PACKERS PRICE WAR

Cutting Has Spread to This Year's Salmon Output.

RATES FOR FUTURES NAMED

Holders of Bulk of Stock of Cheap Grades Adhere to the Old Basis —Prunes and Hops Continue Firm.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—(Special.)—The fea-re in salmon is the announcement made e today, through the J. K. Armsby Company, opening prices by the Alaska Packers' As-iation on the 1903 pack, Alaska pink tails d chums. The basis fixed is 59 cents for ks and 37½c for chums, f. o. b. Coast in rloads. These prices are the same as the made on the 1902 pack Saturday. The ce on futures was received by the trade th the greatest surprise, but were given out late to add to the already unsettled mar- on cheap grades. The impression gains t the association's radical policy is aimed the discouragement of packing of cheap mon the coming season by outside venture. cut on 1902 pack has been met by rep-entatives here of Chicago interests, but the ific Selling Company adheres to the old is. It is believed that this company pos-ses the bulk of stock of cheap grades, and t the low basis on futures will force action. association agents here report light sales the 1902 pack at cut rates. Other salmon unchanged.

Prunes show continued firmness, but the de-nd is largely speculative in character. Some ort business was put through today in 40- on a basis of 6¼c for the three sizes in pound boxes. Jobbing values are unchanged. ew cheap lots of badly graded fruit offer at for 50s and 4¾c for 60s in 25-pound boxes. gon prunes continue firm and the demand is r.

Lima beans rule steady. Some off stock of- were made at a shading from $3 05 per shel.

Hops continue firm, with occasional small cels moved to brewers at full figures. There no pressure to sell. Foreign cables report ng markets.

STRONG SPOTS LACKING

TRADING ON NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE WITHOUT FEATURE.

Effort of Professionals to Force Down Prices—Demand for New York Public Utilities.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The opening activity in stocks today was on the selling side, and seemed to be due to operations by room traders, based on the weakness developed at the close yesterday, but supporting orders were encountered which put a stop to the efforts of professionals to force prices down, by which, in case of sale, they would have to borrow the stocks for delivery. On the other hand, the buying orders were placed on a scale downward for the most part, and the recovery came to a stop for lack of motive power.

A spurt in the stocks of New York public utilities helped the recovery, the decision of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court at Albany against the constitutionality of the New York franchise tax being the reason for the buying of these stocks. It had been clearly expected that the decision would be against the tax, and the effect had been discounted for two weeks past by buying on the confident assumption that the result would be as announced today. This movement, consequently, spent its force almost immediately. The market then fell back into a deeper rut of idleness than at any time since the first of the year. Yesterday's few strong spots were lacking.

Amalgamated Copper rose nearly a point at one time, on the ground of rather a vague confidence that conditions in the trade were greatly improved. Great Northern preferred suffered in common with Northern Securities on the curb from distrust of yesterday's rumor of a coming increase in the dividend rate.

There was much discussion of the action of the Secretary of the Treasury looking to the resubstitution of Government bonds for the state and municipal bonds accepted as security for Government deposits during the money stringency last Fall. Bankers were inclined to view it as a suggestion rather than as an order, and as designed to facilitate the contraction of currency, now that funds are flowing back to the reserve centers, just as his avowed purpose last Fall was to encourage expansion of bank note circulation while the demand for circulation was growing. The advance in prices of Government bonds was evidence of a purpose, in some quarters at least, to procure bonds from the open market in order to be able both to keep out note issues and to retain Government deposits. The prospect of gold exports was a continuing influence against speculation in stocks. The persistent apathy of the demand for stocks led to a late selling movement, as was the case yesterday, and the market closed weak and at the lowest in the midst of the largest activity of the day.

Bonds were dull and irregular. Total sales, $2,045,000. United States 2s, registered, the 3s, registered, and the old 4s, registered, advanced ⅛c, and the old 4s, coupon, and the 5s ¼ per cent on the last call.

