the marriage relation unnecessary.

Miss Irene Willis, of Hannibal, Mo., was recalled to the stand when the trial was resumed today. She was not permitted to tell on direct examination anything concerning the illness of her sister at Point Eoms.

private dispatch was received from J. Marshall, president of the Portland club of the Pacific Coast League, last night, stating that he would not be able conclude his business in San Francisco before tonight, and that he will probably leave for home tomorrow morning. Mr. Marshall did not state the nature of the business that will detain him, but it is presumed to be in relation to the arrangement of the schedule. Outside of this dispatch, there was no news in the Pacific Coast League circles, except a sort of a general denial that Councilman Fred T. Merrill, who is now in the East, is in any way backing the Portland club of the Pacific Northwest League. A member of the Portland Pa-cific Coast League said that the Merrili backing had been reported and, while he could not report it as unauthorized, he could at least say that it was an "unheard-of rumor.

The Bible in Modern Discussion. MYRTLE POINT, Or., Jan. 1 -- (To the Editor.)-Dr. Cline's able and brave paper oncerning the Bible was well worthy a the Cincinnati ciub, that unless the National League committee was given full power to act, all negotiations would be broken off and no further action taken. It seems to the undersigned that the matter action taken in the Oregonian. A careful reading of the Poper can discern no aim to the Silvertown reached the point where the San Francisco end was buoyed. The sea was not rough, but the swell rolled the vessel considerably. Great care was give us no trouble. These manuscripts are older in age than the existing manuscripts of Greek and Latin authors. Notwithstandng human infirmity that has undoubtedly left its marks upon the copying of man-uscripts of the Bible, there has been powerful stimulus to copy with fidelity. Bi-ble manuscripts have been at many cen-ters of population, and have been watched by foes as well as friends of the Scrip-tures. There are at the present bour 1400 manuscripts of the Bible in the world, and no differences affecting doctrine are

> I take a recipe of ingredients to cure a disease, thinking not so much of how it has come to me as its effectiveness in re-moving a bodily ill. I do not know who wrote the Book of Job, but the reading of drama lifts my soul above its struggles and trials. I do not know who wrote the Book of Hebrews of the New Testament, but I catch in it a prescription for my sins that I have tried with success. This old and new book we call the Bible does not solve all problems, nor does it directly perform all tasks. The bread I eat does not earn my daily bread, but it gives me strength to groom, feed and harness my horses to pull the load and to work by their sides until night and rest have come. The Bible gives man strength to do a thousand things about which it is perfectly silent. Why does the Bible say so little about the heavenly world? Because men and women have imagination to make their own heavens, and the Bible fires the imagination to do this work. The Bible does not tell us how Jesus Christ looked when on the earth, that we may carve out our own Christs to be supplemented by any by in seeing him as he is. The Bible is a text-book in salvation, but it illumines nature, history,

Providence, and even art and science.

Mr. Editor, the trouble with man is in his own heart, and his disturbance is found in his own sins. There are as bad men out of prison as within its walls. Indeed, I have found Christians among the prisoners at the penitentiary of the State of Oregon, whom I have addressed. Many polished people in the outward pro-prieties of life have hearts full of subthe selfishness. The A and the Z of the Bible is Jesus Christ, and if nature is a revelation of God, it is not of a Redeemer If God reveals himself in modern indus-tries. He does put in them the Garden and Calvary. Are the persons who have thought that God becomes angry so far astray after all? A man who is not angered by wicked people and at them is of no worth as a progressive force. Anger sharpens our perceptions and gives emphasis to utterance. Are we better than Why should not God be angry with the wicked every day-not only with their actions, but with them, for actions are men? Cannot love thunder? Certainly, Yes, the theological professors are very busy in discussing the foundations of the Bible, but with equal authority with them as to what the Bible really is are the thousands of men and women whose names are not to ring through the records of time, but which are written in heaven; men and women they are who are living the Bible; in fine, they are Bibles them-selves. The Bible is a lamp. We do not look into a lamp, but we permit it to throw light upon the printed page or in the room in which we are. The Bible has come into our world, not to lie on our tables, but to come into our lives. Yes, to go out of itself into us, to fit us to the world in which we live, and when that is done, we may think of another world in

FOUGHT BY THE OCEAN

(Continued from First Page.) vessel had not proceeded a mile from the dock when the full force of a gale from behind the high hills struck her. The skipper at once decided not to go outside,

It was then determined to lay the shore end while the conditions were favorable on that side of the island. The Silvertown was taken in shore within half a mile of the coral reef, and preparations were made to haul a line ashore. The char-acter of the bottom, which is rock with a narrow opening through the coral reef, rendered great care necessary in placing the extremely heavy type of cable. Throughout the day crowds ashore watched the steam launches running in and out and awaited patiently the actua anding of the long-expected submarine telegraph. At a quarter to 5 in the even-ing, the end of the cable left the Silver-town's bow with balloon buoys attached at intervals of 50 feet. A half mile of heavy line was hauled ashore by steam power without hitch or halt.

