FORM OF THE BILLS

Two Required for Lewis and Clark Appropriation.

ONE TO PROVIDE THE MONEY

One to Authorize Special Election in Case Referendum Proceedings Shall Be Resorted To-Sent to Multnomah Delegation,

The bills to be introduced in the Oregon Legislature to make provision for the Levis and Clark celebration in 1996 were put in definite shape by the committee on legislation yesterday afternoon and sent to the Multinoman delegation in the evening. There are two bills, one to appropriate $500,000 for the Exposition, only half of which is to be made available in one year, and the other providing for a special election in case referendum proceedings shall be entered upon. As the law now stands, there is no authority for a special election for a referendum, and if a petition to refer should be filed, the matter would go over until a general election, which would make the appropriation too late to be of service. Under the bill the prepared by said company and approved by said company and said approved by said company and said approved by said company and said approved by said company approved by said company and said approved by said company and said approved by said company and said approved by said company approved by said company and said approved by said company and said approved by said company approved by said company approved b which would make the appropriation too late to be of service. Under the bill drawn, the referendum would be determined by next September. It does not seek to interfere with the referendum privilege, but merely to hasten proceedings under it.

Several alterations in the bill previously drawn were made, mostly on suggestion of Secretary of State Dunbar, whose advice in the matter had been asked. These pertained to such matters as taking the appropriation from the general fund instead of a special fund, as had at first been contemplated, separating more clearly the appropriation from the revenue-raising features and other more or less technical matters which relieve the measure of ambiguity.

Walla Walla, October 19 to 24. Lewiston, October 26 to 31. After the dates were selected the asso ciation went forward with other business such as reinstating the King County Fair Association, of Scattle, which transgressed on the dates of Vancouver last year, and ruling that there shall be no hobbles next year on the 2-year-old classes. Some dis-cussion was brought up as to the proper time for the closing of the stakes for the early-closing entries, some of the members favoring April 1 and others May 1. After the question was argued for a short time April 15 was agreed upon. It was decided that the annual fee of $10 should be paid on or before March 1, so as to give the association plenty of money on hand early in the season. The secretary, Robert Leighton, of Vancouver, B. C., was instructed to write to the various clubs and inform them that they should pay up their jockey licenses. Some of the clubs have as much as $35 on hand, and this should all be sent to the association.

La Grande and The Dalles were taken in as new members of the association given dates in the regular 1903 schedule. Several small but much-needed changes were made in the association constitution, and then the members settled down to the election of officers. There was very little competition, and the following results were announced all re-elected with the exception of Messrs. Splawn and Currie: President, W. H. Wehrung, Hillsboro, Vice-president, A. J. RHEUMATISM Tortures, Cripples and Deforms. OREGONIAN

Rhenmatism does not treat all alike. Some suffer torture from the very beginning, the attack being so sudden, sharp and disastrous that they are made helpless cripples in a few days, while others feel only occasional twitches of pain in the knees, ankles, elbows and wrists, or the muscles of the legs, arms, back or neck; but this treacherous disease is only traveling by slower stages.