Bullet Flies Rather Wild.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20.—Jay Lehmer, manager of the Dr. Scott Soap Company, is dead at the City Hospital. He was shot accidentally while alighting from a car at High and Franklin streets, but by whom it is not known. The police are looking for John McGillicuddy, a saloon-keeper, and four negroes who participated in a pistol duel at the place named when Lahmer was shot.

Claiborne Mosby, one of the negroes, is under arrest.

Later in the day McGillicuddy gave himself up and was held pending action by the Coroner's jury.

Robbers Hold Up Gambling Den.

TONOPAH, Nev., Jan. 20.—Two masked men entered a saloon and gambling place at an early hour this morning and held up the proprietor for about $300 and a diamond ring. Ten men were in the place, and, while one of the robbers was rifling the cash register, the other kept the visitors at bay at the muzzle of a revolver. While the robbery was in progress, George Cole, one of the proprietors, bolted for a rear door, but one of the robbers shot him before he could escape. Cole's wound is not serious. The robbers escaped.

FLUCTUATIONS IN THE CHICAGO GRAIN PIT YESTERDAY.

May Wheat, After a Decline, Advances Quarter of a Cent Above Monday's Closing Price.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—In the wheat market, as usual, the hand of the interest termed "the leading long" could be seen. May wheat opened ⅛@⅜c to ⅛@⅜c lower at 79 to 79⅛c, numerous small holders unloading under the influence of the unresponsive attitude of the Liverpool market to the strength on this side yesterday. Their offerings, however, were readily absorbed by the big operator mentioned, and in consequence May rallied early to 79⅜c. At this price the support previously given was withdrawn temporarily, and the leading long was reported to have unloaded 500,000 bushels of May on the upturn. With the added incentive of liberal receipts and weakness in Northwestern markets, the crowd quickly pressed the price down to 78⅜c. At this point support, influenced somewhat by reports of better exports and a decrease of 2,500,000 bushels in the world's visible supply, became more general, and a rally to 79⅝c ensued. The close was strong at the top at 79⅝c, ⅛@¼c over yesterday.

The corn market opened easier, but turned firm and fairly active on smaller receipts than expected, and the close was strong, ⅜c up at 44⅛c for May.

Oats opened easy. Later the buying movement became general, influenced by the wheat strength, and the close was ½@⅝c over yesterday for May at 36c.

Provisions were dull but firm on the advance in hogs and smaller receipts at the chief receiving points. May pork closed 27½c up, lard 15c up and ribs 20c better.

ATTEMPT TO BRIBE ALLEGED

Representative Lessler Says Submarine-Boat Man Offered Him Money.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—A sub-committee of the House committee on naval affairs is investigating the charge that Representative Lessler of North Carolina, one of the members of the naval committee, has been approached with a bribe of $5000 for his support of a proposition looking to an appropriation for additional submarine torpedo boats, with a view to ascertaining whether there is sufficient warrant for the committee to ask the House to order a regular investigation of the matter. The sensational charge was made by Mr. Lessler himself at a meeting of the naval affairs committee today. The question of the Holland torpedo-boats was taken up and Mr. Lessler, who was opposing the authorization of additional boats, told the committee that he had been approached with a bribe. His statement startled the committee, and several members, among them Mr. Butler, of Pennsylvania, and Mr. Roberts, of Massachusetts, immediately suggested that so serious a charge should be investigated at once. After some discussion, Mr. Wheeler, of Kentucky, offered a resolution, which was adopted, to appoint a sub-committee to investigate at once and to report to the full committee.

FUNERAL OF GONZALES.

South Carolina's Capital Pays Honor to Murdered Editor.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 20.—About 2000 people attended the funeral of Editor N. G. Gonzales at Trinity Episcopal Church this afternoon, packing the galleries, aisles and vestibules and every part of the building. With the exception of the funeral of General Wade Hampton in the same church last April, the assemblage was the largest and most representative ever seen in South Carolina in the last quarter of a century.

Governor Miles B. McSweeney, ex-Governor John C. Shepard, now presiding over the State Senate in the absence of the Lieutenant-Governor, most of the members of the General Assembly and state officers, and scores of leading men from very part of the state, were present. All business places in Columbia were closed during the funeral hours.