One hour and five minutes from the ime the line left the Silvertown the cable end was hauled upon the shore of picturesque Sans Souci Park, amid the should of thousands and the crash of band music, rendering a cable march dedicated to President Mackay. Just as the cable touched the shore a heavy shower of rain fell upon the gally attired multitude, but danger of a wetting was ignored in the eagerness to catch a glimpse of the line that is to connect them with the rest of the world. There was no official cere ony at the time, further than the laying of a lein, or native wreath, upon the end of the cable by Mrs. Haws, who repeated the customary native greeting, "Aloha." The Silvertown remained at anchor holding the line until near noon Monday, Deember 29, when she moved out upon the ourse prescribed by the chart in paying seas were encountered, and the line was buoyed. A start was immediately mide for Molokai Channel to investigate whether or not the buoy had weathered the buffeting to which it had been subjected for nearly three days. The buoy was riding in safety, but the marked buoy, which had been dropped pear it on Friday. which had been dropped near it on Friday morning, December 26, had disappeared. The seas were running even higher than three days previous. The wind continued to blow half a gale from the northwest, and no boat necessary in the picking up of the buoy could have survived. An-other mark buoy was put down some dis-tance away, and the Silvertown returned to Honolulu and anchored off shore. It was agreed that no further work would be attempted until the wind abated and he sea calmed. sea showed signs of abating on Tuesday, December 30, but the big steamer made no move. Wednesday also passed in idieness, with very little wind, and for a time it was thought advisable to make an attempt to complete the work. It was finally decided, however, not to risk the chance of lifting the cable from the bottom of the sea in any except calm weather. It was reasoned that another day would see the end of the period of the northeast trades, the duration of the northeast trades, the duration of which surprised even the oldest residents of Honoluli On Thursday, the first day of the new year, scarcely a breeze stirred the waters of the harbor, and advice came to the ship from Diamond Head lighthouse that the channel was quite calm, with only a moderate swell running. A few minutes after 4 o'clock in the morning the Silvertown heaved anchor and made a start down the bay. Prospects of the cable connection on the first day of the new year created intense interest in the city. where the enthusiasm had been some-what dulled by the long delay. At daylight the Slivertown arrived

At daylight the Slivertown arrived off Koko Head, where the shore end had een buoyed since Monday. With little lifficulty the line from the bottom was spliced upon deck and passed over the stern sheaves and a start was made for the outer buoy. The cable was paid out at the rate of seven knots an hour. Shortly after 1 o'clock in the afternoon the Silvertown reached the point where ter of the existing Bible manuscripts need taken in handling her while taking up give us no trouble. These manuscripts are the buoy. It was finally accomplished at 3:44 o'clock without untoward incidents. The connection with the testing room was quickly made, and San Francisco responded promptly to the call. Congratulations and compliments of the season passed between the ship and the shore. Connection was then made, at 4:40, between the two lines and Honolulu by

There was joy on board the Silvertown when the extraordinary strain which had rested upon the entire staff for 19 days came to an end. Mr. Benest, the en gineer in charge of the expedition, ex-pressed much relief that the task had been completed without accident. proverbial luck of the Silvertown carried her safely through 2000 miles in as rough weather as ever cable was laid. Therefore, the celebration of New Year's on board the ship had a double significance and was doubly welcome. Four hours were spent in testing and allowing the recently laid line to acquire

Third to Associated Press. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.-The Silvertown, just before splicing the ends of the cable, some 30 miles off shore from Honolulu, telegraphed both ways for the land stations to wait till 11:10 o'clock, San

Operators sat anxiously and eagerly about the instruments in King street, at Honolulu, and in the cable office on Market street, in San Francisco, waiting for the time limit to expire. San Francisco was watching for Honolulu to signal first. A few moments after 11 o'clock, before the time limit was up, a signal went from this end to Honolulu. That first little response from Honolulu came into the San Francisco office at exactly 11:81 clock. It was then exactly 8:41 o'clock in Honolulu, the time difference being two hours and 22 minues and a few

When the message reached the White House President Roosevell was asleep, and the operator refused to awaken him. Right after the Dole signature on the first message came a second through from Honolulu. It was a greeting from the people of Hawaii to Clarence H. Mackay, president of the cable company, congrat-ulating him upon the completion of the cable and expressing sorrow that John W. Mackay had not survived to see the instantaneous bond between the islands and the American Continent. This message was signed by Henry E. Cooper, Secretary of the Territory of Hawali. Then came a message from the Assoctated Press correspondent on the Silver-town, telling of the successful laying of the cable and of the celebration of the event in Honolulu. The paper ribbon containing the record of the first experi-mental words between San Francisco and Honolulu was cut into little sections of a few phrases each and divided among the score of spectators who were as-sembled about the instruments when San Francisco and Honolulu first spoke to each other under the Pacific Ocean. The line was open for business today.

HAS KEPT ITS PROMISE.

Cable Company Will Lay Remaining Cable From Mantla.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.-Clarence Mackay, president; George G. Ward, vice president and general manager, and other officials of the Commercial Pacific Cable Company are greatly pleased at the completion of the company's cable between San Francisco and Hawaii, a work to which they have devoted energy and time during the last few months. They do not propose to stop at Hewaii, however, and now say that by July 4 they expect the cable will have been completed to Ma-nila. Speaking of the project, Mr. Ward

"The widespread interest created by bringing the Hawaiian Islands into electric touch with the Pacific Coast is evidenced by congratulatory telegrams re ceived today. It is a particular satisfaction to us to have the cable completed or the first day of the new year, because it fulfills our promise to Congress. "Rapid progress is being made in the manufacture of the sections to be laid had a sections to be tall between Honolulu and Manlia, and over 2500 miles of this cable has already been manufactured. I fully expect messages will be exchanged with Manlia by the Fourth of July next. The laying of the renaining sections will comm Manila the first week in May next."

KEPT BUSY FIRST DAY.

Cable Crowded With Congratulations-Hegins Business Monday. SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.-The new Paclific cable has been crowded with messages ever since the first flutter came over the wire from Honolulu, shortly after 11 o'clock New Year's night. Three different operators took turns at the San Francisco instrument for 19 consecutive hours to-day.

When the cable was given over to the outractors tonight to test its qualities and the instruments for four hours, no less than 1990 words had passed between San Francisco and Honolulu. Every syllable so far sent through the cable has been without pay. About 500 congratu-latory messages went through averaging le words to the message. At the regular rate of 50 cents a word, it would have meant $2500 for the company. These congratulatory messages were from the pub-lic officials of Hawaii and public bodies of the islands, from the different Governors of the Coast States, from various Cham-bers of Commerce and Boards of Trade of the Pacific Coast, from several large commercial houses and from prominent pri-vate individuals at both ends of the wire. Tomorrow and next day the cable will still be open for complimentary messages to pass. Monday morning the line will be regularly opened for pald messages at the rate of 50 cents a word for private persons and 20 cents a word for press messages.

HOAR'S ANTI-TRUST BILL

TO BE INTRODUCED IN SENATE NEXT WEEK.

It Provides for Complete Returns Penalty for Conducting Monopoly or Trying to Kill Competition.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2-Senator Hoar has completed, and today made public, the anti-trust bill, which he asked leave, before the Senate adjourned for the holidays, to introduce. The bill goes to the committee on judiciary, of which Senator

Hoar is chairman.

The first section of the measure declares that the act shall not repeal or limit anti-trust laws now on the statute books. Un-der section two the Attorney-General is authorized to employ any assistance which may be deemed necessary or desirable, to prosecute offenses under the act, or to make any investigation into the and for that purpose the sum of $500,000 is appropriated. Section three provides that from and after June 30, 1904, no corporation, joint stock company or other association, whose stockholders are not personally liable for their debts created by any state or territory, shall engage in commerce with for-eign nations or among the several states, or continue to carry on such commerce unless it shall comply with certain con-ditions enumerated in the bill. These conditions provide, among other things, that such corporation, company or association shall file a sworn statement in the office of the Interstate Commerce Commission on or before September 15, 1964, and In for the year ending with the 30th day of June, in said years, respectively, showing the amount of its capital stock and the market value of the same, how much of the same has been paid in full in cash; the names of the officers and directors and all agents entrusted with the management of its affaire; the amount it has paid in dividends during said periods; a statement of all stock owned by it of any other cor oration, etc., and the number and value of such in each case; the amount of its the value thereof, and the amount of stock in other corporations held in trust for it, or in which it has any interest; an undermanager and directors, that they will comply with the provisions of this and all other laws of the United States, in the management of the affairs of said corpo-rations, joint stock companies and other speciations, and that they accept the provisions and liabilities of this act and the obligations by it imposed so long as they shall continue to hold or exercise said offices or authority.

The Attorney-General of the United States may at any stime require of any corporation, joint stock company or other association engaged in interstate com-merce, any statement he may think fit in merce, any statement he may think fit in regard to the conduct of its business; and he may especially require any such cor-in South Bend. PORTLAND SPOKANE SEATTLE Men's Diseases

As medical science advances, the more apparent becomes the folly of employing harsh and dangerous measures in attempting to cure the ailments of men. Drastic dosing and useless cutting have done irreparable injury in thousands of cases. We cure all diseases of men promptly and permanently, and by painless methods that can not possibly produce undesirable results.

Our Treatment for "Weakness"

Functional derangement, such as premature loss of power, etc., is neither a "weakness" nor a disease. It is a symptom of prostatic" disorder. To stimulate activity by the use of powerful tonics is an easy matter, but such results are merely temporary drug effects. Most doctors treat "weakness" in this manner because they do not know how to cure the real cause of the derangement. We are the only physicians employing scientific and successful methods. Our principal treatment is a local one and corrects every abnormal condition of that vital center, "THE PROSTATE GLAND." Our cures are real cures.
